AGRICULTURE.

BEST MANNER OF KEEPING AND IMPROVING COTTON SEED.
SPARTA, Feb. 10th, 1869.
Editors Southern Cultivator:—I went into the business of selling cotton seed unwillingly—but it has paid me very well, and will pay purchasers better, if they will manage them properly.

were astonished that my cotton, planted the 10th of May, was more forward than theirs, planted the 20th April. I often told them in a joking way, that they are root cutters; they often confessed they put the turning plow to the cotton the first plowing, then the shovel plow the balance of the season, getting no bolls until after the cotton was laid by.
