Frank King Claims Bride This Evening

Miss Edwina Hammond to Pledge Troth With Young Capitalist

At a simple ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hammond, Miss Edwina Hammond will become the bride of Frank King tonight. Rev. Edward Morgan will officiate at the impressive service, to which only the members of the immediate families and a few of the couple's closest friends have been invited. A. B. Hammond will give his daughter into the bridegroom's keeping.

Miss Hammond will wear a robe of white charmeuse trimmed with a delicate silver gauze lace and her tulle veil will be held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet will be a combination of white orchids, cyclamen and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Welbore Burnett, the former Miss Grace Hammond, will be the sister's matron of honor and will be crowned in white satin with a tunic of chiffon embroidered in old rose and crystal spangles. George Arnsby will be the best man.

Miss Hammond is the third daughter in the family and is a sister of Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Norman Whiteside and Miss Daisy Hammond. She is also a sister of Leonard Hammond, whose wife was Miss Ruth Merrill and of the late Richard Hammond, who married Miss Mary Langhorne.

Mr. King is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer S. King and brother of Miss Genevieve King and Miss Hazel King. On the couple's return from their honeymoon trip they will live in an attractive home in this city.

Debutante Complimented

Miss Helen Wallach, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Wallach, will be the guest of honor at a small dinner over which Mr. and Mrs. John Ward Mailliard will preside tonight. The table decorations will be pink roses and fernery. Miss Christine Donohoe, Miss Cora Otis, Somers Peterson, Frank Kennedy and Lawrence Morrison have been bidden to meet Miss Wallach. Later the entire party will attend the ball at the Fairmont at which Miss Elizabeth Oyster will make her debut.

Dinner at Burlingame

Mr. and Mrs. Mountford Wilson were dinner hosts Saturday night when they entertained the members of the dancing club recently formed in Burlingame at their suburban home. Later an informal dance was held. Mr. and Mrs. Laurance Irving Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McNear, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Thorne, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Eastland, Dr. and Mrs. Max Rothschild, Miss Virginia Joffe, Miss Marian Zelle, Prescott Scott and Stewart Lowery were among others entertained.

Musical by Misses Withrow

Miss Marie and Miss Evelyn Withrow entertained at a musicale at their home in Pine street Thursday night at which many gifted artists contributed to the evening's enjoyment. Mrs. George Kellam, Mrs. Lane Leonard, Mrs. Joseph L. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Rossolimo, Miss Seymour, Miss Jewett, Mrs. Mulgarth, Miss Parnamio, Dr. O'Connell, Charles Wood, Mr. Eberlin and M. Sandona were some of those who enjoyed the affair.

Bride Elect Feted

In compliment to Miss Helen Nicol, who will join the ranks of the matrons shortly after the Christmas holidays, Mrs. Walter Seymour entertained at a small tea in the ballroom of the Palace hotel this afternoon. The table decorations were violets and fernery, which were piled high in the center of the board and later were resolved into corsage bouquets for the adornment of the guests. Mrs. Robert Hays Smith, Mrs. Earl Shipp, Miss Bessie Zane, Miss Anne Peters, Miss Sadie Murray and Miss Eliza McMillin were bidden to meet the guest of honor.

Miss Oyster to Make Debut

Miss Elizabeth Oyster will be formally presented to the gay world of society tonight at a ball which her mother, Mrs. Joseph F. Oyster, will give in her honor at the Hotel Fairmont. Mrs. A. L. Tubbs, grandmother of the debutante, and other members of the family will assist in receiving the guests. Preceding the dance Mr. and Mrs. William B. Tubbs will entertain Miss Oyster and nine of her friends at an informal dinner at their home in Jackson street.

Home in Presidio Avenue

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pike have rented the home in Pacific avenue of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Postlethwaite, which they will occupy after December 1. Mr. and Mrs. Postlethwaite will go to their ranch in Mexico where they expect to remain until next summer.

MISS NICOL IS FETE GUEST BRIDE ELECT RECEIVES HONORS

Miss Helen Nicol, who will be complimented by Mrs. Walter Seymour this afternoon

Transbay Social Happenings

The formal announcement of the engagement of Ralph E. Wilson, secretary of the Army and Navy Young Men's Christian association of San Francisco, to Miss Ruth Houston has been made by Mrs. James P. Houston of Berkeley. The wedding will take place in early summer.

Municipal affairs will be discussed Friday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Oakland center of the California Civic league in the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Cora Ellsworth Jones, fully recovered from her recent illness, will preside at the business meeting.

Arbor Villa, the East Oakland estate of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Smith, will be opened for the first time in several months for a tea at which Miss Frances Calkins, a niece of F. M. Smith, will be the guest of honor.

Miss L. E. Perkins of Alameda, who was to have given a tea at the Hotel Oakland last Saturday, gave precedence to the big game and postponed her affair until next Saturday.

The second of a series of dances to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crane will take place at the hotel Oakland Thursday night.

Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Brinkerhoff will receive tonight at the Home club the visitors to the book exhibit which will close tomorrow. Many old, new and rare books are included in the exhibit, which is attracting many book lovers. The Home club luncheon will be held November 26, with Mrs. Walter Rugg as presiding hostess.

Dr. Thomas Boyer addresses the Oakland clubwomen this afternoon on "The Trail of the Immigrant." His lecture follows a study of immigration taken by the clubwomen in preparation for the influx of foreigners upon the completion of the Panama canal.

In the presence of a heavy herd of girl chums and friends of the family Miss Elinor Hart yesterday became the bride of George D. Smith Jr. at the Unitarian church, Berkeley, Rev. Arthur M. Smith officiating. The honeymoon will be spent in the southern part of the state and the pair will live in Carson city, where the bridegroom has mining interests.

Returns From Santa Rosa

Mrs. William Hood has returned to her home in Broadway after a two months' visit in Santa Rosa, where she was the guest of her nephew and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Jackson Temple. The visit was taken as a benefit to Mrs. Hood's health, which has greatly improved. Miss Rosslyn Temple, sister of Doctor Temple, who is visiting at Mrs. Hood's home, has decided to remain in San Francisco several weeks longer.

Invitations Issued

Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus Green Henry have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Lee Henry, to William Patrick Lawlor, November 25, at 8 o'clock, p. m., at 3270 Brant street, San Diego.

Return From Honolulu

Returning on the Wilhelmina yesterday after a six weeks' sojourn in the Hawaiian islands, the greater part of which was passed in Honolulu, were Mr. and Mrs. Tennant Harrington, their daughter, Miss Marie Louise Harrington, and Miss Emily Tubbs. The two young women will be among the dancers tonight at the ball which Mrs. J. F. Oyster is giving her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Oyster.

Mr. Crothers to Be Host

Roy Crothers will entertain at a dinner at the Cliff house tonight, to which more than 50 guests have been bidden. Later a ball will be held, one of whose features will be exhibition dancing by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Crane.

WHISPERINGS in the WINGS...

The New York Giants and the Chicago White Sox, who have just arrived in San Francisco on their world tour, will be guests of the Gaiety management at the performance of "The Candy Shop" tomorrow evening. Manager Berger having reserved all the boxes for them. After this the stage will be transformed into a ballroom and the baseball players, together with all the members of "The Candy Shop," will, for the rest of the night and far into the wee sma' hours, be entertained by the members of the Olympic club. A buffet supper will be served on the stage, after which is to come a dancing program and high jinks.

Robert Mantell, the distinguished classic actor, begins a two weeks' engagement at the Cort theater on Monday, November 24. "King John" is the featured production of his repertoire. This play will be given Monday night and Thanksgiving matinee in the first week.

Alice Lloyd comes to the Cort soon at the head of a great vaudeville road show. Miss Lloyd was ever a favorite locally. Frank Fogarty, the Dublin minstrel, is a member of the organization.

Gaby Deslys, the famous, also is due at the Cort shortly. Naturally a tremendous interest is being evidenced in this engagement, for Gaby has been exploited to the far corners of the earth.

Viennese gaiety, a touch of London comedy and the New York electric quality are said to be in the makeup of "The Merry Countess," the Johann Strauss operetta that comes to the Cort Sunday, November 16. The story of the piece is brisk, the lyrics fetching and the music is of the sort that lingers in the memory.

No cooler or apparently more self possessed actress ever appeared behind the footlights than Maud Fulton, now playing in "The Candy Shop" at the Gaiety theater. And yet Miss Fulton confesses to a fearful attack of nervousness and even fright on the occasion of every first performance. "Believe me," she says, "the night the Gaiety opened if some one had come and asked me to choose between going on as sally that evening or sitting in the electric chair and finishing it all, I verily believe I would have elected to do the latter. But," she adds, "there's one thing to be thankful for. Nobody in front would ever know it. I've found that out from experience."

"Stop Thief" will be seen at the Columbia theater late this month and from all accounts will bring more laughs than any other farce produced in recent years. Its record in New York is unique, the piece having been played throughout the summer months.

During four seasons Charles Purcell, the Lieutenant Bruner of "The Chocolate Soldier," has been nibbling chocolate confections, until the sight of a candy store almost throws him into hysterics. On the stage he now substitutes a piece of pickle, coated to resemble a chocolate caramel.

The following attractions are due at the local Empress soon: Joe Maxwell's stupendous morality play, entitled "Happiness," "A Day at the Circus," "Louis Christmas," "Big Tim, the comic," "Turkey Trot," Bear, the Five Old Veterans, Boys in Blue, "Prince Flora," "The Man Monkey" and Joe Maxwell's "A Night at the Bath."

Robert Mantell again has the laugh on the so called level headed showman. When he announced a few years ago that he proposed reviving "King Lear," he was informed by all of his theatrical friends that there wasn't a nickel in it. Yet "King Lear" has proven the most successful play, from a box office standpoint, in the tragedian's repertoire. When Mantell proposed to take "King John" on tour this season he was again laughed at. Yet "King John" has duplicated the success of "King Lear." The tragedian comes to the Cort soon.

Clever Mary Ambrose, whom San Franciscans will recall as the intrepid lady who sued Kitty Gordon, her of the immaculate back, when she was in the city recently, is now playing in "The Candy Shop" at the Gaiety.

Klaw and Erlanger announce that the special train secured to transport "Kismet" across the continent will make but very few stops between Chicago and San Francisco, as the company headed by Otis Skinner is to be seen in but 19 cities during all of next season. It is considered one of the most pretentious productions America has seen in a dozen years.

"Madame Butterfly" Scores at Tivoli
"Madame Butterfly" was the offering at the Tivoli last night, with Maria Moscieta in the title role. Her characterization of Cho-Cho-San has probably been equaled only by her dramatic renditions of Desdemona in Verdi's "Otello." Pinkerton was sung by young Botta in his usual finished and virile manner. The gifted concert master of the orchestra.

PRIMA DONNA COMING HERE TO HEAD THE ORPHEUM BILL

Ellen Beach Yaw, who will be headline attraction at the Orpheum next week.

Ellen Beach Yaw to Sing in Repertoire

Ellen Beach Yaw, the famous prima donna soprano, whose phenomenal range is the marvel of the musical world, will be the headline attraction at the Orpheum next week. In securing the services of this celebrated artiste, the Orpheum management has added to the list of its splendid achievements and afforded another illustration of its enterprise in securing the greatest celebrities regardless of cost. Madame Yaw's repertoire will include "Grand Aria" from "Ernani," "One Fine Day" from "Madame Butterfly," "Morgan and Serenade" by Richard Strauss, "Love Dream Number Three" by Liszt, "The Life of Rose" by Liza Lehman and Miss Yaw's own composition "The Sky Lark."

Harry Fox and Yanci Dolly will indulge in smart fooling songs and dances. Mr. Fox when associated with the Millership sisters, established for himself an enviable reputation as a comedian of great ability and originality, and Miss Dolly is an exceedingly attractive girl with exceptional singing and dancing ability and one of the famous Dolly sisters, who for several years have been the terpsichorean feature of many of New York's most successful musical productions. For a quarter of an hour this clever couple keep their audiences in a state of continual laughter.

Dave Genaro and Ray Bailey are two well known to require introduction. Their act this season contains much that is new, but they still retain as their greatest feature "La Flirtation Dance." Among their specialties are "The Wedding of Antone and Marie," "If I do I am Bound to Lose my Wife" and "Going to Lock my Door."

George Rolland and his company which includes Billy Kelly and Mae Gerald will appear in the laughable farce "Fixing the Furnace," which deals with the trials and tribulations of a householder whose furnace is continually out of order. Mr. Rolland is a comedian of amusing methods, who always scores heavily.

The Blank family, continental champions of "double juggling," will give a remarkable display of their skill. While manipulating a variety of articles, they indulge in original and amusing comedy. The star of their act is probably a little blonde girl, the only female of the family whose performance is delightfully naive and marvelously clever.

Next week will be the last of "The Six Musical Cuttys and 'The Three Collegians.'" It will also conclude the engagement of Joe Welch, who has scored a tremendous hit. Mr. Welch will introduce new witticisms.

$1.50 Real French Kid Gloves $1.00 Pair
A manufacturer's mistake is the reason for this good fortune for our patrons. We ordered a beautiful real French Kid Glove to be made with embroidered back and over-seam stitching, in the world-famous "Perrin" factory, of a quality to sell at $1.50. By mistake the manufacturer placed our "H. B." clasp on these $1.50 Gloves. While our "H. B." Gloves are the finest $1.00 Gloves we know of, we could, of course, not sell Gloves bearing the "H. B." clasp at $1.50. Consequently we must sell these $1.50 Gloves for $1.00. Our customers will profit by the error.

Real French Kid Gloves of "Perrin" make, $1.50 values, in white, black, tan, brown or gray, in sizes 5 1/2 to 7 1/2, are yours at Hale's tomorrow at pair $1.00
