

Number of Sports Items in Yesterday's
 Call 104
 Chronicle 91
 Examiner 85

THE CALL

CALIFORNIA
 STATE LIBRARY

THE WEATHER
 YESTERDAY—Highest temperature, 66;
 lowest Sunday night, 52.
FORECAST FOR TODAY—Fair, with fog at night; brisk west winds.
 For Details of the Weather See Page 14

VOLUME CXII.—NO. 74.

SAN FRANCISCO, TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1912.

PRICE FIVE CENTS.

JOHNSON TELLS HIS STORY AS A "CRUSADER"

Governor Informs Bull Moosers That He Addresses Them Not as Candidate

C. S. Wheeler Likens Campaign to Movement Started by Peter the Hermit

Six Thousand Welcome State Executive and Others of "New Dispensation"

PRESENTING themselves as members of the "progressive" party, never as "republicans," but as persons of a new dispensation, Governor Hiram Johnson and several of his fellow delegates to the convention which nominated Theodore Roosevelt for president and Johnson for vice president on the "bull moose" ticket appeared at Dreamland pavilion last evening to a capacity house. It was a reception given by his partisans to Johnson on his return from the second trip to Chicago and the third party gathering. He had a friendly house of men and women, many of whom were decorated with 10 cent bandanas to prove their fealty to progressiveness in politics—and reactionarism in pocket handkerchiefs.

There was no bull moose head included in the decorations of the pavilion, the huge place being generously hung in American flags.

Attacks Newspapers

Johnson spoke for 32 minutes and touched on the campaign that is to be made, told something of the spirit of the Chicago convention—of both the Chicago conventions as he experienced them—attacked indirectly the newspapers that have opposed him and his colonel, and declared that the success of the progressive principles was the only thing that would save the nation from a bloody revolution.

Chester H. Rowell of Fresno made the most personal speech of the evening when he predicted that Johnson would be candidate for president four years from now, and to prove that he is somewhat of a prophet, he recited a prophecy he made two years ago when he predicted that Johnson would be elected governor of the state and in 1912 would become a candidate for the vice presidency.

All the "progressives" in the employ of the state were there—Railroad Commissioners Eshleman and Alex Gordon, Harbor Commissioner Williams, Jack Neylan, member of the state board of control; Secretary Charles Dietrich of the state board of harbor commissioners, Assemblyman "Jimmy" Ryan and many others. Progressive Tom Finn might have been in the house, but he wasn't conspicuous. Walter S. Scott, a candidate for the assembly, was "yell leader" and aided the band and the orators in keeping up enthusiasm.

Six Thousand There

In Dreamland Pavilion were about 6,000 people, men and women about evenly divided, and an overflow meeting was held in the National theater in the same block, and was addressed by several of the speakers from the main hall.

John W. Stinson of Alameda, president of the Lincoln-Roosevelt league of California, under the auspices of which the rally was held, presided. The speakers were Meyer Lissner of Los Angeles, chairman of the republican state central committee, a party and a committee with which Lissner avowed no affiliation; former Governor George C. Pardee of Oakland; Charles S. Wheeler, the San Francisco attorney and delegate to one and near delegate to another Chicago convention; Mrs. Elizabeth Gerberding, Chester H. Rowell, editor of the Fresno Republican, and Governor Johnson.

Johnson as Crusader

Johnson, in opening his address, declared that he did not appear as a candidate, but as a crusader, a figure used earlier in the evening by Wheeler, who based a Rooseveltian metaphor on the sudden movement started by Peter the Hermit. The governor was epigrammatic, forceful, argumentative and prophetic. He declared that today the

Continued on Page 5, Column 1

Park Holdup Man Finds Love God Is Profitable Partner

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

PORTLAND, Aug. 12.—Cooing sweethearts in the city parks were victims of a lone masked highwayman last night. One of the swains was S. A. Petersen, for whom the experience has ceased to be a novelty. A few months ago Petersen was shot through the hand when he resisted a holdup man in San Francisco.

Last night Petersen, in company with Miss Sadie Wilson, was overtaken at Fourteenth and Quimby streets by a highwayman shortly before midnight.

"Hands up," ordered the man. Petersen turned and hesitated about obeying, when the man swore and said: "Hurry up. I don't want to have to tell you again."

Petersen obeyed and the robber deftly went through Petersen's pockets, taking $15, but molesting none of the jewelry worn by Petersen or Miss Wilson.

R. W. Piper, sitting with a maiden in Washington park, also lost $3.75 to a robber who worked in the glare of an arc light.

Aged Swain Seeks Marriage License; Gets Hunting Card

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 12.—Henry Drake, 49, and Nellie Johnson, 15, appeared at the county clerk's office today and applied for a marriage license. When the clerk informed Drake that he could not issue a marriage license for a girl of such tender years, Drake took the setback like a philosopher.

"If I can't get married I might as well spend the time I had set aside for a honeymoon on a vacation," he informed the clerk. "If you can't give me a marriage license, give me a hunting license."

With a hunting license in his pocket, Drake turned to Miss Johnson and said:

"This hunting license will keep me occupied until November. Then you'll be 16 and we will come back here and get a marriage license."

The girl consented and they left the clerk's office arm in arm.

SEATTLE WOMAN KILLED IN MOUNT RAINIER FALL

Teacher Plunges 500 Feet From Pinnacle Peak

TACOMA, Aug. 12.—Long distance telephone message from Longmire Springs on Mount Rainier, tonight, states that Miss Helen Hunt, a school teacher of Seattle, fell 500 feet from Pinnacle peak to her death this morning.

Miss Hunt was a member of the Tacoma Y. M. C. A. party that left here Tuesday to spend 10 days in mountain climbing. Sixteen of the party made the climb this morning. The accident happened just after the descent had begun. The other women in the party, unnerved by the accident, were let down with ropes.

The body of Miss Hunt, every bone in which is declared to have been broken, was brought to Tacoma tonight in an automobile. Her home is said to have been in Tama, Ia.

GIRL, AGED 11, IS HELD FOR THIRTY-FIVE FIRES

Young Nursemaid Admits to Police She Is Firebug

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 12.—Her eyes red from crying, Edna James, an 11 year old nurse girl, admitted today she had started three fires in Springfield. She refused to give any reason for her act.

Thirty-five fires occurred here Saturday in various houses. A guard was placed at the house where Edna worked and no more blazes occurred. Her arrest followed.

"Did you start the fires?" she was asked.

"Just three," the girl replied.

The police believe Edna started them all.

Bridge Blown Up by Raiding Party Two Dozen Reds Captured by Ruse

NOONDAY MEAL WITH THE MEDICAL CORPS OF THE BLUES.

ADVANCE GUARD OF RED ARMY IN CAMP AT EL TORO RANCH

Several Officers in Salinas on Leave of Absence Are Among Those Taken in Trap

By OLIVER W. TUTTLE

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

EL TORO RANCH (Red base), Aug. 12.—Fully two dozen Reds who were on leave of absence for the evening were caught in a neat trap in Salinas tonight by a raiding party from the Blue outposts and made prisoners. The raiders were regulars from the retreating Blue column and were commanded by Captain A. C. Wright, Twelfth infantry. Among those taken

Continued on Page 2, Column 3

BOMBARDMENT ON; DEADLY BLACK SEA MANAGUANS FLEE MUTINY IS FOILED

Insurgents Ignore Armistice; Bold Naval Plot More Daring Than Kniat Potemkin Uprising

Managua, Nicaragua, Aug. 12.—Despite the armistice, the Nicaraguan insurgents began the bombardment of the capital at noon today. The firing continued all afternoon, shrapnel shells bursting with occasionally machine gun firing on the lines.

Several women and children are wounded by bullets and from the bursting shells, and many persons have fled from the city.

The guns on Loma hill, the fortress of the city, are replying to the fire of the revolutionaries.

A proclamation was issued by the government warning the people to leave the town.

The revolutionaries attacked the penitentiary and also the fortress at 5 o'clock this morning, but by 6 o'clock had been repulsed. They attacked the government troops covering the east side of the city and again were repulsed after a sharp engagement.

The Nicaraguan government is said to be depending on the support of the United States.

Yankee Interests Protected

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—For the protection of American interests in Nicaragua 350 marines left Panama today for Corinto, aboard the collier Justin. They will supplement the blue-jackets from the gunboat Annapolis, who are on guard at Managua, the capital.

POLICE COMMISSIONER ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING

James Woods Falls Into Hands of Park Policeman

Police Commissioner James Woods, who is also manager of the St. Francis hotel, had the novel experience last night of being arrested for violating one of the ordinances which his own commission is supposed to enforce, namely that against automobile speeding. He, George Wingfield of Nevada, and W. E. Travis, manager of the Taxicab company of California, were arrested in Golden Gate park last evening. Travis, who was driving the car, paid a fine of $20.

COL. W. H. C. BOWEN

BANDIT MAKES DAYLIGHT RAID

Wearing Garb of Cowboy He Holds Up Redwood Hotel for $500

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

REDWOOD CITY, Aug. 10.—With face unmasked and wearing the garb of a wild west cowboy, a lone bandit walked into Genochio's boarding house in Main street shortly before noon today, held up the clerk at the point of a gun, secured booty valued at $500 and escaped on horseback through the principal streets of the city before the alarm had been sounded.

Ten minutes later the police had been given a detailed description of the bandit and organized posses under the leadership of Sheriff J. H. Mansfield, Undersheriff John Shields and Chief of Police James Coleman were scouring the countryside, but up to a late hour tonight no trace had been secured of the mysterious horseman.

The boldness of the crime and the fact that it was perpetrated in broad daylight, when the streets of Redwood City are crowded, make it one of the most unusual cases that ever has held the attention of the San Mateo county police.

The boarding house selected by the bandit for the scene of his operations, is located on the east side of Main street, one block north of Broadway, and is conducted by Antonio Genochio, a wealthy property owner of Redwood City. Genochio left the house this morning to visit the Frank tannery, where his 20 lodgers are employed, and it was during his absence that the robbery occurred.

About 11:40 o'clock, John Gouliart, the clerk of the boarding house, was seated in the dining room when he heard footsteps in the upper story of the house. Thinking that the cook or Genochio's little son were causing the noise, he attached no significance to the sounds. Five minutes later he heard the door of the dining room open and turning, he looked into the muzzle of two revolvers leveled at his head by a young man wearing a cowboy hat. The robbery followed.

SOUTHERN WINE MAKER SHOT DOWN ON PORCH

Indian and Unknown White Man Suspected as Murderers

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 12.—The dead body of Fred Chappelle, who operated a winery near Alpine, was found on the porch of his house this afternoon. He had been shot through the neck. A revolver was found in the road. Suspicion is directed to an Indian known as Charlie, and to a white man known as Sam. A sheriff's posse is searching for the two men.

CAPT. J. BAYARD SCHINDEL

UNIONISTS PROTEST AGAINST MILITIA

West Virginia Miners Plan State Wide Strike to Cause Withdrawal of Soldiers

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 12.—Seventy thousand coal miners in West Virginia will be called out on strike if the plans made by their leaders today and ratified here tonight are finally put into operation. At present there are 10,000 men on strike in the Paint Creek district and 2,000 more joined the strikers today.

The statewide strike is in protest to the action of the authorities in sending a militia guard to the mines in Paint Creek valley, where 1,000 soldiers are now patrolling the mountain sides and suppressing the rioting.

Union leaders say that 20 strikers have been killed by the soldiers, while the state authorities declare that a dozen officials and several people who had no interest in the battles.

JAMES WHITCOMB RILEY REMEMBERS HIS NEPHEW

Hoosier Poet Gives Former Secretary $50,000 Check

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 12.—As an evidence of appreciation of the services of his nephew, Edmund H. Eitel, Dr. James Whitcomb Riley today deposited with the Union Trust company of this city a check for $50,000 in favor of the young man. Eitel is away on his bridal trip and when he returns the check will be turned over to him. The Hoosier poet does not make the present as a wedding gift, but rather in payment for advice given during the time he served as the poet's secretary.

FIVE PEOPLE LOSE LIVES IN TRAIN WRECK

Olympian Flyer Goes Through Bridge at Keechelus, Wash., When Lead Locomotive Jumps the Track

ACCIDENT OCCURS NEAR SUMMIT OF MOUNTAINS

Mail- and Baggage Cars Are Dragged Into Creek, but Coaches Hold Fast to the Rails

ENGINEERS AND FIREMEN GO DOWN TO THEIR DEATH

SEATTLE, Aug. 12.—Five persons were killed and several injured late today when the westbound Olympian train of the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound railroad broke through a bridge half a mile west of Keechelus, 67 miles east of Seattle.

THE DEAD

Mrs. Simon Jurich, Seattle.
 Engineer H. Townsend, Salem, Ore.
 Engineer Henry Noble, Seattle.
 Fireman Thimbel.
 Fireman H. Spencer, Tacoma.
 Baggage-master A. D. Sibley, Express Messenger C. M. Thomas and Brakeman Thomas Marshall were injured. All will recover.

Officers of the Milwaukee say no passenger, besides Mrs. Jurich, was hurt. She was standing at the forward end of the car and was crushed to death.

The train, drawn by two locomotives, was approaching the summit of the Cascade mountains when the forward engine was derailed on a bridge over a small stream.

The pounding of the wheels over the ties broke down the bridge and both engines, the mail car and the baggage car fell into the creek.

The forward end of the day coach fell through the bridge on top of the wrecked locomotives and baggage cars, which were piled in a ravine 40 feet deep.

The rest of the train remained on the track.

The train, which left Chicago Friday night and was due in Seattle tonight, was running on time and passed Keechelus at 5 o'clock, a minute before the accident happened.

Wrecking trains were sent from both ends of the division to repair the breakage and open the line to traffic, which is being handled over the Northern Pacific tracks across the mountains.

FIVE ARE SAVED FROM DROWNING BY A BOY

Family Bathing Party Meets Disaster; One Lost

[Special Dispatch to The Call]

SANTA BARRABA, Aug. 12.—John D. Cavanaugh, aged 27, a telegraph operator employed by the Southern Pacific here, was drowned at Benham, 20 miles below here today, when a tide rip carried a family party of bathers, of which Cavanaugh was a member, out to sea. That most of the other members of the party were not drowned was due to the heroism and cool headedness of Arnold Gutierrez, aged 16, a member of one of the oldest Spanish families in this city.

Besides Cavanaugh and young Gutierrez, the members of the party were Mrs. Cavanaugh, her sister, Mrs. Jessie Claason, her two brothers, Newton Hill, aged 10; James Hill, aged 22, and Mrs. Grace Scott of Los Angeles.

The bathers were in water hardly waist deep when a back lash from a big wave caught all of them and carried them out into deep water.

Why Look Older Than You Are?

Your glasses can be made a personal ornament if you wear "Equipoise"—the kind that "take away that frown" and make the wearing of eye glasses a pleasure and comfort instead of a worry and nuisance.

Wear One
California Optical Co.
 (W. D. Fenimore, J. W. Davis, A. E. Fenimore)
 181 Post St. San Francisco
 1221 Broadway Oakland
 (C. L. Hoop, at Oakland Store)

If Out of Employment

Perhaps this announcement may interest and benefit you—

The Call's Information and Employment Bureau tries in various ways to assist deserving people to obtain work. If you have good references, place copies of same on file here and they will be furnished to employers in need of help—free of charge. You may be the identical person some good firm is looking for. The phone may ring any minute asking THE CALL to send for a man, or a woman, of your character and ability. Do not delay—make use of this liberal offer—leave copies of your references right away with The Call's Information and Employment Bureau, 1st Floor Call Building, Market and 3d Streets.