CHIPS
Hewn Out of Local Material With Our Little Hatchet.
The Alexandria ferryboats did not run yesterday.
Rev. H. Denny, S. J., will commence to-day a series of conferences before the St. Aloysius Relief society.

Mr. C. G. Glover was yesterday elected secretary of the National Capital Telephone company, vice H. A. Willard.
Mr. J. W. Collins will assume charge of the Washington office of the American Rapid Telegraph company on Feb. 1.
Yesterday morning the Potomac was frozen over solidly from bank to bank, which is the first time in two years that this has occurred.

The tenth subdivision, associated charities, has secured an office room, over McCauley & Delwig's store, 209 Pennsylvania Avenue southeast; office hours 11 to 12 a. m.
The Shakespeare class of ladies and gentlemen will meet for the first time to-morrow evening, at 8 o'clock, at Mrs. Adeline Duval Mack's, 729 Thirteenth street northwest.

Snack thieves stole an overcoat, two double breasted sack coats, a ladies' ulster, and other articles from the hall of 1405 Fifth street northwest. The police have been notified.
The Capital City guards, company B, Capt. W. P. Gray commanding, will be presented with a stand of 50 new Austrian rifles this evening at No. 1115 Eleventh street at 9 o'clock by the Hon. Robert Small, M. C.

Messrs. Condon, Lenman, and Bellow, on behalf of the aid committee of the Clan-na-Gael, have issued a circular appealing to Irish Americans for aid to avert the calamity of famine, which is again impending over Ireland.
Mr. J. Q. Thompson, editor of the Sunday Chronicle, has been arrested for libel by Charles F. Rowe, an attorney, for speaking of him as "an alleged lawyer, who, according to the present report, is a liar." Mr. Thompson was released on bonds.

A satirical enthusiast states that the ice on the river affords most excellent skating. By taking the ice at Long bridge, the observatory, or Potomac house, persons can enjoy an extended field "for exercising their pedal extremities." By this he probably means skating.
Mr. James D. Donnelly, who keeps a saloon at the corner of Fourteenth and I streets northwest, was before the police court yesterday on the seventh charge of keeping an unlicensed bar, and was fined $150. An appeal was noted, which is the sixth appeal Mr. Donnelly has made.

A row in the family of John Wilson, residing at 614 D street northwest, caused considerable excitement in that locality yesterday. Wilson's son-in-law chased him up and down stairs with a pistol until the old man found out the weapon was no good, when he turned upon the young fellow and fired him out of the house.

At the recent meeting of the board of directors of the Great Falls Ice company Mr. John D. Bartlett, of this city, was selected as the superintendent of that company. This gentleman has been long and favorably known here, and his selection for this important trust proves that the company makes no mistakes in the appointment of proper persons to conduct their business, and guarantees that the public will have their wants properly attended to in this important matter the coming summer.

Real Estate.
Deeds showing the following transfers of real estate were filed for record yesterday as shown by report to J. F. Olmstead:
On D street south, between Ninth and Tenth streets west, lot 25, square 27 (front by 120 feet), Jos. C. Frazer et al., to Margaret Goodrich, $1,000.
On Twelfth street west, between G and H streets north, lot 22, square 288 (lot front by 155 feet 1 1/2 inches), Syracuse university to Edward F. Droop, $8,000.
On Fourteenth street west, between S and T streets north, sublots 209 and 210, square 296 (lot front by 110 feet), Henry Wise Garrison et al., to E. Waugh, $4,250.
On Pennsylvania Avenue, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets west, parts of lots 14 and 15, square 75 (26 feet 6 inches front by depth), Chas. Ross, Jr., to Robt. Reynolds, $2,500.
On O street north, between First and Third streets east, east part of lot 5, square 119 (lot front by 135 feet), O. H. Gilbert to Albertine S. Ody, nominal.
Same property next above described, Albertine S. Ody to Robt. D. Ruffin, $500.

On D street west, between Canal and D street south, parts of lots 1 and 14, (an undivided 1/4), Lizie Morrill to Frank H. Fall, trustee, nominal.
Mount Pleasant, part of lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11, of the subdivision, P. H. Heiler to Henry Baitz, $600.

Police Court Notes.
Richard Sanders, colored, turned up in court for the seventh time since Christmas. He got $5 or fifteen days for assaulting a white boy named Frank Nelson.
It was shown in the case of Joseph Maranelli that it costs $5 to castigate a mother in law.
George Brown was given sixty days in jail for stealing 100 pounds of iron from the Belt Line railway stables.
William F. Kuff, colored, was sent to jail for six months for breaking into the house of Daniel Dunbar and stealing some clothing.
Fred Lomax was sent to jail for sixty days for stealing a pair of shoes from his aunt.
The case of Thomas Collins, charged with tapping a water pipe without a permit, was continued.

Malinda, Taylor, colored, was sent to jail for fifteen days for stealing coal from the Baltimore and Ohio Railway company.
The Norfolk Route Still Open.
In the Washington letter to the Baltimore Sun appears a statement that the Potomac river is entirely closed to navigation. This is not true, and does injustice to the steamer Excelsior of the Potomac Steamboat company's Norfolk line, which has been running regularly since the Excelsior came up Tuesday morning, relieving at Fort Washington the New York steamer, which was ice-bound at that point; and also opened the channel for the Alexandria ferryboats, who, previous to her coming up, had been unable to make trips. The Excelsior left Tuesday night for Norfolk, and, being the only steamer now on the line, was heavily laden with freight and passengers.

For Bad Engleton's Widow.
To-morrow night the Young Women's Christian Temperance union will give a musical entertainment and social at Masonic temple for the benefit of Bud Engleton's widow. A feature of the programme will be the singing of the Glee club of the boys' high school, and after the exercises are concluded refreshments will be served by the young ladies. Last May this organization gave an entertainment which was thoroughly successful, and it is to be hoped that the attendance to-morrow night may be very large, so that the result may be a substantial benefit.

Affairs of the District.
As there is no appropriation to pay the new police officers authorized in the recent bill, the commissioners have decided that the applications will not be considered at present. The commissioners have disapproved the application for liquor license of Michael Doyle, 415 K street northwest.
A large number of applications were made at police headquarters yesterday for positions as policeman.

Marriage Licenses.
Marriage licenses have been issued to Henry Keys and Mary Anna White, West Washington; William H. Shepar and Rachael Ann Trammell, Fairfax county, Virginia; George N. Walls and Florence J. Nalley, Barney Johnson and Fanny Bell, Alfred Dorsey and Susan Ann Rich, John Richards and Retsey Sweetney, James G. Gordon and Beckie Jones, of this city.

Voice of the People.
R. V. PIERCE, M. D., BUFFALO, N. Y.—I had a serious illness of six weeks, and was for a time confined to my bed and under the care of a physician. His prescriptions did not help me. I grew worse, coughing very severely. I commenced taking your "Golden Medical Discovery," and it cured me. Yours respectfully,
JUDITH BURNETT, Hillsdale, Mich.

The elaborate floral decorations at the ball given by Mrs. Coleman last night were furnished by Mrs. Douglas, of Potomac street. The flowers were the rarest and most beautiful that could be obtained and were the subject of much admiration.
