

REBELS
AMERICANS IN MEXICO TO FLEE

Join in Revolt or Quit Country
Is Choice Given "Gringos"
by the Rebels

Women and Children and Many Men Depart on Special
Train

EL PASO, Tex., July 28.—Americans in northern Mexico have been officially notified by rebel commanders to give up their arms and leave the country. An only alternative is to join the rebel ranks and fight against the constitutional government of the republic.

Refugees from the Mormon colonies in Chihuahua are flocking to the border. The first group of nearly 1,000 men, women and children is due to arrive here by special train late tonight or early in the morning.

According to advices received here, rebels armed with an order from General Tuez Salazar, commander at Casas Grandes, and vested with authority from General Orozco, commander in chief of the rebels, visited the homes of the Mormons in Colonia Dublan Saturday, and confiscated 300 rifles and much ammunition. This also was done at Colonia Juarez, a neighboring settlement. The colonists were told to give up their arms and leave Mexico or join the rebel army. It was reported that stores were looted in Nueva Casas Grandes and a Chinese killed when he refused the rebels the right to enter his store. The American population of Colonia Juarez and Dublan is more than 1,500, and all women and children and many men are leaving on a special train made up in the Mexican Northwestern railway.

It is said the rebels next plan to raid Madera, where the wood working mills of the Pearson corporation are located, and this may bring trouble, as American lumberjacks employed there are expected to fight. It is known that the Americans there are fortified with light artillery, machine rifles and automatic arms, with a high barbed wire fence, built for protective purposes, surrounding a barricade.

Pearson, who is also a lumber center, contains many Americans as well.

SOBOLSKY'S STORM POLICE STATION TO AID PRISONER

Chicago Patrolmen Battle an Hour With 3,000 Assaults

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
CHICAGO, July 28.—In an attempt to rescue a prisoner from the hands of 3,000 socialist last night stormed the South Clark street police station and for more than an hour battered the building and beat the reserve policemen sent to drive them back.

The prisoner, Tony Mastranda, was arrested in the saloon in which he is employed on charges of beating another man's life. Policeman Cleary was taking him to the police station when Mastranda, an avowed socialist, saw a crowd of about 150 persons gathering. He called for help and the friends, recognizing him, immediately attacked Cleary.

Civilians came to the policeman's rescue, but were badly beaten before being able to aid the policeman in getting Mastranda into the station. Rifles, arms, themselves with sticks, joined the fight and stones and bricks were hurled through the station windows. Three squads of reserves were necessary to disperse the crowd.

DARROW TO TAKE STAND
IN OWN DEFENSE TODAY

Juror Leavitt Again Ill; to Go
Under Knife at Trial's End

LOS ANGELES, July 28.—The bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow will enter its final stages tomorrow, and it is probable he will occupy that place for at least three days. His examination will be conducted by Assistant District Attorney W. J. Ford, and it is understood that Leavitt, who has been ill for several days, will be discharged from further service, according to present indications.

Clarence S. Darrow, the defendant, will be the next and last witness placed on the stand by the defense, and it is probable he will occupy that place for at least three days. His examination will be conducted by Assistant District Attorney W. J. Ford, and it is understood that Leavitt, who has been ill for several days, will be discharged from further service, according to present indications.

RETIRED STOCK RAISER
MISSING IN SAN JOSE

Disappears While Touring With Family in Automobile

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
SAN JOSE, July 28.—The San Jose police are mystified over the sudden disappearance of Charles Trask, an elderly stock raiser of Ashland, Ore., who dropped from sight a few moments after reaching this city tonight.

Trask, who, with his family, has been traveling from Ashland to the southern part of the state in a large touring car, crossed the street shortly before 6 o'clock to make a purchase at a bakery while his son, Avery, a boy of 15 years, entered an Esso Santa Clara street garage to get a new supply of gasoline.

Upon the elder Trask's failure to return a search was started, and after fruitless efforts to locate him, his wife and son notified the police. The city was scoured tonight, but no trace of the man could be found.

E. WHITEHOUSE SAYS
"MY WORD" ON LANDING

Ambassador Reid's Daughter
Returns With Some Relatives

Beated Japanese Commissioner at Asoria Sends Flagpole For Exposition Site

Geochi Takeda, the third imperial Japanese commissioner to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, who arrived here yesterday.

Reaches City on Siberia and is Cordially Received by the Fair Officials

Thousands of visitors to the exposition site at Harbor View yesterday showed a deep interest in the mammoth flagpole which has just arrived from the north. It is the gift of the citizens of Asoria to the exposition company, and later a beautiful flag will be sent to accompany the pole.

The pole originally was intended for the Asoria centennial exposition, but was sent to accompany the pole.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Giant flagpole from which "Old Glory" will float over exposition grounds.

Mammoth Staff of Perfect Fir Is 246 Feet
Long and Weighs 93,000 Pounds

Thousands of visitors to the exposition site at Harbor View yesterday showed a deep interest in the mammoth flagpole which has just arrived from the north. It is the gift of the citizens of Asoria to the exposition company, and later a beautiful flag will be sent to accompany the pole.

The pole originally was intended for the Asoria centennial exposition, but was sent to accompany the pole.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

Takeda is the third member of the imperial Japanese commission to the Panama-Pacific international exposition, arrived here yesterday on the Siberia. Takeda missed the Shinryo Maru, on which the other members of the commission crossed the Pacific, and he also, by coming late and arriving on Sunday, missed the brilliant reception that was accorded to Commissioner Haruki Yamawaki and Yoshikatsu Katayama. What was lacking in military splendor, however, was made up in cordiality. A committee of exposition officials met the commissioner, who was also greeted by Consul General Matsura Nagai and Commissioners Yamawaki and Katayama.

Takeda is professor of architecture in the higher industrial school of Kyoto. This is his second visit to the United States. He speaks English fluently and was greatly interested in an account of the reception accorded to his brother commissioner.

Takeda will be the guest of the exposition officials at the Fairmont, where he will be staying until August 6, the day appointed for the selection by them of the site for the Japanese exhibit.

RELEASED FROM MOUNT OLIVET

A department of foreign trade for the assistance of foreign merchants and the dissemination of information regarding the advantages of the port of San Francisco, will be established by the Chamber of Commerce as the result of a resolution reached recently by the board of directors of the chamber.

This new department, organized to give assistance in increasing the importance of San Francisco as an export center, will be under the direction of the foreign trade committee of the chamber, of which Captain Robert Dollar is chairman and John H. Rosseter vice chairman. Other members of the committee are James O. Hill, Albert E. Castle, W. H. Hammer, C. H. McCormick and E. O. McCormick. C. W. Marks will continue as secretary.

Officers will be assigned to the thirteenth floor of the Merchants exchange. Much of the work of the department will be connected with publicity, but it will also include the collection of information regarding the needs of individuals and firms interested in the export trade information of interest and value, which will be made available in the form of confidential bulletins.

The patriotic response of the liberal party to the call for support for the ministry tremendous support. It has without doubt doubled the probable life of the party and doomed the unionists to remain in the cold air of opposition for a good while to come.

BIRTHS, MARRIAGES, DEATHS

BIRTHS
ROSE—In this city, July 28, 1912, to the wife of Joseph F. Rose, a daughter.

DEATHS
AMANN, Francis H., 25 McLean, William H. 68
Amundson, August, 48 Mann, John G. 60
Bates, Charles H. 34 Marshall, Edwin 92
Bixby, Sarah E. 81 Miller, Charles 81
Cottrell, Roger C. 41 Noakes, (Miss) 87
Dartling, William E. 44 O'Rourke, Maria 70
Eaton, Charles A. 18 Schwab, August 68
Gibbal, Louis 50 Welch, William J. 43
Judson, John 28 Westley, Lottie E. 43
Kress, Jennie 28 Jansen, (Mrs.) (Card)
McLane, Elizabeth 43

MARRIAGES
AMANN—In Pasadena, Cal., July 26, 1912, Francis Helen, beloved daughter of W. E. and K. E. Amann, of Seattle, Wash., and Gladys Amann of Oakland, Cal., a native of Minnesota, were united in holy matrimony today. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services today (Monday), July 29, 1912, at 3 o'clock p. m., at St. Paul's Episcopal church, corner of Grant and Webster streets, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery.

ANDERSON—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Andrew J. Anderson, 48 years old, a native of Sweden, aged 48 years. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services today (Monday), July 29, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the family residence, 3528 Franklin street, San Mateo county.

AVERTILL—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Bettie Kelly, beloved wife of late Elmo Avertill, and sister of Mrs. C. E. Brown, a native of Ohio, aged 78 years and 10 months. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services today (Monday), July 29, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the residence of her mother in law, Mrs. J. M. Bixby, 1000 Broadway, Oakland. Interment Mount Olivet cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Charles H. Baldwin, beloved husband of Grace Bates, and devoted father of Harold and Alfred Bates, and brother of William and George Bates and Mrs. M. H. Bixby, a native of Ohio, aged 34 years. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend the funeral services today (Monday), July 29, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the residence of his mother in law, Mrs. J. M. Bixby, 1000 Broadway, Oakland. Interment Mount Olivet cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

BALDWIN—In Oakland, July 28, 1912, Maria Ernesta Baldwin, beloved wife of late Ernest A. Baldwin, 1935 Webster street between Nineteenth and Twentieth, Oakland. Interment Mountain View cemetery by carriage.

LIBERAL PARTY'S
PROMISES RECAPITULATED

[Special Cable to The Call]
LONDON, July 28.—There is a lesson for the democrats of the American house of representatives in the attitude of the liberal government in England on the battleship question.

The British people and those of Scotland and Wales have become wildly excited following the speech of Winston Churchill, demanding that parliament shall meet with courage and generous liberality the demands of the navy as a protection against menaces by Germany or any other foreign power.

The liberal government, by labor support, is standing loyally behind Churchill. The economists have been temporarily silenced. A sum of more than $25,000,000 is ready for the treasury and the strengthening of the navy, and more will be added if it is needed.

The patriotic response of the liberal party to the call for support for the ministry tremendous support. It has without doubt doubled the probable life of the party and doomed the unionists to remain in the cold air of opposition for a good while to come.

MEETINGS—LODGES

CALIFORNIA Lodge No. 1, F. & A. M.—Officers and members are hereby notified to meet for the purpose of electing the remains of our deceased brother, WILLIAM HENRY BROWN, a member of Valley Lodge No. 51, F. & A. M., Portland, Ore., from our lodges, 2135 Sutter street at 10 o'clock, Monday, July 29, 1912. Master Masons and friends invited to attend. Interventory services at 11 o'clock. EDWARD H. HARMON, Secretary.

MILL VALLEY Lodge No. 356, F. & A. M.—A special meeting will be held at the hall of the lodge MONDAY, July 29, at 8 p. m. Second degree by the order of the W. M. H. HELMERS, Secretary.

RICHMOND Lodge No. 374, F. & A. M.—Inv. and Clerical at 7:30 (MONDAY) EVENING at 7:30 o'clock, third degree. H. FOURNESS, Sec.

MEETINGS—LEGAL

ANNUAL MEETING—The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the PACIFIC CONSOLIDATED RAILROAD COMPANY will be held at the office of the company, 1200 California street, San Francisco, Cal., on Monday, July 29, 1912, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors to serve for the ensuing year and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. Transfer books will be closed on Friday, July 19, 1912, at 11 a. m. Dated San Francisco, July 14, 1912. W. H. HANNAN, Secretary.

LOST AND FOUND

IF YOU LOSE ANYTHING—Advertise in this column. It will be returned to you if an honest person finds it. Remuneration recovered as soon as possible. Send your ad through this column. IF YOU FIND ANYTHING BRING IT TO THE EDITOR.

San Francisco Call
Bureau
Third and Market Streets
Get a claim check. Have it advertised. Reclaim if the owner does not.

THE LAWYER—Those who find lost articles are interested in knowing that the state law in strict in requiring them to be returned to the owner. If you find anything, please return it to the office of the editor, and that failure to do so, if proved can be shown, involves a severe penalty.

LOST—Long haired yellow Chinese spitz, black tongue and mouth, bushy tail; had on black harness with collar, collar with name, HAZARD, KEYSTONE APT. HOUSE, Hyde and Washington sts.