CALIFORNIA AND WASHINGTON VARSITY EIGHTS WORKING OUT ON OAKLAND ESTUARY YESTERDAY

California crew on the left, Washington on the right and Washington in action at the top. California varsity seated as follows: Sutton, bow; Young, 2; Merritt, 3; Haller, 4; Williams, 5; Shaw, 6; Georgeson, 7; Eaton (Captain), 8; Coombes, coxswain. Washington varsity occupy the slides as follows: E. Taylor, bow; Frankland, 2; Bonney, 3; A. Campbell, 4; Walske, 5; Hutton, 6; A. C. Campbell, 7; Waller (Captain), stroke; Schwabland, coxswain.

THE NEW STROKE IS MASTERED BY BLUE AND GOLD Washington Crew in Great Shape - Stanford Men Will Be on Creek Today

By WILLIAM UNKAK The University of California crew showed up on the waters of the estuary yesterday in better shape than at any time since they have been rowing this season, and it looks as if the boys from Berkeley have hit the top of their condition at the right time and will be there to give the Stanford and Washington crews a fight to a finish Saturday morning.

With Captain Art Eaton in the stroke seat, the blue and gold men have been gradually showing improvement, and every day some little error has been corrected until today the eight men are rowing in really good form, when it is considered that the stroke is entirely new and that it took considerable coaching to get the men away from the theories and practice of the old stroke.

EATON GOOD SKIPPER Eaton has made an ideal captain. His trip east last year has been a real advantage to the crew, and the points he picked up have been well and strikingly demonstrated and instilled into his men. He has the full confidence of the oarsmen and students at Berkeley, and it is his enthusiasm, coupled with his knack of being able to impart knowledge and his great control over the men that has been responsible for one of the best looking crews, both in condition and form, that has ever represented the blue and gold.

The Washington eight had another strenuous workout yesterday morning, showing up in the best of shape previously. The northerners have now regained their land legs after the rough trip down the coast and are showing all the signs that have made the crew famous throughout the northwest.

PERFECT VS. ALMOST SO They showed their mastery of the long reach yesterday, the form being perfect, or as near perfect as possible, and there are some people who believe there is no such thing as perfect form in an eight. Last year the Washington boys got their bevel the minute the slides left the water, but this year they are reaching out in the water and do not get the bevel until an instant before the catch.

The Stanford varsity and freshman crews will arrive at the boathouse Amador today, and it is probable that Coach Pat O'Dea will have both crews on the water this afternoon. The arrival of the Stanford crews will mean that the University of California boathouse Amador a busy appearance. The three rival varsities will then be quartered under the one roof.

RED, WHITE AND BLUE The triangular regatta Saturday morning will seem a patriotic one in that the crews will represent the red, white and blue of old glory. The three crews have the blades of their sweeps painted in the colors of their respective colleges, this being one of the best methods adopted for the spectators to distinguish the crews at a distance. Stanford has red oars, California blue, and Washington white.

Burns Meets Azaveda in Oakland Tonight Frankie Burns, the down and out Oakland lightweight will attempt a comeback this evening at the Oakland Wheelman pavilion, where he will take on Joe Azaveda of Sacramento. Burns was decisively thrashed by Harlem Tommy Murphy here some months ago and the fans believed that he had taken a wise tip and quit the game for good, but now he is onto the job again. Azaveda is a fairly clever boy, game and willing, but he lacks the experience and this is the only reason why Burns stands a chance with him. It looks as though the bout ought to go the limit, ten rounds.

STOCKTON LINEUP STOCKTON, April 15.—Manager Jack Thomas of the Stockton team of the California league announces the following lineup for the opening game, to be played with San Jose in this city Saturday. Smith, right field; McCallister, left field; Wilson, center field; Thomas, first base; Pittman, center field; Butler, shortstop; Beckel, second base; Cook or Simpson, catcher; Anderson or Jones, pitcher.

CHANCE GETS MCKEECHIE NEW YORK, April 15.—The release of Inelder W. McKeechie was purchased today from the Boston Nationals by Manager Frank Chance of the New York American league club. McKeechie will be used as a utility man in the lineup with Pittsburgh in 1913 and part of 1912.

WOLGAST FAVORED TO BEAT MURPHY

Jim Griffin Probably be Named Referee for the Big Battle

Although Wolgast fought one of the weakest battles of his long career less than two months ago against Harlem Tommy Murphy, the fans have seen fit to install him a 10 to 9 favorite over the same man, whom he meets next Saturday afternoon at the Eighth street arena. Evidently they believe that the former lightweight champion was not himself when he started last and that he will show vastly improved form when he tackles Murphy again.

The lad from New York must be regarded as one of the toughest, as well as one of the trickiest lightweights in the business today. He won his last start with Wolgast, if the battle had been judged strictly on points. But it was very close, and as Wolgast made a hard finish and displayed all sorts of gameness in the earlier rounds, Referee Jim Griffin declared it a draw. But the Irishman was entitled to the edge, for he scored the most points.

The present betting is proof positive that the followers of the game in San Francisco still retain the old confidence in the man who held the lightweight title up to a few short months ago. A couple of bad starts fall to Wolgast looks better on the whole, but he is not always to be trusted. He has had plenty of work and that his condition is practically perfect. Wolgast looks better today than he looked before he took on Murphy last Washington's birthday, but looks do not always tell the story. However, they have done much this time to win the man over to the Wolgast camp, many, in fact, who made it their business to bet on Murphy two months ago.

In the meantime, Murphy is keeping up his tireless grind. He is the father of two now and he knows that he must keep going all the time in order to provide for his family. He took on Henry Hickey and Johnny Frayne for three rounds each yesterday afternoon and worked out in old time form.

There is every reason to believe that Murphy will be just as strong and just as effective against Wolgast on Saturday as he was the last time they met. He is one fighter who always takes the best of care of himself and, instead of slipping back, he has been showing signs of improvement in his recent ring encounters. But still they have rated him on the short end.

Jim Griffin, manager of Murphy, is speeding on his way to this city. He wired Promoter Jim Coffroth from Reno last evening, telling him he will be here this morning when the referee is to be named. Right now, it looks like Jim Griffin, the man who has judged all the recent big fatio affairs.

FORM PLAYERS HAVE A GOOD DAY

Three First Choices Bring the Money Home

Trio of Noted Bookies Cut the Call's Selections for In and One Is Big Winner

(Special Dispatch to The Call) "JAMESTOWN, April 15.—Form players recouped some of their losses today, as three first choices landed in front. Jockey Guy Burns came into prominence by piloting two winners, Cogs and Merry Lad. Buiger showed a splendid performance when he galloped in the first, a juvenile affair, at half a mile. The Idol, who recently graduated, outgamed the supposed good thing, Free Trade.

It was merely an exercise gallop for the odds on favorite, Cogs, in the second. Charles Buford was second, and these two had the race to themselves. The Gardener was played to 3 to 1, but he proved a disappointment and finished in the ruck. Tonita won from Slim Princess and Fred Levy. Merry Lad receded to 9 to 5 in the day's feature, and he had only to breeze in front of Hoffman. Americus was the only one to dodge the issue in the fifth, and the consistent Blue Mouse won with ease. Woodcraft furnished another surprise when he disposed of the good thing and favorite, Henry Hutchinson.

Jockey Buxton, the well known California rider, left for his home in Minneapolis to spend a few days with his parents before going to Kentucky. Albert Simons sold Palanquin to J. O. Talbot.

Among the new layers who but in this afternoon were: Will Hall, the well known bookmaker and handicapper; Frank Tyler and Sidney Cohn. Hall is said to have won several thousand dollars on the day's operation. Cohn recently returned from England, where he has been booking since last fall. Jockey Phil Musgrave has signed to ride for H. C. Hallenbeck.

B'LINGUM AWAITS SOUTHERN STARS

Big Home and Home Golf Tourney Is Scheduled for Next Sunday

By H. McDONALD SPENCER Burlingame golfers are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the team from the Los Angeles Country club to take part in the home and home match with the Burlingame Country club, and much interest is manifested in the names and pairings and speculating as to the outcome.

The southern players will arrive here Saturday for the match on Sunday and the teams have just been announced. Looking over the list the two number one men, Norman Macbeth, of Los Angeles, champion of southern California, and Robin Hayne, would appear to be evenly matched, although Robin should have a shade on his home links. As he has counted his score at Burlingame in multiples of three, I do not believe he will be beaten there if he is going right.

Armstrong, former champion of Del Monte and southern California, plays with Cyril Tobin, and again the southerner is up against a man who claims fours going out. However, Armstrong is a great match player and does not know what it is to give up until the deciding putt is holed.

Hugo Johnstone and Garby are also evenly paired from record, although we have not seen the former in action here. He is reputed to be a phenomenal driver, but accuracy is much required at Burlingame, and Garby has that as well as distance.

The other matches generally should be fairly even, with a slight advantage in some cases to the peninsular representatives owing to their familiarity with the links.

Teams and pairings: Los Angeles C. C. Burlingame C. C. Norman Macbeth vs. Robin Hayne St. Armstrong vs. Cyril Tobin Hugo Johnstone vs. J. W. Farley Guy Cochran vs. Prescott Scott H. Bagby vs. Joe O. Tobin L. D. Sale vs. Templeton Crocker Ed Tuffe vs. F. Thieriot R. Dudley Fulton vs. H. C. Bredend R. Nevins vs. W. G. Hitchcock W. Van Pest vs. George Pope W. Van Pest vs. Harry Scott

ANDERSON STOWS K. O. BROWN AWAY

Northwestern Lightweight Lands Knockout Wallop in Fifteenth Round

LOS ANGELES, April 15.—Bud Anderson, the Medford, Ore., lightweight, knocked out Knockout Brown of New York in the fifteenth round of their scheduled 20 round battle at Vernon arena tonight. Just a month ago today the same boys fought 20 rounds to a draw in the same arena. Anderson had Brown all but out in the eleventh round of that contest, but the New Yorker recovered and pounded Anderson into a state of collapse in the final moment. It was to decide supremacy that the battle of tonight was arranged, with a match with Joe Mandot or Joe Rivers in May or July as the added prize to the winner.

Anderson had the battle safe after the eleventh round. Brown was knocked down 19 times during the battle, and had no chance with the hard hitting lad from Medford.

Officially the decision was that Anderson stopped Brown in the fifteenth round, but Brown was unconscious when Referee Charles Epton raised Anderson's hand in token of victory. Only three rounds could be credited to Brown, as called for by the referee. Anderson even, in all of the rest the Medford boy had the "shade."

Brown's jaw at all times was unguarded target for the ponderous blows of Anderson, and it was only his wonderful gameness that kept him fighting as long as he did.

The night was very cold, and Anderson earned the ill will of the crowd by his supposed attempt to delay long enough to get Brown cold and affect his fighting ability. The Medford boy wasted 20 minutes, after Brown had entered the ring, to make his appearance.

Anderson looked drawn when he appeared in the ring. Evidently he had had difficulty in making the weight at 7 of the lower limit, and was released from the fight because of this. The effect of the strenuous measures he took to save his weight forfeit money was shown in one or two rounds of the fight, when he appeared to be tiring rapidly.

TRACK MEET FULL OF 'DEEP' FOR MEET

Order of Events for Saturday at Berkeley Oval Is Announced

California and Stanford varsity track and field men are putting in their final training for the big meet Saturday afternoon at Berkeley. There is an air of confidence at both camps, though both sides agree that "the meet will be close." The athletes are rounding out in good style. Christie's men at California coming along with that final burst of speed that has made his team famous. Dad Houston is satisfied with the condition of his boys and everything looks as if the various events are going to be hard fought.

The Stanford men have been held back this year and there are no signs of overtraining or staleness. The men are "right" and California men will be "right" by Saturday. There is no question on that score. Yesterday Herb Whitted and young Urban, two of the Stanford hopes for the hurdles, invaded the California oval to work out on the turns around which the low sticks will be run Saturday. The two boys showed good condition, though in the high sticks Whitted was not able to take the jumps cleanly, knocking over two or three hurdles. Whitted showed plenty of speed, while Urban had a good workout.

Manager Donald of California announced yesterday that according to the intercollegiate agreement the meet will be run off in the following order: Mile run, heats 100 yards; heats 120 yard high hurdles; 100 yard final; 120 yard hurdle final; 440 yard race; 220 yard low hurdle heats; 220 yard dash heats; 880 yards; 220 yard low hurdle final; 220 yard dash final and relay race.

The field events will be started with the hammer throw at 1:30 o'clock, then the high jump, shotput, broad jump and pole vault.

It is just as easy to board his machine and it is always home in time for dinner.
