

THE GRANT MEMORIAL.

CELEBRATION OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH.

A Great Demonstration at Pittsburg—Addressed by Senator Sherman and Others—A Patriotic Remembrance of Conkling at New York.

Pittsburg, Pa., Apr. 27.—The second annual dinner of the American Club of this city, in commemoration of the birthday of Gen. Grant, was given this evening at the Monongahela House, covered by 1400 persons.

As the guests marched into the room to the music of the orchestra, Gov. Harrison, Senator Sherman, Benjamin Blount, of Indiana; Hon. J. P. Foster, New York; Hon. John C. New, Col. Fred. Grant, Hon. Richard Smith, of Cincinnati, and others were escorted to seats at the table in the center of the spacious rooms.

After dinner, which was one of the most elaborate ever given here, the orchestra gave "Marching Through Georgia," the company joining in the chorus. Hon. John D. Smith, of the United States, then extended a cordial welcome to the distinguished guests present.

Gov. William M. Everts sent a letter of response to the toast "U. S. Grant," Senator Sherman said:

I deem it an honor to be called upon by your patriotic and noble countrymen to address you in commemoration of the birthday of this great American citizen, the illustrious soldier, patriot, statesman, and general.

As to the civil life of Gen. Grant, few are acquainted with the general's life after the close of his military career. It is not to be supposed that he was idle and unoccupied.

Gov. James A. Beaver, who spoke at the anniversary of Gen. Grant's birthday, said that the general was a man of great energy and a man of great courage.

Gov. Foster, of New York, president of the Republican League of the United States, said that the general was a man of great energy and a man of great courage.

One of the most touching incidents of the dinner was a vacant chair intended for the late Senator Conkling, which was occupied with a wreath of laurels.

Canada Will Not Compete for the Cup.—St. John's, N. B., Apr. 27.—Owing to a lack of enthusiasm among Canadian gentlemen the scheme to build a yacht to compete for the American cup is likely to fall through.

GREAT MEN HONOR HIM.

Fitting Celebration of Gen. Grant's Birthday by the Republican League.

The thirty-sixth anniversary of the birth of that great and universally respected chief, Gen. Ulysses Simpson Grant, was marked in a most appropriate and fitting manner by exercises of a memorial character at the sumptuous home of the Republican National League.

The exercises were formally opened with an address by Gen. Beale, as follows: Gentlemen and ladies: I have traveled 3660 miles in order that I might be here to be anything on the occasion that calls us all together.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

IT WAS FAVORITES' DAY.

The Bourbon Varies the Motions at Ivy City.

An Increased Attendance at the Second Day's Races—Nearly a Quorum of the Senate Present—Senator Beck's Warnings and What He Did With Them.

—Geo. M. BEECHER, JR., FRANK HOLMES, and J. C. SHERMAN, JR. The Senate may not have adjourned from Thursday until Monday to give its members an opportunity to attend the Jockey Club races at Ivy City.

The only horse thought of in the second race was Sir Dixon. He was considered a dead sure "winch," and such was the case, as Morris' colt had quite an easy time of defeating his antagonists.

The field of starters in the fourth race was comparatively small, only five horses facing the flag, but these five put up a race without any of the usual incidents.

Handsome Joe Hawley, of Connecticut, accompanied by his charming wife, was also present at the races.

There was a fair delegation from the House of Representatives. A Congressman from the State of Maryland, who had been elected to the House, was present.

The grand stand looked like one immense bouquet of brilliant and luxurious flowers, and the air was filled with the fragrance of the flowers.

The Jockey Club is reaping a rich reward for its liberality. The absence of all objectionable features found at other tracks, and the fact that the races are conducted for the comfort and pleasure of their patrons.

The only surprise of the day was in the second race, which the Bourbon ran in a winner against Panama, Richmond, and Le Logas.

Details of the Races.—The first race was won by Sir Dixon, and the second by the Bourbon. The third race was won by the Bourbon, and the fourth by the Bourbon.

Only five horses started in the second race of the day, but those five caused quite a lively competition in the betting ring.

THIRD SCALP FOR BOSTON.

WASHINGTON UNABLE TO BREAK THE BEAN-EATERS' LUCK.

Pretty Exhibition of Fielding, But Weakness With the Strict-Effective Work by the Pitchers—Good Ball Playing, But Few Victories.

Another Senatorial scalp is hanging at the left of John Morrill, and his army men are claiming the peanut with more confidence than ever, and all they have to do about it is to keep right on trotting at their present clip.

The Boston gave Fenwick a day and Clarkson were pitted against each other, and each made a good fight.

The Senators started out with an unearned run in the first inning. Daily drove a hot ball to Wiley, who failed to hold it.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

BISCOE IS HANGED.

The Murderer of Capt. Dixon Pays the Penalty.

Leonard, Md., Apr. 27.—John B. Biscoe, colored, was executed here today for the murder of Capt. R. P. Dixon on the Potomac river at the close of August, 1885.

The murderer of John Biscoe was twice convicted, after two trials, was committed on the Potomac river near the mouth of Madochee creek, Aug. 29, 1885.

The field of starters in the fourth race was comparatively small, only five horses facing the flag, but these five put up a race without any of the usual incidents.

Handsome Joe Hawley, of Connecticut, accompanied by his charming wife, was also present at the races.

There was a fair delegation from the House of Representatives. A Congressman from the State of Maryland, who had been elected to the House, was present.

The grand stand looked like one immense bouquet of brilliant and luxurious flowers, and the air was filled with the fragrance of the flowers.

The Jockey Club is reaping a rich reward for its liberality. The absence of all objectionable features found at other tracks, and the fact that the races are conducted for the comfort and pleasure of their patrons.

The only surprise of the day was in the second race, which the Bourbon ran in a winner against Panama, Richmond, and Le Logas.

Details of the Races.—The first race was won by Sir Dixon, and the second by the Bourbon. The third race was won by the Bourbon, and the fourth by the Bourbon.

Only five horses started in the second race of the day, but those five caused quite a lively competition in the betting ring.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

Washington, D. C., Apr. 27.—The Senators' victory over the Boston Braves was a decisive one, and the Senators' pitching was excellent.

EMPEROR FRIEDRICH'S FEVER HAS DISAPPEARED.

He Feels Much Stronger and His General Condition Much Better—Dr. Mackenzie Defends His Treatment of the Emperor.

BERLIN, Apr. 27.—A bulletin issued this morning says the emperor had a good sleep at night, and feels much stronger this morning. He was feverish last evening, but early this morning the fever had disappeared. His general condition is slowly improving.

Prince Bismarck has an hour's interview today with the emperor. The Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Baden, and Prince Alexander of Prussia, afterward paid a visit to the emperor.

Dr. Mackenzie, in a letter to Dr. Michaels, of Hamburg, defends his treatment of the emperor's case, and says that, having observed the result of the relatively simple operation of trepanning, he is convinced that the emperor would have succumbed to any radical operation on his brain.

The North German Gazette refers to the hearty reception accorded German Victoria Berlin and her suite. The queen's visit to the emperor is considered a highly favorable omen for the emperor's recovery.

THE QUEEN AT HOME. Her Return to England After Her Continental Tour. London, Apr. 27.—Queen Victoria arrived at Funching at 8 o'clock this morning, and embarked on a royal yacht for England. She arrived at Sheerness this afternoon and proceeded to Windsor, where she arrived this evening.

The Nationalists have determined to continue the plan of campaign in spite of the paper's decision. It is asserted that the movement will not suffer much from the necessary defection of the priests, who will undoubtedly continue to sympathize with the people, and that the vacancies can easily be filled with laymen.

THE PANAMA LOTTERY. The Subject of the Loan Debated in the French Chambers. Paris, Apr. 27.—The debate on the Panama canal lottery loan was resumed in the chamber of deputies to-day.

BOULANGER'S MANOEUVRE. He Would Like to Abolish the French Presidency. Paris, April 27.—Gen. Boulanger gave his political banquet at the Cafe Riche this evening. At 11 o'clock there were 4,000 persons outside the cafe.

When ex-senator George Conkling lay stricken with disease and death was hourly expected the Republican National League sent a message of regret and expressed the hope that he might be able to attend the annual meeting of the league.

Building Permits. The following building permits were granted by the city of Washington to-day:

Illness of Judge Cooley. Judge Cooley, chairman of the Interstate Commerce commission, is confined to his bed by a severe cold, with symptoms of pneumonia.

Navy Contracts Awarded. The Secretary of the Navy has awarded to the Pneumatic Tube Carriage and Power Company, of New York, a contract for the construction of a pneumatic tube system for working the turrets and guns.

THE GRANT MEMORIAL.

CELEBRATION OF THE ANNIVERSARY OF HIS BIRTH.

A Great Demonstration at Pittsburg—Addressed by Senator Sherman and Others—A Patriotic Remembrance of Conkling at New York.

Pittsburg, Pa., Apr. 27.—The second annual dinner of the American Club of this city, in commemoration of the birthday of Gen. Grant, was given this evening at the Monongahela House, covered by 1400 persons.

As the guests marched into the room to the music of the orchestra, Gov. Harrison, Senator Sherman, Benjamin Blount, of Indiana; Hon. J. P. Foster, New York; Hon. John C. New, Col. Fred. Grant, Hon. Richard Smith, of Cincinnati, and others were escorted to seats at the table in the center of the spacious rooms.

After dinner, which was one of the most elaborate ever given here, the orchestra gave "Marching Through Georgia," the company joining in the chorus. Hon. John D. Smith, of the United States, then extended a cordial welcome to the distinguished guests present.

Gov. William M. Everts sent a letter of response to the toast "U. S. Grant," Senator Sherman said:

I deem it an honor to be called upon by your patriotic and noble countrymen to address you in commemoration of the birthday of this great American citizen, the illustrious soldier, patriot, statesman, and general.

As to the civil life of Gen. Grant, few are acquainted with the general's life after the close of his military career. It is not to be supposed that he was idle and unoccupied.

Gov. James A. Beaver, who spoke at the anniversary of Gen. Grant's birthday, said that the general was a man of great energy and a man of great courage.

Gov. Foster, of New York, president of the Republican League of the United States, said that the general was a man of great energy and a man of great courage.

One of the most touching incidents of the dinner was a vacant chair intended for the late Senator Conkling, which was occupied with a wreath of laurels.

Canada Will Not Compete for the Cup.—St. John's, N. B., Apr. 27.—Owing to a lack of enthusiasm among Canadian gentlemen the scheme to build a yacht to compete for the American cup is likely to fall through.

GREAT MEN HONOR HIM.

Fitting Celebration of Gen. Grant's Birthday by the Republican League.

The thirty-sixth anniversary of the birth of that great and universally respected chief, Gen. Ulysses Simpson Grant, was marked in a most appropriate and fitting manner by exercises of a memorial character at the sumptuous home of the Republican National League.

The exercises were formally opened with an address by Gen. Beale, as follows: Gentlemen and ladies: I have traveled 3660 miles in order that I might be here to be anything on the occasion that calls us all together.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.

Gen. S. Burdett was introduced by President Beale as the first speaker of the day. He spoke of the general's life and his services to the country.