Barnes May Manage Taft
[Special Dispatch to The Call]

WASHINGTON, July 5.—William Barnes Jr. of New York is being seriously considered for the management of the campaign for President Taft and chairman of the republican national committee.

This was disclosed here today in connection with the gossip over the meeting in Washington next Monday of the subcommittee of the national committee appointed at Chicago to take charge of the campaign. The subcommittee will meet Monday with President Taft. It would have met earlier had the president been here.

Secretary Hillis is being urged not to take the management. He is being told he can be of more service where he is. Barnes is a member of the subcommittee. The objection made to him is that he is known to have been a host to republicans, who regard him as a boss machine politician of evil type.

Against this it is being urged that a strong, forceful man is needed to carry on the battle.

Hadley Opposes Third Party
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 5.—"Whether there will be a third party organized in Missouri," said Governor Hadley on his return today, "I do not know. I know, however, there is no occasion for any such organization and the republican party in Missouri is a thoroughly progressive organization and will so continue."

"I have no intention of taking any part in the formation of a third party. I understand Colonel Roosevelt has supporters who believe in a electoral ticket on the ballot in the interest of his candidacy.

"While I expect to take no part in the preparation of such a ballot, it will be a subject for future consideration of those interested in the success of the republican party in Missouri and the principles which govern its action as to whether the names of the republican state and local candidates can be placed upon this ballot as well as upon the regular republican ticket."

RIDER IS KILLED WHEN
MOTORCYCLE GOES AMUCK

SALT LAKE CITY, July 5.—Going 50 miles an hour, a motorcycle flew the motordrome track at Wandamere last night, dashed its rider to death, broke off an electric light pole, throwing the park into darkness, and scattered among the spectators in the grandstand, injuring seven.

DEAD
Heavy G. Davis, aged 22, motorcyclist.

INJURED
Miss Elizabeth Shepherd, right arm broken.
Charles L. Rollins, traveling salesman, face cut and chest bruised.
Grace Cunningham, jaw broken and hand cut.
Miss Elizabeth Jensen, nose broken.
Miss Elva Jensen, nose broken.
Unidentified man, jaw broken and concussion of brain.

It was on the afternoon of the 23rd that Potter was killed three weeks ago that Davis met his fate. Like Potter, he was attempting to pass a competitor in a race when he lost control of his machine. It climbed the side of the saucer unguided. As it hit the pole Davis was hurled against the globe of the arc light, and the globe clattered after him and 20 feet down the top of the track and then rolled down the incline.

COMMERCE CHAMBERS
URGE ST. ELIAS BILL

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
WASHINGTON, July 5.—M. H. Robbins Jr., president, and C. W. Burkes, secretary, of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the Pacific coast have wired to Senator Perkins and other members of the national delegation that the San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, Oakland, Portland, Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle chambers of commerce, comprising the membership of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of the Pacific coast, earnestly request the senators to urge the addition of Senator Jones' amendment to the sundry civil bill, which provides an appropriation for the Cape St. Elias light and fog signal.

Senator Perkins, who introduced the bill for the Cape St. Elias signal and secured the passage in the senate, wired in reply that it was pending in the house and that he would try to get it adopted as amended. The bill is now being considered by the subcommittee, of which Senator Perkins is a member.

Shipping lines from the coast have been taking a great deal of interest in the bill.

BANDIT IS KILLED AS HE RIDES OFF WITH $800

MOUNT PLEASANT, Iowa, July 5.—The lone bandit who late today entered the Rome savings bank at Rome, shot Cashier F. W. Hileman and escaped with $800, was tonight shot and killed by a member of a party which had been scouring the country in motor cars for several hours in search of the robber.

The bandit, who was identified as Charles Clark, and who today entered the bank at 25 years of age, was overtaken several miles south of here. He was riding a horse and on seeing the approaching automobiles, turned in his saddle and opened fire. In an exchange of shots James O. Laughlin, a leader of the posse, was slightly wounded and the robber tumbled from his horse, shot through the heart. The stolen money was recovered.

TWO MEN SHOT IN QUARREL OVER ROOM

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
STOCKTON, July 5.—As a result of a quarrel over a room in the Lafayette lodging house here this morning, James Doyle, a bar tender, and Tora Tsurukichi, a Japanese, occupy cells at the emergency hospital, where they are being treated for bullet wounds inflicted by Paul Hamaguchi, who had previously rented the room.

PIE TIFTERS—WEEKLY SO
Colonel Holds Conference With Aids

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 5.—Several of Colonel Roosevelt's aids gathered at Sagamore Hill today for a conference, at which there was some mystery. The colonel was in the midst of a tennis game when a motor car whirled up from New York. Medill McCormick of Chicago, Senator Dixon of Montana and George W. Perkins and George L. Stoddard of New York climbed out. The tennis game ended abruptly and Colonel Roosevelt made his way to the house.

When asked in regard to the conference, the colonel was unusually reticent.

"I'd rather not say anything about it," he said.

The former president said his platform would be ready in a week or so.

which was unsolicited by him. Peterson said he begged to stay out of the case; that there were business men who could give better testimony than he.

"Didn't you tell Mr. Graham and me," asked McCoy, "that you were afraid on account of your business if you came to testify?"

"I told you it would affect my business, probably," said witness.

MAN OF COURAGE WANTED
"Didn't I tell you that it had come to my attention that a committee of the merchants and credit men's association had undertaken to give some evidence in this matter, and that a man named Golden had had an interview with them and that they had refused to go ahead with it?"

"Yes."

"And I told you that the lawyers of the inquiry had apparently afraid to go ahead and say anything?"

"You did."

"And I thought there ought to be some action in Seattle. If the facts were as rumored, who should have the courage to come forward to testify, and I urged you to do it on that ground, didn't I?"

"He didn't," made a statement for the record that he was not present when this conversation occurred.

INCrimINATION DESIRED
Chairman Graham requested the newspapers to print the committee's report, and having material evidence should present it, so that when the committee left Seattle it could not be said that an opportunity had not been given to the public.

Higgins protested against the issuance of this invitation. Chairman Graham deplored the public discussion of the committee, saying that discussion should be made in executive session. Counsel Hughes, for Judge Hanford, protested against McCoy's questions remaining in the record, saying that there was a reflection on the people of Seattle.

Graham, after referring to the difficulty of obtaining evidence, said that the committee had been misunderstood. The subcommittee had come to seek incriminating evidence, and if enough incriminating evidence were obtained, the committee would impeach Judge Hanford.

WITNESSES FOR JUDGE
Former Supreme Justice Theodore Stiles of Tacoma, J. B. Bridges of Tacoma, former president of the State Bar association, and S. M. Bruce, an attorney of Bellingham, testified strongly in favor of Judge Hanford, saying that they had never known him apparently intoxicated, and had never seen him inattentive in court, although his peculiarities might make persons who did not know him think he was asleep.

"WHITE SLAVERS" TO BE PROSECUTED FOR FELONY
Chief White Gives Up Vagrancy Charge Campaign

In the future men arrested as "white slavers" will not have one day vagrancy charges brought against them, according to a statement made yesterday by Chief White, the chief of the present in Judge Shortall's court yesterday morning when the cases of four men arrested Thursday came up. Judge Shortall ordered that the men could be prosecuted on under the vagrancy charge and suggested that steps be taken to obtain a ruling from the superior court in order to more severely punish those found guilty of "padding."

White asked Assistant District Attorney Flicker to see if the men could not be prosecuted for felony. New charges were sworn out against the four men in court yesterday morning, and Judge Shortall ordered them held in custody under $2,000 bonds.

The four were Yvon Boye, Gus Murat, Gaston Henry and Edienne Henry. As the chief of the police said, the men have occupations, but that they are unlawful.

JAPANESE HONOR CODE SAVES BANDIT'S LIFE
Hotel Proprietor Would Not Shoot Man in Back

But for the code of honor of the Japanese a lone robber might have paid the penalty of his crime with his life early yesterday morning, when he was caught in the lodging house of S. Nakabara, 70 South Park street. The robber, who was seen in the room of the lodging house and forced him to lead him to his room, where the bandit stole $35.

As the robber was fleeing from the place Nakabara saw him running with a revolver in his hand. Nakabara fired a shot at him as the thief ran toward the door, but the bullet went wild. As the robber fled down the stairs his back was toward him, and that it is against the code of honor of the Japanese to shoot a man in the back.

A few days ago two clerks lodged in Nakabara's hotel were robbed of $30 and two watches and chains.

Senator O'Gorman Looms Up as Future Leader of Empire

State Democracy

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
NEW YORK, July 5.—Senator O'Gorman will probably succeed Charles F. Murphy as leader of New York and may succeed as leader of Tammany. That the signal defeat of Murphy at Baltimore after the open defiance of William Jennings Bryan has weakened Murphy's hold on the organization is not to be denied.

There are democrats—Tammany men and anti-Tammany men as well—who look to see a real change in the leadership of the party in New York after the issue of going.

It is a question like this to decide I listen to all arguments and then argue it in my own mind. At present my mind is in the midst of the argument.

William G. McAdoo of New York, who has been mentioned as a possible choice of Governor Wilson for treasurer of the committee, has long confided in the governor during the forenoon. At its conclusion, the governor said that McAdoo's name had not been suggested to him in that connection.

McAdoo has had no choice at present. Later in the day Governor Wilson had a talk with Josephus Daniels and Robert S. Judson, national committee men from North Carolina and New Jersey, respectively.

Governor Wilson said he had asked Judge Grosscup, chairman of the democratic national committee, to invite former United States Senator James Smith Jr. and James R. Nugent to visit him next Monday with the other members of the New Jersey delegation to Baltimore.

Wilson a Generous Victor
WASHINGTON, July 5.—Democratic Leader Oscar W. Underwood of the house has received the following telegram from Governor Wilson:

Your message of congratulation has given me deep pleasure. It cheers me as much as it strengthens me to have the support of a man whose character and leadership in congress all the country respects. Please accept my assurances of warm personal regard—Woodrow Wilson.

Speaker Clark has received this message from Governor Wilson:

Your message of congratulation has given me deep pleasure and your generous offer to do all you can to aid in my election is characteristic of your readiness to undertake every task the party imposes upon you. Pray accept my warmest assurances of personal regard and of my confidence in the anticipation of working with you—Woodrow Wilson.

Foss Telegram Acknowledged
BOSTON, July 5.—Governor Foss today received the following telegram from Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey:

Your message of congratulation has given me deep pleasure and your generous offer to do all you can to aid in my election is characteristic of your readiness to undertake every task the party imposes upon you. Pray accept my warmest assurances of personal regard and of my confidence in the anticipation of working with you—Woodrow Wilson.

"MILITANTS" QUIT CLARK'S FRIENDS FOR NEW ALLIANCE

Bostonians Form Progressives and Red Bandanas, Divided on "T. R."

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
BOSTON, Mass., July 5.—The Militant Progressives of Massachusetts formed before the presidential primaries to aid Colonel Roosevelt, were formally dissolved today at a meeting held by some 18 to 20 members of the state committee in the Tremont building.

In place of this party will be formed an organization to be called the "Progressive Republicans of Massachusetts," which will be composed of those progressive republicans who refuse to join the Roosevelt "Red Bandanas" party, but who will continue their fight for progressive candidates and principles within the regular republican party.

The Roosevelt progressives, headed by Matthew Hale, who have now scratched the name "Republican" from their office doors and letterheads and have formed what is known as the "Red Bandanas" party.

At the meeting held by the Militants today a committee consisting of Charles S. Baxter, Charles Burrill and J. M. Perry was appointed to confer with Colonel Roosevelt and tell him bluntly that the majority of the republicans supported his candidacy before the convention in this state, refuse to follow him into a third party. Baxter and Burrill were among the eight Roosevelt delegates at large at Chicago.

At the meeting today it was suggested that this committee be instructed to advise the delegates to withdraw and refrain from forming a new party, but no vote on this subject was taken, although Burrill admitted that the suggestion of withdrawal may be mentioned to the colonel.

The same committee will also draw up plans for a permanent organization and progressive planks, for which the leaders of this party within a party will fight to have inserted in the next platform of the republican party.

When the "red bandanas" held their organization meeting in Fordham last Saturday, Secretary Russell A. Wood of the militants announced that his organization was heart and soul with the new party, the militants—that is the majority of them—took heated exception to the statement, and this was one reason for the funeral of their organization today.

TORPEDO MISTAKEN FOR CANDY; FACE BLOWN OFF

"EVEN BREAK"—GAMBLER
O'Leary Offers 4 to 1 Against Field

CHICAGO, July 5.—James O'Leary, gambling king of the stock yards district, who has "retired" from the game of chance on numerous occasions, only to bob up again suddenly, has sent out telegrams giving President Taft and Governor Wilson "an even break" in next November's election; at least, so he announced "prices" would indicate.

O'Leary makes known his figures as follows:
Against President Taft, even money.
Against Governor Wilson, even money.
Against the field, 4 to 1.

dependent upon so many persons about whose position I knew nothing.

"Never for a moment did I delude myself into believing that I could secure the nomination at Baltimore. I told the republicans that I could come nearer being nominated in Chicago than in Baltimore. That was my belief before I went to Chicago, and after the republicans had nominated Mr. Taft by means of Mr. Roosevelt, I was not surprised that I should be nominated with a new party. I felt that the only thing to do in Baltimore was to win the platform as progressive and nominate a candidate as progressive that Roosevelt would find no excuse for running."

"Clark had come out as Wilson ally," said Bryan referring to the temporary chairmanship fight. "If he had refused to allow his leaders to lead him into the position that he occupied, the result of this convention might have been very different."

"The 'home folks' were all at the station this morning when Bryan's train pulled out, and state officials, headed by Governor Aldrich, were on the reception committee, and most of the citizens were in the throng that lined the streets through which Bryan passed. Bryan was escorted to a local hotel, where he mounted the seat of his car and delivered a short address. Mrs. Bryan was with him, having joined him in the throng, and she was seen to be freely interspersed with those for the 'peerless leader.'"

WILSON LEAGUE REVIVES ITSELF

The Woodrow Wilson state league is to have a meeting at the Palace hotel this afternoon with the following interesting, inasmuch as it devolves on the California supporters of the schoolmaster to come out of the hiding places which they were driven by the Champ Clark democrats at the primary election, and extend the olive branch to the "hour dawg" enthusiasts, so that the state campaign may be organized in behalf of democracy.

A few weeks ago when the Wilson candidates for delegates to the convention at Baltimore were snouted under, the Clark boosters could not suppress their glee over the defeat of the organization with headquarters in the Pelian building. But now things are different. Every dog has his day, and the "hour dawg" has had his. Instead of being invited to assist in the election of a president, the Wilson league will now invite the Clark supporters to be assisting.

John O. Davis, president of the Wilson state league, is to call the meeting to order this afternoon, and it is very likely that suggestions will be numerous as to how the Clark democrats may get into the Wilson band wagon.

The Iroquois club of San Francisco, which holds the record for its percentage of delinquent members, has announced to the front with its pledge of support, to the following telegram having been forwarded to Wilson by Arthur H. Barstow, president of the club:

Your message of congratulation has given me deep pleasure and your generous offer to do all you can to aid in my election is characteristic of your readiness to undertake every task the party imposes upon you. Pray accept my warmest assurances of personal regard and of my confidence in the anticipation of working with you—Woodrow Wilson.

Osborn of Michigan would quickly make known their attitude toward the new party when they find out just where the party and its candidates will stand.

SENATOR BRISTOW PREDICTS WILSON
Race in November Will Be Between Governor and Roosevelt, Says Kansan

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
WASHINGTON, July 5.—Theodore Roosevelt's presidential party is not likely to make much headway, according to a formal statement issued today by Senator Bristow of Kansas, one of the staunchest supporters of the colonel has had.

The statement of Senator Bristow was like a bomb thrown into the Roosevelt camp. Bristow, like Cummins, has always allied himself with the insurgents. He has always been a warm admirer of Roosevelt, but he announced today that the third party movement would not be successful.

"Governor Wilson," said Bristow, "will be elected. I do not think Taft will carry a single state. Roosevelt may carry such states as California, Kansas, Minnesota, the Dakotas and Nebraska, but Wilson will probably sweep the country. I have heard talk that there might be an agreement among republicans whereby both Taft and Roosevelt would withdraw and a third man be named, but I believe there to be not the slightest foundation for it. The demand for such an agreement was while the Chicago convention was in progress, but the Taft leaders were afraid of a third man. I have heard that they showed any weakness there would be a stampede to Roosevelt. And Taft could not be expected to withdraw.

"The fight will be between Wilson and Roosevelt, and the former, backed by a united party, will be elected."

MADISON, Wis., July 5.—United States Senator La Follette, in a printed statement today, asks Colonel Roosevelt for the second time to publish his expense account, or else "a candid statement of his reasons for thus spurning one of the basic principles of public morality and political decency."

When La Follette made public a statement of his campaign receipts during the Ohio primary contest, he called upon Roosevelt to do likewise. There has been no response. La Follette says in part:

"Big business, with big money derived from unfair privileges, is ever in the hunt for a third man. Colonel Roosevelt funds back of a likely winner, who either is subservient in the sense that a chisel is subservient to the hand of the carpenter, or servicable in the extent that he is 'harmless' in performance."

PRESIDENTIAL TAFT
WILL BE NOTIFIED
ABOUT AUGUST 1

Committee Bearing Formal Announcement to Be Received in Washington

Chief Executive Announces That MacVeagh-Andrew Incident Has Been Closed

BEVERLY, Mass., July 5.—President Taft will receive the formal notification that he is the nominee of the republican party for president in the White House in Washington about August 1.

The president told his visitors in Parametta today that he had talked with Senator Root of New York, permanent chairman of the republican national convention, and that they had decided that the notification should take place in Washington.

The president believes Washington is the most convenient place for the committee to wait upon him and he desires to entertain the members at the White House.

It is probable Mrs. Taft and the Taft children will leave their summer home here for a few days to attend the notification ceremonies.

The president has planned a reception for early next week to the subcommittee of the republican national committee which is to meet him to go over the situation and hear his suggestion for a chairman of the national committee.

Several hundred invitations have been sent out also to prominent republicans of the country, and it is expected that there will be a disposition to get together and plan the fall campaign. The president has not changed his mind as to a chairman of the national committee, and it is said that his secretary, C. D. Hillis, probably will be selected.

President Taft explained to callers today that as far as he was concerned the row between Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh and A. Platt Andrews, the assistant secretary, who resigned, was a closed incident. He has no intention of discussing in detail at cabinet meetings next week the charges made by Andrews.

The president was said today to have taken the position that Andrews clearly disobeyed orders by going to Chicago to attend the republican convention after he had been informed by MacVeagh that the two other assistant secretaries and MacVeagh himself would be away from Washington.
