FRIDAY MORNING, JULY 14, 1876.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT: RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, of Ohio.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York.

Persons leaving the city during the summer months, and wishing to be informed of matters transpiring at the city of Washington, can have the DAILY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN mailed to their address, free of postage, at the following rates, payable in advance:

Table with 2 columns: Duration (One week, Two weeks, One month, Three months) and Price ($0.20, $0.35, $0.95, $2.00).

JEWELL told all he knew; now let Dristow do the same.

Now let every one, everybody and everything tell all they know about President Grant.

"EVIDENTLY," as he says in his letter, "President Grant occupies the position 'assumed' by ex-Secretary Bristow.

There are quite a number of "small fry" candidates for martyrdom who will be gaily disappointed when they learn that the President is not fond of hunting game!

GENERAL HAYES, who served a long time in West Virginia, is still well remembered there, and is very popular. Hayes clubs are being organized throughout the State.

The New York Herald don't seem to recall General Grant's Cabinet-making. Well, he never did, you know. The Herald has been very kind to Jewell, but he doesn't need it. He's satisfied.

WHILE MR. EX-SECRETARY BRISTOW is about as successful in exciting ill-feeling between the President and Governor Hayes by false representations as he will be perfectly happy. But this he cannot do, for these two generals understand one another perfectly, and have the fullest confidence in each other.

THE WEEKLY NATIONAL REPUBLICAN, of sixty-four columns, containing the Belknap impeachment, death of Custer, the South Carolina horror and all the Congressional and general news of the week, is now ready for mailing. It is the cheapest and best campaign newspaper in the country.

HON. MARK H. DUNNELL, now representing the First Congressional district of Minnesota, has been nominated by acclamation for reelection. The convention nominated the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler with the greatest enthusiasm.

Old "Shoot him on the spot" Dix is as tart and pithy as when he was Buchanan's loyal Secretary of the Treasury. Writing of Tilden's nomination to President, he says: "It will enable us to demonstrate by 'indisputable facts' that the Government, for the chief officer in which he has been nominated, would now carry it if 'example during the rebellion had been followed by his countrymen.'"

THERE is great activity among the Republicans in West Virginia. Hayes and Wheeler clubs are being organized in the more populous parts of the State, which are receiving large accessions of men who have always voted the Democratic ticket heretofore, but who remember Governor Hayes as a popular commander there during the war, and are now exhibiting their confidence in him as a patriot and his character by flocking to his support. The State ticket has not yet been selected, but N. Goff, esq., and Col. Ward H. Lamon are talked of as candidates for the gubernatorial nomination. They are both good and strong men, either of whom would bring out the whole Republican strength.

They are reaping the whirlwind down in South Carolina. Governor Chamberlain has not now the least objection to his being encouraged by the state of affairs now existing in that State when he sent the "Roundhead and Huguenot" dispatch to the New England Society of Democrats in Charleston. Such men as Martin Garchy and M. C. Butler were elated at that dispatch, in fact they have been insisting ever since that the colored people were better than barbarians. Such enemies as the Edgemoor and Hamburg massacres were unprecedented, even during the administration of Meigs; and it is evident that Scott was able always to maintain a more orderly state of affairs during the four years of his administration.

appointment of such a commission will enable the holders of the claims to raise money and pay of the laborers who did the work. These laborers are suffering for their money, and should be paid. The contractors are willing enough to pay, but are unable to do so, because they have no money to pay with.

It is to be hoped that the Senate committee, which has always shown a commendable interest in the affairs of the District, will not report this bill and urge its passage. The time to do so is short, and it would be a great outrage upon the people of the District to keep them waiting until the next session of Congress.

Another column will be found a correct history by an eye-witness of the political murders at Hamburg, S. C. Before the arrival of this statement, and from our knowledge of how the Southern agents of the late Congress have passed the time, we have no doubt that the statement is a tolerably correct history of the cowardly assassination that marred the celebration of our Centennial anniversary by the loyal colored militia of that city. But we could not and did not realize that the Hamburg affair surpassed in fiendish atrocity any of those of similar character which had preceded it. In so far as we were mistaken. But the naked facts are now presented to our readers, and they are sufficient to make the blood of all honest men run hot in their veins. We hear Democratic orators from the South and from the North, in the halls of Congress and out of them, preaching fraternity, brotherly love, good feeling on the subject of the late war. We see the declaration of the Board of Health, and it makes a man feel like living forever, rather than to forego the pleasure of a public funeral.

It is a man dead in New York of either the cholera or typhoid fever. The city will be glad to learn that by subscribing to this library card have been sent to their homes. A week without trouble or extra charge.
