

LOBBYISTS, HUNGRY AT WASHINGTON, STILL FIGHT UNDERWORLD BILL

Manufacturers, Smarting Under Charge, Renew Battle to Keep Open Mills and Payroll

(Special Dispatch to The Call) WASHINGTON, May 27.—While manufacturers from all over the country are angry at President Wilson's denunciation of the "lobby" working to denounce the tariff program, they renewed their efforts today to bring about changes in the Underwood bill that will enable them to keep open their mills and maintain the present scale of wages.

As a matter of fact, the president did not clear in his informal statement that he had no objection to the process and arguments of men who wish to present facts to congress regarding the business in which they themselves are engaged.

SENATE INQUIRY URGED

As a matter of fact, the president said that his remarks were directed mainly against the agents who are working to prevent free sugar and free wool.

President Wilson's charge concerning the "insidious lobby" was brought to the formal notice of the senate today through a resolution by Senator Cummins demanding an immediate investigation by a committee of senators to determine the identity of all persons who had made any effort to present arguments or bring influence to bear in favor of changes in the tariff law.

A similar resolution was introduced in the house by Representative Tavenner of Illinois.

Senator Gallinger at first objected to the resolution as "absurd." Later he withdrew his objection, but in a demand of Senator Owen, the Cummins resolution finally went over for one day without action.

The proposed investigation would require all senators to give names of any persons who had approached or written them in the interest of changes in the tariff law, would request President Wilson to furnish the names of all persons referred to in his statement, and would authorize the senatorial committee to determine whether the action of any senator might be considered "proper or improper."

"UNAVOIDABLE POSITION" Senator Cummins declared he had presented the demand for an investigation because members of the senate had been put in an "unavoidable position."

As soon as the subcommittees of the finance committee make their reports on the tariff bill schedules President Wilson will resume his conference at the capitol and will put the final touches on the bill before it is submitted to the democratic caucus.

Senator Penrose will have charge of the republican fight on the floor of the senate by common consent of the republican members of that body.

Part of the republican program for debating the tariff bill will be to have a hearing in preparation, while Senator La Follette plans to talk one whole week on certain points in the bill.

Senator Simmons said protests would be filed with the committee from Germany, France, Great Britain and other foreign countries.

VIOLATES TREATIES, IS CHARGE Complaints have been made that certain clauses of the tariff bill would abrogate treaties with foreign countries. Senator Simmons was informed that Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, who recently went to Berlin to confer with German tariff experts, was about to sail for America with a supplemental protest against the provision which would grant a 50 per cent discount in the tariff on imports in American owned or controlled vessels.

There have been intimations that President Wilson would not object to an abrogation of this provision, which is said to be held by Germany to be a violation of the commerce and navigation treaty of 1823.

Tariff hearings in the senate finance committee, which have been in progress for nearly a month, closed tonight, and tomorrow will begin the actual work of revising the schedules as they come from the house.

Senator Thomas of Colorado, in a speech in which he said he would support the Underwood bill as it comes from the finance committee, branded as a false reflection of public sentiment at his own state a protest against the sugar schedule forwarded to the senate by bankers and commercial organizations in Denver.

This communication had been submitted by Senator Shafroth of Colorado by request. Senator Thomas described the protest as the part of an organized effort being carried on by the beet sugar monopoly to manufacture artificial public sentiment and bring it to bear on the senators from Colorado.

Many communications have been received in Colorado urging the senate to stand by the democratic program were read.

COWLES' DAUGHTER IS LIEUTENANT'S BRIDE (Special Dispatch to The Call) SAN DIEGO, May 27.—Miss Edith Cowles, daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Walter C. Cowles, was married tonight to Lieutenant Leo C. Sahn of the cruiser Maryland in the Hotel del Coronado.

The wedding was a quiet affair, attended only by immediate friends and relatives, the bride being unattended. Lieutenant Sahn was then doing shore duty at San Diego.

The bride was given away by her mother, Admiral Cowles being in the north.

The wedding trip will include a journey to the north and possibly to Honolulu, where the couple first met. Mrs. Sahn is the only daughter of Admiral and Mrs. Cowles.

Their romance began in Honolulu, where the bride's father was in command of the great naval station which Uncle Sam is building on the island of Oahu. Lieutenant Sahn was then doing shore duty in charge of the lighthouse service in the Hawaiian Islands.

Lieutenant Sahn is a native of Iowa. He has had six years' active service.

Students to Give Play 'Constantine' Is Offering

Two of the players in costumes of characters they will impersonate and director of drama to be given by St. Ignatius university students.

Magnificent Production Will Be Presented by 200 St. Ignatius Collegians Next Saturday

"Constantine," the Roman miracle play, will be staged Saturday afternoon and Monday evening at the Valencia theater by the students of St. Ignatius university for the benefit of the building fund of St. Ignatius church in Fulton street near Golden Gate park.

Two hundred students of St. Ignatius will appear in the magnificent production, which was first presented four years ago. The play is by Prof. Charles D. South, who will arrive today from Santa Clara college to give the final touches to the rehearsals of the drama.

The drama of the early Christian era is founded on the incident of the miraculous vision of the cross, which appeared in the heavens over the army of the Roman emperor Constantine when he was at the pagan emperor, Maximilian. The vision of the sacred sign convinced Constantine of the truth of Christianity and gave to the Christians their first foothold in Rome, after 300 years of persecution.

The scenic effects of the play are elaborate and 100 voices will sing in the choruses.

Among those who will take the chief roles are: William H. Johnson, as Constantine; George Mayerle Jr., as Senator; Percy McCann, as Horatius; Francis J. Harrigan, as Galbrinus; Francis J. Buckley, as Claudius; Edward A. Queen, as Sylvester; Thomas H. Foster, as Orestes; and Frank Warren, as Sophistius.

The seat sale will open at Sherman, Clay Co.'s today. Tickets may also be bought at St. Ignatius university, Hayes and Shrader streets, or from the sodality members of St. Ignatius church.

RAINFALL AVERAGE FOR YEAR IN CITY

San Francisco Takes Third Place in Series, With 24 of an Inch Downpour

San Francisco tried to fatten up its rainfall percentage for the season yesterday by spilling 24 of an inch of rain on its pavements and housetops, and according to Professor McAde, it took third place in the pennant race of the current storm series. Mount Tamalpais was the wettest spot in the state, with .63 of an inch; San Jose came next with .58 and San Francisco third with its little old .24. Eureka 22, Red Bluff 12, Sacramento .68 and San Luis Obispo .62 were the other towns in the wet grounds league.

Fresno had a trace and Independence, Los Angeles and San Diego went dry. As the percentage stands for the season, San Francisco has had 11.93 inches to date, which is about half of normal. No place has had a normal fall this year.

The chances are good for rain today, with clearing up during the afternoon. In other words, you can take an umbrella with you this morning and return it to the owner with safety before nightfall.

Damage Totals Thousands. (Special Dispatch to The Call) SAN JOSE, May 27.—A rainstorm which began early this morning did thousands of dollars in damage to early cherries and hay. There was no indication tonight of a break in the storm, which is one of the heaviest of the year. Much hay has been cut and is lying on the ground, where the moisture will do it great harm. Orchardists say that the loss on cherries will be more if a hot spell follows the rain closely. The storm today kept the power wires of the Pacific Gas and Electric company wavering, and street-car service was poor as a result.

Strawberries Badly Damaged (Special Dispatch to The Call) SANTA ROSE, May 27.—Rain began falling here about 7 o'clock this morning and continued throughout the day steadily, almost an inch falling by nightfall.

Strawberries, which are now at the height of their season, will be badly damaged, while cherries, which are beginning to ripen nicely, will split if the weather turns off warm, as it is likely to do. Considerable hay will be damaged.

The rain will help hops, grapes, all kinds of vine fruits and pasture and range feed. All indications point to a continuance of the rain all night.

Bath for Vallejo VALLEJO, May 27.—Vallejo was visited by an unexpected shower of rain today, and it is said that the storm was general throughout Solano county. It is reported that the showers will do considerable damage to the cherries as well as to the hay that has been cut.

SAN RAFAEL MARRIAGE LICENSES SAN RAFAEL, May 27.—The following marriage licenses were issued here today: Dr. Clarence Cyril Fitz Gibbon, 24, and Anita May Schenck, 24, Oakland; Joseph Allan Vandercastelle, 34, and Mattie McConnell, 41, San Francisco; Giacomo Cattalini, 23, and Rena Fustini, 21, San Francisco.

An all tank in the North Beach power-house of the United Railways exploded yesterday afternoon and M. D. Weaver, a bystander, received injuries which may cause the loss of his sight.
