MINOR LOCAL EVENTS. The Smaller Happenings of Day in a and About the City. Geo. W. McGilnes has petitioned for divorce from his wife, Anne McGilnes. J. G. Wilson has resigned as secretary and member of grand council, Soldier and Labor League. Dr. H. L. Boven, who fractured his leg about three months ago, is now able to attend to business. Kit Carson post of the Grand Army is arranging for a complimentary camp fire, to be held at Masonic Temple on the evening of the 22d instant. Dennis Horrigan, Nicholas Cahill, Wm. Henderson, and George Watt have been appointed additional privates of the Metropolitan police force, to do duty at the United States naval observatory. At the weekly meeting this afternoon at the national museum of the Anthropological and Biological Societies a paper will be read by Medical Director Albert L. Gilson, U. S. N., on "Sanitary Ignorance Among High and Low."

Godfrey Weiner in attempting to climb over a fence of I. Engle, a baker living at 323 Tenth street southeast, yesterday, fell and received a compound fracture of the leg. He was conveyed to Providence Hospital in the police ambulance. The investigations by the commissioners of the Woodley Lane road resulted in the discovery that this road has existed as a public highway for an indefinite period, and as such has been kept in repair at public expense, and Mr. Richardson who questioned the matter has been so informed. Mr. Austin Herr has complained to the commissioners of the condition of Grace street, from High to Potomac, and asks that it be put in a passable condition, also of the condition of Potomac street, from Grace to Water, caused by waste water from hydrant at the corner of Grace and Potomac streets.

A WORKER newspaper says that the latest sensation is a St. Louis horse that chews tobacco, but the greatest sensation is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, now used by every sensible person. Building Improvements. The following building permits were issued yesterday: Christopher Heinrich, to build four three-story and basement brick, Twentieth and M streets, to cost $17,000; H. H. Browning, to build one two-story brick in rear of 323 Missouri avenue, to cost $200; Dr. Smith, to build a brick addition in rear of 315 C street, to cost $1,000; Danenhower & Son, to build five two-story bricks in alley between G and H and Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth streets, to cost $3,000; Dorsey Towson, to improve house on Fourth and M streets, to cost $2,500; White & Rauterberg, to build two two-story and basement brick, C street, between Delaware avenue and First street northeast, to cost $2,000; Alvan Thompson, to build one two-story frame, north side of Boundary street, near W, to cost $200; William Braher, to build one two-story brick in alley between G and H and Fourth and Fifth streets northeast, to cost $200; Henry Kern, to build one two-story and basement brick, corner T twelfth and D streets northeast, to cost $2,500; George E. Mitchell, to build three two-story frames, Bladensburg road, near Boundary street, to cost $2,000.

Our facilities, too numerous to mention, give us advantage over all our competitors. Eisenman Bros., the most prominent clothiers and tailors, cor. 7th & E. Herzog's Museum. "Bip Van Winkle" and his woe concludes its week at Herzog's Museum today by three performances—morning, afternoon, and evening—and will be succeeded next week by that mad mass of rollicking fun, "Our Surprise Party," which most theater-goers remember as "Pop." In connection with pretty Kate Castleman's fascinating request, "For goodness sake, don't say I told you." This is the merriest, maddest, and most mythical mélange of fun, farce, frolic, fables, mimicry, music, and mummery ever witnessed. National vs. Buffalo to-day, 4:15.

Our Improvements! In one of the main delays of being able to show our immense stock. The past week has been a great drawback to us as we were in a great hurry to get our goods in a palatable condition, but with efforts and persistent push with our big force we will be in a better trim in the coming week to exhibit our SPECIAL GRAND BARGAINS! We promised to have some new short ends and we have them, besides a great many specialties. Come early; procure what you can; they are very low in price and splendid in quality. It is no use going to those places where they have a palatable sale of old, accumulated stock, when we always have goods that are new and fresh, and at half the regular price. SHORT ENDS: 3,000 yds. of Perakire Dress Lawns, 5 to 15 yds. in a piece, 34c. 2,500 yds. of Manchester Lace Lawns, 5 to 15 yds. in a piece, 5c. 2,200 yds. of Pacific Organadies, Handsome Designs, 64c. 1,900 yds. of White India Lawn, 6c.
