

DR. LEAVITT TO BE
HONORARY PASTOR TODAY

Pastor of First Unitarian Preaches Farewell Before Taking New Job

"Now I Praise You, Brethren" Is Text of Final
Sermon

Rev. Bradford Leavitt, for 13 years pastor of the First Unitarian church, yesterday bade farewell to his parishioners. Today Doctor Leavitt will turn undertaker.

Through modern undertaking methods Doctor Leavitt believes that he will be instrumental in making death less somber, less an occasion for black robes and tears.

The church was crowded when Doctor Leavitt mounted the pulpit for the last time. Some expectant sermons would be injected into the minister's last public utterances. They were disappointed. Those who have been members of the parish since Doctor Leavitt took charge of it were not surprised when he took for his text Paul's first letter to the Corinthians,
"Now I Praise You, Brethren."

"St. Paul was a master of invective," he said, "and he must have been tempted often to let himself go; to rebuke and sneer and thrust at those new converts, those faint-hearted followers. But his final decision to seal their remembrance of his instructions was, 'Now I praise you.'"

"I can not tell you how it pulls upon me to leave even the odds and ends of helpfulness that I, as official representative of this church, have had in my hands. There are more people than you know who depend not upon me, but upon the life of this church for advice, for comfort, for a little money now and then, for sympathy in the tangled places."

"I came to you a young man, and that you, with your traditions and pictures of your former pastors in my mind have had something to forgive in me as simply to state a fact, I scarcely know what to name as a difference between us unless it be, perhaps, that we have differed, some of us, as to the amount of encouragement a minister needs in order to work at all."

"Your presence in the pews meant much to me. And now I can only say to you, may God bless and be with you always. I have praised you brethren for I could do nothing else, and now of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace be with you."

Dr. Caleb Dutton of New York will occupy the pulpit for the next three Sundays, after which it is believed a permanent pastor will have been selected.

AUSTRALIAN BUSHMEN
SUBJECT OF LECTURE

Curator Kroeber Describes Primitive Race of an Extinct Type in Af-fricated College Series

Curator A. L. Kroeber addressed a large audience on the past and present history of the Australian blacks, or "bushmen," one of the few remaining primitive races in the affiliated college yesterday. This lecture was the seventh and next to last of a series which is being given in the college on "The Races of the Pacific."

The lecture was illustrated with stereopticon slides, depicting the strange customs of these aborigines.
They are of a particularly low order of intelligence, according to Curator Kroeber, and indicate most of their skill in throwing the boomerang and in the pursuit of game. They are believed to be the survivors of an ancestral type of mankind otherwise long extinct.

The concluding lecture to be given next Sunday afternoon will be on "Easter Island, the Mystery of the Pacific."

MR. ROCHE WILL NOT TALK

Police Commissioner, Back From Sacramento, to See Mayor First Theodore J. Roche, president of the board of police commissioners, said last night after he had arrived from Sacramento that owing to his having been kept in the capital by the Jordan investigation longer than he had expected he would not be able to state what action would be taken by the board toward the police situation until he had conferred with Mayor Rolph, the other commissioners and Chief White this morning.

went an operation today. He rallied in

DR. AKED'S REFORM
SERMON CHEERED

Worshippers Applaud Sentiment in His Talk on Social Evil

Dr. Charles F. Aked's congregation shattered church tradition last night, when they borrowed a leaf from the book of theatergoers and light fans and applauded a sentiment he expressed in his sermon.

The minister was not embarrassed by the unusual expression of approval from his flock and merely held up his hands for silence that he might go on talking.

"No human being ever came into this world with an inalienable right to go to the devil," said Doctor Aked, "and furthermore no human being ever came into the world with an inalienable right to debase others for profit."

There was a ripple of applause—not much of a "hand" from a vaudeville standpoint—but Doctor Aked kept right on enunciating each word with more vigor than his predecessors, simply holding up his hands for quiet.

Doctor Aked had chosen for his sermon, "Bel boweth down and Nebo stoopeth. The idols are upon the beasts—and the new day for San Francisco."

In discussing the social evil in its relation to San Francisco the minister said that those who believe in segregation are not "brutes," as they have been called by a local newspaper, but mid-Victorians, persons who have been born 50 years too late.

"Bugsaboos, after all, are only bugaboos, and to rid ourselves of them we simply must walk up and hit them between the eyes," he said. "Martin Luther did the bravest thing of centuries when he married. He, a priest, married a nun. Why, it was said their children would have horns, cloven hoofs, and tails. But he and his wife had many children, yet none of them was other than normal."

"A little girl was asked to tell how God created Adam and Eve. She said:
'The Lord made Adam and then caused a deep sleep to come on him. Then he took out his backbone and made woman.'"

"All we need do is to fight a little; we must fight the fighters. When you leave this church tonight I should like all of you to go to a telegraph office and send a night letter to some legislator you know and tell him you expect him to fight for the anti-flight bill."

He said it is only a question of time when laws similar to the red light abatement bill would be enacted in every state.

AUTOMOBILE DITCHES
CAR AND SPEEDS ON

Under Sheriff Chases it by Train From Redwood City and Obtains License Number of Car

(Special Dispatch to The Call) REDWOOD CITY, April 27.—An automobile carrying number 22,750, registered as belonging to B. D. Weeks, a wealthy San Mateo county rancher, passed through here "like a streak of lightning" this afternoon after crashing into another machine and throwing it into a ditch and early running down children in the street.

The wild machine collided with the automobile of George Felton of this city while it was turning a corner, and after the collision continued toward San Mateo. Under Sheriff John Shields was notified and he immediately took a northbound train to intercept the automobile. Before reaching San Mateo the train passed the machine and Shields was able to get the license number.

A warrant will be issued for the arrest of the reckless driver.

May Inliss, a 14 year old girl, living at 1814 Judah street, was severely burned on her right arm Saturday night when gasoline with which she was cleaning clothes became ignited.
She rushed into another room to find help in extinguishing the flames, but finally put them out unaided.

MAY DAY PARADE

vilion Concert and Ball to day at 11:15 a. m., an automobile parade, including three bands, a float ber of machines of those interested in the May day festival will proceed down Market street to Montgomery and thence via Market back toward the park and out to the stadium, where the exercises will be held.

A mounted squad of police will head the parade. Following will be the marshal's machine, Columbia Park Boys' club band, a float carrying flower girls, mayor's machine, machine of J.
Emmett Hayden, chairman of the committee; Hebrew orphan asylum's band and several automobiles in which will ride oriental school children and their band.

Preparations for the May day concert and ball in the evening at Pavilion rink are nearing completion. The program includes a military band, dancing will begin at 10 o'clock and the grand march will be led by Mayor and Mrs.
Rolph, preceded by flower girls. The California Grays and officers of the League of the Cross cadets will act as a guard of honor to the mayor.

Colonel James E. Powers will be floor manager, assisted by Colonel Frank W.
Mareston. Boutonniers will be distributed by 25 young women.

"LOOK ON BRIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE," SAYS WILSON

J. Stitt Wilson swerved from his usual course of lectures on socialism at Scottish Rite hall last night to have a heart to heart talk with his followers on "Help to Emancipate."

Mr. Wilson urged his auditors to study Emerson and Whitman and other authors whose works have in them much that is close to humanity and to nature.

He advised his listeners to follow Bousset into the field; to commune with and learn to love nature. He said that every one should have abiding confidence in the universe and look up the brighter side of life and things.

the rehearsals under the direction of Coach Garnet Holme.

Gladstone Wilson, son of Mayor J.
Stitt Wilson of Berkeley, will appear as Abraham in the miracle play,
