

BUCKS OUT OF BUTCHER'S CLEAVER

Once a Nap, But Now a Beaver, Hank's a Bear as a Score Retriever

OH, YOU HANK!

When Butcher strode up to the bat the pitcher's heart went pit-a-pat. Hank swung on the pill; Pernoll's heart stood still; 'Twas a homer: Four runs—think of that!

By JOE MURPHY

Hank Butcher, late of the Cleveland Naps, made his debut before local fans yesterday afternoon in the role of a gardener for the Beavers. His initial appearance was very impressive from a spectacular viewpoint, but the transbay fans might have seen it from another light. It was his mighty swing in the third inning that practically clinched the game for the Beavers, as he hammered one of Pernoll's crossfire shots for a round the circuit trip, and three other Beavers trotted home ahead of him.

Very good day's work for any individual. It put the Oaks in the nine hole during the remaining innings of the game, and they were never able to get out of it. A flash in the ninth inning gave the transbay supporters some hope, but a fast double ended the game while a couple of Oaks were waiting on the paths for assistance.

The Beavers were lucky to get their runs in one inning, as they were rather helpless during the remaining chapters. The Oaks easily out-hit them, but were unable to convert their singles into runs. In the final frame they had only one hit, a double by Christian took up the burden and finished the game. The Beavers managed to get a run in the ninth frame.

Pernoll took his place on the hill at the outset, while Higginbotham was in the box for the opposition. Both worked along nicely until the third, when the naps met with trouble. He worried along for seven innings, when he was taken out to allow Coy to bat for him. Christian took up the burden and finished the game. The Beavers managed to get a run in the ninth frame.

The Oaks seemed to hit Higginbotham hard at times, but he was given bang support and his near base hits were killed off by fast fielding. The Oaks managed to get a run in the seventh frame and took a lead of two runs. Higginbotham was taken out to allow Coy to bat for him. Christian took up the burden and finished the game. The Beavers managed to get a run in the ninth frame.

Pernoll's brace to late in the ninth frame, but the damage had been done and the Oaks seemed to be up against it trying to score. The Beavers managed to get a run in the seventh frame and took a lead of two runs. Higginbotham was taken out to allow Coy to bat for him. Christian took up the burden and finished the game. The Beavers managed to get a run in the ninth frame.

Cook managed to rap out a home run in the ninth frame, but it was too late. His hit came at the wrong time. If it had happened later on in the evening the Oaks might have won. Higginbotham to the queen's taste in the ninth frame, but just when a bingle was needed Sharp's men failed to deliver.

CAKES TAMES THE TERRIBLE TIGERS

Seals Bark in Flenish Glee as Humbled Meneaters Slink Back to Their Lair

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

LOS ANGELES, July 30.—The alleged Vernon Tigers returned today from a conquest of the north and were taken into camp by the Seals in the easiest possible manner. To Henry the easiest was the great share of credit for the victory, for he pitched handsome ball through the entire nine innings, allowing only six hits. As these six were scattered around, they did the minimum amount of damage.

Stewart pitched for Vernon, and was touched up for eleven hits. Mundorf, Mohler, Corhan and Howard took two each for their share, and Berry, Hartley and Wuffi each took one, the completed result being a score of 6 to 2 in favor of Reidy's men. The game was an errorless exhibition on the part of the visitors, but the Hogsites made two juggles that put an amateurish flavor into their performance.

In the fourth, Howard went out, Corhan to Howard, and Bradshaw who followed, put one over the left field fence. Hap's gang played on the defensive for the rest of the afternoon.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., July 30.—In what was scheduled for a 20 round bout here tonight between Phil Knight of Kansas City and Stanley (Kid) Youakum of Dallas, Tex., the contest ended abruptly at the ninth round when Youakum knocked Knight through the ropes. This caused the ring to collapse, and Knight had to be carried to the hospital. Youakum had all the better up to that time. Before the bout began Captain Dave Roller called the bout a draw.

ANGELI INFIELDERS BOW AND KOW-TOW OVER BALL; RESULT IS DISASTROUS

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

SACRAMENTO, July 30.—When three infielders get tangled up over a play at first base while a runner is shooting from third to home it is apt to prove disastrous at any stage of the game, and when said confusion occurs in the eleventh inning with two down and the score tied it is a calamity. That is what happened in the extra inning affair between the Senators and Angels this afternoon, and thereupon hangs the story of Sacramento's 5 to 4 victory.

In the eleventh inning, with two statements cared for by the Angels, Corhan and Howard took two each for their share, and Berry, Hartley and Wuffi each took one, the completed result being a score of 6 to 2 in favor of Reidy's men. The game was an errorless exhibition on the part of the visitors, but the Hogsites made two juggles that put an amateurish flavor into their performance.

BIG LEAGUE STAR OF OLD DAYS IN A PITIFUL CONDITION

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

CHICAGO, July 30.—Danny Green, one time famous outfielder of the Chicago National League team, is dying in the Cook county infirmary of consumption. The player is in the last stages of the disease, and is expected to die in only a few days. He is now barely able to move around in his room.

Green was at one time one of the best known players in the country, and was one of the best hitters in the game. His right name is Eddie Hall and he is a native of Camden, N. J. He was discovered as a baseball star by Jack Egan, the present American league umpire. Egan found Green on the sand lots of Camden and took him to California where Egan was manager of the team in the Cumberland Valley league. Egan was then an outfielder for the team, and it was he who made his peace with organized baseball and signed with Providence in the old Eastern league. He later played for the Pittsburgh team, then manager of the Providence team, to sign Green, but Green declined and Egan headed the youngster with Tom Burns at Springfield. This was in 1894.

In 1898 Burns sold Green to the Chicago team, and he played for the Cubs until he was signed by the White Sox in 1901. He was with the White Sox until 1904, when his health began to fail. Since that time he has played for a number of teams, including Chicago, his last contract being two years ago with Jimmy Callahan's Logan Square team. He is reported now to be in a pitiful condition. It is thought that the local players will be called upon to take care of him in his last days.

Gardner of Boston in a hard five set match. The match between McLoughlin and Bundy and Hayes and Winston is expected to determine who shall meet Raymond D. Little and Gustav Toucheat at Newport on August 1.

The southern half of their opponents were for four games and thereafter the result was in doubt. Smith and Thornton played finely, but against the brilliant team work of the Pacific coast players they could do nothing. They succumbed in straight sets, 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.

In the second heat Thomas rode away in front as winner by 20 feet in 2:51 2/5. The third and deciding heat was a nip and tuck ride. Albright carried the crowd by a margin of a hair that brought him to the front for a lap in the last mile. Thomas crept up on the outside after they started on the last lap, and beat the Denverite in 2:50 1/5.

Wray was declared the winner of the mile handicap, beating Merrier and Fleckenstein and King in 3:53 2/5. Merrier and King in 3:53 2/5.

Moran Peved at Vernon Decision. [Special Dispatch to The Call] NEW YORK, July 30.—Owen Moran, who is just back from Los Angeles, Cal., returned sore at the ring people out yonder. He says he received a raw deal from the referee, who disqualified him at the fouling track White of Chicago, in the Vernon bout. "I had all the best of White and a trifle less position. The Americans who are not satisfied with the behavior of their referees, have decided not to compete in the international team match tomorrow."
