Next President Says That He Has No Feeling of Triumph

triumphed. One can not solve our problems nor a single session of congress.

PEOPLE KNOW WHAT THEY WANT

"The people of this country know what they want and can get it, but it must be obtained by long processes, in which the generations to come will play so large a part, I summon you through to the rest of your lives to support men who look ahead to the final solution of our problems."

When the cheers had died away Governor Wilson stood with hand on head and joined in singing "Old Nassau."

At midnight Governor Wilson received a message of congratulation from President Hibben of Princeton. It was as follows:

In the name of Princeton university I extend to you the congratulations and best wishes of your alma mater in connection with the presidency of the United States.

Mrs. Wilson and the Wilson girls were more excited over the returns than the president elect. The wife and daughters of the governor presided over the bulletin room and all the reports passed through their hands before reaching the man of the moment at Princeton.

CONGRATULATED BY WIFE

As the big clock in the library of the Wilson home chimed out the hour of 10 Mrs. Woodrow Wilson placed her hands upon the shoulders of her husband and kissed him.

"My dear, I want to be the first to congratulate you," she said. The governor was standing with his hands folded and his back to the open log fire. It was his first definite word that he was the president elect of the United States.

Next to congratulate the governor were his three daughters, Miss Margaret, Bessie and Eleanor Wilson. Bubbling over with happiness, the president elect fondly embraced each of his daughters.

"Dad," said the youngest of the girls, rushing into the governor's study when the evening jangle was told, "you are elected."

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 5.—Wilson 39,982, Taft 19,512, Roosevelt 2,032—these returns from 457 of New Jersey's 1,773 districts indicated at 3 o'clock this morning that Wilson had carried his own state by a least 50,000 plurality. The democrats win the state. They overthrew a republican majority in the state senate and elected a safe majority of the lower house, insuring the election of William Hughes (Dem.) as United States senator to succeed Frank D. Briggs (Rep.); also the election of a democrat for Doctor Wilson's unexpired term as governor.

Governor Wilson's own voting precinct at Princeton gave him 113 votes, Taft 90 and Roosevelt 55.

Governor Baldwin's plurality is about 1,000.

NEW YORK WORLD MAKES ESTIMATE

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The World's lead says: "Wilson carried more than 15 states, with several others in doubt which may give him 40 or more. The meager returns indicate both a popular and electoral majority for the democratic candidate in the country at large. The returns at 11:30 p. m. indicate that Governor Wilson has carried these 15 states, which were carried by Bryan in 1908, with a total of 158 electoral votes: Alabama 12, Kentucky 12, Ne-

WOMEN LEADERS ARE SATISFIED

[Special Dispatch to The Call] NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—While many of the suffragette leaders usually to be seen at various headquarters of the organizations in this city were still away from town returning from campaign tours, those in town expressed themselves as extremely gratified by the voting in all parts of the country.

"The cause is making steady and certain progress," said Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch. "The voting today shows that women who have been given the ballot have not to be led to the polls. The voting in states to which suffrage amendments were presented shows eloquent gains."

"Everybody seemed to be deeply interested in the polling of the women citizens of Florida, Colorado and Utah. The big poll of Wyoming women was also commented on as proof of women's desire for the suffrage—the point of doubt upon which most stress seems to be laid by the anti's of the east."

Johnson Mum on Defeat

[Special Dispatch to The Call] NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Governor Johnson remained in his room at the Manhattan hotel tonight. Up to midnight he refused to make any comment on the progressive defeat. WIRELESS GIVES ISLAND RETURNS

[By Federal Wireless] HONOLULU, Nov. 5.—Presidential election returns never were handed out in better shape or with more accuracy and satisfaction in Honolulu than they were today. Politicians of all parties, if not pleased with the results of the election, were more than pleased with the manner in which the returns were received.

The Federal Wireless Telegraph company had arranged days ago to give a service unsurpassed anywhere on the mainland.

From 2:30 until 11 o'clock tonight, returns in short bulletins were reported.
