Established in 1828.

Winter won't be long in coming. The colder making season is about over.

Borwick thinks she will get Albright College.

Let no one be deceived. Winter will be here in due time.

There will be some dear hunting trips made this month.

Revival services at St. Paul's M. E. church are being well attended.

Study the sample ballots so that you may vote without making a mistake.

Sunday was the coldest October day experienced hereabouts for ten years.

There have been an unusually large number of fine sunsets during October.

Everybody except the weatherman will admit that this is Indian summer.

Wonder who will be buried in the snow storm expected day after election?

A good time to repair the sidewalks. Indian summer is behaving beautifully.

The long-delayed wrestles with the stove pipes are forced to an issue these frosty mornings.

Mrs. D. N. Diefenbacher and Mrs. Lutz spent several days in Philadelphia the latter part of last week.

What city has a climate so peculiar it has been described as "nine months hibernal and three months infernal"? Read Stoddard's Lectures.

Mrs. G. W. Fowler and little daughter and Mrs. Reeder, of Strawberry Ridge, while transacting business in our city on Tuesday, squared accounts with the Intelligencer.

Mrs. Emmann Krebs, of Coldwater, Michigan, and Mrs. Samuel Krebs, of Swanton, Union Co., visited the former's sister-in-law, Mrs. Chas. Shivers, Sr., at Strawberry Ridge, last week.

Where is the shrine, "only forty years old, that is visited by fifty thousand Christian pilgrims a month, many of whom are undoubtedly cured of great afflictions"? Read Stoddard's Lectures.

Mr. Geo. C. Stahl, Democratic candidate for the Legislature from Northumberland county, while in these parts canvassing stopped into to see us on Tuesday and exchange a few words. Mr. Stahl is a capable, deserving man and will receive a large vote. There is no question but that he will be high man on the ticket in North's county.

Mr. Geo. W. Herr, of Strawberry Ridge, transacted business in this city on Saturday. He stopped in to see us before leaving for home and renewed his subscription to the Intelligencer, the paper he has been reading from childhood—about forty years.

Mr. Herr is a pleasing and entertaining gentleman and is a Democrat, a constitutional quality that is necessary to be developed to be a real gentleman.

SCUHLER. Mr. Farron—These frosty mornings and cold days remind us that winter is rapidly coming on, and warm us, too, that we must get a hustle on to prepare for its coming. The work of husking corn is completed with many farmers, and not a few have the fodder stored in their barns. There are, however, quite a number who have a good many shocks standing yet in their fields. This week will see the job about completed. Some plowing has been done for the next year's crop.

The West Branch Conference of the Lutheran church met in St. James' church, at Turbotville, last week, and was well attended by ministers, delegates, and congregation. The subjects discussed were ably handled by those to whom they were assigned, and interesting to the audience. Its next meeting will be held at Oak Grove, near Jersey Shore next Spring.

Turbotville has, within its limits, quite a number of old people. A count, made the other day, found thirteen who were eighty or more years old. This is not a bad showing for a town that numbers about five hundred inhabitants. Who can beat it?

Election day is drawing near and yet there is no excitement. To the best of my recollection this has been the quietest presidential campaign I ever saw. One scarcely hears a word said upon the subject whether National, State or County. I suppose everybody thinks it makes little difference how one votes here, the political thug of Philadelphia will offset it by fraudulent votes and count. Is it not a disgrace for the second county of the Union to be such a hot bed of political rascality, and her citizens suspiciously bear with it?

Miss Carrie Feinour, who was drowned in the river at Sunbury, last week, was well known in this vicinity, and the sad news of her death greatly shocked her friends and acquaintances. Her family has the sympathy of all who know her.

I was asked several times who the Republican candidate for the county offices were. For the life of me I could not answer the question. I told my interlocutors that I guessed there were none. Was I correct?

You will see by reading the Sheriff's proclamation, on last page, that the Republicans have a partial list of candidates for the various county offices, although you may never have seen or heard anything about it. We, ourselves, know none of the aspirants, and never hear anything about them—Ed.]

"People want to look a little out" when they cross the rail road. There were two narrow escapes from being struck by the engine last week, and there should be a warning to others not to take any risks.

Mrs. Aaron Stone, one of Anthony township's oldest residents, died last Friday. Her funeral will take place on Tuesday. She was about eighty years old, and lived with her daughter, Mrs. Stephen Gray.

Tonight the boys will be busy playing tricks upon their unsuspecting neighbors. Better be careful, some one may be watching for you.

HON. C. H. DICKERMAN WINS.

In Suit Against J. Wesley Van Kirk for Slender Me Receives Verdict.

Chas. H. Dickerman, of the County of Northumberland, Pa., vs. J. Wesley Van Kirk, Dec. Term, 1902, No. 180.

VERDICT. And now to wit: October 19th, 1904, vs. the Jurors empaneled in the above entitled case, and by direction of the Court a verdict in favor of the Plaintiff and against the Defendant for the sum of $250.00 P. C.

Filed Oct. 19, 1904, James A. McCarthy, Prothonotary.

I, James A. McCarthy, Prothonotary of the above Court do hereby certify that the foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the verdict filed in the above case.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of the said Court this 21st day of October, A. D. 1904.

JAMES A. MCCARTHY, Prothonotary.

The above official copy of the record of the Court of Common Pleas of the County of Northumberland, of December Term 1902, No. 180, is the termination of the suit for slander I was compelled to bring for my own justification, against J. Wesley Van Kirk, for a gross libel, circulated by my opponent, the notorious Godcharles, during the Congressional campaign of 1902. The defendant acknowledged he had no sense, and threw himself upon my mercy. It appearing that he had been merely an instrument in the hands of a bold and unscrupulous politician, who had availed himself of a temporary pique, for his own purposes, and as he had been at one time a faithful employee of the company of which I was treasurer, had been a gallant soldier in the War of the Rebellion, was practically without means, aged and infirm, I consented to accept nominal damages. In addition, there was a question whether any considerable number of the voters of the district had been deceived or influenced by its circulation.

I was elected by a satisfactory majority, and as the character for truth and veracity of the person who actually circulated the slander is such that no reasonable jury was likely to believe that any statement made or circulated by him, or through his instrumentality, could influence any great number of our citizens, it was deemed by myself and counsel unnecessary to insist upon a larger verdict.

INFORMATION FOR DEMOCRATIC VOTERS

voter, after having placed a cross mark in the square opposite the name DEMOCRATIC, in the first column at the extreme left of the ballot, should desire to vote, for instance, for a Republican candidate for some office, and should place a cross mark opposite his name, his vote for that office would not be counted for either candidate or candidates, because he would by so marking vote for two instead of one candidate for the same office.

(NOTE.—The Supreme Court in the case of Redman's Election, 173 Pa. St. Rep. p. 59.) says: "Under the ballot law of 1898 it is not enough that the intention of the voter may possibly be ascertained or his irregular or equivocal acts explained by other evidence than his ballot. THE LEGISLATURE SPECIFICALLY DIRECTED how it should be prepared and used by the voter in order to avoid all such inquiries and the consequences likely to result therefrom. It was intended that the ballot when prepared by the voter and delivered to the proper election officer should be self-explanatory."

1.—The voter MUST NOT CROSS OUT ANY NAMES upon the tickets NOR COVER A NAME WITH A "STICKER" OR "PASTER," except in the case referred to in the next section.

2.—When a candidate has died or withdrawn, and a substituted nomination is made after the ballots are printed, the new name may be printed upon a "sticker," and pasted OVER to cover the name of the deceased or withdrawn candidate. The voter should, in placing the "sticker" over the name of the candidate so deceased or withdrawn, use GREAT CARE so as not to cover MORE THAN THE ONE NAME. Under no other circumstances can a "sticker" be pasted over the title or any other name.

(NOTE.—Chief Justice Sterrett, in the case of Little Beaver Township Election, 165 Pa. St. p. 233, Jan. 7, 1895) says:

"The marking is applicable only to candidates whose names are printed on the official ballots."

"In case of persons whose names are not already upon the ballot, the only prescribed mode of voting is by inserting their names in the blank spaces prepared therefor in the right hand column in the official ballot."

"It is the name only that is to be thus inserted and not the title of the office to be filled."

"A ballot should not be counted where the right hand column devoted to blank spaces is covered and obliterated by a slip ticket prepared with adhesive paste, in such a manner that the title of the office, direction for the insertion of names and the spaces indicated and defined by lines in the official ballot are covered, and the titles of the offices, direction for marking, spaces and names provided thereon in the prepared slip ticket are substituted therefor."

"Where power has been given by statute to do a thing in a particular way, affirmative words, marking out the way necessary, by implication prohibiting all other ways."

h.—Before leaving the voting shelf or compartment the VOTER SHALL fold his ballot without displaying the marks thereon, in the SAME WAY it was folded when handed to him by the ELECTION OFFICER, and keep it so folded, and shall himself deposit it in the ballot box without undue delay, and shall quit the enclosed space immediately thereafter.

1.—No voter, not an election officer, shall be allowed to re-enter the enclosed space after he has once left it, except to give help, as hereinbefore stated.

2.—When the hour for closing the polls shall arrive all persons within the enclosed space who have received ballots, but have not yet deposited them, shall be required to mark and deposit their ballots forthwith, but no other person shall be allowed to vote.

3.—A ballot to be seen, with APPARENT intention of showing marks.

4.—Casting, or attempting to cast, an unofficial ballot or one improperly obtained, or falsely declaring to a judge of election that, by reason of any disability, he desires assistance in the preparation of his ballot.

5.—Interfering with voters.

6.—Inducing voters to show ballots.

7.—The disclosing by any person (except the voter) of the contents of any ballot that has been marked by another's help.

8.—Defacing, destroying or removing official lists of candidates, cards of instruction, specimen ballots or supplies for marking.

9.—Filing false certificates, papers or letters.

10.—Signing nomination papers when not qualified.

11.—Forging indorsements to ballots.

12.—Destroying, defacing or delaying the delivery of ballots.

13.—Willful or negligent non-performance or misperformance of official duty.

14.—Willful misfeasance of printers of ballots.

15.—Appropriation or improper disposition of ballots by printers.

16.—Having ballots in possession other than sample outside of voting room.

17.—Counterfeiting official ballots or having counterfeit in possession. This section does not apply to sample ballots.

18.—Violating any provisions of the Ballot Law.

One of three cows being taken across the river by a man named Enterline, did not take kindly to the ferry yesterday and created excitement by jumping into the stream. Although the boat had traveled two-thirds of the distance to the South Danville shore the cow tumbled and swam all the way back to the Danville bank, where she was captured without much trouble.

PARKER'S ELECTION PREDICTED BY OVERWHELMING MAJORITY

New York, Oct. 31.—Urey Woodson, secretary of the Democratic National Committee, who said he was speaking for the committee, to day predicted the overwhelming election of Judge Parker to the Presidency. He predicted that all the doubtful States will be Democratic, and also that some States called Republican will be and are doubtful.

Secretary Woodson said: "I have every confidence that Judge Parker will be elected. I have been here 100 days now and I am ready to announce from observation and what we have received that Parker is elected."

All Doubtful States Claimed. "All the doubtful States, so called will be in the Democratic column, and many of the States called purely Republican are now in the doubtful column."

We will carry New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Indiana, Maryland, West Virginia, Idaho, Colorado, Utah and Nevada. In other words all the doubtful states are for us and for Judge Parker's election.

Illinois is Doubtful. "Illinois is doubtful, Ohio is even doubtful. The big men who controlled that State are now dead. The Republicans assume they are going to win there, but we hear they might lose. Even California has sent good reports to us and we are hopeful of even carrying that State."

"Maryland is certainly as Democratic as Kentucky; West Virginia is as sure as Maryland."

Secretary Woodson said that Chairman Taggart will be here surely by Monday night.

"YOUR MOTHER"

We have just received one of the most beautiful home songs that of late come to this office. It is called "YOUR MOTHER," written by J. T. Rider. This is a song that everybody ought to buy and everybody ought to sing.

CHORUS. Why, your mother, your own mother, such affection could come from no other in sunshine or rain, in pleasure or pain. The one you loved best was your mother.

Something Different in Children's Coats--Style and Wear Combined

Many mothers in buying clothes for the girl give wear the first consideration to the necessary neglect of style. "Wooltex" garments marks a new era in children's garments, for just as much attention is given to style in the little girl's coat as in her big sister's, while wear is no secondary consideration either. The material is proved pure wool, the cut and build are such as to prevent sagging and retain the garment's shape under the severest strain, and the fit has to be perfect or you bring back the coat. Notice these styles:

3.00 values, 2.50. Green and blue Zibelines, loose back with belt, shoulder cape, collar and cuff trimmed with velvet, coat sleeve.

5.00 value, 3.98. Brown Zibeline, loose fitting back, belted, large collar and cape, full coat sleeve, all nicely trimmed with fancy white and black braid.

6.00 value, 5.00. Blue Zibeline, large collar and cape, all piped with red velvet, loose back belted, trimmed with gilt braid and brass buttons.

Other excellent values at 5.00, 7.00, 8.00, 10.00 and 12.00. In all sizes from 6 to 14 years, best of fabric in chevrons, Melton, Tweeds, Beaver, Zibeline and Home-spun, pretty shades of brown and blue, belted backs, elegant trimmings of velvets and braids.

Children's Short Coats, loose fitting, blues, reds and browns, 3.98 up to 5.00.

Ralston Health shoes are the only make where the shoe sole follows the curve of the foot which makes a guarantee of instant ease—the "old shoe" feeling with new shoe appearance. To gamblers: Don't take chances on hitting anything but game. If in doubt, do not shoot. It is better to allow a deer or bear to escape than it is to kill or wound a man.

Much interest has been attending the spirited revival services now under way in St. Paul's M. E. church. The attendance last night was large. The singing is a strong feature of the meetings. A Shauquon pastor, the Rev. R. M. Snyder, is assisting the Rev. S. B. Evans and his address are very impressive.

Among those who were in attendance at the Twelfth Regiment reunion at Milton on Saturday was a young Spaniard named Tony, who is a member of the Gaskins' band. He was called on to say something and told the boys that when he left Spain, it was on the promise that they would clean this country up in less than three months. He fought at Santiago and after the war came to this country and is now making good wages painting in the shops at Sunbury. He has taken out his first papers and will shortly be a naturalized citizen of Uncle Sam's.

A Nice Wedding. On Monday evening Mr. William N. Stetler, a prominent business man of Frosty Valley, Columbia County, Pa., accompanied by Miss Gertrude S. Blue, a fair maiden and a belle of the valley, arrived in this city, their purpose being to become united in holy wedlock.

Rev. J. H. Boswell, of Trinity M. E. Church, performed the interesting ceremony. The fair bride was neatly attired in a gown of steel colored taffeta silk as she was blushing led to the altar.

Miss Mary C. Boody, of Ripert, Pa., and Miss Edna A. Nichols, of this city, acted as maids of honor, and Mr. Lincoln H. Boody, of Ripert, is best man for the occasion.

Several intimate friends were present, and after hearty congratulations a beautiful collation was served. After a few days of visiting here the happy couple left for their home in the beautiful valley, and were warmly congratulated by their many friends there.—Bridgeton, New Jersey Patriot.
