

Charleston Election.

At last the great agony is over, and Cunningham is elected Mayor by over 2000 majority, things generally passed off quietly, with only now and then an occasional row, but we would like to tell you which party won? Was it the Democratic Republicans, or the Republican Democrats, as the Union-Herald classes them, or what party was it that got ahead this time, or had politics anything to do with it, if so what, and how? Don't keep your country folks in the dark this way. Suspense has ceased to be a virtue, and we would like to know what political line you have been fighting on, speak up somebody.

Editor Orangeburg News & Times:
 I respectfully ask you to inform me what branches is taught in first grade, what is second and third grade schools so that I may understand and know how to classify my schools and price to give teachers.

A TRUSTEE.

In reply we would say, that teachers are graded according to their own qualifications and without any regard as to the requirements of the school they may be called to teach, for instance a certificate as "first class" may be issued by the board of examiners to a certain teacher, and the school given into his, or her, charge be one where only the primary instructions are given, but a second or third class teacher will not be allowed to accept a school necessitating the requirements of a first class teacher.

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.]

The Name of this is Death and Eternity.

BY C. M. WILKINSON.

1. Death what a solemn call to all,
 A sudden judgment to us all,
 Death takes the young as well as old,
 And in the winding sheet doth fold,
 It 'tis awful, awful.

2. I spied a youth the other day
 Just in his prime he looked so gay,
 His time had come his days were past
 And he must go to the grave at last,
 It 'tis awful, awful.

3. His Father and Mother standing 'round
 With tears a falling to the ground,
 Saying father, father, pray for me
 For I must go to Eternity,
 It 'tis awful, awful, awful.

4. His faithful Sister standing by
 Saying brother, brother, you 'er going to die,
 You have trifled all your days away,
 And now must go to Eternity,
 It 'tis awful.

5. And when the corpse was brought to the ground
 His friends and relations weeping a 'round,
 With sorrowful hearts and troubled minds
 To think his soul in hell confined,
 It is awful, awful.

6. 1875.
 A story late has just been told
 A warning for both young and old,
 For to prepare to meet the Lord
 That we may leave his happy word,
 And give to Jesus glory,
 It is awful, awful.

A CAUTION.

Orangeburg, S. C.
 October, 8th 1875.

It having been brought to my attention, that some persons have been inducing my scholars to unite with another school, "reporting that it was my intention to give up my school and leave Orangeburg." I beg most respectfully to deny any such report, my school was never more flourishing, and I never in better condition to instruct pupils entrusted to my care.
