Governor McGovern Accepts Deed and Hospitality From 1915 Fair Commission

Wisconsin took its place today in the rank of states which will participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915, when Governor Francis E. McGovern of the "Badger" state dedicated the site for the Wisconsin exhibit. The governor was attended by his exposition commission, John T. Murphy, A. W. Pehn, A. J. Probst and D. E. Bove.

There was a large attendance of members of the Northern California Wisconsin society and Governor McGovern was given an enthusiastic welcome when he spoke of the great state that he represented and what it purposed doing in this city in 1915.

After the luncheon there was a review of troops at the Presidio in honor of Governor McGovern.

At the site dedication ceremonies R. B. Hale presented the deed to the governor, who accepted it on behalf of the state of Wisconsin.

This evening the governor is to be given a dinner at the Teichau tavern by the Northern California Wisconsin society. Tomorrow morning he is to be taken out on the bay by the state board of harbor commissioners.

Corp. Flynn to Be Tried Next Monday

Formal charges against Corporal of Police Flynn of Oakland, who is under suspension for having allowed the barroom in Idora park to run after 1 o'clock the night of the policemen's ball, were filed with the commissioner of Public Health and Safety Turner by Captain Brown this morning. Captain Brown charges the corporal with drunkenness, disobedience and disrespect to a superior officer.

Corporal Flynn will be given a hearing Monday afternoon. Similar charges against Lieutenant Curless are being investigated by Chief of Police Petersen.

BARE ROMANCE IN FUNKENSTEIN SUIT

Arturo and Maria Wolf who declare they are grand children of the late Mrs. Tobe Funkenstein, part of whose estate consists of property at O'Farrell and Stockton streets and Jackson and Webster streets, must first prove that they are the legitimate children of Newman Wolf, a son of Mrs. Funkenstein by a former husband, before they can lay claim to a one-tenth interest in her $500,000 estate.

The Wolfs recently filed suit against Charles F. Gall and Rebecca F. Gall, Edward Funkenstein and Sara Funkenstein, children of Mrs. Tobe Funkenstein, to quiet title to what they say is their share of the property.

Edward Funkenstein has filed an answer in which he asserts there is no proof that the plaintiffs are children of Newman Wolf.

Heirs Must Show Newman Wolf Guatemala Adventurer Was Legally Wed

Back of the suit is a romance in the life of Newman Wolf in Guatemala. It is declared that Wolf had two children, but that he did not marry until 24 hours before his death. Judge Morgan today granted the plaintiff a continuance to procure depositions establishing the marriage.

MANY STRANGE PETS AT CHILDREN'S EXHIBITION

An exhibition by school children of lizards, tortoises, white mice, guinea pigs, chipmunks and frogs will form an interesting feature of the third annual children's pets exhibition, which will be held November 22 in the Haight school, Alameda.

The previous exhibits have met with great success and the youngsters have been stimulated by the awards of medals, cups and ribbons, as well as by the rivalry with the companions to increase the number and improve the breed of their favorites.

Anything from a quail which can hop on a table and click the receiver when a telephone rings, which was exhibited by the daughter of Game Commissioner Dirks last year, to a frog that can sing a scale, will be found on display.

The exhibit will be under the direction of Superintendent of Schools Will C. Wood, Dr. F. W. d'Esclon, the president of the movement, and Secretary W. W. Cooley.

Besides the Fresno vineyardist who is credited with saving the wine industry of California, Governor Johnson, the California senators and congressmen, Chief Justice Beatty of the supreme court and others have been invited.

Invitations have been sent to 800 members of the Home Industry league.

SAILOR'S EAR CHEWED

John Wilson, a sailor on the United States steamship Albatross, had his left ear almost chewed off and his head badly bruised by Pedro Sanchez, a drunken laborer, in a row in the Sixth street lockup in Oakland at 12:45 o'clock last night. Wilson had been arrested for disturbing the peace.

California Fruit Growers Complain of Railroad Demands

Ask Interstate Railroad Commission to Reduce Loading Weight to 20,000 Per Car

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The California Fruit Growers' association complained to the interstate commerce commission today of the requirements of transcontinental railroads in loading fruit for shipment from California points to various points east. It is sought to have the weight of 26,000 pounds per car reduced to 20,000 pounds per car. In loading the heavier car, the association claimed, the fruit is ruined by becoming prematurely ripened during transit. The cars are damaged by being attacked as unreasonable.

WINE GETS BLAME IN DIVORCE SUIT

Wife Says Hubby Thought More of Rosy Fluid Than of Herself

More love for wine than for wife was the cause of the domestic troubles of Dr. Herbert D. Boyes and his wife, Lillian Boyes, according to Mrs. Boyes' complaint for divorce filed today in the superior court. The wife charges that her husband, who is a dentist, indulged in liquors to such an extent that he was not able to attend to his business.

Doctor Boyes is accused of having stayed away from home for one week, beginning June 3 of this year, and upon his return is alleged by Mrs. Boyes to have struck her September 15 he left home and had not returned by September 23, when Mrs. Boyes, fearing for her personal safety, left the house.

Mrs. Boyes claims her share of the community property at 970 Post street and asks $50 a month alimony and an order restraining Doctor Boyes from disposing of the property until the case is heard.

WEDS AFTER THREE DAY BATTLE WITH FATE

It took Silver P. Valle, a San Francisco restaurant proprietor, three days to try to marry Miss Nettie M. Smith, an Oakland girl, and he was balked by fate until last night, when the ceremony was performed at the home of a friend, Antone Verra, Oakland. Valle intended to be married Saturday. He waited until after noon and then learned he could not get a marriage license. Sunday was another holiday, and Monday was still another. Yesterday dawned clear, with no holiday to interfere. But Verra had an engagement and could not offer the bridal pair his house.

Valle went to San Francisco and got a license and was waiting to be married anyhow. He found it could not be done in Oakland with a San Francisco license. Last night he succeeded in arranging the details and having the ceremony performed.

EFFICIENCY BUREAU IS PROPOSED FOR OAKLAND

An ordinance introduced into the Oakland city council by Commissioner W. J. Bacucus, will, if passed, create an efficiency bureau in the city government, with a chief of bureau at a salary of $2,700 per annum. The purpose of the bureau, which has been under consideration by the civil service board for some time, will be to keep a check on all city employees and a record of their work and to provide a set of markings and promotions. It is expected that Werdil P. Smith, chief clerk to Commissioner Bacucus, will be appointed chief of the bureau.

Why Does The Oakland Enquirer Criticise the Tax Association?

THE TAX ASSOCIATION, after mature deliberation, recently gave to a San Francisco paper having a wide circulation in Alameda County its Report on Cost of Elections in 1910, for publication.

THE OAKLAND ENQUIRER, in an editorial in its issue of October 10th, attacks the motives and severely criticizes the officers of The Tax Association because this report was given to a San Francisco paper.

THE TAX ASSOCIATION was organized solely for the purpose of bringing about increased efficiency and eliminating waste and extravagance in County and Municipal government. With this object in view and feeling that the taxpayers of Alameda County and the municipalities therein should be advised from time to time of the results of its examinations into public affairs, it has published full reports of its investigations and recommendations.

Without comment, the following facts are presented: Two of the largest items of waste of public money in election expenses have been GROSS EXTRAVAGANCE IN PRICES PAID FOR ELECTION PRINTING AND EXCESSIVE ADVERTISING NOT REQUIRED BY LAW.

Alameda County records show the following payments to the OAKLAND ENQUIRER PUBLISHING CO.

Warrant No.	Amount	Tax Assn. Holds Bids at
