

CARTOONS ALL RIGHT,
SAYS CARTOONED BRYAN

Pennypacker's Effort to Muzzle Humorists Scored in the Nebraska's Commoner.

A much-cartooned man himself, Will Jennings Bryan says they are all right. In the Commoner, discussing Governor Pennypacker's failure to wreck revenge upon Pennsylvania cartoonists, he says:
"The cartoon has come to stay, and is an important factor in American political life. No amount of cartooning can permanently injure a good man or a good cause. It will only put him in the way of a bad man or a bad cause."
"Cartoons are sometimes brutal, but the tendency is constantly upward, and the public man who waxes wrath at the cartoonists and attempts to prevent them from plying their art merely advertises himself as being afraid of them, and the public is not apt to be long in learning the reason."

THREE MEN LOSE
LIVES IN BIG FIRE

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 14.—Three men were killed and three others seriously burned and property valued at $727,000 destroyed by a fire, which began last night and which was not under control until this morning. The dead are: Jacob F. Miller, insurance patrolman; H. J. Buckley, insurance patrolman, and John Fellows, pipe-man. The losses, almost fully covered by insurance, are: O. H. Peck building, Bostell Brothers, building and Bostell building, all owned by the Hale Homestead company, of Minneapolis, $245,000; Mercantile company's building, $35,000; O. H. Peck, stock of photographic supplies, $45,000; Bostell Brothers, stock of furniture, $30,000; Bostell Manufacturing company, picture frames and art goods, $80,000; Powers Mercantile company, department store, $35,000; Northwestern National bank building, $10,000; Farmers and Mechanics Savings bank, $30,000; miscellaneous losses, $5,000.
The flames started in the basement of the Peck establishment.

Why We Grow Old.

Bitter memories of a sinful life which has gone all wrong make premature furrows in the face, take the brightness from the eyes, and the elasticity from the step, and makes one's life saps and uninteresting, says Orion sweet. Marden in Success Magazine.
We grow old because we do not know enough to keep young, just as we become sick and diseased because we do not know enough to keep well.
Sickness is a result of ignorance and wrong thinking. The time will come when a man will no more harbor thoughts that will make him sick or weak than he would think of putting his hands into fire. No man can be sick if he always has right thoughts and takes ordinary care of his body.
If he will think only youthful thoughts he can maintain his youth far beyond the usual period.

Water Famine Prevails.

MOOSUP, Conn., Dec. 14.—The danger of severe suffering from a drought in this section is believed to have increased by the heavy snow storm yesterday. Owing to the deep drifts the farmers have to haul water from the ponds for their cattle, and have had very hard work to keep up the supply. Hundreds of wells are giving out or are nearly dry and a deep freeze-up is feared. The mill owners have to shut down for lack of water.
This will necessitate the throwing out of work of several thousand hands.

How She Keeps Young.

She eats three warm meals at regular hours.
She sleeps eight hours, and as often as possible two of them before midnight.
She takes fifteen quiet minutes in a darkened room after luncheon.
She begins each day with a cold bath, followed by a glass of cold or hot water.
She is careful to spend at least a half hour every day in the open air.
She never rides where she can walk the distance comfortably.
She doesn't waste her vitality in superfluous and energetic talking.
She is neither self centered nor family centered, but has a few fresh outside interests to keep her live and thoughtful.
She never lets herself moan over the past, nor worry about the future, but makes the best of the present and keeps sweet and cheerful.

Beware of These Flowers.

It is claimed that the tulip is a dangerous flower. Take a tulip of a deep crimson color and inhale it with profound inspirations and it will be apt to make you lightheaded. You will say and do queer things—dance, sing, light, swear and so on. For two hours you will cut up in the way. Afterward you will be depressed.
The poppy is another flower supposed to be dangerous. A young woman of a nervous temperament, if the fingers among a bed of poppies, will grow drowsy, the same as if she had smoked a pipe or two of opium.
In Asia Minor, where the opium manufacturers cultivate vast fields of poppies, tourists inspecting the beautiful flowers often become altogether incapacitated. They get so sleepy they can hardly talk. They reel in their gait. In some cases they have to be put to bed.

An Informal Dance.

An informal dance, but one of more than usual significance on account of the step taken to make it a success and the most interesting of the season, will be held in the Armory, Tuesday evening, December 31. The committee having the affair in charge, consists of Harry Welliver, leaders Rosenthal, Will Maines, Joseph Rosenthal, Arthur Heddus and Will Ellenbogen.
The overture begins at 8:30 o'clock.
The famous Fiske orchestra, of Will-amport, will furnish the music, and prove a great drawing card.

Philadelphia Hotel Fire.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.—The Aberdeen hotel, Broad street above Pine, was destroyed seriously by fire early today. Thirty guests were aroused by bell boys and chambermaids, many of them ran out into the ice and snow without waiting to dress.
Three persons were overcome by smoke and cold and were taken to the Hal-lowman hospital.

Quiet Day Services.
The Quiet Day services at Christ Episcopal church Tuesday night and Wednesday were well attended. The object of these services is to give opportunity to the communicants to prepare for their Christmas communion.
The Rev. Father Converse, late of Philadelphia, addressed the meetings in an interesting and helpful manner.
