The Earthquake.
Full particulars of the damages done by the recent earthquake are to be had in the daily papers. The violent shocks, shakes and rumblings to be heard now in the Dry Goods Circles of Milan and vicinity are caused by new arrivals and curious prices of fancy goods generally. For particulars call at CHAMBERS' CASH HOUSE.

We are offering summer goods at Big Reduction.

Old Charlie is Right.
Farmer—Uncle Charlie, how did you come out on your Wilsons this season?
Uncle Charlie—Don't know, Boss, I isn't counted up yet.
F—What do you think of the times, any way, Uncle Charlie?
U. C.—I tell you, Boss, I believe in votin' strait, walkin' strait, and don't strait in story thing—I tries to do dat way. I wears Trenton 'mestic shirts and wears Jackson Jeans clothes and Tennessee made shoes. In fact, I believes in being home like in ebery thing.
F—Where do you trade, Uncle Charlie?
U. C.—Lord bless you, Boss, I trades at the only place in town whar I can get 'things what am suited to my pocket book. I gets good bargains and good honest goods, and the folks are all sarter home folks anyway. You know the place—CHAMBERS' CASH HOUSE.

Owen & Co., successors to W. B. Williams, never miss a sale on their Ladies Custom Made Shoes for $2.

SMALL CHANGE.

Who'll bring in the first bale?
Nice coolish weather this week.

Dr. Davidson, the dentist, requests us to announce that he will be in his office next week.

Mayor Stone asks us to warn persons against fast riding and driving on the streets. If not stopped, they will be fined.

We are requested to announce that Agricultural Wheel No. 79 will meet at Pratt's school house on the second Saturday night in each month.

The Giles County Democrat is the name of a handsomely printed newspaper just started in Pulaski by Col. J. M. Ford. As its name indicates, it is democratic in politics.

Mrs. E. N. Stone kindly remembered this editor last Wednesday by sending him a lovely little bouquet of tube roses, which shed incense through our office for many hours.

The Bob Taylor club held another meeting last Saturday, when committees to secure speakers, etc., were appointed. About one hundred and fifty members had been enrolled at that time.

The Memphis Avalanche of the 1st inst. contained twenty pages, well filled with statistical and historical matter, showing the trade and improvement of Memphis to be in a healthy, growing condition. The receipts of cotton last year were the largest on record, being 546,566 bales, valued at $23,623,007.

The new list of appointments to speak by the Taylor brothers, candidates for governor, has been announced, and Milan is again left out. They speak in Jackson Oct. 1st, Trenton Oct. 9, Paris Oct. 13, Huntingdon Oct. 14, and Dresden Oct. 15. Our readers can take choice of these times and places and go to which suits best.

Mr. Daze Weatherspoon requests us to say that he did not take laudanum with suicidal intent, as might be inferred from the item in last week's Exchange. He has been suffering with his bowels, had taken a considerable quantity of medicine, and felt desperate; hence the large dose of laudanum taken. He wanted to find sure relief, and found it—almost permanent, in fact.

Rev. D. C. Kelley, D. D., missionary treasurer of the M. E. church, South, preach here last Sunday morning and evening, and those who were so fortunate as to hear him are loud in their praises of his discourses. His morning sermon specially advised practical, every-day christianity, urging the people to live and act religiously at all times and in all places. He had little confidence in whining, long-faced meeting-house religion, when those who practiced it were cross to their wives and children at home and swindled their neighbors in a trade during the week. A true christian will live his religion everywhere. At night his discourse was missionary and statistical—a most able and powerful sermon. At its close a collection of $76, part cash and the balance in subscriptions, was raised. Dr. Kelly is one of the ablest preachers in his church, a close reasoner, a diligent student, and not afraid to tell what he believes to be the whole truth. He is emphatically a leader in religious thought, and not a follower of any man.

Yellow fever has developed at Biloxi, Miss. There have been two deaths and several are now down with the disease. It is so late in the season that there is little probability of its spreading far north.

PERSONAL.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell, of Las Grange, Ky., visited his father's family here this week. Many friends regret that he could not remain long enough to preach here to-morrow.

Gen. A. W. Cambell, of Jackson, candidate for congress in the eighth district, spent a few hours with our people last Wednesday, en route to Trevevant, where he addressed the people.

The Tullahoma Guardian says: "Rev. Mr. Beaver, of Milan, is spending a day or two with old friends here." We guess Rev. J. P. Weaver is the gentleman referred to, as he has been to Tullahoma.

Dyersburg Gazette: Rev. R. M. King and wife, of Milan, have been visiting friends and relatives in Dyersburg this week. Bro. King has a warm place in the hearts of our people and is always a welcome visitor.

Mr. Pink Warlick and family and Mr. Sem Harris, with his mother's family, returned here from Humboldt this week. Mr. Harris has rented the Rankin place, in the western part of town. Mr. Warlick has not yet located. Milan welcomes both families back.

The Crab Orchard correspondent of the Louisville Courier Journal of the 27th writes as follows of some of our good Milan people: "Mr. E. A. Collins, with his wife, his daughter, Miss Bessie, and his niece, Miss Alice Hurt, started to-day for their home at Milan, Tenn., after a visit of six weeks at the springs. Mr. Collins, who is a banker at Milan, is a most genial and admirable gentleman, his wife a most excellent lady, Miss Bessie bright and always pleasant, and Miss Hurt not only a brilliant conversationalist and cheerful and entertaining, but a vocalist of rare power and cultivation, whose company was always sought. They left with the sincere regrets and hearty good wishes of all the visitors here, with whom they were very popular."

A Prominent Convert.
A few white and colored republicans met here last Saturday and organized an Alf Taylor club, with Mr. Jack Pearce as president and W. B. Ware secretary. Mr. Ware declined to accept the office and has since announced his intention of joining the democratic party. He has been a prominent republican in this county, running on that ticket and making a brilliant race two years ago for the legislature. He is a young man of talent, and has been convinced that the democratic party is the only place for the ambitious young men of this generation. It is proposed to receive him into full fellowship at the next meeting of the Bob Taylor Club, where he will give in his experience."

The supreme court judges will meet in Knoxville next week, when they will elect a chief justice and attorney general and reporter. It is supposed that Judge Turney, on account of his long services, will be elected chief justice. The Exchange, in common with the people of this county, hopes to see Hon. M. M. Neil elected attorney general. An abler and better man for the place cannot be found, we think.

Our stock of pretty Gingham seems to please all the ladies who have examined it and the result is, we are selling a great many patterns. We still have a large stock, and respectfully request the Ladies to come and examine the styles and prices.
OWEN & Co.,
Successor to W. B. Williams.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Mayor Stone has done a lively business since our last issue, especially on Monday, when the following cases were disposed of:

R. Galloway, an auburn haired drummer, for being drunk and disorderly on the streets, was assessed $12.50, which he paid, and then shook the dust of Milan from his feet in disgust.

Geo. Matson, a colored tramp, because a lady would not feed him, cursed her. Not being able to pay a fine of $8.50, he was sent to the "sweat box."

Bob Johnson, colored, and Walter Madison, colored, were each assessed a fine of $15 for gambling. Charlie Bomer, colored, was also fined $14 for the same offence. All three secured their fines and were released.

Jo. Ligon, a small colored boy, for using obscene language in the presence of ladies, was fined $7. This fine was remitted on condition that his mother give him a sound whipping.

Jo. Taylor, another little darkey, for fighting, received a similar sentence and was released.

DIED.

Dr. A. C. Pearce, one of Milan's most useful and highly respected citizens, died of flux at his residence here last Saturday night, after an illness of several days. Dr. Pearce had been a citizen of Milan, we believe, ever since the war, and always foremost in all public enterprises for the good of the community. He was president of the board of trustees of Milan College and devoted much of his time to the cause of education in our midst, being always earnest and enthusiastic in the work. He was an officer in the Baptist church and one of its most useful and honored members, being a zealous, earnest church worker and humble christian. Dr. Pearce leaves a widow and seven children desolate and bereaved, and the whole community mourns with them in their great trouble. His remains were interred in Oakwood Cemetery last Sunday afternoon in the presence of an immense crowd of our citizens.

RAILROAD ITEMS.

We learn that one hundred and thirty-six employes of the I. C. R. R. between Cairo, Ill., and Canton, Miss., were on the sick list a few days since. It was generally of a malarial character.

George Wright, formerly an engineer on the I. C. road, was struck on the head with a hammer by Ed. McReynold, his colored fireman, below Memphis, last Saturday. He died from the effects of the blow next day.

Memphis Avalanche: Capt. G. B. Harris is a very popular conductor on the great Illinois Central Railroad, and by the way is full of fun. A passenger said to him the other day: "Captain, are we running on time?" "No, sir," said Harris, "We are doing strictly a cash business. Fare, please."

Mr. O. M. Dunn, late of the New Orleans and Mobile division, took charge of this—the Memphis line—division last Wednesday as superintendent. He is said to be an excellent railroad man and a nice gentleman, and no doubt will soon make many friends along the line. We are pleased to learn that he retains Mr. W. A. Evans as his chief clerk. Mr. E. served in that position with Supt. Colecamp, giving satisfaction.

The Earthquake.

Last Tuesday night at 8 57 o'clock, standard time, Milan felt a distinct shock of the terrible earthquake which laid Charleston, S. C., in ruins and shocked the whole country east of the Mississippi river. Houses here were shaken on their foundations, glass and tinware rattled noisily, chandeliers and pictures swung violently, clocks were stopped still, and considerable uneasiness prevailed. Quite a number of people in the business houses rushed into the street, thinking the houses were falling down. The trembling or wavy motion continued one or two minutes. No damage was done in Milan, further than the cracking of plastering in some few houses. Monday was as smoky as Indian summer.

It is reported that two-thirds of the houses in Charleston are wrecked and damaged beyond repair, many of them historical buildings. It is thought that near one hundred lives were lost, while hundreds of people were hurt and crippled by falling masonry. The damage is estimated at $10,000,000. Savannah and other neighboring towns also suffered, but not so severely.

Burglars Ab ut.

Last Sunday night the grocery store of Dr. Harris was entered and a lot of groceries and a little change taken out. The Doctor has an idea as to who the rascal is, and proposes to go for him.

A burglar also entered the bakery of E. Keileber last Wednesday night by breaking through the back door. Some pickles, mustard, and sardines were found at the door, the thief evidently receiving a scare and running off without his booty.

Weakley county last Wednesday instructed for Caldwell for congress. By a vote of 107 to 28, the convention declined to instruct for Pierce for second choice.

Hon. J. A. Manson has withdrawn from the congressional race in the tenth district, leaving Mr. Phelan alone on the track.
