LOCAL.

The NEWS & TIMES will be successful no matter what happens.

The fines collected by the Mayor this week amount to $55. Business!

J. W. Cannon has a new and attractive sign up.

Mr. T. B. Boyd will open his shoe store in a few days.

See law card of C. S. Bull, Esq., in another column.

Meroney's House is crowded, and its excellent accommodations merits nothing less.

Advertisements crowd out local and editorial matter this week, which was intended for this issue.

The Hons. W. H. Reddish, S. L. Duncan and P. E. Jones were in Town during the present week.

We have had some cool weather, but as we go to press the temperature is quite pleasant.

August Fischer has Oysters, fresh from Charleston, next door to his Saloon.

Court brought a good many people to Town, and the last week has been quite lively.

It is reported that Weeks will be removed, and that W. L. W. Riley will take his place.

We are glad to announce that the estimable lady of our Senator is able to be up.

The Court House is going right up. Mr. Livingston gives the work his personal attention, a fact which is very gratifying to the tax-payers.

Mr. M. P. Howell, of George's Station, was admitted to practice in the law and Probate Courts of this State, on Wednesday last.

Briggmann & Renneker mean business. Read their advertisement and give them a call. We believe they are both single.

The County Fair will be a grand success. The premiums offered by the merchants will attract a great deal of interest.

Briggmann's & Crook's is the place to buy cheap groceries. If Wagener was defeated in Charleston, the Captain makes no change in his prices in consequence.

County Auditor Van Tassel having got through with his work, is rustating at Branchville. He is one of the Auditors that gives satisfaction to all parties.

The case against Mellett indicted for rape, came up on Thursday last. Able speeches were made in his behalf which induced the jury to render a verdict of not guilty.

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Muckenfuss is again at his office over Hamilton's store, ready to serve his friends and the public in his line of business.

His Honor Judge Cooke's charge to the Jury in the murder case, vs Cosnar was a magnificent effort.

Knights wishing to ride at the Tournament, must enter by Monday evening, E. S. Salley will take the names of any wishing to enter.

A certain troublesome individual got a wholesome lecture the other day from his Honor, Judge Cooke for slandering his betters.

His Honor, the Mayor, reminds us of the Detroit man. He makes offenders pay ten dollars if you swear in his presence, or go on the chain gang. We will have peace here now.

COURT BUSINESS.
Look out for our report of Court proceedings next issue. Report of Grand Jury &c. We have the account in full, but we have not the time or space to set it up.

Cough, Hoarseness, Asthma, or any Irritation of the Throat or Bronchial Tubes, will be relieved by taking Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It has cured thousands. Recommend it to your friend and neighbor. Your druggist keeps it. Price, 25 cents.

His Honor T. H. Cooke has given satisfaction to everybody. The News and Courier reporter says he has a eye to this Circuit. Such is not the case. The Judge is levelled too much up the country for the lawyers up there to give him up. For our sakes we would that he would change his mind.

PERSONAL.
We are glad to announce that J. Herman Wahlers has been admitted to practice in the courts of this State. He stood a good examination. We congratulate him. He was a lawyer from his birth, and ought to have gone to work long ago.

FAIR NOTICE TO ALL.
J. W. Albergotti, baker, request his friends and customers to give him a call during fair week. He will be prepared to serve them with bread, pies, cakes and crackers of all varieties, nice and fresh, every day. Also just received an assortment of French and American confectionaries, prize boxes, fancy articles, china and glass ware and notions. Go and see for yourselves.

THE COURT.
The October term of Court convened here last Monday, Hon. T. H. Cooke presiding. The business that has come up before His Honor has been rapidly disposed of, and with general satisfaction to all concerned. In fact, there never was a court held here that was presided over with more ability, dignity and dispatch than the present one. Our limited space prevents us from giving a full account of the proceedings, but will give a complete report in our next issue.

GONE CRAZY.
We don't know, that a certain friend of ours has exactly reached that point yet, but if some body does not pay him about $500, and carry "Mollie Darling" away from him, there is no telling what will become of him, he thinks of her by day, and dreams of her by night, he will softly murmur in his sleep "Mollie Darling," and then Mrs. — goes for him until he explains that "Mollie Darling" is only that fast nag that he thinks so much of. She is to be entered at the approaching fair, as the best fancy buggy horse, and if there is anything in this County that can compare with her in general style and beauty it is more than we know of. See Mollie and judge for yourselves.

Howes' Great London Circus.
Frankfort was crowded yesterday from 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. with visitors from all parts of the surrounding country, who were here to see Howes' Great London Circus. For once, we are pleased to be able to say, that this "big show" came up to its advertised promises. Everybody agreed that the parade through the streets was by far the finest, longest, and largest ever before seen. It was simply gorgeous, and seemingly almost interminable. It was also universally conceded that it was the newest, the most complete and magnificent in all its appointments that has ever yet visited Central Kentucky. The Circus, Menagerie, the Hippodrome, the Golden Chariots, everything, was first-rate in its kind. And well was it patronized, both in the day-time and at night.—Kentucky Freeman, April 28
This grand exhibition will pitch its tents in our Town on Wednesday October 27th.

Mr. Editor:
You will please announce through your columns that Rev. J. T. Wightman, D. D. of Charleston will preach in the Methodist Church of this place on Sunday next—to-morrow 24th inst.—at 11 A. M. and 7 1/2 P. M. The public are invited to attend.
I would take this occasion to return thanks to the Pastor and Members of the Presbyterian Church for the free use of their Church building for the past few weeks, during which time our Church was undergoing repairs.
