

EIGHTEEN AUTO BANDITS GUILTY; FOUR MUST DIE

Diudonne, Callem, Souly and Monier to Be Guillotined—Prison Terms for Fourteen

"ANARCHIST" CAROUY ENDS LIFE IN CELL

Gang Held Up Banks, Broke Into Houses, Killed Chief of Detectives

PARIS, Feb. 27.—Four of the 22 auto bandits were sentenced today to death by the guillotine.

Fourteen of the others were sentenced to long terms of imprisonment. The trial of the gang who held Paris in terror for months ended after 21 days.

A verdict of guilty was returned against 18 of the prisoners on counts including murder, arson and robbery.

Four of the accused, including three women, accomplices, were found not guilty.

Among the indictments were no fewer than 22 for murder, the victims being motor drivers, bank messengers, freight agents and policemen.

KILLED CHIEF OF DETECTIVES

The gang held up a number of suburban banks, broke into the residences of prominent people, killed the chief of the Paris detectives, set fire to buildings, and finally, when their two leaders, Bonnot and Garnier, were in danger of being captured, they turned on the police.

Carouy, the "anarchist bandit," when he heard that he was condemned to imprisonment for life, committed suicide in his cell in prison by taking poison, which presumably was passed to him as he left the courtroom.

MANY DRAMATIC INCIDENTS

The trial was attended by many dramatic incidents. The jurors were threatened time and again with assassination by accomplices of the accused. Many of the 204 witnesses also were menaced.

The court itself was surrounded by a large force of guards, judges and jurors being provided with strong escorts.

When the evidence was brought to a close and the jury had retired, a tremor of excitement passed over the spectators in the courtroom, for threats had been mysteriously put into circulation that something terrible would happen. Nothing, however, occurred.

The jury remained out from 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon until nearly 7 o'clock this morning. They had to consider a series of nearly 400 questions which had been submitted to them.

VERDICT CONFUSED

When they returned to court their written verdict was so incoherent, contradictory and lengthy that it had to be explained to the presiding judge by the foreman.

At the conclusion of the reading the spectators were stirred when counsel for four of the bandits sprang from their seats and declared that it was illegal for the presiding judge to ask the jury for oral explanations of a written verdict. They entered a strong protest against such procedure.

Their claims by the verdict were liable to the death penalty, and this was a last effort to avert or postpone their fate.

Another dramatic incident occurred after the court had deliberated on the protests by prisoners' counsel and decided against them.

The presiding judge turned to the accused and asked them if they had anything to say before sentence was pronounced. Callem, who had been found guilty of murder, shouted:

"My comrade, Diudonne, was not the assailant of the bank messenger, Cabry. It was I."

This caused a tremendous sensation, in view of the fact that Cabry had repeatedly asserted that Diudonne shot him.

The judges retired at half-past 7 to deliberate as to the sentences. Only four of the bandits are liable to the death penalties.

LETTER WRITING WIFE LOSES LOVING HUSBAND

Former Pacific Grove Woman Divorced Because She Had Too Many "Mail" Affinities

(Special Dispatch to The Call) SAN JOSE, Feb. 27.—C. E. Durlin, formerly of Pacific Grove, was granted a final decree of divorce today from Ines Durlin, whose propensity for writing love letters to various alleged affinities was discovered unexpectedly by her husband.

According to the husband, Mrs. Durlin corresponded for two months with a soldier named W. F. Kennedy at San Francisco at the same time she was writing love letters to Thomas Gonzales of Monterey county.

Durlin was awarded an interlocutory decree, but his wife was permitted to retain three children and obtained alimony.

OFFICIALS RIDICULE THE MAGDALENA BAY RUMOR

State Department Declares Reports Are Inspired From Same Sources That Demand Intervention in Mexico

(Special Dispatch to The Call) WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Administration officials ridicule the report that the United States is laying plans to convert Magdalena bay into a naval station. Reports reaching Washington are to the effect that the developments in Mexico have revived the rumors about Magdalena bay being wanted by this country, but state war and navy officials declare the stories are untrue.

A state department official intimated that the reports were probably inspired by the same interests that have been clamoring for intervention in Mexico.

Watch at Gas Buoy—As a result of the automatic gas buoy at the Presidio shoal being put out of commission reported by Inspector W. H. Rhodes of the lighthouse service yesterday provided for a watch to be placed at the buoy to catch the offender.

WOMEN ACCOMPLICES FREE Court and Jury Fear Outrages

Two women involved in the crimes of the auto bandits in France. Of the male members of the band convicted four were sentenced to death. The women were acquitted. They are: Marie Vuillemin, 24 years of age (upper picture), who was the sweetheart of Garnier, the leader of the bandits, killed in a gun fight with the police, and Barbe Leclerc, aged 22, who is the sweetheart of one of the convicted men.

PACKARD FACTORY MAN VISITING HERE

Arthur E. Corbin, Sales Manager of Detroit Concern, Is Lee's Guest

By LEON J. PINKSON Arthur E. Corbin, assistant sales manager of the Packard Motor company of Detroit, has been the guest of Cuyler Lee, Packard distributor in northern California, for the last two days.

Corbin, who is on a tour of inspection, reached the city on Wednesday and since his arrival has been dividing his time between his official duties and seeing the sights of the city and vicinity as the guest of Mr. Lee.

This is Mr. Corbin's first visit to the coast and, like all the leading lights of the automobile world who have visited this section, he is most surprised at what he has found here in the matter of roads, climatic conditions and the automobile situation in general.

"My trip to the coast was to get in closer touch with the dealers and learn just how the new Packard '4' and '35' have impressed the motoring public," said Mr. Corbin yesterday, "and I can truthfully say that these new models are creating the same favor on the Pacific coast that they have throughout the east. The left hand drive and central control features have made an instant hit and the other changes aimed to increase the comfort of the occupants of the cars are equally popular."

The record set recently by William P. McCulla, when he drove his Packard '35' from Chicago to Detroit, a distance of 284 miles, in 6 hours and 54 minutes actual running time, notwithstanding most unfavorable road conditions, has demonstrated without doubt the power of this Packard model and has won for it much praise.

"Our factory is working to its capacity and there is every indication that there will be no let up throughout the season."

Mr. Corbin will leave today for Portland and Seattle and will return to Detroit, via the Canadian route, visiting Packard dealers along the line.

Nevada Motorist Visiting City—A. H. Howe, Goldfield, Nev., is in San Francisco. Mr. Howe, it will be remembered, has made five round trips from Goldfield to San Francisco in his 1912 Chalmers '26." He is very well posted on the different routes and is very enthusiastic over what is known as the Midland trail to San Francisco as the terminal of the ocean to ocean highway. He has driven his car more than 12,000 miles.

Regal Distribute Optimistic—The Frank O. Renstrom company, western distributor of Regal Underlugg cars, believes the coming season will be a record breaker in so far as the sale of machines is concerned. It reports a larger demand for cars by its subscribers than it had expected. Its intention to reach every city or town in its territory, whether large or small, apparently is bearing fruit, as Regal Underlugg agencies are being located rapidly and the company intends to spread Regal gospel wherever there is any possibility of selling a machine.

This Shampoo Best For Home Use

"Every woman prizes luxuriant hair," says Mae Martyn, in the Philadelphia Union, "and many find that much depends on shampooing. Various preparations are used for this purpose, but few are free from injurious ingredients, and the result is thin, straggly hair and itchy scalps."

A simple and inexpensive shampoo mixture can be made at home by dissolving a teaspoonful of canthrox in a teacup of hot water. This is poured on the scalp and rubbed until lathering freely, then the hair rinsed carefully and dried.

"Nothing so quickly promotes a healthy condition of the scalp as a canthrox shampoo, and its use is certain to produce glossy, luxuriant hair. Care should be taken to get an original package of canthrox."

GOVERNOR LISTER ANNOUNCES VETO OF $676,050 ITEM

General Appropriation Budget Reduced to $8,689,576, Quarter of a Million Under 1911 Total

OLYMPIA, Feb. 27.—Governor Ernest Lister announced his veto tonight of $676,050 from the general appropriations budget reducing the total to $8,689,576, a quarter of a million dollars under the 1911 total.

The items vetoed include $195,000 for the conducting of the Cheney normal school, which if sustained means the abandonment of the school in April.

He also cut out the $531,000 for the completion of the new temple of justice. If this is sustained the home of the supreme court will have to wait until capital bonds are sold before it gets its marble facing. The appropriation in question was a loan from the general fund.

The governor also struck out the sum of $4,000 for horses for the state militia and the proviso it carried, allowing the use of armories for public purposes without rent.

The new buildings planned for the deaf and the blind were eliminated, as were several other small items.

The senate today passed the bill authorizing sterilization of the incurably insane and one providing for a state vocational school.

The senate, with only one dissenting vote, also passed a bill creating a state department of agriculture and abolishing the offices of dairy and pure food commissioner, oil inspector, horticultural commissioner and state veterinarian. Their duties will be performed by the new state department.

Governor Lister urged passage of this bill.

Four Killed in Wreck

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 27.—Because of an open switch a Canadian Pacific freight train left the tracks early today, ran into a siding west of Port Moody and smashed into several cars loaded with lumber, killing four Hindus and seriously injuring five others. None of the freight crew was injured.

State Supervision for Boxing

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 27.—The lower house of the Montana legislature today passed a bill legalizing 12 round boxing exhibitions under state supervision.

Ten per cent of the revenue of the exhibitions to go to the state. Two members of the house, led a fight against the bill.

Governor Stewart signed a bill fixing the legal rate of interest at 12 per cent and another which limits the number of saloons in a town.

Records to Be Impounded

SEATTLE, Feb. 27.—Before taking a recess until March 24 the federal grand jury which has been investigating the telephone and telegraph merger directed the impounding today of a large mass of records of the Western Union Telegraph company.

The records, it was asserted, are destroyed at regular intervals by the telegraph company and it was feared by the grand jury that the documents would not be available when the investigation is resumed next month.

Orders were received at the Puget Sound navy yard yesterday transferring Commander A. H. Robertson, captain of the yard, to command of the cruiser Charleston, which, it is reported, will soon be detached from the Pacific reserve fleet to relieve the armored cruiser Saratoga on the Asiatic station.

Murder Investigation

TACOMA, Feb. 27.—Police investigation into the murder of Marie Lerner, a lodging house keeper, has broadened today into a search for three men—one who lived for several months with the woman as her husband, and the other two known to have been in the house on the night of the murder and who have disappeared early yesterday morning.

In the federal court Frank Frison, charged with killing M. Dobrovitch at Vancouver barracks, was pronounced insane. It is expected that he will be removed to the asylum at Washington, D. C., for criminally insane federal prisoners.

MEMORIAL FOR AVIATORS

Ohio Commission Plans Park and Statue in Honor of Wrights

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 27.—In commemoration of the achievements of Wilbur and Orville Wright in science and aviation the Wright memorial commission of Dayton, incorporated here today, plans to construct and maintain a memorial park in that city in which is to be a figure in bronze on the spot where the first flight in a heavier than air machine was made in September, 1904, by the Wright brothers.

HAVE YOU HOME FOR SPOT? He Is Too Good a Dog to Die.

Some Kindly Disposed Person Can Bring Joy To the Little Canine Prisoner

If there happens to be in any place in San Francisco or its environs a kindly, gentle person who might not be indisposed to undertake a life saving mission such as a one may, today or tomorrow, prevent a deliberate, premeditated murder.

Or, should there be a family of young folk who could make room for one more in their midst, and thereby prolong a young life which is just about to be snuffed out, this family may earn the everlasting gratitude of one who is likely otherwise to lose his life despite fervid protestations.

The prospective victim of an untimely death is a young gentleman whose temporary name is "Spot." There is no birth certificate or family bible to attest the correctness of this name, but it is as good an alias as any other.

Spot is a fox terrier, a agile, well-groomed, of playful disposition and irreproachable genealogical connections. He especially is fond of children, having been their playmate all his life so far, and it is to them particularly that he has addressed an appeal which he desires should be given heed at once, before his ready executioner makes it too late. Being a trick trained dog, who stands on his hind legs at the slightest sign, turns somersaults and shakes hands, Spot makes it too late. NELSON'S WIFE SAYS PUGILIST KIDNAPED HER

Former Lightweight Champion Will Be Met at Denver by Summons in Divorce Suit

DENVER, Feb. 28.—Batting Nelson, financier of Hegewisch and erstwhile champion lightweight prize fighter, will be met with a summons in a suit for divorce which he arrives in Denver March 5.

This announcement was made tonight by friends of Mrs. Nelson, better known in Denver as Fay King, a cartoonist on the Post.

That she was kidnaped by Batting Nelson on the night of January 29 for her marriage three days later at the fighter's home will be the charge upon which the suit will be based.

Fay King remained three days as Nelson's wife. She left for Denver on the Sunday night following the marriage and then went on to Portland, Ore., to visit her parents before resuming her work on the Post.

"Nelson heard of my reported engagement to a Denver man and he stopped his fighting engagements to come here for me," said Mrs. King tonight. "He took me by storm and after I was weak and a nervous wreck from resisting him and his proposals he forced me into a taxicab and rushed me off to the station."

"I realized that I had made a mistake the day of the wedding and the first opportunity I got I hurried back to Denver. I will go right on working on the Post as though the affair had never happened."

WILL BOOST WORLD'S FAIR

G. Leon Beulescu, secretary of the Roumanian Society of San Francisco and Oakland, will leave this city the first of the month for Portland, Ore., and from there will go to Europe. First he will go to Bucuresti, Roumania, thence to Coriza, Albania, in Turkey. During his travels he will talk of the world's fair in San Francisco in 1915.
