WASHINGTON, D. C. PROSPECTUS OF THE DAILY NATIONAL ERA.

I shall issue, on the 2d day of January ensuing, the DAILY NATIONAL ERA, a Political and Literary Newspaper.

In Politics, it will advocate the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and oppose whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Selfishness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It will hold no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule.

It will be a supporter of the Independent Democracy, which holds that the Truths of the Declaration of Independence are practical; that in their light the Constitution of the United States is to be interpreted; that to them the laws and institutions and usages of the country should be conformed—a Party, whose motto is, Union, not for the sake of Union, but for the sake of Freedom and Progress; and Law, not for the sake of Law, but for the Protection of Human Rights and Interests—the only sure foundation of order and concord.

In no sense will it be the organ of a Party, or a mere Party Paper, but absolutely "free and independent," claiming to speak "by authority" for nobody except its editor, and recognizing no authority in any quarter to prescribe its course and policy.

In Literature, it will aim to unite the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subservient to the practical purposes of every-day life.

Able correspondents, at home and abroad, have been secured, and ample provision has been made for its Literary Miscellany.

It will publish condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explain movements in that body, the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position be able to keep a constant watch upon the action of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Slavery.

The extensive subscription of the Weekly Era, which, during the year about to close, has reached the number of twenty-eight thousand, must make it an eligible medium for advertisers.

The Daily Era will be issued on a sheet as large as that of the Daily National Intelligencer, on the 2d day of January, 1854, and daily thereafter, until the 1st of September, 1854, (or longer, should Congress continue in session), at the following rates for that period; and should the result then warrant, the publication will be resumed on the 1st of December following, by the year.

As but sixteen days intervene between this and the 2d of January, it is important that subscriptions be forwarded at once.

Payment in advance will be invariably required. G. BAILEY, Editor, Washington, December 15, 1853.

THE GREAT BRITISH QUARTERLIES AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE. Important Reduction in the Rates of Postage! ROBERT SCOTT & CO., No. 54 Gold Street, London, E.C. We would recommend to publish the following British Periodicals, viz: The London Quarterly Review (Conservative), The Edinburgh Review (Whig), The North British Review (Free Church), The Westminster Review (Liberal), Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine (Tory), and the Quarterly Review (Moderate). These magazines are published in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase, notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American periodicals of a similar kind, and of numerous Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established as a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand conspicuously above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, will stand at the head of the list, and its contents are established as its ancient celebrity, and is at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and which are the subject of the most interesting notices in the United States. Such works as "The Carrion" and "My New Novel," both by Bulwer; "The Penitentiary Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, have met with a numerous and a learned list of leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been revised by Messrs. Scott & Co. and the subject of the most interesting notices in the United States. These works are always ready upon having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

TERMS. For any one of the three Reviews - For any two - For any three - For all four of the Reviews - For Blackwood's Magazine and three Reviews - For Blackwood and the four Reviews - For Farmer's Guide, complete, 22 numbers - A discount of 25 per cent. for clubs ordering four or more copies of any one or more of the above works. PUBLISHERS ANNOUNCEMENT. ELEVENTH VOLUME OF THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, THE LEADING WEEKLY AGRICULTURAL PAPER OF THE COUNTRY. THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST, MAKING AN ANNUAL VOLUME OF 322 PAGES OF NEARLY DOUBLE THE SIZE OF THOSE IN THE FIRST TEN VOLUMES OF THE AGRICULTURIST.

It is beautifully printed with type set expressly for it, and on the best of clear white paper, with wide margins, so that the numbers can be easily attached or bound together. A copious Index is weekly added, which will be fully amplified at the end of the year, for the bound work. Comprehensive in its Character. Each volume will contain all matter worth recording, which transpires either at home or abroad, and which an owner of an instrument or interested in the Planter, the Fruit-Grower, the Gardener, and the Stock Breeder; thus making it the most complete and useful Agricultural Publication of the day.

Correct and valuable Market Reports. The Markets will be carefully reported, giving the actual transactions, such as wheat, flour, corn, &c.; keeping our readers constantly and reliably advised as to their interests. During the past year, the knowledge obtained from these Market Reports has done more for our readers thousands of dollars, by informing them of the best time to sell or purchase. Such a Paper is demanded by the Farming Community. The publishers confidently believe that the agricultural community is becoming too much awake to the demands of their own calling to be longer satisfied with the slow monthly issues of a paper professedly devoted to their interests, or to trust alone to the transient extracts from a farmer's column, so popular just now in papers chiefly devoted to business, politics, or literature; and they look for the united support of the intelligent farmers of this country in their continued efforts to furnish a weekly paper of a high and reliable character, which shall be progressive, and at the same time cautious and conservative in all its teachings.

Essentially an Agricultural Paper. The Agriculturist will not depart from its legitimate sphere to catch popular favor by lumbering up its pages, with the silly, detestable, and light, miscellaneous matter of the day; it has a high aim, and a noble mission, and its pages will be devoted to matters not immediately pertaining to the great business of Agriculture. The household as well as the out-door work of the farm will receive a share of attention, and the most interesting and profitable information will be tried by reliable scientific rules, and their worthlessness exposed. It is the aim of the publishers to keep this paper under the guidance and control of those who will make it a work which shall communicate to its readers only that which is safe and reliable. An Independent Journal. The American Agriculturist stands upon its own merits; and the truth is, it is not a mere adjunct to the farmer. It is untrammelled by any collateral business connections whatever; nor is it the organ of any clique, or the puffing medium of any sect or party. Thoroughly independent in all points, its ample pages are steadily given alone to the support and improvement of the great agricultural cause.

Editorial Department. The American Agriculturist is under the editorial supervision of Mr. F. V. Coville, its principal editor for the past ten years, and Mr. Orange Judah, A. M., a thoroughly practical farmer and agricultural chemist. They will be assisted by Prof. Nash, who has been for a long time one of the most successful farmers of New England; and is now Agricultural Professor of Amherst College; Rev. Wm. C. Lilly, widely known as a pleasing and instructive writer on gardening and other departments of practical agriculture, and, in addition to these, a number of other eminent agricultural writers. All the editors are men practically experienced in their profession, each of whom can handle the Plow as well as the Pen. The Cheapest Paper in the country, of its character. The American Agriculturist is supplied to regular subscribers at a cost. Its low price, consisting of sixteen large pages; and to large clubs for less than two and a half cents. Each number will contain suggestions for the treatment of soils, manures, crop-rot, &c., which will save the farmer more than the cost of the paper for a year.

Specimen Copies will be forwarded, gratis, to any one sending their name and post office address to the publishers. TERMS. - The paper will be promptly issued on Wednesday of each week, and mailed to subscribers on the following liberal terms: To single subscribers, at a year - $2 To clubs of five subscribers, at $1.75 a year - $8.50 To clubs of ten subscribers, at $1.50 a year - $15. To clubs of twenty subscribers, at $1.25 a year - $25. The money always to accompany the name for which the paper is ordered. The Postmaster or other person sending a club of twenty or more, will be presented with an extra copy, and also a copy of the National Era, or the American Agriculturist, or the Weekly Times, or any other paper or periodical in this city, not costing over two dollars per annum. Subscriptions may be forwarded by mail, at the risk of the publisher, if enclosed and mailed in the presence of the Postmaster. Communications for the paper should be addressed to the editors, under the name of Baker & Smith. It makes a beautiful 16mo volume of about 140 pages, bound in cloth, thin boards, printed in the most elegant style, on the best paper.

THE AMERICAN SLAVE CODE, IN THEORY AND PRACTICE. ITS Distinctive Features shown by its Statutes, Judicial Decisions, and Illustrative Facts. By William Goodell, author of the "Democracy of Christianity," "Slavery an Anti-Slavery," &c. The work contains 420 pages, mostly bound in cloth. Price 75 cents per copy, postage 18 cents. For sale by LEWIS CLIPPINCOTT, Philadelphia, and other National Era Agents. THE following is an extract of a letter from Hon. William Jay to the author: "The laws you have so ably and your exhibition of their practical application by the Southern courts evinces great and careful research. Your book is an improvement upon any other work on the subject of Slavery (economy, sense, like that it consists of propositions and demonstrations. The book is not only true, but it is unimpeachably true."
