THE CAMDEN JOURNAL,
Published every Thursday
By D. C. KIRKLEY.

SUBSCRIPTION, $1.50 A YEAR
Entered at the Camden Post Office as Second Class Mail Matter.

THURSDAY, DEC. 5, 1889.

LOCAL ITEMS.

It would be doing us quite a favor if those of our Subscribers who are in arrears would settle their little accounts, as we have obligations to meet.

Children Enjoy.
The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be positive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

New Crop Nuts.
Almonds, Butter Nuts, English Wa nuts, Pecans, and Filberts, at W. J. Jones'.

Our American Cousin
Will be presented at the Opera House by some of the best amateur talent of Camden this (Thursday) evening.

Consumption Surely Cured.
To THE EDITOR—Please inform your reader that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been already cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Opera House—Alden Benedict.
Alden Benedict, in his great spectacular play, Fabio Romani, will appear at the Opera House on Tuesday, December 17. He carries all the scenery for five acts, including the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, and the great Earthquake Scene.

The Conference Host.
The Sunday News says: The Camden newspapers pay very high compliments to the executive capacity of the Rev. E. J. Meynardie, D. D., who acted as host to the recent Southern Methodist Conference held at Camden. They all declare that due in a large measure to Dr. Meynardie, who gave his personal attention to every detail of the management. Dr. Meynardie, greatly to the delight of the people of Camden, was returned to the church there for another year. He has often been stationed in Charleston, and has done much towards building up the Methodist Church here, and indeed all over the State, who will be glad to hear of his continued good health and effective work.

Personal.
We were glad to see Rev. John Kershaw, of Sumter, in town. Gen. Kennedy will resume the practice of law, and will soon open an office on Law Range. Our young friend and fellow-citizen, Mr. Henry W. Morrell, bade us good-bye on Monday morning, and left for Wellford, S. C., where his father, Mr. W. F. Morrell, has been residing for several years. We are sorry to part with Henry—in fact we always regret to see any of our young men leave us for other parts. He is a first rate young man, industrious and not afraid of work, and we wish him every success in his new home.

Brevities.
Santa Claus is coming. Fresh Dates at W. J. Jones'. King's Quick-Shot Powder at J. J. Watkins'. A new lot of those Fancy Smoked Shoulders, 7½ cents, just received at Arthur's. Cranberry Sauce, 12 cents, at W. J. Jones'. The "old reliable," John C. Man, always has his stock of groceries well replenished, and sells at reasonable prices. King's Quick-Shot Powder, at J. J. Watkins'. Dried Figs, 12½ cents, at W. J. Jones'.

Those of our subscribers who notice the X mark on their paper will know that the time is out, and we would request that they come in to settle. Messrs. N. T. Purdy & Co. have moved their grocery and hardware stock from the Clyburn Block to their Opera House store. See their adv.

Town Council have been making some needed improvements to the sidewalk on DaKalb street, between Littleton and Fair, which will be appreciated very much by pedestrians. Mr. J. R. Goodale has opened a shop one door north of the Clyburn Block, where you can have your tin-ware repaired. Many years' experience is a guarantee of satisfaction. Now is a good time to subscribe to the CAMDEN JOURNAL.

Education.
Education cannot be acquired without pains and application. It is troublesome and deep digging for pure water, but when once you come to the springs, they rise up and meet you. Every grain helps to fill the bushel, and so does it improve every moment and every opportunity increases knowledge. In this day and time ignorance may be considered a voluntary misfortune.—Durham Sun.

The usefulness of the Farmers' Alliance is being manifested more and more every day of its existence. It came not a day too soon to check the onward rush of grasping monopoly and concentration of wealth. It is threatened to overthrow and destroy the very foundation of government itself.

There is evidently going to be a good deal of difficulty in re-electing Mr. Allison to the United States Senate. The Iowa Legislature is so close and Mr. Allison has "boxed the compass" so completely on the tariff and other questions that his defeat is not at all improbable. It is thought that the loss of three Republican votes on joint ballot will beat him.

I AM HERE!
Where? At "Clyburn's Block" next North of Mr. John McSwyri's. My business is to REPAIR TINWARE.

With an experience of more than 15 years, I feel that I can give satisfaction in the quality of my work, and the prices I'll guarantee will suit you. Will be much obliged to you for your patronage.
JOS. GOODALE.

PURE LARD—FINE FLOUR.
(My Trade Mark.)

NEVER before in the years that I have done business in Camden, have I offered to this community as complete a Stock of

FINE GROCERIES
As is now exhibited in my store. A careful study of the wants of the public, and an abiding faith in their appreciation of

QUALITY
Has not led me into any miscalculations as to the success of my enterprise. In these days of adulteration and fraud, it would be well for every purchaser to enquire into the quality of the different food products offered for sale. It is not hard to learn if you give it proper attention, and your Grocer, if he knows anything about his business, should be able to give you all the information you desire. But do not make the mistake to suppose that you "know it all," because you have read a paragraph here and there in the newspapers. All Butter is not oleomargarine; all Sugar is not glucose; all Lard is not cotton seed oil, tallow, starch and alum; but there is a good deal of it "built that way," and in a great many cases the seller is just about as ignorant as the buyer of the analysis of the goods that are being exchanged between them. My Goods are intelligently selected, and purity of quality always is and always shall be the first consideration.
