STEAM Cotton Gin.

I HAVE recently bought a Steam Engine and a new Pratt 600, and am now prepared to put up cotton in good order and on quick time at my gin in Milan. I will gin cotton at the low price of ninety cents per hundred, and furnish bagging and ties; or, for one-twelfth and haul it for the seed. Bring me your cotton and I will guarantee satisfaction.

SMALL CHANGE.

Fine rains fell here this week. The grass looks as green and fresh as in the spring time. An auction sale of Texas horses takes place here to-day. The shade tree in front of our office fell last Saturday. We will miss its grateful shade next summer. We are in receipt of a complimentary ticket to the Trenton fair, for which Supt. Deason has our thanks. Dr. W. H. Coley went to Louisville this week to buy drugs, and see the sights. We'll wager he had a good time.

At an election held in Kenton last Thursday, the people of that town abolished their charter and went back into the woods.

The old Hancock and English flag was placed at half-mast on the liberty pole last Tuesday. An appropriate and graceful thing, we think.

Workmen began last Thursday to tear down the old frame building in Happy Hollow, it being in a dangerous condition, nearly ready to fall.

The new jail at Trenton has been completed and is about ready to receive boarders. It is said to be one of the best jails in the state. We hope so.

At the municipal election held in Trenton last Saturday, J. R. Walker was elected Mayor, W. W. Wade was elected Recorder, and W. E. Seat was elected Marshal.

We have on our table a peach bloom, plucked from a tree at the residence of Mr. W. J. House. He says the tree has about as many blooms as it had in the spring.

Balmer & Weber, St. Louis music publishers, have our thanks for copies of "Garfield's Funeral March" and the "Martyr President Sleeps," song and chorus. Price 40 cents each.

Last Thursday our streets were crowded with cotton wagons. Prices were good and business booming. Our buyers are paying top figures, and planters will do well to remember it.

Mr. A. T. McClure's valedictory appeared in last week's Humboldt Argus. We will miss him as a near and good neighbor, but hope he will better his condition in his new undertaking. He is a good printer, and will do his whole duty wherever his lot may be cast.

Jim Bullington came into town the other day and filled himself with bug juice. At night some of the boys got hold of him and blacked his face so that his best friend would not have recognized him. Next day he was again unruly, when he was given lodging in Lusk's Hotel.

James P. McMillin, sentenced at the August term of the Humboldt Law Court to twelve years imprisonment, for murder, showed signs of lunacy in the penitentiary last Tuesday and attacked other convicts with a knife. He was afterwards assassinated by another convict, who buried a hatchet in his head two or three times.

The Quarterly Review of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for October, has just been issued from the Southern Methodist Publishing House with the following table of contents: Organic Union—Disruption and Fraternity; Biographies of John Wesley; Irenic; Bishop Doeggett as a Preacher; The Canterbury Revision; Modern Sacred Music; The Assassination; The Bunsens and the Hares; Listening to the Beat of my Heart; Literary Notices; Notes and Queries. It is an especially interesting number to thinking men.

PERSONAL.

Senator Sam. F. Rankin went to Nashville this week.

Mr. R. Y. Moore, of McKenzie, was in town last Tuesday.

Prof. Hendricks, of McKenzie, spent a few hours here last Saturday.

Chas. E. Nash, M. C., of Helena, Ark., registered at the Southern Pacific Wednesday.

Mr. Hill, representing French's great Nashville music house, called on us last Tuesday.

H. E. Huntingdon, of railroad fame, was registered at the Southern Pacific last Saturday.

County Superintendent Deason and S. B. Williamson, Esq., of Trenton, were in town last week.

John Loving has returned from Fort Smith, Ark., not being satisfied with the outlook. He says that it is the most overrated town he knows of.

Chas. E. Rogers, editor of the Jackson Dispatch, honored us with a call yesterday morning. He is a pushing, live newspaper man, and a pleasant gentleman.

Jas. E. Porter, editor of the Humboldt Argus, made a short visit to our town Thursday evening—too short for his friends. We hope he will call again and often.

Col. U. L. Collins, the great excursion manager, called on us last Tuesday. He is making arrangements for a grand excursion to New Orleans, to come off about the 8th of November. The fare from here, round trip, will be about $10.50. Begin to prepare for it.

Memorial Services.

On last Monday the business houses generally in our town were closed, and our people, white and colored, assembled in their churches, to pay a last sad tribute of respect to the memory of Gen. Garfield. About two o'clock the different bells began to toll, striking thirty-eight taps, one for each state. They afterward struck thirteen times, once for each of the original states. The different sextons seemed to have agreed on the order of their striking, as one followed another in order, making a strikingly solemn chime. At the Baptist church service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Lloyd, who delivered an appropriate address in a very impressive manner. Short speeches were also made by Dr. Jordan, Prof. Hooker, Mayor Hale, and Messrs. A. W. Loving, W. M. McCall, V. L. Ware and J. P. Rhodes. Appropriate and touching music was also sung.

Rev. M. M. Taylor, pastor, conducted similar services at the Methodist church, making a fervent and interesting address. George Cade, Esq., read the President's proclamation, Hon. S. F. Rankin and W. J. House, Esq., made appropriate remarks, and two or three touching songs were sung.

At the colored Baptist and Methodist churches similar services were held, the colored population taking much interest in the ceremonies. In fact our people are unanimous in their sympathy for the afflicted family of the dead President.

Arm Amputated.

Henry Daniel, col., who was shot last week by John Haire, is now doing very well. On Sunday it was found that mortification had set in, and his arm was amputated by Drs. Jordan and Danner. It will be remembered that the arteries were cut, and there was consequently no circulation in the lower arm, which necessitated the operation.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

J. W. Hayes is still with McCord Boomer & Co., one of the largest and best hat houses in the country. House and drummer are both first class and reliable, and you cannot do better than give them an order. See their ad.

Johanboeke & Bro., wholesale dealers in hats, caps, gloves, umbrellas, etc., Louisville, have a card in this paper. This is well known to be one of the best houses in the city. V. S. Gillispie will call on his friends in this section, and they can depend on what he promises them.

The Evansville Furniture Company have a new card in this paper, to which we invite attention. They manufacture immense quantities and sell very low. We know they have a large southern trade, but we desire to see it doubled. Give them an order, and we believe you will not regret it.

Dave Mills and Morgan Green, two of the liveliest drummers on the road, represent one of the best dry goods and notion houses in the west—that of J. M. Robinson & Co. They sell large invoices of goods here and all over this section. As they sell cheap and give satisfaction, we take pleasure in recommending the house. See card.

Religious News.

Rev. M. M. Taylor spent this week in Humboldt, helping in a protracted meeting in the Methodist church there.

Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, Lutheran, will preach in German at Odd Fellows Hall Wednesday morning at 10:30. He will also celebrate communion.

The West Tennessee Baptist Association meets to day at Eason church, about three miles this side of McKenzie. A large delegation will probably be present.

Rev. J. L. Lloyd left yesterday for Jackson, to assist in the ordination of Rev. R. T. Yates, who now has charge of Gibson and Bluff Springs churches. Mr. Yates is a theological student at Jackson.

On to-morrow (Sunday) night, Rev. J. L. Lloyd will preach a sermon on "The New Revision," at the Baptist church. It will probably be interesting and instructive, and we look for a large audience to hear him.

A protracted meeting will begin at Salem, one mile north of town, to-morrow, by request of the people in that neighborhood. It will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Jones, and Mr. W. J. House.

Rev. W. T. Boling, formerly of the Memphis Conference, was, at a recent session of the West Virginia Conference, appointed to Huntingdon station, and elected an alternate delegate to the General Conference.

It transpired in the discussions at the Methodist Ecumenical Conference in London that Methodism has 84,453 local preachers; 32,168 itinerant preachers; 4,762,000 members; 59,180 Sunday schools, and 4,491,630 Sunday-school scholars.

Railroad Collision.

Merchants of Milan have collided with the enormous concern of Conley & Harrison. No use of big notice or big puffing; no use yarning; but Conley & Harrison claim the nicest, cleanest and best stock of general merchandise in Milan. They also claim the most polite and best looking clerks in town. They claim to be pretty clever fellows themselves. You will miss a treat if you fail to call on them. Old and young of both sexes invited to call. Cheap, pretty goods, and don't you forget it.

Ladies, Your Attention!

We have received our Fall Stock of Custom Shoes, Show & Albright Excelsior. We claim for these shoes perfect fitting, and they are made of the best material. The style and finish are without doubt superior to any other make of shoes in this or any other market. They are the best. Get a pair and be convinced. We are receiving other goods daily, and would be pleased to show you.

JORDAN & STONE.

P. S.—Our prices are the lowest for good goods. We wish not only the ladies, but we want the men, boys and children to come. Our goods are marked in plain figures. J. & S.

Phelan's Palace Saloon,

Next door to the EXCHANGE office, has just received a fine stock of Brandies, Whiskies, Wines and Cigars, and you can get the best in the city there. He also keeps fresh Lager Beer on tap. Parties desiring liquors for medicinal purposes will do well to call there.

Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy.

A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker Mouth and Headache. With each bottle there is an ingenious nasal injector for the more successful treatment of these complaints without extra charge. Price 50 cents. Sold by Dr. Jordan.

Remember, you get as much of Dr. Greenhalge's Hair Restorer for 50c. as you do of others for a dollar, and it's actually better. Compare with others and be convinced.

"Wine is a mocker, and strong drink is raging." Take Prickly Ash Bitters. It is not a beverage, but a remedy for all ill effects of an excess of intoxicating stimulants. Don't take a drink before breakfast "just to wake you up," because you feel so stupid and languid. You are sure to feel worse as soon as the effect wears off. Take a half wine glass of Prickly Ash Bitters. It will brighten you up for the whole day.

O, What a Cough!

Will you heed the warning? The signal, perhaps, of the sure approach of that more terrible disease, consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford, for the sake of 50 cents, to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It never fails. This explains why more than a million bottles were sold last year. It relieves Croup and Whooping Cough at once. Mothers, do not be without it. For Lane Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous plaster. Sold by Dr. Jordan.

Houses for Sale.

As my health is failing, I intend to go South. I therefore offer for sale ten houses and lots in the town of Milan. Apply to

O. H. Hallstrom.

Milan, Tenn.

Should You Need

Watches, diamonds, jewelry, solid silver ware, silver plated ware, clocks or cutlery, send to Mermod, Jaccard & Co., corner of Fourth and Locust streets, St. Louis, for their illustrated price list. This jewelry house, the largest in the south and west, has on hand the finest stock, and sell their goods lower than any house in the south or west. They make specialty of gold, solid silver watches for $10, which they warrant. When in St. Louis be certain to see the immense jewelry house of Mermod, Jaccard & Co., corner of Fourth and Locust.

Mr. Earnest Keileber is now in the position to furnish their customers with fresh bread and cakes, which they will always keep on hand. Their bakery is a model of cleanliness, of which everybody who has a mind to visit them, can satisfy himself. They have now on hand a fine lot of fancy cake, which makes a man's mouth water to look at. Give them a call and try their bread and cakes.

Call on Mr. Earnest Keileber for a general assortment of bread and cake at very low prices.
