COUNTRY ALMOST MAKES ELECTION OF WILSON UNANIMOUS

San Francisco Gives Bourbon Chieftain Magnificent Vote

BULGARIANS PRESS FOE TO COAST

Allies Pushing Toward Tchatalja, While Nazim Pasha Draws in Forces

TURKISH COURT READY TO CROSS OVER TO ASIA

Constantinople Appears to Have Lost Hope of Stemming Allies' Advance

LONDON, Nov. 6.—Bulgaria is giving the broken Turkish army no time for recuperation. In accordance with the tactics adopted throughout the war, the Bulgarians are following up the defeated Turks with extraordinary energy.

Flying columns are pushing along the seacoast toward the Tchatalja lines, and it is believed that the main attack will be made tomorrow or Friday.

Constantinople appears to have lost hope of stemming the victorious advance even at Tchatalja and the Turkish court is ready to cross into Asia. Apparently, however, the Bulgarian government has no designs on Constantinople itself and would be ready to conclude peace, provided that Turkey agrees to surrender Adrianople and some other positions in the western theater of war and give a guarantee to bring no more reinforcements from Asia.

No Disposition to Plead

The porte shows no disposition to treat for peace direct with the allies, and until the big Tchatalja battle has been fought, the diplomatic situation is not likely to be changed.

It is stated that any attempt by Serbia to encroach on Albania will be regarded by Austria as a casus belli. On the other hand, Serbia maintains that a port on the Adriatic is a matter of life and death for her, and that country fails to see why her presence there should be detrimental to the interests of any other power.

Serbia argues that she would only be regaining possession of what belonged to her before the downfall of the Servian empire, when Adriatic seaports were flourishing Servian towns.

The fall of Monastir is not confirmed, but is considered not improbable. The Greeks are crossing the Varda river and the fall of Salonika is reported imminent.

A late dispatch from Constantinople received from the military correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle gives a harrowing picture of the scenes enacted when the routed remnants of Nazim Pasha's army reached Rodosto. "They arrived," he says, "famished and weary, but full of hate against the 'infidel.'"

Scenes of Horror

The town was given up to massacre, outrage and pillage. It was set afire in seven places. Children were hurled into the raging flames.

In an agony of fear many took to boats and tried to get to the open sea, anywhere away from the enemy. In some cases the boatmen were massacred; in others those who traveled to the sea found another, yet a more merciful, death beneath the waters.

Nor does Rodosto stand alone in its baptism of fire and blood. The victorious march of the Bulgarian army produces similar scenes wherever the Turks expect the coming of the enemy. The dread of a coming massacre almost paralyzes the population. It awaits the thunder of the guns of the allies, fearing that it will be the signal for a carnival of blood.

Daily Tales of Murder

The government exercises no moral authority; every day one hears of isolated murders in the Greek and Jewish quarters, and the news increases the panic. Nazim Pasha has sent a report to the ministry of war which throws a flood of light upon the history of the war. The Turkish commander describes the condition of the broken remnant of his army as desperate. Discipline, says Nazim, is abominable.

Fifty officers have been condemned and shot for various offenses. The commander admits that he shot three with his own revolver in an outburst of rage at their cowardice.

Twenty thousand wounded Turks are being carried toward Constantinople to be added to the 15,000 wounded there now, without hope of adequate hospital room

LINER CARRYING 901 PASSENGERS GOES ON ROCKS

Vessel in Serious Plight on the St. Lawrence River Ten Miles Below Quebec

QUEBEC, Nov. 6.—The Canadian Northern Royal Mail steamer Royal Gorge, with 901 passengers on board, grounded on the rocks during a fog in the St. Lawrence river early tonight and is reported in a serious plight.

The vessel went aground about a mile east of Point St. Laurent island at Orleans, ten miles below Quebec. The wrecking steamer Lord Strathcona and two tugs have been sent to the Royal Gorge's assistance. The rocks on which the steamer struck lie on the north side of the south channel.

The Royal Gorge left Grosse Isle quarantine station for Quebec shortly after 4 o'clock this afternoon. The vessel was said to be going at full speed when it met with the accident.

It was on its way from Avonmouth, England, and was due in Montreal tomorrow.

SHIP'S OFFICER IS STRUCK AND KILLED

San Franciscan Dies After Rescue From River

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
 ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 6.—While assisting in the loading of lumber on the schooner Salvator at the Bay City mill this afternoon the second mate was struck on the head with a sling-load of lumber and pushed over the side of the vessel into the Chehalis river. Although in a dying condition, the mate attempted to save himself from drowning. He was taken from the water and hurried in an ambulance to the hospital, but died on the way. All efforts to learn his name failed. His home was in San Francisco.

ERRANT STUDENT IS TRACED BY LOVE LETTER

Fugitive Writes to Walnut Creek Girl From Mexico and May Get Caught

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
 PALO ALTO, Nov. 6.—A longing for a letter from his sweetheart may result in the arrest and prosecution of Thornton A. Mills Jr., son of a Presbyterian minister of Schenectady, N. Y., and former student at Stanford university, who disappeared from Palo Alto October 12 after passing bogus checks amounting to several hundred dollars.

Soon after young Mills issued the worthless paper and dropped from sight, Chief of Police C. F. Noble ascertained that he had been paying ardent suit to Miss Claudia Robertson of Walnut Creek, Contra Costa county. Sheriff Veale was notified to be on the lookout for the much sought boy.

Today word came that Miss Robertson had received a letter mailed by Mills from Mocoito in the state of Sinaloa, Mex. The officers believe Mills is in hiding in the Mexican town, and an effort will be made to have him arrested.

EARTHQUAKE FRIGHTENS ATLANTIC CITY FOLK

Weather Man's Phone Works Overtime After Big Jolts

[Special Dispatch to The Call]
 ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 6.—Violent shocks, believed to have been caused by an earthquake, shook up local resorts between 3:30 and 4:30 o'clock this afternoon. Because of the absence of recording instruments, it is impossible to determine whether or not it was a real quake.

GOLDEN STATE GIVES WILSON GOOD PLURALITY

Returns Indicate That Democratic Leader Will Win by About 6,000 Votes

BULLETIN
 FRESNO, Nov. 6.—Returns of Fresno county received up to midnight reduced the lead of Church over Needham for congress in the seventh district to 465 votes. With eight precincts missing, Fresno gives Needham 7,846, Church 8,464.

BULLETIN
 SAN RAFAEL, Nov. 6.—Returns up to midnight from the first congressional district, 334 precincts out of 476, give Kent, (Prog.), for congress, 14,940; Zumwalt (Dem.), 14,336. Kent's lead is 604 votes.

On the face of the incomplete returns available at midnight, Wilson carried California by an estimated plurality of from 5,500 to 6,500.

The progressive candidates were successful in five congressional districts, republicans in four and the democrats won out in the second and have apparently beaten Needham, republican, in the seventh by a narrow margin.

Los Angeles has elected the first socialist to set in a California legislature—C. W. Kingsley, from the sixty-fifth district.

The democrats have elected about 30 members of the assembly and will have 10 representatives in the senate. The regular republicans have elected less than half a dozen members of the assembly and will be represented in the senate by three holdovers.

Early partial returns received yesterday from southern California enabled the progressive party managers to make estimates that encouraged them to hope that California might be saved to Roosevelt and Johnson by a sufficient if narrow margin.

Later and more complete returns from the south indicated that the Roosevelt-Johnson plurality in Los Angeles county would approximate 18,000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The net results of the general election held on Tuesday were staggering even to the most sanguine of democrats. They included: The election of Wilson and Marshall; the democratic candidates for president and vice president, by the largest electoral majority ever returned, the final figures being: Wilson, 415; Roosevelt, 65; Taft, 12, with two states, Kansas and Illinois, still in doubt with 39 electoral votes. Wilson's sure majority, 299. An assured majority of the United States senate coincident with the inauguration of President elect Wilson. A majority of 149 in the next house of representatives. Election of 19 democratic governors to replace republicans. Socialist Vote Increases. An increase in the socialist vote, which may approach the 700,000 mark, the total in New York city alone reaching 33,438 and 160,000 in Illinois. The election of progressives to the legislative bodies in several states, including New York, and of 12 progressive congressmen. Uncertainty as to whether President Taft or Colonel Roosevelt polled the next largest number of votes to President-elect Wilson. The states carried by Wilson and Marshall, with the electoral vote of each and those credited to President Taft and to Colonel Roosevelt, were as follows:

California 13, Colorado 6, Connecticut 7, Delaware 3, Florida 6, Georgia 14, Indiana 15, Iowa 13, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 10, Maine 6, Maryland 8, Massachusetts 18, Minnesota 12, Mississippi 10, Missouri 18, Montana 4, Nebraska 8, Nevada 3, New Hampshire 4, New Jersey 14, New Mexico 3, New York 45, North Carolina 12, North Dakota 5, Ohio 24, Oklahoma 10, Oregon 5, Rhode Island 5, South Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 20, Virginia 12, West Virginia 8, Wisconsin 13, Wyoming 3; total 415. Taft—Idaho 4, Utah 4, Vermont 4; total 12. Roosevelt—Michigan 15, Pennsylvania 38, South Dakota 5, Washington 7; total 65. Doubtful—Illinois 29, Kansas 10.
