

In The Social Whirl

By RUTH CAMERON

"PEOPLE who are fond of appearing in the light of patrons will go through fire and water to serve you, who yet would be sorry to find you no longer wanted their assistance, and whose friendship cools and their good will slackens as you are relieved by their active zeal from the necessity of being further beholden to it."

—Hazlitt.

It is generally admitted that it is more blessed to give than to receive. It is not so generally appreciated that it is much easier to do so.

When some poor, unsuccessful creature, who has to accept constant benefits from a successful friend or relative, fails to continually praise his benefactor, we bitterly condemn his ingratitude, and contrast his character with that of his kind and generous friend. Now I don't question that ingratitude is a very unworthy sentiment, but I do sometimes wonder if the fundamental character of the two friends is so very different after all. Suppose the role of benefactor and pensioner were reversed. Can we be sure that he who fills the pleasant and dignified role of benefactor so benignly would play the hard and inglorious part of pensioner with any better grace than his present actor?

I once knew two friends whose position in regard to each other was twice strangely reversed. At first the younger of the two was in a position to play the part of benefactor, which she did most graciously. Then conditions changed and the older girl was so placed as to be able to help her friend. She did it gladly and lavishly, expecting to strengthen the friendship. What was her surprise to find her friend growing cool and distant. The conditions again changed. The younger girl was again in the position of advantage, and to her friend's great astonishment she once more became the generous, affectionate girl she had been in the old days.

You see, this girl who was able to give graciously, could not receive in the same spirit.

One of the best short stories I have read for some years concerns two chums, one of whom made a tremendous success as a musician, while the other remained in a mediocre position. The successful one was always a generous patron of his old friend, and for many years the other loved him and praised him. But at last he began to grow tired of always singing his friend's praises, he rebelled against his own failure and in a burst of passionate feeling he told the great violinist all this. And, wonderful to relate, the great man not only understood but even felt that if the conditions had been reversed he might not have been so patient and unselfishly admiring as his friend.

Please understand, I am not defending ingratitude. I am just reminding those of us who are lucky enough to be able to give, that it is far easier to give than to receive, and that perchance those who receive from us deserve more credit and honor for receiving gratefully than we for giving.

Golf Biesies Peninsula Folk on Fourth Day Closed With Dinners and Dancing

Day Is Observed With Scotch Sport By Menlo Set

(Special Dispatch to The Call)

WOODSIDE, July 4.—Scotch sport and American patriotism favor the supremacy at the Menlo Country club today, when the members of the summer colony on the lower peninsula celebrated the fourth of July with the opening rounds of a three day golf tournament, a wonderful pyrotechnic display and a dance and supper at the clubhouse.

As a delightful intermingling of athletic rivalry and patriotic enthusiasm the affair rose to the extreme height of success. It always will be a cherished memory for those who were fortunate enough to be bidden for the occasion.

Menlo Park, Atherton, Woodside and Portola could think of nothing else today but the Country club, where all the excitement was centered.

The beginning of the three day tournament saw a gorgeous array of beautiful frocks and smart looking outfits, blouses brightening the verdant boundaries of the natural amphitheater in which the golf course is laid.

Some heavy wagers are being made by the members of the fashionable set and every one has arranged to be present at all the contests of the weekend.

Jack Neville, the well known transbay golfer, who is the most devoted propagandist of the Scotch game in the wide world of country clubs, is participating in the series and that fact alone is giving championship emphasis to the contests.

The summer golf tournament has been the incentive for weekend house parties in all the big country homes, and, following the tournament, numerous private dinners were given throughout the countryside.

Everybody gathered again at the country club at 8:30 this evening for the display of fireworks, which lasted for almost an hour.

The members and guests witnessed the spectacle from the broad veranda which was artistically decorated with myriads of Chinese lanterns.

Following the pyrotechnic exhibition, dancing was enjoyed in the ball room of the club house and supper was served at 10:30 o'clock, with more than a hundred men and women seated at the tables.

Much credit for the success of the celebration is due Augustus Taylor, president of the club, who had complete charge of the general program of entertainment.

The field committee in charge of the golf tournament is composed of H. McDonald Spencer, C. J. McIntosh and Will H. Taylor.

Smart Set Attends the Laying of Cornerstone

(Special Dispatch to The Call)

SAN MATEO, July 4.—The god of fair beginnings smiled favor on the Burlingame Country club today at the formal launching of its great enterprise—the new $75,000 clubhouse.

Destiny herself, abiding in the happy enthusiasm of 300 men, women and children, gathered to attend the laying of the cornerstone, could be counted only as a friend, and thus it was that the members of the baby country club of San Mateo county took up the task of building a magnificent home.

Never in the history of local clubdom has a work so ambitious and so full of promise been undertaken in just such a spirit of mingled light heartedness and enthusiasm.

Promptly at noon William Fries, president of the club, struck into the turf with a silver spade, while as much of the club membership as could find room on the building site cheered its host for the president and the work he had started.

The cornerstone was then placed in position.

Following the cornerstone ceremony a barbecue was served and then came an attractive program of vaudeville presented on an open air stage.

Morgan A. Gunst, a member of the board of directors, and Miss Seville Shalwald gave the Spanish tango and the Argentine tango, and Miss Amy Colman gave a song.

The next number was a golf travesty written by Miss Amy Dinkelspiel and acted by the authoress, assisted by Elias Hecht.

Erwin Steinberger and Daniel Koshland closed the artistic program with a couple of musical specialties.

The rest of the afternoon was devoted to the golf tournament for the handsome trophies presented by the club's vice presidents, Walter Stettinheimer and E. S. Heller. The preliminary rounds were completed and the finals will be held tomorrow or Sunday.

Tonight a dance was held in the temporary clubhouse. Owing to rather crowded quarters, only about 100 were present.

Among those present at the day's festivities were:

Mr. and Mrs. William Fries, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stettinheimer, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Mr. and Mrs. H. Dinkelspiel, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lubes, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Koshland, Mr. and Mrs. Helen Stettinheimer, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Heller, Mr. and Mrs. H. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Bissinger, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmond Seer, Mr. and Mrs. A. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmond Greenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Heyenbaum, Mr. and Mrs. Melville Schweitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Derham.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Fleishacker, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gunst, Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Judis, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ehrmann, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stern, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sabla, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fleishacker.

Everybody gathered again at the country club at 8:30 this evening for the display of fireworks, which lasted for almost an hour.

The members and guests witnessed the spectacle from the broad veranda which was artistically decorated with myriads of Chinese lanterns.

GOLFERS HOOK UP ON MENLO LINKS

Dr. Eaves and Mrs. Julian Thorne Carry Off the First Honors

(Special Dispatch to The Call)

REDWOOD CITY, July 4.—Great enthusiasm and perfect weather marked the day on the Menlo golf links when Augustus Taylor drove the first ball from the tee of the reconstructed course in the Shreve cup tournament. The most interesting match undoubtedly was that between Dr. J. Eaves, the presidio crack, who was minus 12, and Mrs. Julian Thorne, who was minus 10. Eaves won first three holes and thereby won back his handicap. However at this point Carson stepped down and, playing on even terms from there on, won 3 up and 2 to play.

In the ladies' division Mrs. Julian Thorne at Burlingame won over Miss Gertrude Thomas, 6 and 5, conceding six holes. Mrs. Augustus Taylor avenged the lull by defeating Mrs. Crabtree 4 and 3, conceding seven holes. Mrs. Latham McMullin and Mrs. Arthur Watson also remain for the second round.

Jack Neville played John Elphick, the local pro, and won by one hole up, although his medal score was 76 to Elphick's 75. These now constitute the amateur and professional records, respectively.

Tomorrow will see the third and fourth rounds of match play for the Shreve cup in the men's division, and the second round of ladies and defeated halves of both divisions. In addition to the tournament play tomorrow morning there will be a contest for a special purse between Elphick and E. L. Reilly, professionals, and in the afternoon, Cyril Tobin and Robin Hazen of Burlingame will play the pros a four ball match. Summary:

Men's division—Augustus Taylor (5) beat G. A. Alexander (9), 2 to 1; Delaney Davis (6) beat H. W. Law (9), 3 and 2. The remainder drew.

Second round—Augustus Taylor (5) beat Delaney Davis (6), 2 to 1; W. H. Law (9) beat H. W. Law (9), 3 and 2; Sam Hopkins (2) beat A. Macdonald (8), 5 and 4; J. S. Tobin (3) beat C. Pringle (3), 2 up; A. Spravo (3) beat H. Watson (2), 4 and 2; John Elphick (2) beat Eaves (minus 1), 3 and 2; Oscar Beattie (2) beat L. M. Mullin (5), 2 and 1; W. H. Taylor (6) beat Emory Wulshoff (5), 5 and 4; David Crabtree (1) beat Fred McNear (3), eighth hole; S. L. Abbott (two) beat William Thorne (2), 4 and 3; Faxon Atherton (5) beat J. Cheever Cowlin (7), default; Seth Chamberlain (9) beat W. H. Law (9), 3 and 2; E. J. Eyre (5) beat Worthington Ames, default; M. Angbury (7) beat Jean Gallois (9), 6 and 5; Alice Hamilton (6) beat H. McNear (6), 4 and 2.

Ladies' division—Mrs. Julian Thorne (3) beat Miss Gertrude Thomas (9), 6 and 5; Mrs. Augustus Taylor (2) beat Mrs. Davis Crabtree (9), 4 and 3; Mrs. Latham McMullin (3) beat Mrs. A. Hamilton (9), 1 up; Mrs. A. Watson (5) beat Mrs. Fred McNear (3), 2 up; Mrs. D. G. Hamilton (4) beat Mrs. Douglas Watson, bye; Mrs. Will Taylor (4) bye; Mrs. H. Macdonald (4) bye.

Gorgeous Fireworks Spectacle on the Burlingame Country Club Links

(Special Dispatch to The Call)

BURLINGAME, July 4.—With the stars and stripes predominant in the decorative scheme, 175 members and guests of the Burlingame Country club attended the club dinner which was served at 7:45 o'clock tonight as a part of the big fourth of July festival.

It was one of the biggest crowds ever entertained at society's fashionable gathering place.

Private dinner parties were given by Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hitchcock, Mr. and Mrs. Cuyler Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Knight, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Marrye and Felton B. Elkins, with about a dozen seated at each table.

There were 17 other tables in the banquet hall, seating from four to eight persons each.

Following the club dinner, which lasted until after 9:30, there was a display of fireworks on the greensward of the links in front of the clubhouse, a fashionable throng witnessing the spectacle from the veranda and other points of vantage. It was a most elaborate exhibit of pyrotechnics, containing every feature that the manufacturer's ingenuity could devise.

After the vast supply of fireworks had been exhausted, dancing was indulged in and an impromptu supper was served at a late hour.

GARRITT AGAIN VICTOR

The golf tournament for the handsome cup presented by Mrs. George A. Pope proved the center of interest during the day, and George Garritt was returned victor for the second time, having won his first leg on the trophy last fourth of July.

The cup was first presented two years ago and is played for on Independence day each year. Three wins are necessary for permanent ownership.

The first contest for the trophy, in 1911, was won by Edward J. Tobin and last year Mr. Garritt scored his first win.

The scores in today's rounds for the Pope cup will count as the qualifying rounds for the handicap match play in flights of eight under the club handicap "holes up" system.

The first rounds of match play for men and women will be held tomorrow and the second rounds will take place Sunday morning. The finals will be over 18 holes Sunday afternoon.

SOCIETY FOLK IN ATTENDANCE

Among those who attended the celebration at the Burlingame club today were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Armsby, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Breeden, Mr. and Mrs. George Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Willard C. Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Edmunds Lyman, George Howard, Dr. J. Eaves, J. H. Noyes, Ferdinand Theriot and Chapin Tubbs.

The annual outing of St. John's parish was held yesterday afternoon at Glen park. Valuable prizes were awarded the winners in the Gaelic dancing contests and in the tug of war, which was participated in by teams representing the various improvement clubs of the city.

BOY FOR CELEBRATION SETS FIRE NEAR HOUSE

OAKLAND, July 4.—Firecrackers being prohibited by law, Roy Hertz, 10-year-old, of 1214 1/2 Broadway, and Birch street, disconsolately seeking some way of celebrating the fourth of July this afternoon, suddenly observed a pile of kindling wood near the house.

Deciding that a bonfire would be an appropriate means of celebration, the boy hurried into the house and obtained a bunch of matches.

In a few minutes there was a real fire. The side of the house caught the flames and it was necessary to call out the Elmhurst company to put out the fire.

Young Hertz rejoiced. Not only had he had a bonfire, but he also had an opportunity to watch the fire engines and firemen work at close range. The damage was nominal.

COAST ARTILLERY CORPS TO PITCH CAMP TODAY

Ten companies of the coast artillery corps, national guard, will encamp this afternoon at Fort Winfield Scott for two weeks' coast defense exercises with the big guns jointly with the regular artillery stationed at the post.

The reserve troops will assemble at 1 o'clock at the Van Ness avenue armory and at 1:30 will march to the Presidio.

Camp will be organized immediately upon arrival under command of Colonel George A. Schastey.

The command will be organized into four provisional battalions as follows: First battalion, composed of the First, Third, Sixth and Seventh companies, Lieutenant Colonel Henry G. Mathewson, commander; second battalion, Fourth, Ninth and Tenth companies, Major William G. Hyde, commander; third battalion, Second, Seventh and Twelfth companies, Major Charles J. Mund, commander; fourth battalion, Fifth and Eighth companies, Major Herbert E. Fay, commander.

Aged Cyclist Rides Over Sierras

He Makes Fifth 1,000 Mile Trip

(Special Dispatch to The Call)

ALAMEDA, July 4.—Richard R. Wells of 2112 San Antonio avenue, who styles himself "the 63 year old kid," has returned from his fifth annual 1,000 mile tour on his bicycle. Wells pedaled his machine twice over the Sierras, visiting Lake Tahoe, Carson, Virginia City and Reno. He completed the trip in 24 days, and announced that he will make at least 10 more such trips.

The itinerary of the aged cyclist took him through the following towns: First day—Hayward, Tracy, Stockton; second day—Sacramento, Folsom; third day—Placerville; fourth day, Clyburg, Shed; fifth day, Silver Fork, Summit. Wells arrived in Tallac at 11 a. m. the sixth day.

From Tallac the cyclist rode to Campbell, Bijou and Lake Glenbrook, Washoe Lake, Carson, Virginia, Reno, Truckee, Colfax, and home by the same route, changing it near the end by riding up the peninsula to San Francisco and crossing the bay on the ferry. The climb over the summit from Truckee to Colfax, a distance of 58 miles, was made in one day.

The actual distance covered was about 1,000 miles, the road distances aggregating about two-thirds of this distance, but side trips making up the total.

Wells is a carpenter. For the last 15 years he has been retired.

MRS. MOONEY HIT BY CAR

Detective Captain's Wife Hurt Saving Nephew From Traffic

Mrs. Nellie Mooney, wife of Captain of Detectives Mooney, was injured yesterday afternoon when a Sutler street car struck her in Octavia street.

Mrs. Mooney risked her life to save a 4 year old nephew, Thomas Mooney. She was leading the child, and as they attempted to cross the tracks the car bore down on them. The child was slightly injured.

Mrs. Mooney, seeing the danger, tossed the child from the tracks barely in time. He was unharmed. Mrs. Mooney's injuries are not serious.

INTERSTATE TRADE BOOSTERS COMING

Directors of National Chamber of Commerce Are on Way West

Traveling for the purpose of encouraging trade and commercial relationships throughout the country and the insular possessions of America, the officers and board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States will be the guests of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, arriving here Sunday, July 13. A banquet in their honor will be given at the Fairmont hotel Monday evening, July 14, at 7 o'clock, under the auspices of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

The visiting party consists of 25 men distinguished in the commercial affairs of this country. They will leave Chicago by special train tomorrow for a tour of the Pacific coast states. Henry A. Wheeler, one time president of the Chicago Chamber of Commerce, is president of the United States Chamber of Commerce board of directors.

Paul T. Carroll of the local chamber and a member of the national board, will leave here today for Salt Lake City, where he will join the party. Alva Averill, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, will lead the delegation in Los Angeles, while Joseph H. Teal, also of Portland, will arrive in San Francisco to assist in the welcome.

James F. Burns, 71 Rondell street, says two men robbed him of a diamond ring worth $200 and a diamond stickpin while he was watching the Market street parade yesterday.
