PERSONAL.

E. T. Jeffrey General Manager of the I. C. R. R., passed through on No. 3 yesterday.

Miss Bessie Collins returned home Thursday from Brownsville, where she has been at school.

Miss Bettie Bryant returned home Thursday from Mattson, Ill., where she has been attending school.

Misses Sophia and Mamie Hurt attended the commencement at the Brownsville Institute this week.

Rev. J. K. Moody, of Dresden, accompanied by his wife, have been attending the meeting two or three days.

Rev. W. M. Robinson left for Arkansas last Monday night, and will conduct one or two revivals in that state.

Miss Ethel Pearce returned home from Mitchell, Ind., last Wednesday. She has been there the last ten months attending school.

Rev. G. K. Brooks, of Paris, spent two or three days helping with the meetings. He preached at the C. P. church last Sunday morning.

Rev. J. R. Harding, of Woodville, Ky., has been helping with the meeting during the week. He preached Sunday morning and last night.

Mrs. John W. Dickinson and son, Eugene, of Arkansas City, Ark., are spending the summer with relatives here. We hope the family may be induced to locate here permanently.

Dr. A. B. Conley has this week bought a stock of goods in Tullahoma, and will move there immediately. Our handsome young friend, Will Hanchey, will go with him. We presented them to the people of Tullahoma as good business men and citizens, and wish them much prosperity.

We clip the following from the Ohio Democrat of last week. The article is in Spanish and has many friends here, all of whom tender their congratulations and good wishes to Mr. M. Glascock who was married by Mrs. Lavinia N. Dickinson at Tippecanoe May 10th. Rev. Lanier witnessed the ceremony. A large number of friends were present. The bride is a talented and highly cultured lady and has large circles of friends and whom she is much esteemed. The groom is the county court clerk of Adams county, and has a host of friends. They wish to all the happiness and prosperity. By the genial husband and high minded character he is one of the most popular gentlemen in Tippecanoe.

Sherry wine in the Shade.

The "Sherry" has been running all along in the market this week. Every thing is a bit low and PRICES ARE BECOMING LOW at Chicago Cash Market.

SMALL CHANGE.

June apples are ripe. We had home-grown roasting ears for dinner last Thursday.

Jim Williams, colored, last Saturday sent us a fine lot of large turnips.

The bridge near Mathis's stable was repaired this week, but an ugly hole was left in it—a trap to break somebody's leg.

Two freight trains on the I. C. road passed here one day this week with 33 car-loads of bananas. The fruit and vegetable shipments are increasing yearly on this fast and safe route.

See notice of lost boy in another column of this paper. Any one knowing his whereabouts will confer a favor by sending word to Mr. W. J. Edwards at this post office, or at his residence near Shiloh, Carroll county.

When Major Blanton called on the Bible readers to turn to the second chapter of Jude, the other day, some looked in the Old Testament for it, and about all looked diligently, but did not find it. There is no such chapter.

An ice dealer in Dyersburg delivers that article in small quantities, anywhere in the town, at one cent per pound. In hundred pound lots, he sells at seventy-five cents. In Milan we pay two cents and carry it home ourselves. Why this thushness?

It is said that there has not been a service at the Methodist church during the last two weeks when from one to three trains did not pass, and there have been services three times a day. The railroad has nearly ruined the church for religious services, and should help the congregation liberally towards building in some other part of town. The matter ought to be taken in hand at once and pushed.

Mr. R. O. Crump has lately sold three Jersey calves, the last being a fine young bull, which he shipped on Tuesday to Dr. J. B. Hicks in Arkansas. He is by Elmwood Reveille, 13,527, out of Crump's Sallie Vance, 11,434. Mr. Crump seems to be in the general stock business, as he has some fine Poland China pigs also to sell. He also this week shipped to Dr. Duncan Ewe, Nashville, his fine blooded pointer "Snow," for which he received a good price. She is as finely bred as any pointer in the state.

The democrats of this civil district met in the mayor's office last Saturday to appoint delegates to the convention to-day at Gibson, to nominate a candidate for clerk of the Humboldt law court. All democrats were appointed delegates, unopposed as to whom to support. Mr. Turner would have been instructed if he had not concluded to run independent. Many of his best friends think he has made a great mistake, and cannot support him. The Exchange will support the nominee of the convention, and will have something further to say on the subject next week.

We have been asked by several citizens to call the attention of the city marshal to the grounds of the fair grounds in the street, who have no visible means of support, and do not work. Also, to the boys who stand in the street and strike at a loafing by. There is great danger to their hurting people passing. We have held back one strong young man, and the marshal about the same, and other matters, hoping that it would not be necessary to mention them. We hope that so far as in us lay, it is necessary in these circumstances.

The special attention of our Milan readers is called to a communication in this paper regarding the Evansville railroad. If Milan wants to keep the trade she has, our people must awake from their lethargy and go to work to secure this important road. Work is being done on it in Kentucky, and it is coming this way. Jackson, Corinth, Lexington, Paris, McKenzie, Trezevant and other towns are working to get it. If it is allowed to pass a few miles east of us, the best trade Milan has will be taken away from us and the town will go down. We shall have something further to say on this subject, but now merely call attention to the matter. In the mean time, let our citizens discuss it seriously and take steps to work for it. We hope a public meeting will soon be called to consider it.

Jailed for Larceny.

James Hicks was last Wednesday tried before Esquire Heathcock on the charge of stealing $225 from Mr. A. J. Mayo, who lives a few miles north of town. It seems that he had promised to refund the money to Mayo, and did pay him about $160, if he would not prosecute him. He said, further, that Wylie Balog was his partner in the theft. Hearing of this, Balog had him arrested and prosecuted him. In default of $500 bond, Hicks was sent to jail to await trial by the law court. As constable Moore was carrying him to the lock-up, he made a break for liberty and ran about half a mile, finally breaking down completely in a field near Harrison's fruit evaporator in the northern part of town. Capt. Moore and Jim Campbell, colored, made a fine race for Hicks, and all hands were pretty well blown by the time the capture was made.

MAYOR AND ALDERMEN.

At the regular meeting of the board of Mayor and Aldermen, the second Monday in June, all the members present, the following appropriations were made:

T W Adams, lumber,	$87 61
J D Lusk, board'g prisoners,	2 00
R F Haun, lumber,	1 35
D L Thomason, st work,	6 32
Edwards & Shepherd, lock,	1 50
Total	$98 78

Thankful for the Nomination.

When we declared ourselves candidates for public favor, we knew that many things would be said and done to beat us in the race. We are thankful that a generous public has seen fit to give us their support, and now we promise to do our best to still merit their patronage. We will be glad to see all the voters of this county before the election. Chambers' Cash House.

R. O. Crump has some thorough bred Poland China Pigs for sale. Got his prices.

"I Told you So"

You hear this remark on all occasions. There are a large army of people who, after a thing happens, say "I told you so." These are smart folks, but most of the people who spend their hard earned CASH in Milan will say "I told you so" if Chambers' Cash House is the place to "get 'em cheap."

Use Hot in Wash

Do you it will be a little under next week. This kind of going on a hot sun all day such weather as this will almost kill an ordinary person, but Thins and Max are Ordinary and Extraordinary at Chambers' Cash House.

C. C. H.

These three C. C. H. might mean Circus Coming Here. We they don't. They need just as good CHAMBERS' CASH ROUSE the best place for good and fashionable goods and the Lowest Prices and Highest Quality for the best money.

THE REVIVAL.

Maj. Blanton closed his two weeks meeting at the Methodist church yesterday morning with expressions from about seventy-five people of their feelings regarding the exercises. We have been unable to find out how many were converted, but there were several, and many backsliders were reclaimed. The services have been attended by large crowds, and great interest manifested. Maj. Blanton's style is plain, pointed and powerful, yet tender, temperate and touching, drawing every one with whom he was thrown nearer to him and tying him with the bonds of love. He does not abuse anybody, but works to win their love. Below we give an imperfect synopsis of the remarks of some of the audience at the closing service. We could not catch all that was said.

R. Y. Moore.—I am glad you came in our midst. I was determined to profit by the meeting.

W. S. Brown had tried to live a religious life and intended to discharge his duty in future.

W. W. Banks had been greatly benefited and expected to meet him in heaven.

J. E. Spellings—I feel I have been benefited and am determined to meet you in heaven.

T. W. Adams had been greatly benefited and was determined to live a better life hereafter.

Capt. Moore—I thank God I am on my way to heaven. I feel benefited and am glad you came.

Mrs. John Shepherd felt the importance of Maj. Blanton's effort in behalf of our people. He has done great good.

Miss Annie Coleman—I will meet you in heaven.

Miss Nora Moore—I have been blessed and will meet you in heaven.

Mrs. R. M. King—I have been greatly blessed. You have my prayers, and I will meet you in heaven.

Mrs. Harvey Mitchum—The meeting has been a blessing to me and the town.

Baily Mitchum—God has blessed me and I feel determined to do better.

Dr. Henderson was greatly blessed and intended to work better for the church.

Mrs. Crump—I can never forget you, and will meet you in heaven.

Mrs. T. W. Adams—I thank God that he sent you here. I have been greatly blessed.

N. J. Heathcock—I am determined to meet you in heaven, by the grace of God.

Mrs. Cain—I feel that your visit has been a blessing to me, and thank God for sending you. I am determined to do my duty. Pray for me, that I may be faithful.

Mrs. Kinney Taylor—I feel that your coming here has been a blessing, and hope to meet you in heaven.

Miss Sallie Moore was benefited and asked for his prayers.

Miss Anne Hooper—God has blessed me in the discharge of my duties, and I will meet you in heaven.

Mrs. R. Y. Moore felt that she had been blessed in the church and at the family altar.

Mrs. Horton thanked God that Maj. Blanton came here. He had done her good.

Mrs. Hooper—I have been blessed and hope to meet you in heaven.

Mrs. Spellings thanked God if, was her privilege to meet him, and would meet him in heaven.

Mrs. Hooper had not been able to attend regularly, but had been blessed.

Mrs. Adams had been greatly blessed and by the grace of God would meet him in heaven.

Mrs. Barker was thankful and asked his prayers for her daughter.

Mrs. Moody could find no better and more appropriate words than "Amen."

Mrs. Blanton's style was greatly blessed, and asked prayers for her family.

Little Z. Spellings—I'd meet you in heaven.

Miss Sallie Moore resolved to be a better person in future.

Mrs. W. S. Brown—I know I have been blessed.

M. W. Wheeler felt that he had been blessed, and intended to live soberly, righteously and godly.

Mrs. Blanks—I will meet you in heaven.

Mrs. Williamson had been prevented by sickness from regular attendance, but had enjoyed religion at home.

Mrs. E. H. Williams had been blessed and asked for his prayers.

Mrs. M. W. Wheeler had been blessed and hoped to meet him in heaven.

Mrs. P. H. McAlister—Pray for me and my children.

Mrs. W. Y. Matthis had been blessed. Maj. Blanton had been the means of the raising of a family altar, and she thanked God he came.

Andrew Towles had been blessed and expected to meet him in heaven.

Little Lellie Moore—I'm determined to meet you in heaven.

Mrs. B. R. Freeman was glad to be present and hoped to meet him in heaven.

B. H. Williams felt greatly benefited, and would meet him in heaven.

Chas. Patton—I have been benefited, and by the grace of God will meet you in heaven.

Mrs. W. M. Robinson—I feel greatly benefited, and have determined to do better. I desire your prayers.

Miss Eunice Harrison—I feel benefited, and by the grace of God will meet you in heaven.

Miss Ada Creswell was determined to meet him in heaven.

Miss Lena Fawcett was benefited, and would lead a better life.

D. B. Clark—you have been a blessing to me, and I expect to strike hands with you on the other shore.

J. T. Williams enjoyed the meeting and intended to meet all in heaven.

George James had been blessed and would meet him in heaven.

James Wheeler had been profited and intended to meet him in heaven.

Mrs. W. Y. Williamson felt more determined than ever to discharge her Christian duties.

Miss Ida Heathcock was greatly blessed by the meeting.

Mrs. I. D. Jackson said it was the first time she had had courage to speak for the Lord, and asked the prayers of all.

Mrs. Lizzie Cartwell had been sick and able to attend the meeting but little but had been greatly benefited and by the grace of God would meet him in heaven.

Gerie Wade—I feel greatly blessed by the meeting, and want the prayers of the church.

T. Lynch—I feel greatly benefited by you being here, and hope to meet you in heaven.

Miss Mattie Sany—I have been impressed by what you have said, and intend to do my duty in the future and meet you in heaven.

T. J. Harrison—I have not done my duty, and say to you, pray for me. I love all Christians, and think a great many good things, aim to do my duty, but fail to do right a great many times.

J. E. Foster—I know that I have been greatly blessed during this meeting, and by God's grace will meet you in heaven.

Miss Nannie Shepherd—I feel that I have been greatly blessed, and intend to do my duty.

Dr. A. C. Pearce—I have heard you in Paris and am greatly benefited and pleased by hearing you there as well as here. I pray God may say to you in the way he has in Paris and here.

Mrs. John D. Gibson—I was more than impressed with the meeting and then heretofore, and by His grace will meet you and all Christians in heaven.

R. O. Crump—By the grace of God I'll meet you in heaven.

Mrs. Heathcock—I am glad for your presence here, for me and my children.

Mrs. Blanton's style was very much appreciated, and by the grace of God will meet him in heaven.
