LAW OF THE UNITED STATES.

Enacted at the First Session of the Thirty-Ninth Congress.

[PUBLIC-NO. 111.]

On bullion in lump, ingot, bar, or otherwise, a tax of one-half of one per centum ad valorem, to be paid by the assayer of the same, who shall stamp the product of the assay on the bullion, or on the Internal Revenue, under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, may prescribe by general regulations.

On snuff, manufactured of tobacco or any substitute for tobacco, ground, dry, or damp, pickled, scented, or otherwise, of all descriptions, when prepared for use, a tax of forty cents per pound.

On cigars, or small cigars, made of tobacco encased in a wrapper, binder, or paper, or on cigars made with twisted stems, and on cheroots, and on cigars known as short-cuts, the market value of which is not over eight dollars per thousand, a tax of two dollars per thousand.

That section ninety-eight be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That there shall be levied and collected, and paid, on all sales and contracts for sale of stocks, bonds, and other securities, a duty of one-tenth of one per centum on the gross amount of such sales; Provided, That no tax shall be levied under the provisions of this section upon any sales by or for judicial or executive officers, or by or for any court, or by or for judgment or decree of any court, nor to public sales made by guardians, executors or administrators.

That section ninety-nine be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That there shall be levied and collected, and paid, on all sales and contracts for sale of stocks, bonds, and other securities, a duty of one-tenth of one per centum on the gross amount of such sales; Provided, That no tax shall be levied under the provisions of this section upon any sales by or for judicial or executive officers, or by or for any court, or by or for judgment or decree of any court, nor to public sales made by guardians, executors or administrators.

fraction, and such person or company shall keep for sale, at convenient points, tickets in packages of twenty and multiples of twenty, to the price of which only an amount not exceeding the amount of the tax shall be added; provided further, That no tax under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be assessed upon any person, firm, company, or corporation, whose gross receipts do not exceed one thousand dollars per annum: And provided further, That all boats, barges, and other vessels, propelled by steam or sails, which are loaded or towed by tug-boats or horses, and used exclusively for carrying coal, oil, minerals, or agricultural products to market, shall be required hereafter, in lieu of enrollment fees or tonnage tax, to pay an annual special tax, for each and every such vessel, not exceeding one hundred tons, five dollars; and when exceeding one hundred tons, as aforesaid, shall be required to pay ten dollars; and said tax shall be assessed and collected as other special taxes provided for in this act.

That section one hundred and ten be amended by striking out all after the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following: That any person, firm, company, or corporation owning or possessing or having the care or management of any telegraphic line by which telegraphic dispatches or messages are received or transmitted, shall be required to pay a tax of five per centum on the gross amount of all receipts of such person, firm, company, or corporation.
