

National Republican.

RATE OF ADVERTISING. One square, one insertion, 10 cents. Two squares, one insertion, 15 cents. Three squares, one insertion, 20 cents. One square, one insertion, 10 cents. Two squares, one insertion, 15 cents. Three squares, one insertion, 20 cents.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Three Ladies Drowned.

Stage Washed Away near Tennyaltown.

Last evening we received the sad information, from Mr. Wm. F. Holton, at Howard's livery stable, on G street, near Seventh, that at about 5 o'clock, p. m., at the mill stage was approaching Tennyaltown from Rockville, it was washed off of the pike by a heavy current of water produced by the recent copious rains, and that three ladies, Miss Mary (or Margaret) Barrett, who resides on G street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets; Miss Betty Brimmer, of Georgetown, and another lady, named not ascertained, who got into the stage at the residence of Mrs. Holt, about one mile this side of Rockville, were drowned. The point where the stage upset is about one mile and a half north of Tennyaltown, where the Fall's Branch crosses the turnpike.

A two-horse ambulance crossed the branch just ahead of the stage, and the stage-driver, Mr. George Fulton, desisted, therefore, that there was no danger. Mr. Christian Keefe, of Rockville, was a passenger in the coach at the time it was upset, but he managed to extricate himself, and save his life. Mr. Keefe and the driver having narrowly escaped with their lives, commenced to search for the ladies, but at the end of an hour they could not be found. The horses were all gotten out, one of which, the lead horse, was washed away about fifty yards, and will probably die of his injuries. The stage was wrecked on three yards, and was completely wrecked on a huge log, and the United States mails could not be seen anywhere. Mr. Keefe mounted one of the horses and rode to the city, when Mr. Howard sent out a span of horses and vehicle.

At about 11 o'clock, p. m., a rider returned to the city with one of the mail bags, and reported that the bodies of the two ladies named above were recovered and sent to their friends. The wearing apparel had been torn and washed entirely from the bodies, one of which was found about half a mile below where the sad affair occurred. There had gathered around the scene of the wreck four or five hundred persons, who created an intense excitement, and every endeavor was being made to recover the body of the lady yet in the water.

The rain throughout nearly the whole of Montgomery county, yesterday and the night previous, wash away from almost every side, and the destruction to the crops, bridges and fences is truly distressing. In fact, many of the farmers are nearly distracted by their losses in crops, &c.

THE BALTIMORE SCHUTZENFEST—THIRD DAY.

The Baltimore Commercial of yesterday speaks of the Schutzenfest, in that city of the day before, as follows: "As on the two previous days, the grand festival, the care being entirely in the hands of the Schutzenfest, by many thousands of our citizens, including all classes, sexes, and ages, and all seemed highly delighted with the entertainment afforded them. Owing to the threatening of a shower of rain during the morning, but few persons visited the grounds during the morning, but about noon the crowd began to arrive, and from that hour until 8 o'clock p. m. a continuous stream of human beings poured into the enclosure, the care being literally crowded to excess. The prize shooting and prize bowling occupied the early part of the day, until about 2 p. m., when the several hands of about 300 were an instrumental scene to the present, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The "Punch and Judy" show began, and about 3,000 persons gathered on the lawn in front of the tent in which the performances were being given, and an hour was spent in the watching of the various scenes, and the art of prestidigitation. The festivities last evening were very brilliant, and the dance was kept up to a very late hour."

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.—Yesterday at 12 m. the Washington Fire Department Commissioners held a special meeting in the Mayor's office, City Hall, in conjunction with Messrs. Anthony Rodier and John Fowler, of the Georgetown Fire Department. The following were present: His Honor the Mayor, who presided, Commissioners Charles I. Canfield, J. W. Thompson, and J. T. C. Clarke, and Chief Engineer John Sessford.

The object of the meeting was to endeavor to effect an arrangement by which fire engines No. 1, of the First ward, could go to Georgetown and assist in cases of fire. This was granted on condition that the Georgetown steamer (Henry Addison) should attend the fire at the city, and in the First ward, the Georgetown company to be subject to our rules while here, and the Germania to abide by their rules while there. In case more of our department may be needed, it will be called out specially by our fire alarm telegraph. The police station in Georgetown will hereafter be known as fire-alarm box No. 72, which, when sounded, will indicate that there is fire in Georgetown.

CARUSI'S OLD SALOON REVIVITIES.—It is with pleasure we announce, and we feel that our citizens generally will be pleased to learn, that Mr. L. Carusi is now having his saloon, corner of Eleventh and C streets, refitted and refurbished in every ornate and splendid manner, and that it will be completed by the 1st of November next, when it will be rented out to assemble, and for concerts, balls, parties, lectures, and general meetings. This old edifice was purchased by the father Mr. Carusi in 1821, and in 1822 Mr. President Adams, Mr. Seaton, and others graced the first ball ever held within its walls. Entertainments given there, under the management of Mr. Carusi, have been visited by all our Presidents, and the late President Washington and the younger Adams. Mr. Carusi, in this old saloon, taught Admiral Porter and other noted men of the present day how to handle, with grace, their social graces. Mr. Carusi was always careful to get the best of characters of doubtful reputation, and on that score refused to let to the famous Canterbury company. We wish him success.

DEAD DRUMS.—Last night information was lodged at police headquarters that a man was lying dead on the steps of the Unitarian church, corner of Sixth and D streets. Officer Drill immediately visited the locality, and did not see any person on the steps dead drunk. The officer partially around him, and succeeded in getting him over to headquarters, where he was furnished with lodgings for the night. The man's name is Derriso, shoemaker by occupation, and fifty-three years of age.

ANOTHER HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Wm. Britton, one of our enterprising merchants on Seventh street, is now having the old roof removed from his building corner of Seventh and F streets, and will have it replaced with a handsome and airy structure, and a handsome porch and stairway will be erected on the south side. Job W. Angus is the carpenter, and Wise & Callahan bricklayers.

BASE BALL MATTERS.

On Tuesday the Athletics played another game with the Mutual club, of Baltimore, defeating them by the following score:

Table with columns for Athletics and Mutual, listing players and scores.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Three Ladies Drowned.

Stage Washed Away near Tennyaltown.

Last evening we received the sad information, from Mr. Wm. F. Holton, at Howard's livery stable, on G street, near Seventh, that at about 5 o'clock, p. m., at the mill stage was approaching Tennyaltown from Rockville, it was washed off of the pike by a heavy current of water produced by the recent copious rains, and that three ladies, Miss Mary (or Margaret) Barrett, who resides on G street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets; Miss Betty Brimmer, of Georgetown, and another lady, named not ascertained, who got into the stage at the residence of Mrs. Holt, about one mile this side of Rockville, were drowned. The point where the stage upset is about one mile and a half north of Tennyaltown, where the Fall's Branch crosses the turnpike.

A two-horse ambulance crossed the branch just ahead of the stage, and the stage-driver, Mr. George Fulton, desisted, therefore, that there was no danger. Mr. Christian Keefe, of Rockville, was a passenger in the coach at the time it was upset, but he managed to extricate himself, and save his life. Mr. Keefe and the driver having narrowly escaped with their lives, commenced to search for the ladies, but at the end of an hour they could not be found. The horses were all gotten out, one of which, the lead horse, was washed away about fifty yards, and will probably die of his injuries. The stage was wrecked on three yards, and was completely wrecked on a huge log, and the United States mails could not be seen anywhere. Mr. Keefe mounted one of the horses and rode to the city, when Mr. Howard sent out a span of horses and vehicle.

At about 11 o'clock, p. m., a rider returned to the city with one of the mail bags, and reported that the bodies of the two ladies named above were recovered and sent to their friends. The wearing apparel had been torn and washed entirely from the bodies, one of which was found about half a mile below where the sad affair occurred. There had gathered around the scene of the wreck four or five hundred persons, who created an intense excitement, and every endeavor was being made to recover the body of the lady yet in the water.

The rain throughout nearly the whole of Montgomery county, yesterday and the night previous, wash away from almost every side, and the destruction to the crops, bridges and fences is truly distressing. In fact, many of the farmers are nearly distracted by their losses in crops, &c.

THE BALTIMORE SCHUTZENFEST—THIRD DAY.

The Baltimore Commercial of yesterday speaks of the Schutzenfest, in that city of the day before, as follows: "As on the two previous days, the grand festival, the care being entirely in the hands of the Schutzenfest, by many thousands of our citizens, including all classes, sexes, and ages, and all seemed highly delighted with the entertainment afforded them. Owing to the threatening of a shower of rain during the morning, but few persons visited the grounds during the morning, but about noon the crowd began to arrive, and from that hour until 8 o'clock p. m. a continuous stream of human beings poured into the enclosure, the care being literally crowded to excess. The prize shooting and prize bowling occupied the early part of the day, until about 2 p. m., when the several hands of about 300 were an instrumental scene to the present, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The "Punch and Judy" show began, and about 3,000 persons gathered on the lawn in front of the tent in which the performances were being given, and an hour was spent in the watching of the various scenes, and the art of prestidigitation. The festivities last evening were very brilliant, and the dance was kept up to a very late hour."

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.—Yesterday at 12 m. the Washington Fire Department Commissioners held a special meeting in the Mayor's office, City Hall, in conjunction with Messrs. Anthony Rodier and John Fowler, of the Georgetown Fire Department. The following were present: His Honor the Mayor, who presided, Commissioners Charles I. Canfield, J. W. Thompson, and J. T. C. Clarke, and Chief Engineer John Sessford.

The object of the meeting was to endeavor to effect an arrangement by which fire engines No. 1, of the First ward, could go to Georgetown and assist in cases of fire. This was granted on condition that the Georgetown steamer (Henry Addison) should attend the fire at the city, and in the First ward, the Georgetown company to be subject to our rules while here, and the Germania to abide by their rules while there. In case more of our department may be needed, it will be called out specially by our fire alarm telegraph. The police station in Georgetown will hereafter be known as fire-alarm box No. 72, which, when sounded, will indicate that there is fire in Georgetown.

CARUSI'S OLD SALOON REVIVITIES.—It is with pleasure we announce, and we feel that our citizens generally will be pleased to learn, that Mr. L. Carusi is now having his saloon, corner of Eleventh and C streets, refitted and refurbished in every ornate and splendid manner, and that it will be completed by the 1st of November next, when it will be rented out to assemble, and for concerts, balls, parties, lectures, and general meetings. This old edifice was purchased by the father Mr. Carusi in 1821, and in 1822 Mr. President Adams, Mr. Seaton, and others graced the first ball ever held within its walls. Entertainments given there, under the management of Mr. Carusi, have been visited by all our Presidents, and the late President Washington and the younger Adams. Mr. Carusi, in this old saloon, taught Admiral Porter and other noted men of the present day how to handle, with grace, their social graces. Mr. Carusi was always careful to get the best of characters of doubtful reputation, and on that score refused to let to the famous Canterbury company. We wish him success.

DEAD DRUMS.—Last night information was lodged at police headquarters that a man was lying dead on the steps of the Unitarian church, corner of Sixth and D streets. Officer Drill immediately visited the locality, and did not see any person on the steps dead drunk. The officer partially around him, and succeeded in getting him over to headquarters, where he was furnished with lodgings for the night. The man's name is Derriso, shoemaker by occupation, and fifty-three years of age.

ANOTHER HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Wm. Britton, one of our enterprising merchants on Seventh street, is now having the old roof removed from his building corner of Seventh and F streets, and will have it replaced with a handsome and airy structure, and a handsome porch and stairway will be erected on the south side. Job W. Angus is the carpenter, and Wise & Callahan bricklayers.

HOW TO HONOR TO AN OLD FIREMAN.

TERVISE FIRE IN ALEXANDRIA—ARRIVAL AND COMMENT OF THE INCENDIARIES.—Mr. Jacob Tripler, the oldest fireman in the Union, has been in the city for several days past. He arrived at Alexandria on Saturday last, and was welcomed with salutes of artillery and by a speech from the Mayor. Since then he has been each day the special guest of the firemen, and has been the subject of several days past. He arrived at Alexandria on Saturday last, and was welcomed with salutes of artillery and by a speech from the Mayor. Since then he has been each day the special guest of the firemen, and has been the subject of several days past. He arrived at Alexandria on Saturday last, and was welcomed with salutes of artillery and by a speech from the Mayor. Since then he has been each day the special guest of the firemen, and has been the subject of several days past.

On Tuesday the Athletics played another game with the Mutual club, of Baltimore, defeating them by the following score:

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Three Ladies Drowned.

Stage Washed Away near Tennyaltown.

Last evening we received the sad information, from Mr. Wm. F. Holton, at Howard's livery stable, on G street, near Seventh, that at about 5 o'clock, p. m., at the mill stage was approaching Tennyaltown from Rockville, it was washed off of the pike by a heavy current of water produced by the recent copious rains, and that three ladies, Miss Mary (or Margaret) Barrett, who resides on G street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets; Miss Betty Brimmer, of Georgetown, and another lady, named not ascertained, who got into the stage at the residence of Mrs. Holt, about one mile this side of Rockville, were drowned. The point where the stage upset is about one mile and a half north of Tennyaltown, where the Fall's Branch crosses the turnpike.

A two-horse ambulance crossed the branch just ahead of the stage, and the stage-driver, Mr. George Fulton, desisted, therefore, that there was no danger. Mr. Christian Keefe, of Rockville, was a passenger in the coach at the time it was upset, but he managed to extricate himself, and save his life. Mr. Keefe and the driver having narrowly escaped with their lives, commenced to search for the ladies, but at the end of an hour they could not be found. The horses were all gotten out, one of which, the lead horse, was washed away about fifty yards, and will probably die of his injuries. The stage was wrecked on three yards, and was completely wrecked on a huge log, and the United States mails could not be seen anywhere. Mr. Keefe mounted one of the horses and rode to the city, when Mr. Howard sent out a span of horses and vehicle.

At about 11 o'clock, p. m., a rider returned to the city with one of the mail bags, and reported that the bodies of the two ladies named above were recovered and sent to their friends. The wearing apparel had been torn and washed entirely from the bodies, one of which was found about half a mile below where the sad affair occurred. There had gathered around the scene of the wreck four or five hundred persons, who created an intense excitement, and every endeavor was being made to recover the body of the lady yet in the water.

The rain throughout nearly the whole of Montgomery county, yesterday and the night previous, wash away from almost every side, and the destruction to the crops, bridges and fences is truly distressing. In fact, many of the farmers are nearly distracted by their losses in crops, &c.

THE BALTIMORE SCHUTZENFEST—THIRD DAY.

The Baltimore Commercial of yesterday speaks of the Schutzenfest, in that city of the day before, as follows: "As on the two previous days, the grand festival, the care being entirely in the hands of the Schutzenfest, by many thousands of our citizens, including all classes, sexes, and ages, and all seemed highly delighted with the entertainment afforded them. Owing to the threatening of a shower of rain during the morning, but few persons visited the grounds during the morning, but about noon the crowd began to arrive, and from that hour until 8 o'clock p. m. a continuous stream of human beings poured into the enclosure, the care being literally crowded to excess. The prize shooting and prize bowling occupied the early part of the day, until about 2 p. m., when the several hands of about 300 were an instrumental scene to the present, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The "Punch and Judy" show began, and about 3,000 persons gathered on the lawn in front of the tent in which the performances were being given, and an hour was spent in the watching of the various scenes, and the art of prestidigitation. The festivities last evening were very brilliant, and the dance was kept up to a very late hour."

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.—Yesterday at 12 m. the Washington Fire Department Commissioners held a special meeting in the Mayor's office, City Hall, in conjunction with Messrs. Anthony Rodier and John Fowler, of the Georgetown Fire Department. The following were present: His Honor the Mayor, who presided, Commissioners Charles I. Canfield, J. W. Thompson, and J. T. C. Clarke, and Chief Engineer John Sessford.

The object of the meeting was to endeavor to effect an arrangement by which fire engines No. 1, of the First ward, could go to Georgetown and assist in cases of fire. This was granted on condition that the Georgetown steamer (Henry Addison) should attend the fire at the city, and in the First ward, the Georgetown company to be subject to our rules while here, and the Germania to abide by their rules while there. In case more of our department may be needed, it will be called out specially by our fire alarm telegraph. The police station in Georgetown will hereafter be known as fire-alarm box No. 72, which, when sounded, will indicate that there is fire in Georgetown.

CARUSI'S OLD SALOON REVIVITIES.—It is with pleasure we announce, and we feel that our citizens generally will be pleased to learn, that Mr. L. Carusi is now having his saloon, corner of Eleventh and C streets, refitted and refurbished in every ornate and splendid manner, and that it will be completed by the 1st of November next, when it will be rented out to assemble, and for concerts, balls, parties, lectures, and general meetings. This old edifice was purchased by the father Mr. Carusi in 1821, and in 1822 Mr. President Adams, Mr. Seaton, and others graced the first ball ever held within its walls. Entertainments given there, under the management of Mr. Carusi, have been visited by all our Presidents, and the late President Washington and the younger Adams. Mr. Carusi, in this old saloon, taught Admiral Porter and other noted men of the present day how to handle, with grace, their social graces. Mr. Carusi was always careful to get the best of characters of doubtful reputation, and on that score refused to let to the famous Canterbury company. We wish him success.

DEAD DRUMS.—Last night information was lodged at police headquarters that a man was lying dead on the steps of the Unitarian church, corner of Sixth and D streets. Officer Drill immediately visited the locality, and did not see any person on the steps dead drunk. The officer partially around him, and succeeded in getting him over to headquarters, where he was furnished with lodgings for the night. The man's name is Derriso, shoemaker by occupation, and fifty-three years of age.

ANOTHER HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Wm. Britton, one of our enterprising merchants on Seventh street, is now having the old roof removed from his building corner of Seventh and F streets, and will have it replaced with a handsome and airy structure, and a handsome porch and stairway will be erected on the south side. Job W. Angus is the carpenter, and Wise & Callahan bricklayers.

ARSON.—The house occupied by the Rev. J. W. Lewis, of St. John's Church, corner of Eighteenth and I streets, was seen on fire on Sunday night last, and a subsequent examination of the premises by Lieut. Hurley, revealed the fact that the house had been robbed and the fire was the work of incendiaries. Julius Finnacum, a white boy, aged 14, and Bernard Smith, a colored lad of the same age, were arrested on suspicion of having committed the act, and they had a hearing before Justice Harper at the First ward station house yesterday morning. Mr. J. H. Johnson appeared for Finnacum, and endeavored to prove that his client had only been a foot in the hands of others; that he had been inveigled into the affair and was not a principal. The first charge against the boys was that of burglary, and on this, Mr. Johnson said that Finnacum would, on his examination and give bail for court.

GEORGETOWN NEWS.

LIST OF LETTERS.—The following is a list of unclaimed letters remaining in the Georgetown post office, for the week ending August 22, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Three Ladies Drowned.

Stage Washed Away near Tennyaltown.

Last evening we received the sad information, from Mr. Wm. F. Holton, at Howard's livery stable, on G street, near Seventh, that at about 5 o'clock, p. m., at the mill stage was approaching Tennyaltown from Rockville, it was washed off of the pike by a heavy current of water produced by the recent copious rains, and that three ladies, Miss Mary (or Margaret) Barrett, who resides on G street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets; Miss Betty Brimmer, of Georgetown, and another lady, named not ascertained, who got into the stage at the residence of Mrs. Holt, about one mile this side of Rockville, were drowned. The point where the stage upset is about one mile and a half north of Tennyaltown, where the Fall's Branch crosses the turnpike.

A two-horse ambulance crossed the branch just ahead of the stage, and the stage-driver, Mr. George Fulton, desisted, therefore, that there was no danger. Mr. Christian Keefe, of Rockville, was a passenger in the coach at the time it was upset, but he managed to extricate himself, and save his life. Mr. Keefe and the driver having narrowly escaped with their lives, commenced to search for the ladies, but at the end of an hour they could not be found. The horses were all gotten out, one of which, the lead horse, was washed away about fifty yards, and will probably die of his injuries. The stage was wrecked on three yards, and was completely wrecked on a huge log, and the United States mails could not be seen anywhere. Mr. Keefe mounted one of the horses and rode to the city, when Mr. Howard sent out a span of horses and vehicle.

At about 11 o'clock, p. m., a rider returned to the city with one of the mail bags, and reported that the bodies of the two ladies named above were recovered and sent to their friends. The wearing apparel had been torn and washed entirely from the bodies, one of which was found about half a mile below where the sad affair occurred. There had gathered around the scene of the wreck four or five hundred persons, who created an intense excitement, and every endeavor was being made to recover the body of the lady yet in the water.

The rain throughout nearly the whole of Montgomery county, yesterday and the night previous, wash away from almost every side, and the destruction to the crops, bridges and fences is truly distressing. In fact, many of the farmers are nearly distracted by their losses in crops, &c.

THE BALTIMORE SCHUTZENFEST—THIRD DAY.

The Baltimore Commercial of yesterday speaks of the Schutzenfest, in that city of the day before, as follows: "As on the two previous days, the grand festival, the care being entirely in the hands of the Schutzenfest, by many thousands of our citizens, including all classes, sexes, and ages, and all seemed highly delighted with the entertainment afforded them. Owing to the threatening of a shower of rain during the morning, but few persons visited the grounds during the morning, but about noon the crowd began to arrive, and from that hour until 8 o'clock p. m. a continuous stream of human beings poured into the enclosure, the care being literally crowded to excess. The prize shooting and prize bowling occupied the early part of the day, until about 2 p. m., when the several hands of about 300 were an instrumental scene to the present, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The "Punch and Judy" show began, and about 3,000 persons gathered on the lawn in front of the tent in which the performances were being given, and an hour was spent in the watching of the various scenes, and the art of prestidigitation. The festivities last evening were very brilliant, and the dance was kept up to a very late hour."

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.—Yesterday at 12 m. the Washington Fire Department Commissioners held a special meeting in the Mayor's office, City Hall, in conjunction with Messrs. Anthony Rodier and John Fowler, of the Georgetown Fire Department. The following were present: His Honor the Mayor, who presided, Commissioners Charles I. Canfield, J. W. Thompson, and J. T. C. Clarke, and Chief Engineer John Sessford.

The object of the meeting was to endeavor to effect an arrangement by which fire engines No. 1, of the First ward, could go to Georgetown and assist in cases of fire. This was granted on condition that the Georgetown steamer (Henry Addison) should attend the fire at the city, and in the First ward, the Georgetown company to be subject to our rules while here, and the Germania to abide by their rules while there. In case more of our department may be needed, it will be called out specially by our fire alarm telegraph. The police station in Georgetown will hereafter be known as fire-alarm box No. 72, which, when sounded, will indicate that there is fire in Georgetown.

CARUSI'S OLD SALOON REVIVITIES.—It is with pleasure we announce, and we feel that our citizens generally will be pleased to learn, that Mr. L. Carusi is now having his saloon, corner of Eleventh and C streets, refitted and refurbished in every ornate and splendid manner, and that it will be completed by the 1st of November next, when it will be rented out to assemble, and for concerts, balls, parties, lectures, and general meetings. This old edifice was purchased by the father Mr. Carusi in 1821, and in 1822 Mr. President Adams, Mr. Seaton, and others graced the first ball ever held within its walls. Entertainments given there, under the management of Mr. Carusi, have been visited by all our Presidents, and the late President Washington and the younger Adams. Mr. Carusi, in this old saloon, taught Admiral Porter and other noted men of the present day how to handle, with grace, their social graces. Mr. Carusi was always careful to get the best of characters of doubtful reputation, and on that score refused to let to the famous Canterbury company. We wish him success.

DEAD DRUMS.—Last night information was lodged at police headquarters that a man was lying dead on the steps of the Unitarian church, corner of Sixth and D streets. Officer Drill immediately visited the locality, and did not see any person on the steps dead drunk. The officer partially around him, and succeeded in getting him over to headquarters, where he was furnished with lodgings for the night. The man's name is Derriso, shoemaker by occupation, and fifty-three years of age.

ANOTHER HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Wm. Britton, one of our enterprising merchants on Seventh street, is now having the old roof removed from his building corner of Seventh and F streets, and will have it replaced with a handsome and airy structure, and a handsome porch and stairway will be erected on the south side. Job W. Angus is the carpenter, and Wise & Callahan bricklayers.

GEORGETOWN AND ALEXANDRIA.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GEORGETOWN.—Arrangements have been made to have the REPUBLICAN delivered promptly and regularly every morning to subscribers in every part of Georgetown.

Subscriptions will be received by J. R. TAYLOR, No. 101 North street, who will act as agent for Georgetown for its delivery, and will collect for subscriptions and solicit advertisements for the NATIONAL REPUBLICAN from and after August 1.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

A TERRIBLE OCCURRENCE.

Three Ladies Drowned.

Stage Washed Away near Tennyaltown.

Last evening we received the sad information, from Mr. Wm. F. Holton, at Howard's livery stable, on G street, near Seventh, that at about 5 o'clock, p. m., at the mill stage was approaching Tennyaltown from Rockville, it was washed off of the pike by a heavy current of water produced by the recent copious rains, and that three ladies, Miss Mary (or Margaret) Barrett, who resides on G street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets; Miss Betty Brimmer, of Georgetown, and another lady, named not ascertained, who got into the stage at the residence of Mrs. Holt, about one mile this side of Rockville, were drowned. The point where the stage upset is about one mile and a half north of Tennyaltown, where the Fall's Branch crosses the turnpike.

A two-horse ambulance crossed the branch just ahead of the stage, and the stage-driver, Mr. George Fulton, desisted, therefore, that there was no danger. Mr. Christian Keefe, of Rockville, was a passenger in the coach at the time it was upset, but he managed to extricate himself, and save his life. Mr. Keefe and the driver having narrowly escaped with their lives, commenced to search for the ladies, but at the end of an hour they could not be found. The horses were all gotten out, one of which, the lead horse, was washed away about fifty yards, and will probably die of his injuries. The stage was wrecked on three yards, and was completely wrecked on a huge log, and the United States mails could not be seen anywhere. Mr. Keefe mounted one of the horses and rode to the city, when Mr. Howard sent out a span of horses and vehicle.

At about 11 o'clock, p. m., a rider returned to the city with one of the mail bags, and reported that the bodies of the two ladies named above were recovered and sent to their friends. The wearing apparel had been torn and washed entirely from the bodies, one of which was found about half a mile below where the sad affair occurred. There had gathered around the scene of the wreck four or five hundred persons, who created an intense excitement, and every endeavor was being made to recover the body of the lady yet in the water.

The rain throughout nearly the whole of Montgomery county, yesterday and the night previous, wash away from almost every side, and the destruction to the crops, bridges and fences is truly distressing. In fact, many of the farmers are nearly distracted by their losses in crops, &c.

THE BALTIMORE SCHUTZENFEST—THIRD DAY.

The Baltimore Commercial of yesterday speaks of the Schutzenfest, in that city of the day before, as follows: "As on the two previous days, the grand festival, the care being entirely in the hands of the Schutzenfest, by many thousands of our citizens, including all classes, sexes, and ages, and all seemed highly delighted with the entertainment afforded them. Owing to the threatening of a shower of rain during the morning, but few persons visited the grounds during the morning, but about noon the crowd began to arrive, and from that hour until 8 o'clock p. m. a continuous stream of human beings poured into the enclosure, the care being literally crowded to excess. The prize shooting and prize bowling occupied the early part of the day, until about 2 p. m., when the several hands of about 300 were an instrumental scene to the present, which was greatly enjoyed by all present. The "Punch and Judy" show began, and about 3,000 persons gathered on the lawn in front of the tent in which the performances were being given, and an hour was spent in the watching of the various scenes, and the art of prestidigitation. The festivities last evening were very brilliant, and the dance was kept up to a very late hour."

FIRE DEPARTMENT MEETING.—Yesterday at 12 m. the Washington Fire Department Commissioners held a special meeting in the Mayor's office, City Hall, in conjunction with Messrs. Anthony Rodier and John Fowler, of the Georgetown Fire Department. The following were present: His Honor the Mayor, who presided, Commissioners Charles I. Canfield, J. W. Thompson, and J. T. C. Clarke, and Chief Engineer John Sessford.

The object of the meeting was to endeavor to effect an arrangement by which fire engines No. 1, of the First ward, could go to Georgetown and assist in cases of fire. This was granted on condition that the Georgetown steamer (Henry Addison) should attend the fire at the city, and in the First ward, the Georgetown company to be subject to our rules while here, and the Germania to abide by their rules while there. In case more of our department may be needed, it will be called out specially by our fire alarm telegraph. The police station in Georgetown will hereafter be known as fire-alarm box No. 72, which, when sounded, will indicate that there is fire in Georgetown.

CARUSI'S OLD SALOON REVIVITIES.—It is with pleasure we announce, and we feel that our citizens generally will be pleased to learn, that Mr. L. Carusi is now having his saloon, corner of Eleventh and C streets, refitted and refurbished in every ornate and splendid manner, and that it will be completed by the 1st of November next, when it will be rented out to assemble, and for concerts, balls, parties, lectures, and general meetings. This old edifice was purchased by the father Mr. Carusi in 1821, and in 1822 Mr. President Adams, Mr. Seaton, and others graced the first ball ever held within its walls. Entertainments given there, under the management of Mr. Carusi, have been visited by all our Presidents, and the late President Washington and the younger Adams. Mr. Carusi, in this old saloon, taught Admiral Porter and other noted men of the present day how to handle, with grace, their social graces. Mr. Carusi was always careful to get the best of characters of doubtful reputation, and on that score refused to let to the famous Canterbury company. We wish him success.

DEAD DRUMS.—Last night information was lodged at police headquarters that a man was lying dead on the steps of the Unitarian church, corner of Sixth and D streets. Officer Drill immediately visited the locality, and did not see any person on the steps dead drunk. The officer partially around him, and succeeded in getting him over to headquarters, where he was furnished with lodgings for the night. The man's name is Derriso, shoemaker by occupation, and fifty-three years of age.

ANOTHER HANDSOME IMPROVEMENT.—Mr. Wm. Britton, one of our enterprising merchants on Seventh street, is now having the old roof removed from his building corner of Seventh and F streets, and will have it replaced with a handsome and airy structure, and a handsome porch and stairway will be erected on the south side. Job W. Angus is the carpenter, and Wise & Callahan bricklayers.

ROAD ACCIDENT AND LOSS OF LIFE.—By reference to our Washington local department it will be seen that the Rockville mail coach met with an accident yesterday afternoon, above Tennyaltown, by which three young ladies lost their lives by drowning, and whose names were Miss Brimmer, of this town. This sad catastrophe has cast a gloom of sorrow among the acquaintances of the unfortunate ladies.

BASE BALL.—A game of base ball was played on the grounds of the college on Wednesday afternoon, between the picked nine of the college and the Taccorosa club, which resulted in favor of the picked nine, the score standing at the close, 31 for the picked nine and 10 for the Taccorosa.

THE NEW STATION HOUSE.—Messrs. Class & Kammhuber were yesterday engaged in surveying the ground, at the request of Mayor Welch, for which contemplated extension of the police station, and making an estimate of the cost of the improvement.

FOR NEW YORK.—The steamer James R. Green, Platt, will leave to-day for New York, with a full freight, including a quantity of Welch's family flour.

CHANCE OF FIRE ALARM BOX.—We understand that heretofore the fire alarm box at the station here will be known as box 72, and sounded from police headquarters in Washington.

J. P. BARTHOLOW, MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN

HARDWARE, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, SEEDS, AND FERTILIZERS.

AGENT FOR FAIRBANKS' SCALES AND HERRING'S BAYETS.

608 SEVENTH ST., WASHINGTON, D. C., 25 N. W. ST., ALEXANDRIA, VA.

REMOVAL.

N. H. MILLER, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, LAW AND COLLECTION OFFICE.

Has removed to No. 10 Louisiana avenue, near the corner of Sixth and D streets.

BUILDER'S HARDWARE.

<