THE SMALL THINGS OF A DAY.

Minor Occurrences in and About the City Briefly Told.

Wm. McLean, of 2018 M Street, reports to the police that a $10 lab robe was stolen from in front of his house Thursday night.

Justice Haguer, in the equity cause of Robertson against Slater, contesting the will of the late John W. Slater, has decreed that it is the intention of the testator to bequeath the certain property in this District to his daughter in fee simple.

A society has been formed by the stage employees of the various Washington theatres, organized under the name of the Washington Theatrical Mechanics' Association.

Rev. Dr. Witherspoon changed his mind and did not leave Washington as reported, because he received an invitation from the Presbyterian Board of Christian Education, of which Rev. Dr. Witherspoon is pastor, and which writes: "My session will be pleased to have you in our church on Sunday at 7 o'clock for the purpose of representing the seamen."

An Aggie Prisoner Surrounded. George Dent, of South Washington, on Thursday was arrested for housebreaking. He has been wanted for several other offenses.

The Death of George A. Stoble. The coroner yesterday inquired as to a jury to investigate the cause of George A. Stoble's death.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 1.—The New Year ball of the cadets of the naval academy was generally considered second only to their annual ball, and that of last night was not an exception to the rule.

A New Committee Rooms. A new committee room is being constructed out of the ladies' retiring room in the Senate, to accommodate the committee on civil service and retirement and the fisheries committee.

Stealing Iron by the Load. Albert Davis, a young man who has served a number of years in the Albany and Auburn penitentiaries will likely again return to his former place of habitation.

SAD TALES OF WOE.

The Experience of a Philanthropic Lady Among the Poor.

Washington can boast of its benevolence as well as other cities of like size, and in truth, of many other cities of much larger growth. It numbers among its hard workers for the poor many kind-hearted ladies.

Justice Haguer, in the equity cause of Robertson against Slater, contesting the will of the late John W. Slater, has decreed that it is the intention of the testator to bequeath the certain property in this District to his daughter in fee simple.

A FAMOUS MAN.

Pasteur, like Byron, might truly say "He awoke one morning and found himself famous." His discovery of an antidote to the poison of hydrophobia will cause his name to go sounding down the ages, not only as the greatest chemist of his time, but as a benefactor of mankind, by having contributed an original thought—or fact—to their happiness.
