

THE POPE CELEBRATES HIS SEVENTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY.

Death of Cardinal Jacobini—Lord Churchill and the Irish Difficult—A Sensation in the French Chamber—The Great Hurdie Race—The Great League Meeting.

Rome, March 2.—Pope Leo XIII celebrated today by an address to the Sacred College with his seventieth birthday. The pope's health is reported to be excellent and the eighth anniversary of his coronation. (The latter anniversary is properly the 30 of March.) In the address his holiness eulogized the unity of opinion existing among the cardinals, and urged a similar concord among Catholics in general against those seeking to corrupt them, or who may stand in the way of the authority of the pope. The oppressed condition of the sea was deplored as unworthy of the head of the church and incompatible with his independence.

His holiness spoke with much severity of the attempt to connect the ecclesiastical authority with the crime of furnishing foreign armies with secret information concerning the military defenses. This was done recently in the case of a man on trial at Rome on the charge of having sold such information to a foreign power. During the trial the prosecution read what purported to be a letter from Vienna, in which the writer (whose name was not given) offered to furnish information to a general in the Austrian army, and to inspire him from the Vatican, which the letter went on to say, proposed to undertake the defense of the city of Rome, by obtaining for foreign powers secret information regarding Italy's coast defenses.

His holiness repelled this imputation with indignation, and condemned the impunity with which vulgar malignity of this kind has been able to treat the Vatican the last of the millennium.

THE IRISH NATIONAL LEAGUE. Dublin, Feb. 26.—The regular fortnightly meeting of the Irish National League was held today. Major O'Connell presided.

The receipts since the last meeting were announced to be $30,000. The receipts since that outrage were now of frequent occurrence in Ireland. If any were committed the league was not responsible for them.

THE BARRIERS OF THE MISSOURI. London, March 3.—All hopes of saving the steamer Missouri, from Boston for Liverpool, which stranded on the coast of the north of Ireland, have been abandoned. The steamer has exploded and lies broadside to the sea, and her destruction is believed to be only a question of time. The vessel was wrecked before she went over. They reached the land in safety. The cargo is washing out to sea, and the vessel is being towed to a safe anchorage where portions of it can be towed ashore.

A GREAT STORM. London, March 3.—Many vessels are detained in the harbors along the coast. Numerous wrecks are reported. The coast of the British Isles is being assailed by a terrific gale, which is blowing from the west-northwest, and is accompanied by a heavy snow. One person was killed and several were injured.

THE LUNATIC BILL PASSED—THE RICHMOND BOURBON BILL—AN ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Richmond, Va., March 2.—In the senate today the bill to amend the act to amend the directors of all the lunatic asylums on the 15th of April, 1887, was passed. This bill gives the governor the power to appoint the directors and reduce the number of directors from eleven to nine for each asylum. This step is in honor, as the last assembly took the power of appointment from the governor and gave it to the board of public works. This bill also saves the drunken men of the present boards from removal, unless the governor acts for himself and the state regardless of the assembly, which is a very important provision. A bill requiring the auditor to do his duty, which some senators said had not been done in the case of the late auditor, was also passed. Most of the day in the senate was spent in considering the appropriation bill as returned from the house. Many of the amendments proposed to it and the bill was sent back to the house.

THE RICHMOND BOURBON BILL. The house refused to order the engrossment of the Richmond Bourbon Bill into the city of Richmond.

This bill is a substitute for the Knights of Labor bill, and is a very important one. It is a bill to amend the act to amend the directors of all the lunatic asylums on the 15th of April, 1887, and to amend the act to amend the directors of all the lunatic asylums on the 15th of April, 1887, and to amend the act to amend the directors of all the lunatic asylums on the 15th of April, 1887.

AN ELECTION OF OFFICERS. A meeting of the stockholders of the Richmond, Petersburg and Manassas Railroad Company was held today, and officers were elected.

METROPOLITAN NOTES.

WHY HEDDEN WILL PROBABLY BE CONFIRMED.

Judge Gildersleeve's Charge to the Grand Jury About the Broadway Railroad Matter—The Balance of Trade Adverse—Mr. Whitney's Present Anxiety.

NEW YORK, March 3.—Senator Warner Miller, who is at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, today said in regard to Collector Hedden's confirmation that he only knew it had been reported favorably by the committee. "Collector Hedden was appointed to fill a vacancy, and not through a suspension or removal. Mr. Robertson's term had expired, and Mr. Hedden is a merchant, and not a politician, so that doubtless he did not know what the senate will do, and if I did I would not divulge it. President Cleveland is endeavoring to assume executive proceedings by directing to Congress, and will find it difficult, I think, to bring everything around to his peculiar views."

A JUST JUDGE'S CHARGE. Judge Gildersleeve charged the March grand jury today in general session, and gave them a very interesting and instructive address. He said that he was very glad to see the grand jury so well represented, and that he was very glad to see the grand jury so well represented, and that he was very glad to see the grand jury so well represented.
