FOR DELEGATION OF LOCAL BUGS
Holiday Crowd Goes Up to Boyes Springs to Help Boost for the Home Squad

By WILLIAM J. SLATTERY
(Special Dispatch to The Call)
BOYES SPRINGS, March 2.—A holiday crowd of San Francisco fans...

HALF A DOZEN TWIRLERS
Each side used three pitchers. The McArdle fans seemed to have it on their rivals so far as the general average goes...

HUGHES SWATTED SOME
Hughes was tapped rather lively by the Mundorffs, but he kept them well scattered, and the six bingles that they hit against him netted only one tally in five innings.

DEL A BUSY OLD BIRD
Howard was a busy man, playing first base for the Mundorffs for a few innings and directing the maneuvers of the tossers from the coaching box and the bench.

WILLIE HOGAN AND WALTER SCHMIDT, the two late arrivals for the first time, were on the job for the first time. They tore around the bases, showing the good effects of the winter campaign in the south.

HOGAN LINED OUT TWO HITS, registered a tally and stole a base. Schmidt succeeded Howard at first base, but did not connect with the ball.

Among the interested spectators was Tom Corbett, who arrived Saturday evening and immediately started boasting things along. He sat in the grandstand with Cal Ewing and rooted like an old lion.

Police Judge Sullivan, Bond and Warrant Clerk Rock and "Dit" Waterbury, the well known sport and old time ball player, were also there to cheer the boys along.

After the game Howard announced he would take the following men to San Francisco for the series with the Red Sox.

Mundorff, Hoffman, Zimmerman, Hogan, McCarty, Henry, Cartwright, Calahan, Kibbler, Spencer, Scully, Hughes, Thomas, Henley, McCovey.

The score for today's game:
McArdle, AB. R. BH. PO. A. E.
Mundorff, AB. R. BH. PO. A. E.

Pitchers' record—Two hits and no runs off Henley in two innings; 6 hits and 5 runs off McArdle in four innings; 8 hits and 2 runs off Maslow in three innings; 2 hits and 1 run off Henley in two innings; 1 hit and no runs off Arlett in two innings; 3 hits and no runs off Henley in five innings.

OAKS SLAUGHTERED LIVERMORE TEAM

Ables and Killilay, Heaving for Bushers, Batted All Over Town
By BOB SHAND
(Special Dispatch to The Call)
LIVERMORE, March 2.—The Oaks slaughtered the Livermore nine this afternoon by a score of 16 to 3, and even if the slaughter hurt the feelings of a couple of Oakland pitchers, loaned to Livermore, Manager Mitze was radiant over the result.

The boys showed me enough today to warrant a prediction that the Oaks will have one grand ball club this year. Mitze's comment as he walked off the field.

The Oaks gathered 23 hits off the shoots sent up by Ables and Killilay. Pope and Parkin heaved for the Oaks. Pope showed the arm and held the opposition to four hits and one run in the five innings during which he occupied the mound.

All the latest acquisitions showed up well. Guest was at bat three times and nailed as many as three balls. The best pitcher was Vinnie Ward, who pitched a sensational game.

Among the interesting spectators was Tom Corbett, who arrived Saturday evening and immediately started boasting things along. He sat in the grandstand with Cal Ewing and rooted like an old lion.

Police Judge Sullivan, Bond and Warrant Clerk Rock and "Dit" Waterbury, the well known sport and old time ball player, were also there to cheer the boys along.

MUNDORFF SAYS SPIT BALL IS ANCIENT

Veteran of Diamond Says the Game Today Has No Novelty
By JOE MURPHY
Twenty-six years on the baseball field did not use up all of Adrian C. Anson's speed, as the veteran star of the diamond still has enough of pep left to do a clog dance, which is a part of the act in which he opened yesterday at the Empress. Anson is better known to the baseball world as "Pop" and is universally known as one of the greatest players the game has known.

Anson started to play ball in 1871. He joined the Chicago team in 1874 after having played with other eastern teams. He remained with the White Sox until 1897, when he retired from the game. He played third base and caught, but it was at the initial sack that he was thoroughly at home.

Anson still follows the game as closely as ever, and it furnishes him the same excitement. As he says in his monologue, "there is nothing I like to do better than to sit in the grandstand, eat peanuts and roast the umpire."

In speaking of the national game as it is played now and in Anson's time, the veteran diamond hero will not have that the spitball has become faster and that new plays have been invented.

There was a fellow named Conway who pitched for the Detroit club and who threw a splitter. You could see it coming up to you like a piece of dead weight. He used to play havoc with the catchers, as the backstops in those days did not have the kind of mitts they wear nowadays.

"No, I can not see anything new," he said, "I have seen everything that is being done today on the diamond. The men who were in the game then were bigger physically than they now are. For several years the Chicago White Sox team averaged 172 pounds to the man, which shows the type of athletes that were in the game. Why, there was a combination on the Chicago White Sox which was kept intact for ten years, so you can realize for yourself that they knew each other perfectly and must have played some inside ball."

"I can name 20 pitchers of other days, and you would have a difficult task naming their equals from among the present day pitchers."
He pointed to the greatest outdoor sport known, and it is destined to remain so, as the men who are behind the game are keeping it clean. Bill Halpern, general president of the National league and of the Chicago ball club, was the first man to stamp out crookedness on the ball field. It is a good many years since he expelled five players from the game for life, for "throwing the game."

"Baseball is one game the American public will not allow being tampered with."

TELEGRAPHS NOSE OUT YOSEMITES IN HOT GAME

Muggsy Moir's Benders Fool Victors, but They Get to Him at Last
A Texas leaguer bingle with a runner on third in the ninth inning gave the Telegraphs the victory in one of the hardest battles ever witnessed on the North Beach grounds yesterday afternoon. "Muggsy" Moir of the Villalla nine was on the firing line for the Yosemites, and his assortment of benders proved a puzzle to the hard hitting Telegraphs. He sent 13 batsmen back to the bench via the strikeout route, and allowed but five safeties. Score: Telegraphs, AB. R. BH. PO. A. E. Yosemites, AB. R. BH. PO. A. E.

PHOENIX NINE TRIMS ITS ILLUSTRIOUS ANCESTORS
OAKLAND, March 2.—The old graduate ball players of St. Mary's college failed to evince their old time invincible form, which made the old Phoenix team of 1907 famous, at Grove street park this afternoon and allowed their younger successors to the name of Phoenix to treat them to a 4-1 beating. This notwithstanding that the grads numbered in their lineup names familiar in big league circles, including a battery composed of Harry Krause, former Athletic star, entered in the roll of the Portland club this season, and Eddie Burns, formerly with St. Louis and now with Montreal.

Other old time Phoenix men in the lineup were Harry Hooper, Boston outfielder; Ike Hamilton, trout with the Oaks last season; Tom Fitzsimmons, who will work in a Venice uniform; Tom Feeney, "Bully" Wallace, Charlie Enwright and Tom Lundy. Dick Fitzgerald, another old Phoenix star, handled the indicator. Krause was opposed on the mound by the coming Phoenix lad, Johnson, who let the grads down with five hits, while the Phoenix scored six off their former idol, numbering several long drives.

STRACHAN GREENIFIN TELEMATCHIOUS

Finals of Virginia Hotel Tournament Won in Straight Sets
The final of the Virginia hotel doubles was finished yesterday on the California club courts, and the honors were annexed by Strachan and Griffin, who defeated Johnston and Fottrell in straight sets. The victors surprised the spectators by the ease which they annexed the laurels. Johnston and Fottrell were at no time in the running, the scores being 6-2, 6-3, 6-2. The conditions for first class tennis were perfect. The work of the players was of the highest order, even though the losers failed to give Strachan and Griffin the game that was expected of them. The battle was fought mainly at close range, with the service line. There were numerous rallies in which many brilliant plays were executed.
