

Published every Friday at Danville, the county seat of Montour county, Pa. $100 a year in advance or $1.25 if not paid in advance; and no paper will be discontinued until all arrearages are paid, except at the option of the publisher.
Rates of advertising made known on application. Address all communications to THE INTELLIGENCER, DANVILLE, PA.

ANNOUNCEMENTS
We are authorized to announce the name of G. W. MILLER as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Democratic party of Montour county.

We are authorized to announce the name of G. W. MILLER as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Democratic party of Montour county.

We are authorized to announce the name of HENRY COOPER as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Democratic party of Montour county.

We are authorized to announce the name of CLARENCE W. MILLER as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Democratic party of Montour county.

We are authorized to announce the name of ANDREW BILLYEY as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Democratic party of Montour county.

We are authorized to announce the name of CHAS. W. COOK, of Valley township as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Republican party of Montour county.

We are authorized to announce the name of CHAS. P. GEORGE as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the regular rules of the Democratic party of Montour county.

Democratic County Convention.
By authority of the Democratic County Committee the Democratic County Convention will meet in Danville in the Court House, on Monday, June 5th, 1905, at 10 o'clock in the morning of said day.

The primaries will be held on Saturday, June 3rd, 1905, between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m., at the usual place in each election district. Each district is entitled to two delegates. The following will be nominated at the primaries:

One person for Associate Judge.
One person for District Attorney.
Two persons for County Commissioners.

Two persons for County Auditors.
H. HORACE C. BICE, Chairman.
JOSEPH R. PATTON, Secretary.

INQUIRIES FROM FAR AND NEAR

"His Worship, Mayor of Harrisburg," was the address on one of the envelopes bearing letters to the police station Tuesday, containing earnest inquiries concerning many men who are believed to have been killed in the Lochiel wreck on the morning of Thursday, May 11.

This letter was written by Katherine Holley, of No. 703 Kelly street, Buffalo, N. Y., for her sister, Mrs. E. E. Tompkins, of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, which is the customary way of addressing communications to Lord Mayors of cities of that country.

The latter makes inquiry about Frank E. Tompkins who was believed to have been one of the passengers of the ill-fated Cleveland and Cincinnati Express. The anxious woman wants to know whether the body of a man by that name has been found in the wreck as he has not been heard from since the wreck.

Another equally anxious inquiry came to the police station Tuesday from William McDonald, of No. 292 Euclid avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, concerning John Graham, who left Glasgow for this country, arriving at New York on May 10 on the steamer Astoria. He is described as being 30 years old, five feet seven inches in height with a light mustache. He had a handbag containing underwear and two brushes and a steel stamp with the initials "J. X. G."

Several days after the wreck the accumulation of articles from the wrecked train were sorted out at the Union station, and a detailed account of the contents of each grip and hand-satchel was published. Several of the small hand satchels contained underwear and two small hand brushes, but there were no steel stamps in the bag. This satchel was badly broken and the clasp had been knocked off, and it may be that the steel stamp was lost from the bag in the wreck.

Another communication received by the Mayor on Tuesday, was from Mr. William Lennon, inquiring after his husband William Lennon a government employe who has not been heard from since the fatal wreck. The letter was addressed from Roanoke, Va., and stated that Mr. Lennon was on his way to Harrisburg from New York City, about the time of the wreck.

Others letters, almost similar have been received almost daily by Under-taker Samuel Speese, who had charge of the temporary morgue at No. 123 Chestnut street, after the wreck, and Coroner George C. Kraus has received a number of letters from people inquiring after a number of friends and relatives who have not been heard from since the morning of the wreck.

The Duel Was Abandoned.
An Irishman traveling in France was challenged by a Frenchman to fight a duel, to which he readily consented and drew a sword with which the Frenchman is familiar. "Is that so?" replied the Irishman coolly. "Very well, we'll fight with Guillotines."

Derby's Market Stone.
In Derby, England, there is a curious relic of the great plague of 1665. It stands in the arboretum gardens and is commonly called "the market stone." To avoid infection the country folk from the surrounding villages would leave their orders for anything they might want with the watchman, who used to go into the town, make the necessary purchases and deposit them on the steps of "the market stone."

EASTER IN JAPAN.

The Cherry Blossom Festival, Resurrection of Fruit and Flowers.
By reaching Japan just at the beginning of spring you will find yourself in the midst of the native Easter season, which in reality is the cherry blossom festival. Because it comes at the time that Easter is celebrated in the western countries it is given that name.

The dawn of Easter in Japan is a dazzling and fascinating sight even to an American, used as he is to the great display of flowers and bright and dainty costumes that come out on that day in the United States.

The Japanese are like a lot of happy school children let out to play, happy in their religious flower festival. None of the church ceremonies has any part in their celebration, and although the cherry festival commemorates the resurrection, it is the resurrection of the fruits and flowers.

All Japan rejoices. The children have a day set apart for their special devotion, and the grown people do little but seek to make the young people happy. Along the roadways, in deep beds with fallen cherry petals, the children draw immense movable temples. Sometimes more than a hundred little girls dressed in gorgeous hues are in line, pulling on the ropes attached to these chariots, on which the boys, dressed in blue and white togas, ride and play on their musical instruments, while the cleverest of their number in masked fancy render religious dramas on the elevated platform in front of the chariot.

The streets are choked with thousands of grown people, who give up the day to witnessing these processions, and as the chariot and the children pass, they carry and arrange of cherry trees, and the gentle spring breeze blows, a constant shower of pink perfumed snow falls from the cherry trees and everything becomes hazy in the entrancing mist of a pink snowstorm of cherry blossoms.

The streets are choked with thousands of grown people, who give up the day to witnessing these processions, and as the chariot and the children pass, they carry and arrange of cherry trees, and the gentle spring breeze blows, a constant shower of pink perfumed snow falls from the cherry trees and everything becomes hazy in the entrancing mist of a pink snowstorm of cherry blossoms.

Democratic County Convention.
By authority of the Democratic County Committee the Democratic County Convention will meet in Danville in the Court House, on Monday, June 5th, 1905, at 10 o'clock in the morning of said day.

The primaries will be held on Saturday, June 3rd, 1905, between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m., at the usual place in each election district. Each district is entitled to two delegates. The following will be nominated at the primaries:

One person for Associate Judge.
One person for District Attorney.
Two persons for County Commissioners.

Two persons for County Auditors.
H. HORACE C. BICE, Chairman.
JOSEPH R. PATTON, Secretary.

INQUIRIES FROM FAR AND NEAR

"His Worship, Mayor of Harrisburg," was the address on one of the envelopes bearing letters to the police station Tuesday, containing earnest inquiries concerning many men who are believed to have been killed in the Lochiel wreck on the morning of Thursday, May 11.

This letter was written by Katherine Holley, of No. 703 Kelly street, Buffalo, N. Y., for her sister, Mrs. E. E. Tompkins, of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, which is the customary way of addressing communications to Lord Mayors of cities of that country.

The latter makes inquiry about Frank E. Tompkins who was believed to have been one of the passengers of the ill-fated Cleveland and Cincinnati Express. The anxious woman wants to know whether the body of a man by that name has been found in the wreck as he has not been heard from since the wreck.

Another equally anxious inquiry came to the police station Tuesday from William McDonald, of No. 292 Euclid avenue, Cleveland, Ohio, concerning John Graham, who left Glasgow for this country, arriving at New York on May 10 on the steamer Astoria. He is described as being 30 years old, five feet seven inches in height with a light mustache. He had a handbag containing underwear and two brushes and a steel stamp with the initials "J. X. G."

Several days after the wreck the accumulation of articles from the wrecked train were sorted out at the Union station, and a detailed account of the contents of each grip and hand-satchel was published. Several of the small hand satchels contained underwear and two small hand brushes, but there were no steel stamps in the bag. This satchel was badly broken and the clasp had been knocked off, and it may be that the steel stamp was lost from the bag in the wreck.

Another communication received by the Mayor on Tuesday, was from Mr. William Lennon, inquiring after his husband William Lennon a government employe who has not been heard from since the fatal wreck. The letter was addressed from Roanoke, Va., and stated that Mr. Lennon was on his way to Harrisburg from New York City, about the time of the wreck.

Others letters, almost similar have been received almost daily by Under-taker Samuel Speese, who had charge of the temporary morgue at No. 123 Chestnut street, after the wreck, and Coroner George C. Kraus has received a number of letters from people inquiring after a number of friends and relatives who have not been heard from since the morning of the wreck.

SEAMOUS A' COW,

Steer, Bull or Horse
hides, and the Dog
skin, or any other kind
of hide or skin, and let us tan it with the hair
on, soft, light, odorless
and moth-proof, for robes,
rugs, coats or gloves.

But first get our Catalogue,
giving prices, and our shipping
and packing instructions, to avoid mistakes. We also buy
rugs and guns.
THE CHRISTIAN FUR COMPANY,
116 Mill Street, Rochester, N. Y.

THE PECULIAR LOON.

This Bird has a Hide About as Tough
as That of an Ox.
The loon differs from other birds in a number of ways. I have reason to think that many people are unaware of some of these peculiarities. The loon has a hide as tough as an ox, and its feathers cannot be plucked without first scalding the bird as you would a hog. This incident will give you an idea of the toughness of the hide. About thirty-five years ago when I was living in Michigan, a loon was shot at with a shotgun industriously all summer without apparently doing him any harm. In the fall I killed him with a rifle, and to compare the people that a loon could be shot and killed. He had many times been shot at with a rifle by the same people who had used the shotgun, and they had become convinced that he did so quickly that he would be shot in that way. I had seen them shoot at him a number of times, and I could see the splash of bullet or shot in the water before the loon dove. I ridiculed the idea of the dodging, and that led to my shooting him to satisfy my curiosity. When I skinned the bird I found and counted over a hundred No. 6 shot, all of them stuck to the inside of the hide and so doing him no permanent harm. It is remarkable that he was never hit in the eye nor sustained a broken wing.

Another thing peculiar to the loon is that after the chicks are hatched, if the mother wishes to move far, she will make a shallow dive and come up with her bird babies and swim off with them on her back. The person that succeeds in photographing her under such conditions may well claim the pennant. Only once have I seen a loon shoulder her young, although for over twenty years I lived in the part of Michigan where the loons were the best chance imaginable to watch loons. Now the timber has been cut off around most of the lakes, and such favorable conditions for observation no longer exist.

Although I have only once seen a loon on her back, I have seen her swim with them on her back many times. Once one swam within twenty feet of me and never suspected my presence.

One of her calls when sitting on the nest for some time is that of any other bird or beast that I know of. I have heard them in the night when they were more than five miles distant, for they only make that kind of call from the water, and there was no lake in that direction short of that distance. To say that the loon is a very interesting bird is as mild as I can express it.—Forest and Stream.

BE ACCURATE.

One of the Best Motives For a Young Man Entering Business.

The head of one of the largest dry goods commission houses in the city was asked the other day how it happened that his partner, upon whom the principal responsibility of the business rested, came to attain that position while not yet thirty years of age.

"Simply and simply on the merit," he replied. "He came into my office one morning some ten or twelve years ago and told me that he had just finished school and was looking for a position. I happened to have a position open at that time, and I engaged him and started him in at $5 a week. His rise from that position to the one that he now occupies was steady and rapid and was due entirely to the fact that after having received an order or instructions he could be relied upon to carry them out, and do it correctly. He never started off on anything 'half cooked,' so to speak. He was not afraid to ask questions and thus get his instructions straight before undertaking the work in hand. In fact, I might say that he owes everything to the fact that he was always accurate in all that he did. You may think that I am preaching a sort of sermon, but if you young men entering business positions, whether high or low, would follow for their motto the two words, 'Be accurate,' and would live up to it there need be no fear of the ultimate outcome of their undertakings."—New York Commercial.

A VERSATILE WOMAN.

Some of the Things For Which Phoebe Brown Was Famed.

Phoebe Brown died something over half a century ago, and she was an extraordinary woman, who lived with her mother in a cottage nearly opposite the "High Tor, at Matlock Bath, England, could walk nearly forty miles a day when young, could lift a hundred-weight in each hand and carry four guineas a week. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea.

But Phoebe had also a liking for sport and art. She was a good shot and carried her gun on her shoulder. She was fond of Milton, Pope and Shakespeare and performed on several instruments, including the flute, violin and harspichord, and played the bass violin in each party. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea.

Here lies romantic Phoebe,
Half Gynemede, half Hebe,
Chief of nuttable and nuttable,
A Jockey, cowherd and musician.

The Town Stood the Loss.
While the engine was taking water the passenger with the imposing watch chain and eyeglasses strolled out on the platform and looked with interest about him.

"By Jove!" he said to the solitary native who was sitting on a flour barrel. "This village looks just exactly as it did twenty years ago. Just as I moved away from here. I don't believe it has changed a particle in all that time." "I reckon not, mister," said the solitary native, biting off a chew of tobacco. "Your gaiter don't seem to have made much difference in the old town."—Chicago Tribune.

SEAMOUS A' COW,

Steer, Bull or Horse
hides, and the Dog
skin, or any other kind
of hide or skin, and let
us tan it with the hair
on, soft, light, odorless
and moth-proof, for robes,
rugs, coats or gloves.

But first get our Catalogue,
giving prices, and our shipping
and packing instructions, to avoid mistakes. We also buy
rugs and guns.
THE CHRISTIAN FUR COMPANY,
116 Mill Street, Rochester, N. Y.

THE PECULIAR LOON.

This Bird has a Hide About as Tough
as That of an Ox.
The loon differs from other birds in a number of ways. I have reason to think that many people are unaware of some of these peculiarities. The loon has a hide as tough as an ox, and its feathers cannot be plucked without first scalding the bird as you would a hog. This incident will give you an idea of the toughness of the hide. About thirty-five years ago when I was living in Michigan, a loon was shot at with a shotgun industriously all summer without apparently doing him any harm. In the fall I killed him with a rifle, and to compare the people that a loon could be shot and killed. He had many times been shot at with a rifle by the same people who had used the shotgun, and they had become convinced that he did so quickly that he would be shot in that way. I had seen them shoot at him a number of times, and I could see the splash of bullet or shot in the water before the loon dove. I ridiculed the idea of the dodging, and that led to my shooting him to satisfy my curiosity. When I skinned the bird I found and counted over a hundred No. 6 shot, all of them stuck to the inside of the hide and so doing him no permanent harm. It is remarkable that he was never hit in the eye nor sustained a broken wing.

Another thing peculiar to the loon is that after the chicks are hatched, if the mother wishes to move far, she will make a shallow dive and come up with her bird babies and swim off with them on her back. The person that succeeds in photographing her under such conditions may well claim the pennant. Only once have I seen a loon shoulder her young, although for over twenty years I lived in the part of Michigan where the loons were the best chance imaginable to watch loons. Now the timber has been cut off around most of the lakes, and such favorable conditions for observation no longer exist.

Although I have only once seen a loon on her back, I have seen her swim with them on her back many times. Once one swam within twenty feet of me and never suspected my presence.

One of her calls when sitting on the nest for some time is that of any other bird or beast that I know of. I have heard them in the night when they were more than five miles distant, for they only make that kind of call from the water, and there was no lake in that direction short of that distance. To say that the loon is a very interesting bird is as mild as I can express it.—Forest and Stream.

BE ACCURATE.

One of the Best Motives For a Young Man Entering Business.

The head of one of the largest dry goods commission houses in the city was asked the other day how it happened that his partner, upon whom the principal responsibility of the business rested, came to attain that position while not yet thirty years of age.

"Simply and simply on the merit," he replied. "He came into my office one morning some ten or twelve years ago and told me that he had just finished school and was looking for a position. I happened to have a position open at that time, and I engaged him and started him in at $5 a week. His rise from that position to the one that he now occupies was steady and rapid and was due entirely to the fact that after having received an order or instructions he could be relied upon to carry them out, and do it correctly. He never started off on anything 'half cooked,' so to speak. He was not afraid to ask questions and thus get his instructions straight before undertaking the work in hand. In fact, I might say that he owes everything to the fact that he was always accurate in all that he did. You may think that I am preaching a sort of sermon, but if you young men entering business positions, whether high or low, would follow for their motto the two words, 'Be accurate,' and would live up to it there need be no fear of the ultimate outcome of their undertakings."—New York Commercial.

A VERSATILE WOMAN.

Some of the Things For Which Phoebe Brown Was Famed.

Phoebe Brown died something over half a century ago, and she was an extraordinary woman, who lived with her mother in a cottage nearly opposite the "High Tor, at Matlock Bath, England, could walk nearly forty miles a day when young, could lift a hundred-weight in each hand and carry four guineas a week. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea.

But Phoebe had also a liking for sport and art. She was a good shot and carried her gun on her shoulder. She was fond of Milton, Pope and Shakespeare and performed on several instruments, including the flute, violin and harspichord, and played the bass violin in each party. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea.

Here lies romantic Phoebe,
Half Gynemede, half Hebe,
Chief of nuttable and nuttable,
A Jockey, cowherd and musician.

The Town Stood the Loss.
While the engine was taking water the passenger with the imposing watch chain and eyeglasses strolled out on the platform and looked with interest about him.

"By Jove!" he said to the solitary native who was sitting on a flour barrel. "This village looks just exactly as it did twenty years ago. Just as I moved away from here. I don't believe it has changed a particle in all that time." "I reckon not, mister," said the solitary native, biting off a chew of tobacco. "Your gaiter don't seem to have made much difference in the old town."—Chicago Tribune.

SEAMOUS A' COW,

Steer, Bull or Horse
hides, and the Dog
skin, or any other kind
of hide or skin, and let
us tan it with the hair
on, soft, light, odorless
and moth-proof, for robes,
rugs, coats or gloves.

But first get our Catalogue,
giving prices, and our shipping
and packing instructions, to avoid mistakes. We also buy
rugs and guns.
THE CHRISTIAN FUR COMPANY,
116 Mill Street, Rochester, N. Y.

THE PECULIAR LOON.

This Bird has a Hide About as Tough
as That of an Ox.
The loon differs from other birds in a number of ways. I have reason to think that many people are unaware of some of these peculiarities. The loon has a hide as tough as an ox, and its feathers cannot be plucked without first scalding the bird as you would a hog. This incident will give you an idea of the toughness of the hide. About thirty-five years ago when I was living in Michigan, a loon was shot at with a shotgun industriously all summer without apparently doing him any harm. In the fall I killed him with a rifle, and to compare the people that a loon could be shot and killed. He had many times been shot at with a rifle by the same people who had used the shotgun, and they had become convinced that he did so quickly that he would be shot in that way. I had seen them shoot at him a number of times, and I could see the splash of bullet or shot in the water before the loon dove. I ridiculed the idea of the dodging, and that led to my shooting him to satisfy my curiosity. When I skinned the bird I found and counted over a hundred No. 6 shot, all of them stuck to the inside of the hide and so doing him no permanent harm. It is remarkable that he was never hit in the eye nor sustained a broken wing.

Another thing peculiar to the loon is that after the chicks are hatched, if the mother wishes to move far, she will make a shallow dive and come up with her bird babies and swim off with them on her back. The person that succeeds in photographing her under such conditions may well claim the pennant. Only once have I seen a loon shoulder her young, although for over twenty years I lived in the part of Michigan where the loons were the best chance imaginable to watch loons. Now the timber has been cut off around most of the lakes, and such favorable conditions for observation no longer exist.

Although I have only once seen a loon on her back, I have seen her swim with them on her back many times. Once one swam within twenty feet of me and never suspected my presence.

One of her calls when sitting on the nest for some time is that of any other bird or beast that I know of. I have heard them in the night when they were more than five miles distant, for they only make that kind of call from the water, and there was no lake in that direction short of that distance. To say that the loon is a very interesting bird is as mild as I can express it.—Forest and Stream.

BE ACCURATE.

One of the Best Motives For a Young Man Entering Business.

The head of one of the largest dry goods commission houses in the city was asked the other day how it happened that his partner, upon whom the principal responsibility of the business rested, came to attain that position while not yet thirty years of age.

"Simply and simply on the merit," he replied. "He came into my office one morning some ten or twelve years ago and told me that he had just finished school and was looking for a position. I happened to have a position open at that time, and I engaged him and started him in at $5 a week. His rise from that position to the one that he now occupies was steady and rapid and was due entirely to the fact that after having received an order or instructions he could be relied upon to carry them out, and do it correctly. He never started off on anything 'half cooked,' so to speak. He was not afraid to ask questions and thus get his instructions straight before undertaking the work in hand. In fact, I might say that he owes everything to the fact that he was always accurate in all that he did. You may think that I am preaching a sort of sermon, but if you young men entering business positions, whether high or low, would follow for their motto the two words, 'Be accurate,' and would live up to it there need be no fear of the ultimate outcome of their undertakings."—New York Commercial.

A VERSATILE WOMAN.

Some of the Things For Which Phoebe Brown Was Famed.

Phoebe Brown died something over half a century ago, and she was an extraordinary woman, who lived with her mother in a cottage nearly opposite the "High Tor, at Matlock Bath, England, could walk nearly forty miles a day when young, could lift a hundred-weight in each hand and carry four guineas a week. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea.

But Phoebe had also a liking for sport and art. She was a good shot and carried her gun on her shoulder. She was fond of Milton, Pope and Shakespeare and performed on several instruments, including the flute, violin and harspichord, and played the bass violin in each party. She was a carpenter, mason and smith and mainly by her own hand labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a harspichord which a lady presented to her in return for a guinea.

Here lies romantic Phoebe,
Half Gynemede, half Hebe,
Chief of nuttable and nuttable,
A Jockey, cowherd and musician.

The Town Stood the Loss.
While the engine was taking water the passenger with the imposing watch chain and eyeglasses strolled out on the platform and looked with interest about him.

"By Jove!" he said to the solitary native who was sitting on a flour barrel. "This village looks just exactly as it did twenty years ago. Just as I moved away from here. I don't believe it has changed a particle in all that time." "I reckon not, mister," said the solitary native, biting off a chew of tobacco. "Your gaiter don't seem to have made much difference in the old town."—Chicago Tribune.

FURNITURE!

Especially Interesting
for the Spring Season.....

Never before have we had such an extensive assortment of everything in Furniture
at such Wonderfully Low Prices

We are unusually well stocked with
BED ROOM FURNITURE
in Oak, Mahogany and Birds-Eye Maple.

OUR LINE OF
PARLOR & DINING-ROOM
FURNITURE

is very complete at very low prices.

Don't miss this opportunity to purchase our
FURNITURE.

There is no need of buying your FURNITURE of mail order houses as we can give you much better values and deliver right at your door.

Our assortment is such that you cannot help but be pleased.

It will pay you to come quite a distance to see what we are offering.

We Deliver Goods
Anywhere in the Country
You Will Save Money
by Buying from Us

.....WE CARRY.....
The Largest Stock
IN CENTRAL PENN'A
J. Doster's Sons
298-300 Mill St.,
DANVILLE, PENN'A

Make Money In California

If you are industrious and capable you can make money there. The big ranches are breaking up into small farms that need more workers to care for the increased product. The towns and cities are prosperous because the country is prosperous. There are great valleys of the richest soil in America waiting for you. If you have a little capital you can own one of these small farms yourself, or you can rent one on shares and pay for it out of the product in a few years. We will send you descriptive booklets and folders giving full information about the money-making opportunities for every member of the family.

You want to see what the country is really like; you can go there, work a few months, enjoy the delightful climate, the flowers, fruit and scenery, and earn enough to pay your expenses both ways by taking advantage of the

Bargain Rates

Every Day March 1 to May 15

$33 From Chicago $30 From St. Louis

For one-way ticket collect. Corresponding reduced rates from almost any point East. The trip is easy and comfortably made via the Rock Island. Two routes—one through New Mexico—either through Colorado.

Through tourist cars—hours quicker than any other line. Double daily tourist service via El Paso—tri-weekly via Colorado. Dining-car service and free reclining chair cars, both routes.

The Rock Island has representatives throughout the United States; they are travel experts and can save you money. You can have their assistance in arranging for the making. Consult your home ticket agent or write to the undersigned for our California book and complete folder "Across the Continent in a Tourist Sleeper."

Remember the Rock Island runs more tourist cars to California than any other route. Many of them are of the latest pattern, with wide windows and lavatory and toilet rooms for both men and women, usually large and usually better than their appointments.

Cut out this advertisement, fill in spaces below, and mail to
JOHN SEBASTIAN,
Passenger Traffic Manager, Rock Island System, CHICAGO.

Please send me rates of fare to California and time tables—also your illustrated California book, and full information about your new service.

I expect to leave for California about _____ and would like information about _____ (NAME SECTION)

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____

FARMERS AND DAIRYMEN!

ATTENTION!

Orders will be taken for a guaranteed
43 cent. Protein Brand of Cotton Seed Meal, delivered off the car at Potts-grove, at a reduced price.

Send inquiries and orders by mail Pottsgrove. Persons having order sent will be notified on arrival of the car

C. H. McMahan & Bros.
DEALER IN
Special Dairy Foods and Dairy Supplies,
HAY AND FEED
Pottsgrove, Northumberland Co., Pa.

A $45 Machine for $20

IF YOU NEED
A SEWING MACHINE

IT WILL BE WISE OF YOU TO CALL AT THE OFFICE OF THE INTELLIGENCER. WE CAN FURNISH YOU WITH ONE OF THE VERY LATEST STYLES AND MAKES, STRAIGHT FROM THE FACTORY OF THE "NEW HOME" PEOPLE.

The Woodwork is of Fine Quartered Oak Finish. Drop Head. Ball Bearing. Five Drawers. Will Sell at Wholesale Prices. Drop us a Postal Card.

LADIES

DR. LA FRANGOS' COMPOUND

Safe, Quick, Reliable Regulator
Superior to other remedies sold at high prices.

For Biliousness, Headache