SMALL CHANGE.

Fine weather. Dogfennel is plentiful. Read Dr. Jordan's local. A number of our citizens went to Trenton last Monday. O, for a few black raspberries! We have not seen one this season. Spring chickens about the size of quails sell here at fifteen cents each, and are scarce. Read the local notice of Skiles' Mineral Wells. He will have a grand barbecue, supper and dance on July 1st. We understand that Dr. Nesbitt, who fell into a ditch several weeks ago, is no better. Many of his friends and relatives are afraid he will never be able to leave his bed.

Go to the Ice Cream festival at G. W. Williamson's to-morrow (Friday) night. The band will make music on the occasion.

The Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman of March 16th reached us one day last week-not quite three months on the road. Quick trip.

A social entertainment was given at the residence of H. L. Dickinson last Thursday evening. The young people pronounced it a complete success.

Raspberries are going forward quite freely from our town. Strawberries are still being shipped to neighboring towns, principally to Jackson and Memphis.

Mr. R. B. Shepherd shipped on Sunday the first box of peaches of the Alexander variety-the first from West Tennessee. He also shipped four boxes Monday.

The Knights of Pythias have been drilling every afternoon of this week. This is an excellent idea, as no body of men can make a creditable display on the street without some training.

A little crazy negro girl went through the cash drawer of Mr. Burrell Welch last Tuesday and got about two dollars. When she was leaving the house, Dan Williams, the clerk, caught her and took the money away from her and gave her a sound thrashing.

In boring a well at J. H. Dickinson's residence in this town, last week, after boring down about eighty-five feet, they found a log, large pieces of which they brought to the top, and in one of which was found a piece of iron. Will some scientific mind explain this?

The attention of all our citizens is directed to the notice of the entertainment on Friday night. Be sure to go and spend a few hours in pleasant and entertaining company, and by your presence show your appreciation of this effort to add to the innocent enjoyment of our people.

We learn that several gentlemen here contemplate buying and erecting an evaporator, for drying fruit and vegetables, and that they will probably do so at an early day. This is a good move, as it will be the means of saving thousands of dollars worth of fruit which now rots in the field.

The Tennessee Press Association meets in Jackson next Tuesday. Members from Middle and East Tennessee should leave Nashville on Tuesday morning's train, which makes close connection here at noon with the train for Jackson. It is thought the attendance will be large.

Dr. Johnson, in the Western Methodist, after complimenting our people, thus writes: "Pastor Taylor (M. M.) improves every way, and looks more like a Bishop than the Bishop; and now after this, if he will send us a good list of subscribers, we shall say he has one more qualification for the office."

"Americus is not responsible for the sickness of any one." We are under many obligations for the above information. A dogberry in wisdom, his delusions are wonderful! "The Bishop even remained over until Tuesday." Why? Americus would have us to believe it was for the purpose of marrying some one on the information of his "reside able parties." Rumor is usually unreliable. There is small choice in rotten apples. For his especial information we will inform him that there has not been in the past, nor is now, one scintilla of truth in his news, "so called."

PERSONAL.

Col. Lee Weil was in town this week handshaking with his friends. Mr. W. N. Stancill left last Friday on a visit to his old home in Greenwood, Miss.

Mr. J. C. Lopez has returned from New Orleans, where he has been for the past week. The friends of Mrs. W. T. Bowling, will be sorry to hear that her recent visit to this state for her health was of no benefit to her.

Mrs. Ella Harrison, nee Miss Ella Stone, with Misses Florence and Carry McCall and Ella Turner, left for Rome, Tenn., on Monday morning.

Mr. Clayton of the Memphis Avalanche, called on us last Thursday. He was en route to Chicago as a delegate to the National Typographical Union.

Miss Katie Miller, of whose popularity no mention need be made, has returned from Nashville, where she has been attending school at Ward's Seminary for the last ten months, and at which distinguished institution she has just graduated with honors.

We were yesterday honored with a call by Miss Anna M. Barnes, the beautiful and talented editor of the Acanthus, a sprightly and well filled literary paper published in Atlanta, Ga. She is traveling in the interest of her paper, and we hope she will meet with the encouragement it deserves. The paper is well worth the price, which is only seventy five cents a year.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Only Fifty Cents.

We will furnish the EXCHANGE from now until the Presidential election for the small sum of fifty cents. You will thus get the paper at ten cents per month-the cheapest paper in the state. The campaign will be one of the most exciting we have ever had, and every voter will want to be posted. Subscribe now and get all the papers.

Brainard's Musical World.

This popular monthly for June is a "Festival number," and contains full reports of the recent musical festivals in Cincinnati, Boston and Cleveland, together with the latest musical news from all over the world, also interesting and instructive articles for music lovers. In addition to an immense amount of reading matter this number contains five pieces of music, viz: "When the dew-drops fall," song and chorus by Persley, an answer to the immense popular song, "Somebody's coming when the dew-drops fall," I am not alone," a new ballad by Persley, "Sweet Briar," an elegant new waltz by G. Ludovic, "Admiral's Polka," for piano and violin. For $1.50 you can obtain the Musical World for one year. Send for it to the publishers, S. Brainard's Sons, Cleveland, O., or Chicago Ill.

Visiting Candidates.

We have had an inundation of candidates in our town this week. Mr. J. W. Brickhouse, candidate for trustee, gladdened us by his presence on Tuesday, and spent a short time recreating in our office, much needed in the arduous duties of campaigning.

The genial countenance of Dave Senter now and then shines upon us in his pilgrimage up and down the county, in seeking whom he may overcome, in these times that tries the souls of men.

J. H. Heffley and J. B. Driskill, candidates for sheriff, also refreshed us by a visit. There may have been other gentlemen seeking after the votes of our townsmen, but we did not find their names in our columns, and of course are not aware of their candidature. Veritas, sit sapienti.

RESOLUTIONS.

1. Having implicit confidence in the sagacity, patriotism and fidelity of the delegates to be chosen by this convention to represent our State in the National Democratic Convention at Cincinnati, we recommend that they go uninstructed.

2. Believing it wise and prudent that the two-thirds rule in the nomination of candidates for President and Vice-President, sanctioned by usage and proven by experience, should be continued in force, we hereby request our delegates, in response to the suggestion of the last National Convention, to vote for its continuance.

3. Regarding with shame and indignation the tricks, bribes, forgeries and perjuries by which the voice of the people, expressed in 1876 by a majority of a quarter of a million of votes fairly cast and fully accounted, was stifled and counterfeited, and the citizens elected to the high offices of President and vice-President disgracefully defrauded, and the defeated candidates inaugurated, and by a base sophism, fraud, successful in a State, was decreed to be sacred and unimpeachable in the Federal tribunal, the Democracy of Tennessee declare that by this shameful dishonesty and impudent political jugglery in a great crisis of National affairs, the Republican party has forfeited all claim to public confidence and demonstrated its utter unfitness to continue the administration of a government of the people, by the people and for the people. Respectfully submitted.

New York Herald: While ex-Judge Amasa Parker sat in the rooms of the anti-Tilden State Committee yesterday the conversation turned upon the Herald's recent interview with Gen. Lester B. Faulkner-an interview which many Democrats conjecture to have been inspired by Mr. Tilden. The Judge was asked whether Gen. Faulkner was justified in inferring from the result of the election in Albany that Mr. Tilden had gained strength in that region. The reply was: "Gen. Faulkner may be pardoned for not being familiar with the local politics of Albany. He was greatly mistaken in supposing that the result of the recent charter election in that city was an indication of less hostility to Mr. Tilden than was shown by the vote at the State election last November. It had no significance whatever as to the feeling on the Presidential election. Mayor Nolan, who was renominated, was the only Democratic candidate. There was no other candidate in the field except Birch, the Republican candidate. Banks, the citizens' candidate, had withdrawn from the canvass when it was too late to supply his place. Nolan was earnestly supported by most of the Democrats of the city. He received, also, a very large share of the Republican votes. As to myself I took so much interest in the re-election of Mr. Nolan that with a friend who was to cast his first vote I hastened home from a journey two days earlier than I should have done for the purpose of voting for Nolan and of enabling my friend to do so. There has been no change in Albany favorable to Mr. Tilden since the election of last fall. But there are many in Albany who, like myself, voted for Gov. Robinson that are strongly opposed to the nomination of Mr. Tilden."

"As the chairman of the anti-Tilden Democratic State Convention, recently held at Syracuse, you had an opportunity to know its character and the feeling represented by its delegates. Will you give me your opinion on these subjects and upon the relative strength of Gov. Robinson and Mr. Tilden in this state at the last election?"

The Judge replied: "Gov. Robinson was much stronger in the state than Mr. Tilden. His integrity and ability no one questioned, and as to most of the Democrats opposed to Mr. Tilden, though they thought Gov. Robinson had been badly advised by Mr. Tilden, and has made some grave mistakes as to matters in the city of New York, yet such was their confidence in Gov. Robinson and their habitual respect for regular nominations that they voted for Gov. Robinson, though they knew that so to vote might be misconstrued into an indication of favoring Mr. Tilden. The recent Democratic anti-Tilden State Convention shows that this feeling pervades the entire State. It is wrong to call that convention a Tammany Convention. It was a convention in which all parts of the State were fully represented by long tried and faithful Democrats, who came forward to avert if possible that disaster that would be sure to fall upon the Democratic party if Mr. Tilden should be chosen again as the national standard bearer."

"In that convention," the Judge said, in conclusion, "Tahmany delegates, included the Comptroller of New York. All the other counties were represented by other Democrats, and very many, perhaps a majority, of the delegates, like myself, had supported Gov. Robinson for re-election. Depend upon it, the anti-Tilden feeling in this State is vastly more extensive and more deeply seated than any hostility to Gov. Robinson ever was. I am well satisfied that if Mr. Tilden shall be nominated he will be very nearly beaten in this State, who ever may be the Republican candidate. The better Democrats of the State would not have courage to engage in the contest, knowing that their candidature would be hopelessly on the defensive throughout the entire campaign."

When Whisky comes frequently into requisition as a medicine. Adulterated Whiskies are as injurious as adulterated Drugs, and the effect on the system is precisely the same-it kills -I would state from my own knowledge that I. W.
