

ON SEEING A TABLE, MADE OF WOOL, FROM THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

Well, sooth' relic!—Can it be?
Judas's sons have nurtur'd thee?
Boy, didst thou rear a verdant crest,
And spread in branches bold and fair;
Upon that mountain's hallow'd breast,
Where erst my Saviour knelt in prayer?

by Fancy's swelling tide,
ions o'er thee, seem to glide,
ks, upon thy polished brow,
ilgrims kiss might be forgiven,
the meek enthusiast bow
Before thee, as a shrine from Heaven.

Oh thou,—whose table here below,
At thy last supper held a foe,
Teach us a sleepless watch to see,
From every traitorous sin to flee,
And by thy prayer on Olivet
Protect us, when we fly to thee.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NATIONAL MAGAZINE AND REPUBLICAN REVIEW.

THE NATIONAL MAGAZINE AND REPUBLICAN REVIEW will be published in the city of Washington, District of Columbia, on the 1st day of January next, and delivered monthly in all parts of the United States, exclusively to the advancement of the great principles of the Whig party, and the encouragement of literature and science.

The experience of the past year has confirmed in the minds of the more reflecting and sagacious of the Whig party that a vacuum exists in the periodical press of the country, in which should be combined the productions of our great statesmen on literary and scientific subjects, and those of the eminent literary geniuses of which the United States can boast so ample a share, on the various subjects that present themselves to a sound and vigorous intellect.

The union of such principles with a general literature as have insulterated in the sense and honesty of the country, by proclaiming the "Martyrdom of Gilley," rendered in a manner more detestable than the insidious way in which they are combined, tends directly to the disorganization of all that, as Americans, should be held most sacred.

The National Magazine and Republican Review is designed, and will be conducted with those and other high, important considerations in view, calculated to correct misconstructions, and to inculcate the correct political principle on which are based the views and practice of the great Republican Whig party, as well as for the encouragement and maintenance of genuine polite literature.

The period is fast arriving when the country will emerge from the domination of a party which has come into power under the corrupt influence of a misled popular prejudice, and which has advocated and aided under the broad and corrupt motto of office-seekers, "to the victors belong the spoils of the vanquished;" being alike anti-republican, unconstitutional, and a foul stain upon the free institutions of the country, that can only be eradicated by the triumph of the principles which govern the Republican Whig party of the present day.

The success of the Magazine will therefore depend, in a measure, on the great body of the opponents of the present Administration, whose interest it will be to aid in its permanent establishment. And it will be equally binding on the talented and patriotic band of leading Whigs to spare neither time nor labor to the explanation and advocacy of the true and only principles on which the Government can prosper, and on the success of which depends the great experiment of Republican Government.

Having made these few remarks on the political cast of the publication, we feel confident that its utility will be readily perceived by the Public, and fully appreciated. In addition to the political features, the following will be the principal subjects on which the Review will treat, from the pens of most celebrated writers of the present day:—
Reviews and Critical Notices will occupy a portion of its pages, thereby giving praise to genius, and censure to such productions only as are richly deserving of it.

Sketches of Distinguished Statesmen.—If the work should receive the same encouragement as is usually extended to periodicals of a literary and scientific character, the subscribers to the Review will not only find their numbers embellished with these desirable plates, but also with many other valuable improvements.

warded by mail, in case of miscarriage, provided the certificate of the Postmaster shall be secured, and copies forwarded accordingly.
If a subscriber shall not order his subscription to be discontinued at the expiration of the year, he shall be considered as wishing the Review continued, which shall be forwarded, and the subscription money expected on the receipt of the third number, or, in the first instance, no subscription taken for a less term than one year.

All communications, post paid, addressed to the publishers at their residence, Georgetown, D. C., will receive prompt attention.
Publishers of newspapers who will copy the foregoing prospectus will receive a copy of the work in exchange, and also confer a lasting favor upon the proprietors.

GEORGETOWN, D. C.
It is the earnest request of the publishers that correspondents will forward their contributions for the Review at the earliest possible moment.

PROPOSALS
For publishing in the city of Washington a weekly newspaper, to be devoted to the interests of RELIGION and LITERATURE, to be called

THE METROPOLITAN CHURCHMAN
REV. PHILIP SLAUGHTER, EDITOR.

When a Minister of the Lord Jesus Christ ceases to preach the Gospel, a decent respect for the opinions of the Church and the world requires that he should declare the causes which impel him to take this step. In the present case the Editor was arrested in his ministerial functions by the hand of disease, and his voice hushed by the precept of the physician. He is driven, therefore, by an imperious necessity to do something for the support of his secular pursuits. Most secular occupations would be as incompatible with the state of his health, as revolting to his feelings and principles.

The only alternative, then, is to adopt that mode of life which is most kindred to his profession, and which, next to the living voice of the preacher, seems to be the most fitting instrument to promote the glory of God, and the happiness of his creatures. In his judgment a religious press is that instrument—the press being confessedly one of the mightiest levers that moves this mortal world.

He has chosen Washington as the locality of this press for various reasons. It is a centre from whence roads and canals radiate to every point in our extensive territory, affording opportunities of easy and speedy communication with every diocese in the Union. 2dly, as the political metropolis of this great Nation, it is the source of mighty moral influences for evil or for good. Every interest in the country is beginning to appreciate the importance of this fact. Newspapers, magazines, and pamphlets, expressing every variety of opinion, in politics, morals and religion, are daily going forth as mis-advices to every State, town, county, and family of this great Nation, fixing the principles, and moulding the manners of its citizens. Under these circumstances he has thought that the Episcopalians of the United States would like to see a press established at this great centre of moral influences, displaying the ensigns of the Gospel, and inscribed with the motto of that Church which was built upon the foundation of the Apostles and Prophets, was cemented with the blood of a glorious army of martyrs, and which says to the angry surges of error, which are beating against her bulwarks, and battering down the walls of other societies, "Ye shall thus proud waves be staid."

The general design of this paper will be the advancement of society in knowledge and religion; and to this end, the aid of various gentlemen, distinguished in the walks of literature as in the walls of the Church, has been secured.

As to the peculiar view of the Editor in Religion, it is enough to say that he is a Minister of the Episcopal Church, and that it will be his continual aim to maintain that Church in her integrity, to exhibit, illustrate, and defend her distinctive features, and to hand her down to children inviolate, and to land her down to our fathers. PHILIP SLAUGHTER.

P. S.—This paper will contain a weekly summary of such acts of Congress and other facts as are of public interest, and such notices and reviews of the current literature of the day, as will not be unbecoming its religious professions.

TERMS.—Three dollars per annum, payable on delivery of the first number.
All Episcopal Clergymen who approve the design of this paper, are desired to act as its agents, or to procure for it, in their respective parishes, desiring them to forward the names of subscribers to the editor at Georgetown, D. C.

Publishers throughout the country will confer a favor by copying the above. P. S.

THE SOUTHERN SILK MANUAL, and Farmer's Magazine.—This work will be published under the auspices of a number of gentlemen actively engaged in the cultivation of the Mulberry Culture, founding of the worms, and the manufacture of silk. It will be edited by E. YEATES REESE, and furnished to subscribers at one dollar per annum.

Ample arrangements have been made, and correspondents established, to enable the editor to present a work containing all the information necessary to the planting and cultivation of the trees, the feeding of the worms, and the successful management of the entire silk business. The work will also contain valuable information on agriculture and farming generally.

It will be the particular object of the editor to promote the interest of those engaged in the silk culture in the Southern and Western States; as there the cultivator possesses peculiar advantages in respect to climate, soil, labor, &c.

Orders by letter, (post paid) with the subscription for the year, will receive prompt attention. Address E. Yeates Reese, Baltimore.

Persons desirous to have the above valuable work supplied by calling at my store, near the 7 Buildings, D. C. F. HOWARD, Agent.

The proprietor does not recommend it as most potent medicines, as a cure all, and when used is found wanting, that the public have got so much deceived, that they can scarcely be prevailed upon to try any more, which is not the case with this Balsam of Health, as hundreds of persons have received the most happy and good effects, which the proprietor can produce, if required, the testimony of many respectable persons, that have been cured of the above diseases.

The proprietor requests all those persons that are afflicted in the way above described, to give his medicine a fair trial, and he assures them that they will not be disappointed.

CONSUMPTION! DR. RELF'S ASTHMATIC PILLS have, from their extraordinary success in giving instant relief, and in curing Coughs, Conghs, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Wheezing, Tightness of the Chest, Pain in the Side, Spitting of Blood, Chillsiness and Shiverings that precede Fevers, and Lung Complaints generally, become one of the most popular Medicines known, and are sought after from every part of the country, on account of the astonishing success which has attended their administration in the above complaints, frequently curing the most obstinate cases, and giving the most unexpected relief, after every other remedy has failed, and persons had given themselves up in despair of a cure!

They have been known to cure persons supposed to be far gone in consumption, and exhibiting all the appearances of a fatal disease.

And such have been the salutary effects of these Pills, even in hopeless cases, as so far to mitigate the sufferings of the patient, as eventually to prolong life for days and weeks, and give to it a positive comfort they never expected to enjoy.

The operation of the pills is wonderful in easing respiration, quieting the cough, and procuring comfortable rest.

Coughs are frequently removed in a few hours. As though (says a person speaking of these Pills) my wife has tried various medicines, of the first celebrity, for an Asthmatic difficulty, (or affection of the lungs,) which at times was exceedingly distressing, confined her to her house for days and weeks together, she finds nothing gives her the relief which Relf's Asthmatic Pills do.—easing her respiration, quieting her cough, and giving her comfortable rest." And this is the testimony of hundreds or thousands. The relief which aged people, as well as others, experience from the use of these Pills, is truly astonishing, and renders them invaluable to many, and an essential auxiliary to their comfort, and almost to their existence!

A Physician informs the Proprietor, that a gentleman in the country observed to him, he had reason to believe the use of these Pills had been the means of saving his life.

Price—whole boxes, 30 Pills, $1; half do, 12 Pills 50 cents. Prepared by Thompson Ridder, Boston, and for sale at TODD'S Drug Store.

JAYNE'S INDIAN EXPECTORANT, is recommended as decidedly superior to any other known combination of medicine, for Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Consumption, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Arguing Pectoralis—Palpitations of the Heart, Bronchitis—Chronic Pleuritis—Hoarseness, Difficulty of Breathing, Hooping Cough, Pains and Weakness of the Breast, and all diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

This medicine is highly and justly recommended, by numerous and respectable individuals, who have found relief from its use. Many who have been laboring under protracted coughs and pains in the breast, and have been supported by themselves and their friends for advanced consumption, have been happily restored to perfect health by the use of this valuable Expectorant.

Dr. JONATHAN GOING, President of the Granville College, (late of N. York,) in a letter to the proprietor dated New York, December, 1836, says—"I was laboring under a severe cold, cough and hoarseness, and that his difficulty of breathing was so great that he felt himself in imminent danger of immediate suffocation, but was perfectly cured by using this Expectorant." Miss Delks, of Salem, N. J., was cured of Asthma of twenty years' standing, by using two bottles of this medicine. Mrs. Ward, also of Salem, was cured of the same complaint by one bottle. A young lady, also of Salem, who was believed by her friends to be far gone with consumption, was perfectly restored by three bottles of Dr. Hamilton, of St. James, South Carolina, was greatly benefited by a bottle of this medicine, and soreness of the lungs, and cough, hoarseness and soreness of the throat, &c. might be added to the above, several hundred cases Cough being mentioned of its promptly curing Hooping when every other treatment had failed in giving relief.

In fact, the proprietor can refer to several hundred individuals, in the city of Philadelphia alone, who have been cured of Asthma, Bronchitis, Spitting of Blood, and every variety of disease of the Breast, whose certificates would occupy too much space to publish; and he is daily receiving, from every part of the Union, the highest testimonials in its favor.

The Rev. C. C. Crosby, late Agent of the American Baptist, writes as follows: NEW YORK, JUNE 15, 1835.

To Dr. JAYNE.—Dear Sir: I have made use of the Indian Expectorant, personally and in my family, for the last six years, with great benefit. Indeed I may consider my life prolonged by the use of this valuable medicine, under the blessing of God, for several years. I may say almost as much in the case of my wife, and also of the Rev. Mr. Tinson, of the Island of Jamaica. For all these causes of cough, inflammation of the chest, lungs, and throat, I do most unhesitatingly recommend this as the best medicine I ever tried. My earnest wish is, that others, afflicted as I have been, may experience the same relief, which I am persuaded they will, by using the Indian Expectorant. C. C. CROSBY.

N. B.—Many of my neighbors, on my recommendation, have tried this medicine with uniform success. Mr. Crosby's residence is near Elizabethtown, N. J.

Copy of a letter from the Rev. Simeon Siegfried, Pastor of the Baptist Church at Rosborogh, near Philadelphia. DR. D. JAYNE.—Dear Sir: You will probably recollect that about two months since, I called upon you and procured a bottle of your Indian Expectorant, stating that I was then troubled with an inveterate hoarseness and cold of three months' standing, or which no medicine that I had tried afforded me any relief. I deem it due to you and to the Expectorant, to state to you that the use of one bottle entirely removed the complaint, and that I have had no return of it since. From a fair trial of this medicine, and also of your Carmine Balsam, in my own family, and under my observation, I confidently recommend both to the afflicted. Yours truly, S. SIEGFRIED.

NATIVE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Preamble and Constitution of the Native American Association of the United States.

Whereas it is an admitted fact that all Governments are not only capable, but bound by all the principles of moral preservation, to govern their affairs by the agency of their own citizens, and we believe the application of our Government to be an object of fear and dislike to the advocates of monarchy in Europe, and for that cause, if for none other, in order to preserve our institutions pure and unpolished, we are imperatively called upon to administer our peculiar system free of all foreign influence and interference. By admitting the stranger indiscriminately to the exercise of these high attributes, which constitute the rights of the native born American citizen, we weaken the attachment of the native, and gain to the foreigner, who holds under the Constitution of the American, which he holds under the Constitution, the right of his birth, are calculated to stimulate avarice, condense to strength, and cement in sentiment and patriotic sympathy.

Being, then, the right and duty to confederate on these high truths, we profess no other object than the promotion of our native country in all the walks of private honor, public credit, and national independence; and therefore we maintain the right, in its most extended form, of the native born American, and he only, to exercise the various duties incident to the modifications of the laws, executive, legislative, or ministerial, from the highest to the lowest post of the Government; and to obtain this great end, we shall advocate the entire repeal of the naturalization law by Congress. Aware that the Constitution forbids, and even if it did not, we have no wish to establish post facto laws; the action we seek with regard to the laws of naturalization, is intended to act in a protective character. We shall advocate equal liberty to all who were born equally free; to be so born, constitutes, when connected with moral qualities, in our minds, the aristocracy of human nature. Acting under these general principles, we further hold that, to be a permanent people, we must be a united one, bound together by sympathies, the result of a common political origin; and to be national, we must cherish the native American sentiment, to be national and radical exclusion of foreign opinions and doctrines introduced by foreign papers and European political adventurers. From Kings our gallant forefathers won their liberties—the slaves of Kings shall not win them back again.

Religiously enlightening these sentiments, we are so solemnly to believe that the day has arrived, when the American should unite as brethren to sustain the strength and purity of their political institutions. We have reached that critical period foreseen and prophesied by some of the clear sighted apostles of freedom, when danger threatens from every ship that floats on the ocean to our shores, when every wind that blows wafts the ragged banners of our cities, bearing in their own persons and characters the elements of degradation and disorder. To prevent these evils, we are now called upon to unite our energies. Our first object of our efforts, will be the duty of the sons of our country, and we must go into the combat determined to abide by our country, to preserve her honor free from contagion, and her character, as a separate people, high and above the degradation of monarchical despotisms.

ARTICLES OF THE CONSTITUTION. First. We bind ourselves to co-operate, by all lawful means, with our fellow native citizens in the United States to procure a repeal of the naturalization law.

Second. We will use all proper and reasonable exertions to exclude foreigners from enjoying the emoluments or honors of office, whether under the General or State Governments.

Third. That we will not hold him guilty of a crime, if his country's wrong who, having the power, shall have a foreigner in office while there is a competent native willing to accept.

Fourth. That we will not, in any form or manner, connect ourselves with the general or local politics of the country, nor aid, nor be the means of aiding, the cause of any politician or party whatsoever, but will exclusively advocate, stand to, and be a separate and independent party of native Americans, for the cause of the above preamble and these articles.

Fifth. That we will not, in any manner whatsoever, connect ourselves, or be connected, with any religious sect or denomination; leaving every creed to its own strength, and every man untrammelled in his own faith; adhering, for ourselves, to the sole cause of the natives, the establishment of a national character, and the perpetuity of our institutions, through the means of our own country men.

Sixth. That this Association shall be connected with and form a part of such other societies throughout the United States as may now or hereafter be established on the principles of our political creed and these articles.

Seventh. That this Association shall be styled the "Native American Association of the United States."

Eighth. That the officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Council of Three, Corresponding Secretary, Recording Secretary, a Committee on Addresses to consist of three members, a Treasurer, and such others and whose names shall be therein defined.

Ninth. That all the foregoing officers shall be elected by this meeting, to serve for one year, except the Committee on Addresses, which shall be appointed by the President.

Tenth. That the President, or, in his absence, the Vice President, or, in the absence of both, the Corresponding or Recording Secretary, is authorized to convene a meeting of this Association whenever it may be deemed necessary.

THE NEW YORK Life Insurance and Trust Company has a capital subscribed of one million of dollars, but in consequence of being the depository of the Court of Chancery, and of the Surrogate Courts of the State of New York, as well as of individuals, the business means have increased to upwards of five millions of dollars, as appears by a report of the Master in Chancery, dated 23d of May, 1835.

To persons in public employment, who receive fixed salaries, an Institution like this affords a certain mode of securing a sufficient sum for their families at a future day; and if the object of a parent, besides that of merely making a living, is to accumulate something for the support and education of those who may be left behind, it can be realized in this way, without exhausting those energies of mind and body, which are usually necessary through the ordinary struggles of life.

A person aged 30 years, whose income is $1,000 per annum, may, by the appropriation of $100 a year, secure to his children $5,000, even if he should die the next day.
