Continued From Page 1 ward England, France, Germany or any other nation; and that it only required "patience and cool heads for both countries to arrive at an amicable, fair and just settlement of all differences."

"If any nation," said Mr. Sisson, "should decide that they will dictate to us our laws, then we would be unworthy of national existence. If we submitted to such dictation, does any one claim that this is a declaration of war because I announce this truth?"

"It is no declaration of war for the United States government to decline to override the rights of the sovereign state at the dictation of a foreign power. If the United States government should deliver a state over to the mercies of a flood of aliens from any nation, then I maintain that the federal government would have prostituted its authority."

Mr. Sisson pleaded for the open door on treaty sessions of the senate. "Many large employers of labor," he said, "would be delighted to have the federal government, through its treaty making power, let down the bars and let the alien come in."

STANFORD OUT OF THE TRUSTEES' PLAN

Board, Seeking Higher Rank of Specialists, to Reject Excess Number of Students

With the formal appointment of David Starr Jordan as chancellor of Stanford university and John Caspar Branner, president, the board of trustees meeting at the university yesterday outlined a plan of policy for the conduct of the institution which it followed out will develop the university to a degree of efficiency equal to any in the country.

The ultimate purpose of the newly determined policy is not to make Stanford a graduate institution in a restrictive sense, but to specialize to the highest degree in all existing departments of both graduate and undergraduate work.

The trustees take this occasion to express the profound gratitude which not only they, but all of the well wishers of higher education, must feel to Dr. David Starr Jordan.

The trustees consider this to be a suitable occasion for the enunciation of certain changes in the future policy which have been determined upon in collaboration with the chancellor and incoming president.

The present teaching range of the university covers law, medicine, engineering, education, chemistry, geology, physics, zoology, botany, history, economics, English literature, philosophy, psychology, mathematics, classics and modern languages and literature.

The growing body of alumni gives evidence of ultimate further financial support to the institution, which will enable the expansion of the university into other fields.

The number of men already limited to 500, and the present attendance of men is about 1,200. This limitation of the number of women several years ago has resulted in raising the scholarship standard for an increasing proportion of women entering with advanced standing from other institutions.

The demands on the Lane hospital which is conducted by the department of medicine, have so grown as to necessitate important changes. During the last year the hospital and clinics have treated more than 70,000 patients.

This hospital, therefore, constitutes the largest public charity of its kind in the far west, and its opportunities for service have outgrown its facilities.

Dr. Jordan has been president of the university since its foundation, and the rebuilding of so great an institution of public service in the short period of 21 years is in itself a memorable achievement.

Dr. Jordan has given the university its form and character from which the present changes in policy are but an evolutionary development, and as chancellor the university will still have the advantage of his active cooperation.

Dr. Jordan declared that nobody could be more acceptable as president of Stanford than Prof. John Caspar Branner. Forty years ago they were in the same classes, and Doctor Branner persuaded Doctor Jordan to become a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Dr. Jordan then announced that he will depart Monday for Europe, where he will attend meetings of three peace societies and deliver 30 lectures in England and Scotland.

HUNT DOOMED TO PRISON BY ONE MAN

Realty Agent Convicted of Forgery That Another Confessed

Continued From Page 1 fountain ink such as has been used in all of Brumby's forgeries, both in San Francisco and elsewhere.

Brumby appeared during Hunt's trial to testify in the defendant's favor. He offered to duplicate Hayden's signature, as it was written on the check, but this was not allowed by the court, district attorney or the jury.

Furthermore, Brumby described minutely the appearance of the Merchants National bank in its stage of reconstruction, and also told his methods of obtaining checks from offices by walking in while the janitors were sweeping out in the late afternoon, picking the locks of desks, and abstracting numbered checks.

Hunt, who is married, has been in jail since April 8, and is now crippled from sickness. Munnell said he would try to get him out on bail today.

Walter Scott, 1605 Laguna street, was held for the murder of Robert Annand, a butcher, by the coroner's jury since April 8, and is now crippled from sickness.

Annand was found in his shop at Ninth avenue and H street with his head almost entirely covered from his body. Scott, a clerk employed by the slain man, was arrested a few hours later.

In the inquest testimony was heard from the wife of the dead man, Detective Gallagher, Louis Walters, a 15 year old boy who had been with Scott the day of the murder, and Eugene Mueller, from whom Annand had purchased his shop.

ION AWAKENING TO JAPANESE VOW

LONDON, May 23.—The powerful English organs appear just to be awakening to the possibilities of the alliance between Great Britain and Japan.

The prospect of a war in which Great Britain would be fighting for a principle opposite to the welfare of her own dominions, says the London Spectator, will cause a great anxiety throughout the British empire.

The Saturday Review urges Great Britain to stand by the alliance with Japan, "because America is working for supremacy in the Pacific on lines that are unfriendly both to Great Britain and Japan."

JAPAN SOCIETY IS HOST TO GUTHRIE

NEW YORK, May 23.—Expressions of good will between the United States and Japan, and hopes of continued friendly relations with England, were speakers today at a luncheon given by the Japan society to George W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh, newly appointed ambassador to Japan.

Lloyd C. Griscom acted as toastmaster. Among the speakers was Professor Iyenaga of the University of Chicago.

The root of the California legislation, Professor Iyenaga thought, was the race question.

"There is not the least doubt that the procedure of California has stirred deeply the hearts of the Japanese people. The blow is the more keenly felt because it comes from the Americans, upon whose friendship and good will they have relied implicitly."

WAR OF 1920 Film Barred

SEATTLE, May 23.—A moving picture drama illustrating the "war of 1920" between Japan and the United States, and introduced by Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson as participants, which had been extensively advertised at one of the principal theaters, was barred after the local board of censors had seen the film.

The drama will still be awaiting the final scene of all. While rockets and fireworks of all sorts are being discharged from the parks, the route to the Steffen depot will be packed with people, a double file of soldiers keeping clear the middle of the road.

With more guns, cheers from a multitude of throats, and the martial music of military bands, Prince and Princess Ernest Augustus of Cumberland will leave for the 12 roomed villa of a merchant in the Saxon town of Rathow, which the prince has taken for the honeymoon—a quiet, modest treat.
