

contingents and principles who repudiate the Convention, and no one else. The Tribune then issues its bull at the comet in these words: "Let all men understand that the Randall convention of August 11 is to be a convention of the pro-slavery Democracy..."

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF TENNESSEE. Our deep interest in the present unsettled political condition of the country prompts a portion of your duly elected Senators and Representatives to the Congress of the United States to invite your special attention to the call that has been made for a "National Union Convention" to assemble in the city of Philadelphia on the 14th day of August next.

CONGRESSIONAL REPORTS. SIXTIETH CONGRESS—FIRST SESSION. SENATE. The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the President, containing a report on the Secretary of the Treasury, in relation to the resolution of the 30th ult., of the amount expended on public works in the different States and Territories, from the year 1853 to 1865.

THE DEPARTMENTS. Indian Affairs in the Territory of New Mexico. The Superintendent of Indian Affairs, in a late communication to the Commissioner of the Indian Bureau, says of affairs in that State, that at the expiration of June and July crops, that at the expiration of June and July crops, that at the expiration of June and July crops...

THE NATIONAL UNION CLUB. The following is the list of officers and members of the National Union Club. President, Hon. ALEX. W. RANDALL, of Wisconsin. Vice President, Hon. D. S. BORTON, of Minnesota.

PROSCRIPTION. This Congress has been governed somewhat by scars, but the most extensive one that we ever recollect to have seen or heard of was perpetrated by Dead Duck FORNEY in his Chronical yesterday. He says Hon. ALEXANDER W. RANDALL and THURLOW WEED are organizing, or have organized, a system, to be backed by President JOHNSON, for the "unparalleled proscription of all persons in office" who do not support his policy.

GERBERT SMITH AND THE TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS. There is an eminent philanthropist residing at Peterboro, N. Y., named GERBERT SMITH. He brooded over the wrong of negro slavery until he became insane, and was taken to the insane Asylum at Utica about the time that Isaac BROWN perpetrated his raid upon Harper's Ferry. During the rebellion he appeared to be generally rational, although his mind, when severely taxed, was occasionally light.
