

MISTAKE FOR BURGLAR, SHOT BY DAUGHTER

Mrs. Marie Carter Henderson, the Divorced Wife of W. J. Henderson, Former Musical Critic of the New York Sun, Is Wounded While Trying to Force Her Way Into the House

MRS. PETRIE FIRES THROUGH THE DOOR

Injured Woman a Sister of Major General W. H. Carter and Prominent in Army and Navy Circles—Once Threatened George Heisenbuttle, Hotel Man

Mistaken for a burglar by her daughter, Mrs. Marie Carter Henderson, the divorced wife of W. J. Henderson, former musical critic for the New York Sun and a sister of Major General W. H. Carter, was shot last evening by Mrs. F. H. Petrie at the latter's home, 543 Forty-third avenue.

Mrs. Henderson is lying at the central emergency hospital, suffering from a flesh wound of the left hip. Mrs. Henderson last evening went to call on her daughter, who has been seriously ill from nervous trouble. Mrs. Henderson had not heard from her for a day and was alarmed on approaching the house to see a light go out suddenly. Finding the front door of her daughter's home locked and receiving no answer, Mrs. Henderson went to the back door. Again she received no response to her knock.

INTERFERENCE OF COURT RESENTED

Department of Justice Insists Power of Prosecution Is Unlimited

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The department of justice is making a vigorous protest to the supreme court against the decision of the United States district court of Alaska which set aside indictments against an alleged Alaskan "transportation trust" on the ground that before the federal government could indict for alleged transportation discriminations the questions must be passed upon by the interstate commerce commission. The issue is new and regarded as extremely important.

CELEBRATION OF THE B'NAL B'RITH JUBILEE BEGUN

More Than 300 Delegates From Lodges of Western States and British Columbia Present

Marking the completion of a half century of activity along lines of progressive charity and philanthropic work by Jewish people of the Pacific coast and western states, the golden jubilee celebration of district grand lodge No. 4, Independent Order B'nal B'rith, was begun yesterday morning in its San Francisco headquarters, 149 Eddy street.

More than 300 delegates from the lodges of California, Oregon, Utah, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia answered "present" when the president of the grand lodge, Rev. Habbt Jacob Nieto, took up the gavel. Representatives of the 10 San Francisco lodges, comprising many well known business and professional men, acted as hosts to the visitors.

The first important work accomplished was the framing of a resolution which was adopted immediately, indicating the vote by President Nieto of the immigration bill. Copies will be sent to the president of the United States senate and speaker of the house of representatives.

YOUTH'S AUXILIARY PROPOSED

A resolution was introduced for the organization of a youth's auxiliary of the B'nal B'rith, proposing that such a body should be formed and recognized by the grand lodge. It was referred to the committee.

A committee of five officers was appointed to remodel the endowment system of the grand lodge district and to settle the insurance plan within 90 days, after which their work will be considered by the grand lodge council.

SERVICES AT TEMPLE ISRAEL

Appropriate services in celebration of the golden jubilee of the grand lodge were held last night in Temple Israel, California and Webster streets, San Francisco, the first president of the grand lodge, who took office 50 years ago under the title of grand Nasi Abh, presided.

TURKISH TROOPS FAIL TO LAND ON MARMORA COAST

Forces of Enver Bey Huddled at Gallipoli, Where They Are Unable to Obtain Supplies

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Uncensored special dispatches reaching London from Constantinople confirm the utter failure of Enver Bey, the Turkish chief of staff, to land troops on the coast of the sea of Marmora. His forces, the dispatch says, now are huddled at Gallipoli, where they are unable to obtain supplies.

The Dally Chronicle's correspondent reports the landing of 40,000 Greeks at Bosika bay, on the coast of Asia Minor near the entrance to the Dardanelles. This report, however, is regarded as doubtful. It is given denial by the officers of the British warship Zelandia, which has arrived at Constantinople.

The situation between Roumania and Bulgaria again has become serious. The negotiators at Sofia district, which is in an agreement on the points at issue.

Czar's Reply Decisive

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16.—The Russian emperor's reply to the letter recently sent him by the Austrian emperor is short and decisive. He declares that Austria's attitude in recent years has impelled Russia to support the interests of her Slav brothers. At the same time the Russian emperor expresses the belief that a means will be found to maintain peace.

BRITISH CANAL NOTE TO BE MORE DEMANDS

Sir Edward Grey's Reply to Knox Expected in Washington This Week

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Sir Edward Grey's rejoinder to Secretary Knox's last note regarding the Panama canal tolls question virtually has been completed and its substance at least is expected to reach Washington this week.

It is understood that this last note by no means settles the controversy, nor does it contain assurance of an acceptance of the American proposition to exchange ratifications of the pending general arbitration treaty, under the terms of which the issue might be referred to the special commission of six members proposed to be created by that convention.
