

AT A WOMAN 19
A YOUNG woman was making arrangements to entertain a small group of her college mates at a house party. "I'd like to invite Margaret," she said regretfully as she went over the list with her mother, "but there really isn't any man I could invite for her, and it would be awkward to have her without, under the circumstances. "Won't she be hurt if you leave her out?" asked the mother. "Thank goodness, no," said the daughter, emphatically. "Most of the girls would, but Margaret is one of those people who don't get hurt. I guess she is too busy." "Doesn't that description make you think you would like to know Margaret, whoever she is?" "That was the effect it had upon me. I had never met the girl to whom my friends referred nor even heard her name mentioned, but when I heard the characterization I felt my heart warm toward her. "One of those people who don't get hurt"—how many people do you know of whom you could confidently say that? Not many, I reckon. "Permitting one's self to get hurt over fancied slights or real grievances is too much of a luxury to the average person to be willingly dispensed with. "What some people would find to occupy their minds if they did not have grievances to nurse and slights to brood over I can not imagine. I suppose they would be as unhappy as an unmarried woman I used to know. She had no children, no intellectual interests and, as she boarded at a hotel, no household cares. She was crying down married life to me one day. "My dear," she said, "you can't imagine how bored I am with the whole thing. Why, Phil and I haven't even had a good quarrel for three months." I suppose the people who take such pleasure in getting hurt are in much the same state of ennui when they can not find a grievance. The sensitiveness which makes its possessors continually fancy themselves slighted or hurt has too long been regarded as a kind of virtue, or at least the hall mark of an artistic temperament. To me it is nothing but another name for self-centeredness and the hall mark of an unoccupied mind. It is only people who have nothing to think about but themselves who are super-sensitive. The busy, unselfish people do not have time to wonder if they are being slighted. Sensitiveness is a fine enough quality so long as you are sensitive to the right thing. Be as sensitive to beauty as you can. There is happiness in that for you. Fortunate, indeed, is the man who can say, "My heart leaps up when I behold a rainbow in the sky." Be as sensitive to the suffering of others as you can; but as for the paltry, self-pitying, self-centered sensitiveness that is forever "getting hurt," don't consider that a virtue, for it isn't. The virtue lies on the side of those people who, like Margaret, are too busy to feel it.

SOCIETY AT SAN DIEGO.

(Special Correspondence to the Call) SAN DIEGO, April 8.—That the social season is still in full blast at the Hotel Del Coronado is demonstrated by the dinner dances, teas, bridge parties and the numerous other forms of entertainment. The aftermath of the recent golf tournament held at Coronado was a dinner given by John J. Hernan, manager of the hotel, Tuesday evening, followed by a dance. The table, which seated 24 guests, was unique in its decorations, the center piece being an imitation of the clubhouse, over the sides of which was arranged a white climbing rose vine with blossoms. The walls of the house were of canvas. From this was stretched to each place a broad ribbon of different colors, and attached to the end of each was a toy indicative of the special fad of that guest. There was much amusement when the ribbons were pulled and the toys appeared. The fitch was toastmaster. Judge Peter Grosscup and Miss Fitch were winners of the cups. Those present were Mrs. MacNaughton and Miss Martha MacNaughton of Calumet, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Prescott of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Collins of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Clazy of Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Easton of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Bauer of New York, Mrs. Quinn of Toronto, Mrs. Beckwith of Chicago, Judge Peter Grosscup of Chicago, Miss Fitch, Mr. Winch of Vancouver, Lieutenant Chamberlain, Ellis, U. S. N., Captain Chamberlain, U. S. A.; Mr. Crosby of Berkeley and Mr. Hernan.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

Nomination of officers was the feature of the business meeting of the Corona club yesterday afternoon. The committee being as follows: President, Mrs. Harold L. Seager; first vice president, Mrs. James W. Treadwell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles J. Lewis; recording secretary, Miss Emma Van Bergen; directors, Mrs. P. A. Barot, Mrs. B. F. Cook, Mrs. Harry Melendy, Mrs. James Ellison, Mrs. A. N. Knoph. At the next meeting nominations will be made from the floor. Yesterday was dramatic day, under the direction of Mrs. A. N. Knoph. Mrs. Herbert Sanford Howard read John Galsworthy's "The Little Dream," and Mrs. James Pressley sang charmingly a group of songs, accompanied by Miss Alma Birmingham. The Bryan Cosmopolitan Reception club gave a most enjoyable reception yesterday afternoon at the school to the members of the board of education and the superintendent of schools between the hours of 2 and 5. The auditorium was most attractively decorated in the school colors, white and gold.

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Mme. D'Alille. "A simple and reliable remedy for skin eruptions, chaps, cold sores, pimples and eczema is Mother's Salve. It is healing, cooling, soothing and antiseptic in action. It should be in every family medicine cabinet. "To restore plumpness and symmetry of form without becoming fat, the Vaucaire home treatment is recommended. Make a syrup with 1 1/2 cups of sugar and a pint of water, and into this stir an ounce of gallol; take two teaspoonfuls before meals. "Just worrying about hair falling out won't help any woman. A few minutes' work is better than hours of worry. Faded and brittle hair, falling hair and baldness are caused by a parasite that destroys the life of the hair. Mother's Shampoo removes these parasites; leaves the scalp healthy and clean and makes the hair fine and fluffy. Enough for several months can be bought at any drug store for 25c. "Spotted, sallow and muddy looking complexions, together with skin eruptions, often present in the spring, require a cleansing treatment instead of face powder. An ideal complexion beautifier is easily made at home by dissolving an original package of mayonaise in a half pint of witch hazel. It makes the skin soft, fair and lovely. "Plain pyroxin applied with the finger tips will cause thin and straggly eyebrows to grow long, even, regular and darker in color. Pyroxin applied to the roots will make the lashes grow long, dark and silky. "To remove superfluous hair on face or forehead make a paste with a little water and powdered delatone, cover the hairs for two minutes, then remove and wash the skin. Delatone does not discolor the skin and is safe and sure."

PARHENEIA AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Honor Falls to Quartet Who Have Attained Distinction
Life of Institution Is to Be Celebrated in Ceremonial

BERKELEY, April 10.—The Parthenia, which the women of the University of California will give in a glade of the campus next Saturday will be not only a symbolical pageant, but a ceremonial to celebrate the life of the university. Four senior women who during their undergraduate courses have attained distinction in some line of high endeavor will be crowned with laurel during the presentation of the masque. The honor falls this year to Miss Barbara Nachtrieb, who has attained distinction in dramatic interpretation; to Miss Gertrude Comfort, who has won plaudits in art, to Miss Evelyn Steel, author of "Everymaid," the Parthenia, who by verse and prose has really performed fine literary work, and to Miss Ella Martin, who is distinguished for scholarship. Miss Nachtrieb, who will appear soon as Viola in the English club's presentation of "Twelfth Night" at the Greek theater, has played Cleopatra in Shaw's "Antony and Cleopatra," Francesca in "Paolo and Francesca" and Madam Trentoni in Clyde Fitch's "Captain Jinks." Miss Elizabeth Ferrier will be Everymaid in the Parthenia, while Miss Claudia Masse will be Shadow of a Dream. Among the solo dancers will be Miss Ruth Griffiths and Miss Mariquita de Laguna.

Quick, Painless Way To Remove Hairs

(Beauty Culture)
A chance discovery by a chemist has resulted in a harmless way to remove hairy growths without possible injury to the skin. A paste is made with powdered delatone and water and applied to the hairs not wanted. After two or three minutes this is rubbed off and with it comes every trace of hair. The skin is then washed and is left white, firm and smooth. The delatone treatment is so simple and quick in action that no one is justified in employing the painful and costly electric needle. Rubbing pyroxin on eyelashes with finger end makes them grow thick and beautiful. Short, straight eyelashes will come in long and have a delightful curl if pyroxin be applied at lash-roots with thumb and forefinger. Use caution and don't get any pyroxin where hair is not wanted.

ECZEMA ALL OVER CHILD'S FACE

Also on Right Arm. Itched and Burned, Got So Bad Had to Take Her Out of School. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

Big Nine, Cal.—"My little girl's trouble commenced with a cold sore which came in the corner of her mouth. It was pronounced ringworm. It kept getting worse all the time until one whole side of her face was covered with it. This was called eczema. The eczema appeared on her right arm between the hand and elbow and came out all over her face in sores. A yellow water would run out of them. It itched and burned, causing her to scratch it and made her cross and irritable. It was unsightly, as her face was a mass of sores. Her face got so bad that I had to take her out of school. "I saw the Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised, so I sent and got the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. She bathed her face and arms in warm water and Cuticura Soap and at night she would use Cuticura Ointment on it. In a little while her face was all right and has not bothered her since. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured her." (Signed) Mrs. H. H. McMurtry, Apr. 8, 1912. Cuticura Soap and Ointment do so much for poor complexions, red, rough hands, and dry, thin and falling hair, and cost so little that it is almost criminal not to use them. Sold by dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 22-p. book on the skin and scalp. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." "Tender-faced men should use Cuticura Soap Shaving Stick, 25c. Sample free.
