Parker Defends State Delegation
for Submitting to Bryan
at Baltimore

Former Presidential Candidate Denies Being Under the Influence of Ryan

BULLETIN
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Congressman William K. Sulzer was nominated for governor of New York on the fourth ballot by the democratic state convention.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 2.—Alton B. Parker took the opportunity afforded by his speech today as permanent chairman of the democratic state convention to answer his critics at the Baltimore convention. It was the first political speech the former presidential candidate had made since he was the storm center of the battle waged by William J. Bryan against his selection as temporary chairman of the democratic national convention.

PARKER DEFENDS DELEGATES

Parker said the action of the New York delegates at Baltimore was dictated by the desire to promote harmony. "You may ask me," he said, "why did the New York delegation with 50 men, at least 25 of whom were capable of entering upon that platform, failed to discuss the attack which was made indirectly and directly upon the delegates and upon myself—why did they keep silent? Because we believed it was better that we should suffer a little indignity than by entering into a dispute with the gentleman upon the platform (Bryan), which would divide that convention in two; and we held our peace."

"We held our peace for the good of democracy," he said, "believing that either Clark or Wilson would be nominated, and we determined that New York state should take no part in that contest which would prevent the people of the United States from uniting, altogether, to elect whichever one of them should be the nominee of the party."

OPPOSITION TO PARKER

Parker's defense was called forth by the opposition to his candidacy for the permanent chairmanship expressed by Delegate Frank H. Mott of Jamestown and Mayor John K. Sague of Poughkeepsie, who said Parker was reactionary.

"He was chosen chairman by a vote of 412 to 25," he said. "The first words of Parker's speech were: 'I am a progressive democrat.' In reply to his critics he said: 'It is true that there was a suggestion of Baltimore that I was going forward to represent Thomas E. Ryan of New York. There has been an attempt to reindorse a statement made at the time of the Baltimore convention that Thomas E. Ryan had selected his attorney, Ellihu Root, to preside as the temporary chairman of the republican national convention and that he likewise had chosen another attorney of his, Alton B. Parker, to be temporary chairman of the Baltimore convention.'

RYAN INFLUENCE DENIED

"There is no client that I ever had that could control my political action. But further than that Thomas E. Ryan was never my client and never paid me a dollar for services in his life. 'Four years ago the distinguished gentleman whose name has been mentioned here (Bryan), as not only in opposition to me as a candidate, but against me personally, was good enough to write me a letter thanking me for my contribution to the democratic platform; he was good enough to write me inviting me to Lincoln; he was good enough afterwards to accept my invitation to visit me at Esopus. 'He requested the national committee that I should render such service as I could on the stump, and whenever I was asked to go by that committee, in 10 states, in all, I attempted to lift my voice and do work in behalf of that ticket.'

NATIONAL PLATFORM RATIFIED

The platform adopted today ratifies the democratic national platform, pledges its support to Wilson and Marshall and condemns what it styles as the "monopolistic tariff evils" of the republican party.

Governor Dix' administration is described as "efficient, clean and economical."

The platform pledges the legislature to provide for a constitutional convention to pass on the initiative, the referendum and the short ballot, and declares in favor of submitting the woman suffrage amendment to the people "as soon as possible."

When Chairman Parker called the convention to order this evening, Robert E. Whelan placed in nomination Martin H. Glynn of Albany for governor and Augustus Thomas, the playwright, nominated Congressman William Sulzer.

Joseph H. Kennedy of Erie placed in nomination Senator George H. Burd of Buffalo, and Congressman John J. Fitzgerald of Kings nominated Herman A. Metz, former comptroller of New York.

Prior to the night session the New York county caucused and lifted the unit rule. Leader Murphy told his friends to vote for whom they pleased. Deputy Attorney General Joseph A. Kellogg of Washington county nominated Governor John A. Dix.

The roll of delegates was then called, resulting in no choice. It showed Dix, 147; Sulzer, 126; Metz, 70; Glynn, 46. Congressman Francis Burton Harrison, who was not placed in nomination, received 21 votes. Necessary to a choice, 226.

Appie Boosters Busy
Annual Visit to City

Mrs. E. H. Nohrden, one of Watsonville boosters of California apple show.

Watsonville Delegation Receives Chamber of Commerce Trophy

Watsonville apple boosters came to San Francisco 500 strong yesterday, distributed thousands of apples and took away with them for an offering to the apple growing counties of California a handsome silver trophy, the gift of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, to be awarded as a perpetual challenge cup annually to the county having the best 10 boxes of apples on exhibition at the California apple show.

The cup was given into the custody of O. D. Stoesser, president of the Watsonville Apple Annual association, by M. H. Robbins Jr., president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, at the apple boosters' luncheon held at the St. Francis.

The occasion of the coming of the Watsonville delegation was to advertise the California apple show, which is to be opened in Watsonville Monday, October 7, and continue through the week to Saturday, October 12. An annual preliminary to the show is a trip by the Watsonville boosters from their orchard city to San Francisco and home by a different route, making stops at all towns along the line.

COSTUMES REPRESENT APPLES
The boosters that came yesterday were conspicuous in apple green dresses with red facings, representing the colors of the apples. They brought two bands with them, the Watsonville City band and the Esopus Valley Orphan Asylum band of boys.

The start was made from Watsonville at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. The first stop was at Santa Cruz and stops were made at Los Gatos and Palo Alto. The party was taken to Fourth and Mission streets from the railroad station in streetcars, and from there they marched to the St. Francis hotel, where luncheon was served.

John E. Gardner presided at the luncheon and introduced President O. D. Stoesser of the Apple Annual association, who spoke briefly of the scope of the apple show.

LARGEST APPLE DISTRICT
"The Watsonville apple district is the largest single apple district in the world," said Stoesser. "The development of San Francisco is dependent on the development of California and it is important to the development of California that such districts as the Watsonville apple section be boosted. We hope that you will attend our apple show next week, as the attendance is important."

Edward Rainey, secretary for Mayor Rolph, spoke for the mayor, who was unavoidably absent. He promised that the mayor would be in Watsonville on next Saturday to attend the apple show.

William Sproule, president of the Southern Pacific company, promised for the railroad to do all in its power to further the interests of the apple show and the apple industry.

SUGGESTION FOR APPLE DAY
Toastmaster Gardner, at the close of Sproule's address, suggested that the Southern Pacific company should advertise an apple day on the line of the Fresno "rain day," which is observed annually by the state and boosted by the railroad company.

TIEUP OF MINES
AT ELY COMPLETE

Indications That Company is Preparing to Shut Down
Plants for Winter

ELY, Nev., Oct. 2.—The strike of the miners here is complete and the indication tonight are that the operators will not attempt to open their mines again this winter. The windows of all the company buildings are being boarded up and hundreds of men were prepared tonight to leave the camp in the morning. The ore supply at the Steptoe mill will be exhausted tomorrow and the plant will then close down.

Not a saloon in Ely was open today and there is no disorder in the camp. The miners were paid off today and the smeltermen will receive their pay tomorrow, and by night it is expected that a majority of the miners will have deserted the camp. With the closing of the mills tomorrow more than 4,000 men will be idle.

Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, in a statement tonight said that the strike could have been averted had the mining operators consented to meet with the union leaders.

President Moyer says that he does not wish to extend the tieup into the Arizona and New Mexico properties, but that he will do so if necessary to secure recognition of the union and the increase of 50 cents a day demanded by the local miners and those of Bingham.

Bingham Miners Jubilant
BINGHAM, Utah, Oct. 2.—The miners of this district were greatly pleased when word reached them today of the strike in Ely, and the union leaders here declare that the walkout of the Nevada miners will strengthen the cause of the local men.

A rumor was current today that unless a settlement of the labor troubles was brought about within the next three or four days, the Utah Copper company would make no further efforts to open their mines, but would close them down permanently for the winter.

Smeltermen at Gardfield reported today that the men employed in the smelters here had been granted an increase of 10 cents a day.

Waiting for Developments
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 2.—D. C. Jackling, general manager of the Utah Copper company at Bingham, Utah, and also in control of the operation of the Nevada Consolidated Copper company at Ely, Nev., where the miners, steam shovel men and mine mechanics struck today, said that his company had decided on no action at the moment. "We shall wait for developments," said Jackling, "and be guided by them."

Nevada Handicapped

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
RENO, Oct. 2.—With the recently organized state militia of five companies mustered into service, but without equipment or arms, with the state police force reduced to 50 men and but few members upon the reserve list, and with the governor of the state in attendance upon the irrigation congress at Salt Lake City, the state of Nevada faces rather a serious predicament in case of trouble at the Ely copper mines, where more than 3,000 men quit work this morning.

The state police handled the strike in Goldfield several years ago, but the last session of the legislature recommended a reduction and the force now consists of but five men.

REPUBLICANS EXTEND
WARNING TO BANKS

Committee Holds Them Responsible for Party Deposits

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
FRESNO, Oct. 2.—Notices were served on the banks of Fresno today by E. A. Williams, on behalf of the Taft republican county central committee, advising them that they would be held responsible for all money deposited in their name of the republican county central committee and then withdrawn, unless the checks were signed by Frank H. Short, as chairman, and Hayden Jones, as secretary.

Ray Baker, secretary of the bull moose committee, hastened at once to an attorney upon learning of the notice. Taft people had no weight and that the banks could not be held responsible for violating it. At the same time Baker was informed that his checks would be honored and that no consideration would be given the notice.

It is possible that the Taft people will cut an injunction, but no information has been made public as yet. The republican county central committee has about $1,000 in local banks.

U. S. COMMISSIONER HERE—United States commissioner of Internal Revenue Royal E. Schell yesterday came to San Francisco on a trip of inspection of the local office of the service. He is accompanied by L. S. Spear, head of the corporation tax division.

GOVERNORS TALK
AT CONVENTION

Executives Urge Conservation
Schemes at Congress of Irrigationists

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Oct. 2.—Governors of western states and foreign delegates were the speakers at the afternoon session of the twentieth international irrigation congress. Between sessions the visitors listened to a pipe organ recital in the tabernacle.

Two more cities entered the already crowded field as bidders for next year's meeting of the congress. Invitations to meet at Mobile, Ala., and Indianapolis, Ind., were presented to the congress by business and commercial organizations of those cities. The next convention city will be selected tomorrow, at which time also officers will be elected.

Governor William Spry of Utah was the first speaker at the afternoon session. He strongly favored the government increasing its bonded indebtedness as far as reclamation is concerned, he said. "Where possible, the government should conserve the good waters at the heads of the rivers for distribution below. The people of Utah are for any project that will enable men of the crowded east to come out here and obtain homes. We are for the reclamation service, irrigation, conservation of floods and anything that will further the production of the soil."

Governor Tasker L. Oddie of Nevada reviewed the progress of irrigation in Nevada and described the laws passed to prevent abuses by land speculators. Former Governor Arthur L. Thomas of Utah, who issued the call for the first congress, said that organization of the body opened the way for all the great irrigation legislation that has followed since.

Following an address by Norman S. Rankin, representing the Western Canadian Irrigation association of Alberta, a resolution was passed providing for a representation of the congress at the next meeting of the Canadian association.

Neil Nelson, trade commissioner to America from New South Wales, Australia, declared that the interest of the producer is practically identical in all countries. "Let the flowing waters of our irrigated lands," he said, "be a stream of brotherly love to bind together these two great shoots of the Anglo-Saxon race, both carrying the energy of youth with them in the vanguard of civilization and both uniting to show to the other nations of the earth that the arts of peace are greater than the arts of war."

Representatives of Portugal, Guatemala, Finland, Brazil and Mexico all spoke briefly on the desire for international co-operation in learning to get the best results out of agricultural pursuits.

FAMED GOLDBANK MINE
GOES INTO NEW HANDS

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
OROVILLE, Oct. 2.—With the payment of the last installment to H. P. Stone upon the famous Goldbank quartz mine at Forbestown, Butte county, M. J. Cooney of Oroville and Fred J. Storer of Oakland yesterday became the owners of the mine. This mine is the most famed in Butte county, and before shutting down, due to crude methods of extracting the gold, seven years ago, had produced $1,500,000 in gold bullion. The new owners are now installing new cyanide mills and stamps and will permanently work the mine.

Housewives in Boycott
Against Milk Dealers

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
CLEVELAND, O., Oct. 2.—Housewives here today started a boycott against the so-called milk trust, which is blamed for many dealers raising the price from 8 to 9 cents a quart. Some women drove milkmen from their homes today and refused 9 cent milk. Many independent dealers are still selling milk at 8 cents. Prosecuting Attorney John A. Chase subpoenaed a dozen independent dealers today and will start a grand jury investigation of the alleged unlawful combination said to be in violation of the Ohio Valentine anti-trust law.

WILLITS, Oct. 2.—Mendocino county's first agricultural fair, for which elaborate preparations have been in progress for many weeks, will be opened in this city Tuesday evening, October 9, and will continue throughout the week with special features on the program every day. Robert Newton Lynch, vice president and manager of the California development board, will make the opening address.

It has been planned to hold annual county fairs alternately in the cities of Willits, Fort Bragg and Ukiah. This year the county appropriated $1,250 for premiums and a like amount was contributed by the city of Willits, in addition to many thousand being expended in the entertainment of guests and by the exhibitors.

The queen contest, which closed Monday evening, resulted in a victory for Mrs. Iris Duncan of Willits, although several competitors from Fort Bragg and Ukiah made strong bids for honor. J. W. Preston of Ukiah will make the coronation address and deliver the keys to the county to Queen Iris the day of the coronation.

Products from all parts of the county will be on exhibition at the fair, and it is claimed that with the exception of citrus fruit, every product of the soil grown in any part of the United States is raised in Mendocino county.

LAKE TAHOE LITIGATION GOES TO FEDERAL COURT

But Temporary Injunctions Will Continue in Force

PLACERVILLE, Oct. 1.—The superior court granted today the request of the Stone and Webster Construction company and the Truckee River General Electric company, that the suit brought against them by the Western company and other holders of property on Lake Tahoe be removed to the United States circuit court of the district of northern California.

Pending a decision of the federal court, however, the superior court ordered that the temporary injunction which it had already allowed restraining the defendants from doing any and all acts in and about the Truckee river and Lake Tahoe that would lower the level of the lake be continued.

The court based its action on a finding that both Stone and Webster and the Truckee General Electric are foreign corporations.

You must be an experienced clothing buyer if you don't overvalue these suits without prior reference to the price ticket. All the Fall mixtures are shown, blue serge is represented in our "STRAND" Suits and all the latest styles are included—except the English Model. If you can find a satisfactory English Model Suit for less than $20, let us hear about it—we couldn't.

Men's $15 Overcoats
Perhaps you have heard of our new "Up or Down" Collar—a perfected realization of the comfort convertible collars were supposed to insure. We have eliminated all cause for dissatisfaction and you'll find these comfort collars included even in our $15 lines. They look particularly well in the rough, heavy fabrics so prevalent at this price—herringbones and diagonals of gray, tan or brown mixtures, serve as satisfactory mediums for the expression of Fall styles. Full lengths are most in demand, particularly for motor-ing, driving or walking.

Young Men's Special Section
OUR THIRD FLOOR accommodates both our Men's and Young Men's Sections. The convenience of having nothing but suits for fellows who wear long trousers, from ages 14 up to the vanishing point, is a consideration you shouldn't overlook.

Suits for Young Men are notable for their prompt reflection of the latest style tendencies. The young man of today doesn't wait for his elders to set the fashions, and for him we can spring some new ideas, particularly at our most popular prices—$10, $12.50 and $15.
