

GUBBART AND JESS WILLARD MAY MEET SOON IN LOCAL RING

GOFFROTH HAS A STRONG LINE ON HEAVY WEIGHTS

Prospects Strong for Battle Here in May—How the Pair Shape Up on Paper

By JOE MURPHY

The outlook is very promising for a couple of high class heavy weight battles here at a near date. Promoter Jim Goffroth is now angling for Gumbert Smith and Jess Willard, and if he lands them he will endeavor to send the winner against Luther McCarty on July 1.

Goffroth started the wires working yesterday. A message from Willard asking for a bout here with Smith started the titan haired promoter to work. His connections with the Smith end are so strong that it looks as if he can land the attraction.

There are only two white heavy weights in the field who have a call on McCarty for a match. They are Smith and Willard. It is questionable which has the better claim to a meeting with McCarty. They should settle it, and then there would be no doubt about who has the right.

THEY DO GET PEEVED
"I received a letter from Willard," said Goffroth yesterday afternoon, "in which he asked for a match with Smith. Before Smith defeated Bombarrier Wells he endeavored to go on with Willard and the latter turned him down. Sometimes these fighters get peeved, and it may be that Smith, who is now in the line, might treat Willard to the same medicine Willard administered to him. However, I am confident that I can get these fellows together. I have my own manager, Jim Buckley, and am waiting for a reply."

The prospects of Goffroth's landing this match are very bright as long as he is able to land Willard and Buckley is one of the easiest managers in the game to do business with. He thinks that Smith can beat all these big fellows and will readily give up the chance to send his charge against Willard.

There is little to choose between these fellows so far as their drawings in the roped arena are concerned. Willard has performed very well for a heavy weight prospect, his most convincing performance being that against Luther McCarty, whom critics said he outboxed in a 10 round no decision bout.

NOT REMARKABLE
Smith's recent knockout of Bombarrier Wells was nothing wonderful. The Englishman has been knocked out before. In fact, he seems to be getting used to it. He was flattened by big Al Palmer, and even Gunner Moir slipped him the knockout punch. It is about time for the critics to eliminate Wells from consideration.

If Goffroth could land the pair he would stage the battle in May. The winner would have a clear right to go against McCarty and the latter would have a hard job sidestepping the issue. However, neither can boast of his past ring performances and overlook the other. They both figure about even now, so let us decide who is the man to meet McCarty.

The date of the Tommy Murphy-Ad Wolgast bout has been definitely settled for April 19. Promoter Goffroth had hopes of putting on the battle a week ahead of this time, but Murphy will not be able to get away from New York as soon as he had hoped.

Ad Wolgast and his manager, Tom Jones, were to have left for Harbin yesterday, but they postponed their departure until today. They will motor to the Lake county resort.

Richmond High Tossers in Open Revolt

RICHMOND, March 18.—Following an order issued by Principal B. X. Tucker of the Richmond high school forbidding the student members of the baseball team to play in a game with a local business college, prominent leaders of the local high school athletes are in open rebellion against his ruling. They threaten to appeal to the board of education to allow them to play the rival school. If they can not gain a reversal they say they will drop all athletic activities planned for the spring semester of the school.

B. C. A. L. BASEBALL

OAKLAND, March 18.—The Fremont High school baseball tossers will meet the Berkeley High school nine tomorrow afternoon at the Twilight war grounds in Berkeley, one of the closing games of the Alameda county division of the B. C. A. L. It is expected to draw a heavy crowd for the college city players, opposed by young Starnes of Fremont. The Oakland "Pop" aggregation will meet the nine of the Alameda high school Saturday morning at Grove street park. The closing and deciding contest of the division will be played on March 29, when the Oakland high school team will play the Berkeley team in one of the most exciting in the prep school baseball. Three nines, Oakland high, Alameda high and Oakland "Pop" are all bunched with an even break in first place, each having won two and lost one contest. Fremont is a good second with a .500 percentage, while Berkeley is in last place with no wins as yet and three defeats. The night will be close between the three leaders. The winning nine will be the one that will play the winning team of the San Francisco division in a series of three contests for the championship of the B. C. A. L.

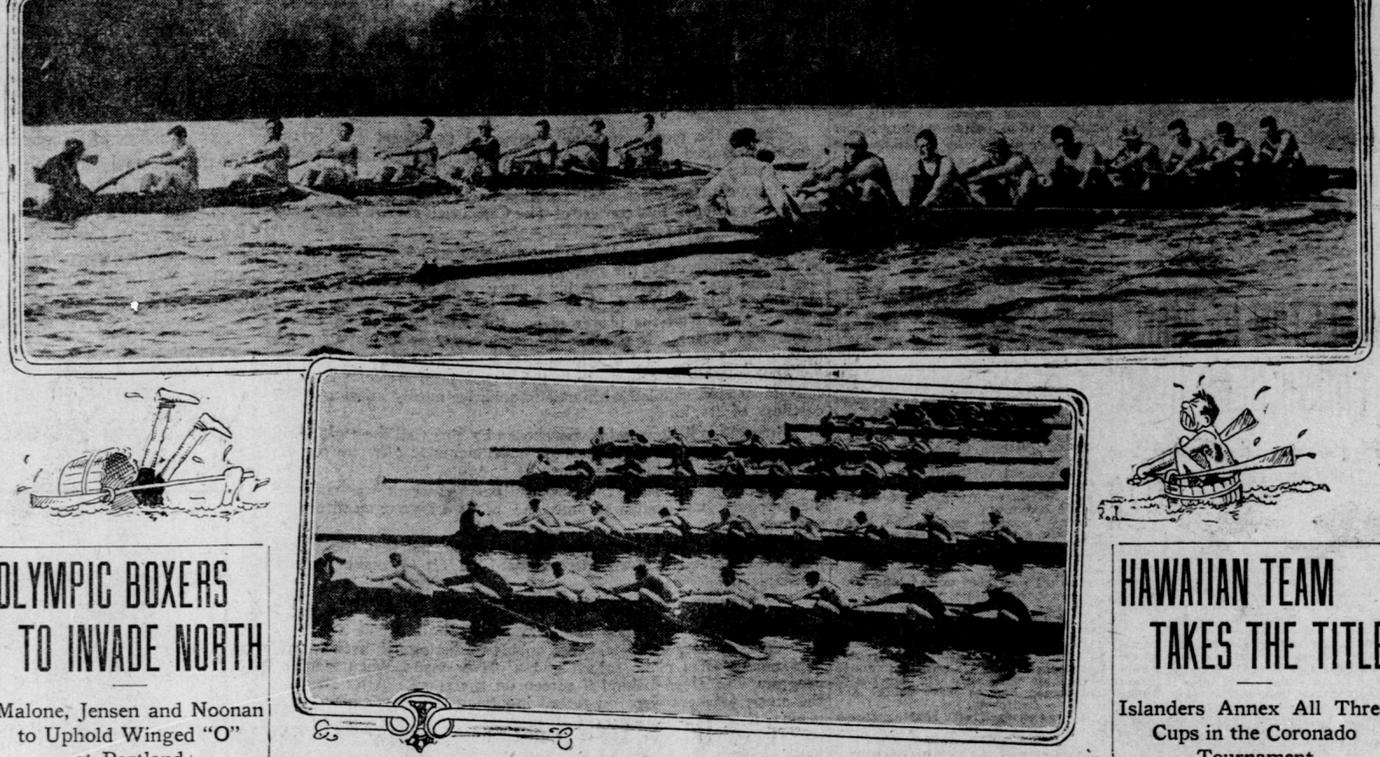

SACRAMENTO HIGH 13, SAN JOSE 4

SANTA CLARA, March 18.—The Sacramento high school team, which is touring the peninsula playing the various prep schools, defeated San Jose today on the university campus. CLEVER JOCKEY GROTH BRINGS IN 3 WINNERS

Little Pilot's Riding Feature of the Day; Carter Scores Two

(Special Dispatch to The Call)
EL PASO, March 18.—The riding of Jockey Groth was the feature of today's racing at Juarez. The clever little pilot landed three winners. He started off by putting Kall Inla in front in the opening event at 8 to 1 and in the next event he landed definite, the favorite, a winner. His final winner was Gold Finn, a 4 to 1 shot. Jockey Carter also showed good form in the saddle, piloting two winners, Upright at 9 to 2 and Colinet at 5 to 1. Summary:

Y. M. L. Bowlers Wind Up On Top of Heap

OAKLAND, March 18.—A meeting of the captains of the Oakland church bowling league was held this evening at the Y. M. C. A. to award prizes for the winners in the recently closed competitions. The closing event in the league will be a big banquet and entertainment to be given at the Y. M. C. A. on the following Tuesday evening, when the prizes will be presented. The Young Men's league succeeded in coming out on top in a whirlwind finish, with Barbra Glass bowlers right behind. The high single winning score went to Koshit with 257, as did the high three string total of 669. Koshit also captured high average with 27 games played in and 195 as an average. The three string team total went to the winning team with 2,538.

When Brampton and Al Ambrose Meet—Splash!

Secretary "Pop" Bell of the Pacific association of amateur oarsmen yesterday issued notices of the regular monthly meeting to be held at 112 Kearny street tomorrow night. One of the principal items of business will be the consideration of a special skiff race between Al Brampton of the Alameda rowing club and Al Ambrose of the Dolphins. The two clubs concerned have applied for a special sanction for the race, which is exciting more interest in rowing circles than anything since the days of Alex Pape's prime on the water.

HEAVEN U. OF W. CREW THIS YEAR

Coach Conibear Profits by Experience of Contest of Last Year

Northerners to Make a Big Bid for First Place April 19

By WILLIAM UNACK
The oarsmen of the University of Washington are making a big effort to capture the honors of the triangular regatta, which is to be rowed on Oakland estuary April 19. The crew has been training daily on the waters of Lake Washington since February 3, and will come south to meet the Stanford and California crews in the very best physical condition for the long three mile race.

One thing Coach Hiram Conibear will not repeat this year is to bring a light crew for the waters of the estuary. Last year "Conie" figured that he would be able to get the work necessary out of a light crew, the consequence being that the Washington crew averaged only 16 1/2 pounds per man, while Stanford and California averaged 174 1/2 and 176 respectively.

In the race this year Washington will be represented by a crew averaging 172 pounds, at least, with a probability of the weight being nearer 176. Every man in the northern shell will be a veteran, though only three of them have rowed in intercollegiate races previously. Captain Harry Waller rowed number 4 in last year's varsity and probably will be in the same shell this year.

At present there are nearly 60 men out for positions in the Washington varsity and freshman shells. Of this number, between 40 and 50 report for work every night, and have done so since February 3.

Conditions for rowing on Lake Washington are ideal. In this respect the northern varsity crew has good water at its front door, as it were, while both California and Stanford are handicapped in having to travel many miles every day before they even get sight of water to row on.

The two first varsity eights have races every night, at present, over courses of about two miles, but this distance is gradually being lengthened, and starting next week the crews will be sent over the full three miles until the day of the race. The two crews are evenly matched, and this affords good, hard work for the oarsmen. The contests always are close, with varying results, but never with more than half a boat length separating the boats at the finish.

Over at the Oakland estuary the California varsity crews are working out daily. Captain Art Eaton has expressed himself as satisfied with the showing of the men up to the present. The crews are going over the full three miles every night, and are able to negotiate the course without any trouble. The full course is rowed over at a racing pace, the stroke averaging about 30 to the minute. This is distinctly slower than last year's stroke and good results are already noticeable from the change.

Why The Call Gives First U. of W. Data

The Call, San Francisco, Dear Sirs: We, at "Washington," appreciate the way in which your paper treated us last year and desire to show our appreciation by giving you the first news about our crew for the coming regatta on Oakland estuary April 19.

Very truly yours,
H. H. WALLER, Captain.

PRINCELY PURSES FOR KALAMAZOO G. C. RACES

$26,000 Announced of Which $18,000 Covers But Two Events on Card

KALAMAZOO, Mich., March 18.—Twenty-six thousand dollars in early closing purses were announced today by Secretary W. P. Englemann, for the sixth renewal of Kalamazoo's grand circuit races, August 4 to 9, inclusive. The two feature events on the card are the paper mills purse, valued at $12,000, for 2:14 trotters, and the Burdick hotel purse, valued at $6,000, for 2:12 pacers.

These two races promise to be unique, for they will be decided on the fourth heat plan, the winner of the respective events to receive a valuable cup in addition to his share of the money.

The system of "every heat a race" will prevail. The value of each heat in the big trot will be $2,000, being divided 50, 25, 15 and 10 per cent. That means that it will be possible for 16 horses to win a part of the money. The 2:12 pace will be conducted on the same plan, the purse for each heat being $1,500. In case of a tie in either race, the horses so tied will be required to race a fifth heat to decide the ownership of the cup.

Three other events are included in the early closing card. They are the Michigan Traction company's purse, value $3,000 for 2:10 trotters; the Rickman hotel purse, valued at $2,000 for 2:17 trotters, and the American hotel purse, valued at $2,000 for 2:08 pacers. These three events will be three in five heats to finish with the fifth heat.

All the national championships will be held there, as well as a modern pentathlon, a five event competition for which the international Olympic committee will hang up a special prize.

JEFFRIES STILL IS PULLING THAT COMEBACK STUFF

As for T. Jones Esq., Naught Will Swerve Him From His Original Declaration

(Special Dispatch to The Call)
LOS ANGELES, March 18.—Is Jim Jeffries obsessed by the "comeback" idea? Some of his friends answer this, "the eternal question" of the prize ring, affirmatively. Others in the negative. However this may be, Jeffries still contends that he was "doped" at Reno and no one can convince him that Johnson ever was or ever will be his master.

"I was beaten by 'white skunks,' not by Johnson," Jeff remarked here recently. "I did not know when I entered the arena—at Reno or when I left it."

Incidentally Jeffries holds the present crop of white heavy weights in supreme contempt. Way down in his heart he believes that he is the master of any boxer in the world today, black or white. And few in San Francisco still rankles in his ample bosom.

Some semblance of color was given to the report that Jeff is to re-enter the ring, when he expressed a desire today to play handball at the Los Angeles Athletic club. He asked Dewitt Van Court to try and arrange it for him to begin exercising on the courts next week.

Handball was the first diversion to which Jeff turned when he broke his long period of inactivity and began light training for the battle with Johnson.

Jeffries has been on the "water wagon" for a number of weeks. He even scorns to look upon a cigarette. He is today in better condition than at any time since his return from Reno. He has taken a new lease on life, so to speak.

Tom Jones left for San Francisco soon after peddling the Jeff "comeback" story to the Los Angeles papers three weeks ago. Few in San Francisco took the story seriously, but Jones now simply reiterates the assertions he made then, maintaining solemnly and grandly in a Jonesian fashion that Jeffries would enter the ring.

HAWAIIAN TEAM TAKES THE TITLE

Islanders Annex All Three Cups in the Coronado Tournament

SAN DIEGO, March 18.—The polo season at Coronado came to an abrupt ending today when the All-Hawaiians won the junior championship trophy from Pasadena. The crippled Canadian and Coronado teams defaulted to the Islanders in the Pacific coast circuit and Shreve handicap events. The result gives the Hawaiians the three cups.

The Pacific coast All-America cup and the California challenge cup were won earlier in the tournament by the Coronado team, completing the list of the five offered.

The players say that the tournament just closed was the hardest one they ever played in, as every team went in to win and played to the limit of speed and endurance. The points, too, have suffered, and in the last games showed the strain of the constant play.

No Paid Coach for Santa Clara Tossers

(Special Dispatch to The Call)
UNIVERSITY OF SANTA CLARA, March 18.—The athletic committee decided today to abandon its intention of engaging a professional coach to fill the vacancy made by the departure of "Patsy" O'Rourke. By this ultimatum the coaching duties will fall on Captain Zariski. The committee concluded that the season was too far advanced to necessitate the need of a paid tutor.

NEW ORLEANS, March 18.—The practice game between the Detroit Americans and the New Orleans team of the Southern league today was a 12 inning, Detroit winning, 4 to 3. Until the ninth inning the score was 2 to 0 in favor of Detroit, but in this session the locals piled up three runs off the delivery of Claus.
