

AT LAST THE $8,750 CATALOG CONTAINING THE 77 CORRECT TITLES

Today The Call offers to Booklovers' contestants the great contest catalog, a list of 5,000 book titles, carefully arranged in alphabetical order. 77 of these 5,000 titles are GUARANTEED to be the 77 titles represented by the 77 pictures. And with each catalog you get 7 certificates, redeemable as the pictures appear, for the first 35 contest pictures. This is a NEW catalog. The catalogs used in The Call's two previous contests are of no value in this third and greater one.

WHAT THE CATALOG IS

The Catalog is a list of over 5,000 book titles with the names of authors especially compiled for this contest and copyrighted by the Booklovers' Contest Company, San Francisco, Cal. From this collection of book titles the 77 titles represented by the 77 pictures that appear in the contest are selected. THUS ALL THE 77 CORRECT TITLES ARE IN THE CATALOG. No more valuable aid could be given to a contestant than the catalog furnished. Suppose a picture represents a battlefield in which a company of cavalry is riding down an infantry command. Suppose that picture was drawn to represent the title "Overcome by the Cavalry." Well, if you have a Catalog you will not have to know to begin with that such a title exists. Use your ingenuity in figuring out what titles that picture might represent. Then look in your catalog to see if such titles are listed there. If you do not find one of your possible titles in the Catalog, then you can be sure that the title is not correct.

FOR ALL THE CORRECT TITLES ARE IN THE CATALOG

In the Contest Catalog you will find seven certificates. Each certificate is good for five pictures. Thus you get 35 pictures FREE with the Catalog. For instance, certificate No. 1 is good for pictures Nos. 1 to 5; Certificate No. 2 is good for pictures Nos. 6 to 10; Certificate No. 3 is good for pictures Nos. 11 to 15; Certificate No. 4 is good for pictures Nos. 16 to 20; Certificate No. 5 is good for pictures Nos. 21 to 25; Certificate No. 6 is good for pictures Nos. 26 to 30; Certificate No. 7 is good for pictures Nos. 31 to 35.

HOW TO USE THE CERTIFICATES

If you wish pictures Nos. 1 to 5, tear out Certificate No. 1 and present it at the office of The Call and the clerk will give you the pictures, or send in the certificate by mail, with the proper postage, and the pictures will be mailed to you. If you wish pictures Nos. 1 to 10, tear out certificates Nos. 1 and 2. If you wish pictures Nos. 1 to 20, tear out certificates Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4. Of course you can not use a certificate for pictures until the actual pictures you want have been published in the paper. For instance, if you wished pictures Nos. 31, 32, 33, 34 and 35, you would have to wait until pictures Nos. 31, 32, 33, 34 and 35 have been actually printed in the paper.

If you use your ingenuity and your Catalog you will win, and remember that you get 35 pictures FREE with the Catalog. This is a double opportunity for you—the Catalog and the first 35 pictures together.

This is a new Catalog. The catalogs used in The Call's two previous contests will not aid you in this third and greater contest.

CONTEST EDITOR'S OFFICIAL Booklovers' Catalogue

Here is a portion of one of the pages of the Catalogue, showing how the titles are listed in alphabetical order. One of the catalogue certificates, redeemable for five free pictures, is shown also. The 77 titles which the 77 pictures represent are contained in this catalogue, and YOU can find them there.

Feminine Fan of 11 Knows Inside of Game

(Special Dispatch to The Call)
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Gladys Green, 11 years old, who is suing the Chicago National League Baseball club for $25,000 damages for injuries sustained by the collapse of a seat in an exciting moment of a "double header" game between the Cubs and the Philadelphia Nationals August 29, 1910, convinced a jury before Judge Freeman in the superior court today that she is a baseball "fan" and knows the inside points of the pastime.

PETROSKY A FAVORITE OVER FIGHTING NEWSIE

Fans Still Consider Sailor a Contender for Middle Weight Diadem

Sailor Ed Petrosky is a 10 to 5 favorite in the betting to defeat Willie Meehan, the fighting newsboy, whom he meets Friday night at Dreamland pavilion before the Market club. Petrosky's recent fights have been so impressive that the fans still consider him a contender for championship honors in the middle weight division, and figure him to beat Meehan. The latter will not be without supporters, however, as there are many good judges of boxers who favor the fighting newsboy.

Johnny O'Leary, feather weight champion of the northwest, is giving away weight to Lee Johnson, but is confident of his ability to defeat the colored contender. Petrosky is hard at work on Yerba Buena island, while Meehan is training at El Verano. Making 158 pounds is an easy task for both men.

RAIN SPOILS THE CARD ONCE AGAIN AT JUAREZ

Two Races Are Called Off; Bonanza Wins the Mile Event

(Special Dispatch to The Call)
EL PASO, Feb. 26.—The heavy rains continued today and put the Juarez track in bad shape. In consequence there were numerous scratches and two of the events were called off. Two favorites won. The defeat of Balcliff was costly, as the players plunged on him, sending him to the post a 3 to 5 choice. Palma made all the running and won easily by two lengths. BEST BETS—BLACKMATE, SHORTY NORTHCUT

WOLGAST PROBABLY RETURN BUT IS ALMOST CERTAIN

Jones Wants "A Bunch," but Probably Will Listen to Reason When Cornered

By JOE MURPHY

It is very probable that as soon as Tom Jones returns here from Los Angeles Promoter Jim Coffroth will sign up Ad Wolgast and Harlem Tommy Murphy for another battle. Wolgast is itching for another fight and Murphy is just as anxious, so the promoter will have no coaxing to do. His trouble will be straightening out the financial end of it, and this promises to be some battle, as Tom Jones would sooner talk about money than say a prayer.

Wolgast seems to be elated over his fight with Murphy. The former light-weight champion is glad to know that he can fight the 20 rounds as fast as ever even when he was not in the best of shape. Wolgast believes that his fight with Murphy will do him a world of good and that in the future he will show his old time form.

Wolgast visited Coffroth yesterday and asked what he would pay him to box Rivers. Coffroth did not care to start any more trouble between the fighter and his manager, so he did not talk business on this proposition. Coffroth is anxious to get Wolgast back again, and he probably figures the former a better attraction than Rivers.

Jones is expected back from the south in a few days. The difference in terms between Jones and Coffroth is not very great and the latter does not expect to have much trouble in getting Jones into line. Jim Buckley, fast, and their scrap should be worth seeing.

Henry Hickey, the sensational feather weight of Oakland, will oppose Young Cohen, a rattling good 122 pounder. The latter should give Hickey a real test. He has battled some of the toughest boys of his weight in this section and has shown to advantage against them.

The heavy weight contest between Charley Miller, the giant motorman, and Rufus Cameron, the colored heavy weight of Los Angeles, should result in a real Donnybrook. Miller is anxious to get back into the limelight, and promises to put Cameron away in short order.

The contest between Young Abe Atell of Denver and Jimmy Fox, the local 124 pounder, should be a scientific exhibition, as both are past masters at the art of boxing. They are lightning fast and probably the cleverest of their weight on the Pacific coast.

The Market club has nine bouts in all on its card. The other bouts are tied up with theatrical companies.

Ritchie gained all the honors that go with winning the championship, but because of the conditions under which it was won he should prove conclusively that it was no fluke. He is in duty-bound to give Wolgast another chance, and it seems to the writer that the latter is entitled to the first whack. Willie might want to engage in a fight of short duration before he crosses over the Marathon route, and it would be his privilege to try himself out against some second rater, but Wolgast has the call on him for the first real fight.

Some are claiming that Rivers has the call over Wolgast. Not so, according to Joe's record. Kilbane's knocking-out victory over Rivers and Wolgast's victory over the Mexican easily puts Ad to the front. If Murphy beats Wolgast in a return match he will have the edge on them all.

In a letter to the sporting editor Tommy Walsh, who is now managing Joe Mandot, the New Orleans light-weight, has the following to say: "Mandot plans a busy season and will start off by boxing Leach Cross 10 rounds in New York March 10. We have under consideration an offer from a New York promoter to box Joe Rivers 10 rounds in Gotham. The New Orleans fight public wants Joe for three fights in the southern city during March. I have under my management Frankie Duran who will probably box Eddie Campi on the coast March 20. Sincerely yours, "TOMMY WALSH."

GOSSIP OF THE STREET; A LINE OF TALK FOR SPORT

Ad Wolgast may be all in, but he still fights fast enough to draw $20,000 houses.

J. Cal Ewing does not need a fight manager. The local baseball magnate uses excellent judgment in selecting his opponents.

Tom Jones has taken Jack Lester, the northwestern middle weight, along with him to Los Angeles to get a match. Apparently Tom figures that it is the manager and not the fighter that gets the money, he will prefer that Tom will find it otherwise in the Lester case.

Early reports from the baseball scribbles at Hayes Springs show that the Giants will be experienced. Since their experience at Paso Robles last season they have joined the "show me" brigade.

Rube Marquard always had plenty of nerve. He drew a monthly stipend from the Giants when he was a leaman pitcher, and now he is getting it on the stage.

The revival of racing in New York would be welcome news to the lovers of the game in this section. The best the boys get now is to read about them, which is hardly enough to satisfy their craving.

It is reported that Bob McAllister is getting a sum which runs into four figures for his win at Meehan in Oakland next week. If Bob should lose the promoters probably would value him then as a three figure fighter.

The local business men made a boot and Charley Connaught pulled down when they allowed the White Sox to get away from us.

The stage is playing havoc with sports nowadays. It is taking all our best men. Rube Marquard has deserted the Giants and Willie Ritchie is so busy behind the footlights that he has forgotten all about the ring.

Del Howard should be careful of those Sents, as the fans will not stand for the excuse that they were overruled if they fail to make good.

Knockout Brown is probably deeply impressed with the totem state by this time. He has discovered that it is a fine place to sleep.

The horses that are racing at Juarez are a particular sort. Just because there was a little mud on the course the card was completely shattered as a result of scratches.

Willie Ritchie is going to Europe to continue his stage career, say reports. Apparently Willie figures that getting a walloping such as he received in his Wolgast fight is not worth it at any price.

Bonanza lived up to his name by capturing the fifth event at Juarez yesterday.
