

Poetry.

Pray one for Another.

JAMES V. G. When sin and temptation enircle my way, When life seems a vapor—let me pray for thee...

When sickness and pain fill my bosom with fears, And e'en in the future no bright ray appears...

When cares and anxieties harass my breast, And with feelings of sadness my soul is oppressed...

When weakness, I feel I've no strength of my own, But must trust in His goodness and mercy alone...

Oh! blest is the voice that comes whispering to me, "Fear not; but press onward—they're praying for thee."

Whatever my station, where'er I may go, Where'er leads the path which my toils pursue...

As onward I press through the dangers that lie, To hinder my pilgrimage up to the skies...

This thought shall still cheer, and bring comfort to me, "The loved and the cherished are praying for thee."

[From the Darlington Flag.]

Fencing.

Mr. Editor.—It is gratifying to perceive that the public mind is gradually becoming aroused on the subject of the present system of enclosures...

If your sister, while engaged in a tender conversation with her sweet heart, requests you to bring her a glass of water from the adjoining room...

A gentleman met a young girl, whose parents lived near his house. "What are you doing, Jenny?" said he...

"As God follows," "Oh dear!" exclaimed an uncle, who was chewing a green apple. "I've swallowed an old fellow!"

"Yes, he is given me the grip."

A few Short Extracts from Letters, Testimonials, &c. "I have used Jacob's Cardiac in my family, and have found it a most efficient, and in my judgment a valuable remedy."

HON. HERMAN WARNER, Judge of Supreme Court, Ga. "It gives me pleasure in being able to recommend Jacob's Cardiac—my own personal experience, and the experience of my neighbors and friends around me, is a sufficient guarantee for me to believe it to be all that it purports to be, viz: a sovereign remedy."

"I take great pleasure in recommending this invaluable medicine to all afflicted with bowel diseases, for which I believe it to be a sovereign remedy—decidedly superior to any thing else ever tried by me."

A. A. GARLAND, D. C. M. of the Grand Lodge of Georgia. "I have used Jacob's Cardiac in my family, and with all I know about it as a remedy by those who have tried it, induces me to believe that it stands at the head of every preparation of the kind, and I would recommend its use in the diseases for which it is compounded."

MILES G. DOBBS, Cashier of the Bank of the State of Georgia. "If there is any credibility in human testimony, Jacob's Cardiac is the most eminent and safe of all other preparations for the cure of Bowel Diseases. From the mass of testimony in its favor coming from all quarters, it must be, very far in advance, as a curative agent, of most if not all other patent preparations."

A FLEMING, Cashier Marine and Fire Insurance Bank, Griffin. "This efficient remedy is travelling in celebrity as fast as Benjamin's pushed his columns into Russia, and gaining commendation wherever used."
