LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Next Tuesday will be election day. Those who like a milder weather should feel gratified at what was furnished within the past week.

The Supreme Court has declared that a Constitutional Convention cannot be held in Philadelphia until the election in Philadelphia will be held under the old law.

On last Thursday John Kern, an aged citizen of Patterson, while passing through his yard, missed his footing, which caused the breaking or rupturing of an internal blood vessel, from which he died to death in an hour.

Some days ago a boy attending school at Fair View, Layton township, carried a loaded pistol with him into the school room. While handling it there it was discharged. The contents of the concern passed under the heads of two children that sat in front.

A railroad meeting, under the auspices of the President of the proposed road from this place to the Susquehanna river, was held in the Court House one evening during court week. The President of the road made a speech in explanation of the cost &c. of the road.

A large meeting was held in Horticultural Hall, Philadelphia, last Monday evening, in the interest of the new Constitution. Addresses were delivered by ex-Governor Curtin, ex-Chief Justice Thompson, Hon. J. M. Brownell, Gov. W. Biddle, Esq., Col. John W. Forney, Hon. Richard Vaux, and Hon. A. K. McClure.

The Rev. S. W. Seibert, who was appointed missionary along the Juniata river last spring, by the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical Association, is at present holding a series of meetings in the School House in Patterson. The altar is nightly crowded with penitents, and up to this writing upwards of twenty persons, according to their profession, have found peace by believing in Jesus.

REPORT OF EAST SALEM SCHOOL.—Whole No. of pupils during month, 54. Average attendance, 46. Per cent. of attendance, 85.

Calvin Smith, George Harner, John Hart, John H. Oliver, James Shaffer, Wm. F. Oliver, Joseph K. Oliver, David Kurzer, Wm. J. Auman, Rietor H. Auman, Wm. Kinzer, Mary E. Harley, Ida G. Shielley, Catharine Brandtboffer, Lydia A. Fulton, Sarah B. Pifer, Ida E. Kinzer and Emma J. Shielley were present every day.

HENRY S. BASOM, Teacher.

One of the most destructive conflagrations that has ever visited New Bloomfield, the county-seat of Perry county, occurred on Friday night last, destroying property to the amount of about twenty thousand dollars. The flames were first discovered issuing from the stable attached to Grier's Hotel, on Carlisle street, shortly after eight o'clock.

From the Jersey Shore Herald. Collegiate Institute of Jersey Shore, Pa. J. P. SHERMAN, Principal.

This school, formerly called the West Branch High School, now under the efficient and successful management of J. P. Sherman, Esq., is doing a good work for the cause of education, and offers fine facilities for the youths of both sexes to secure a thorough training in all that constitutes a sound and useful education. Mr. Sherman has only recently taken hold of this school, and proves himself to be a man every way worthy of the position he occupies. The school is rapidly growing into favor, and we predict a very successful career for it under its present capable management.

The worthy principal is maturing his arrangements to accommodate a large number of pupils in the boarding department, after the holidays, and we know of no school that can be more confidently recommended to parents and guardians for the safe and useful education of their children and wards than this institution. The buildings are large and convenient, the locality is healthy, pleasant and free from all demoralizing influences; the town of Jersey Shore is a model of neatness and thriftiness, its religious advantages are of the highest order and Local Opinion is enforced with success. We call the attention of the public to the advantages offered by this school for the education of boys and girls, and endorse it with our unqualified recommendation.

Reported by Wm. M. Allison.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.—Court convened on Monday morning, the 1st inst. at 10 o'clock A. M. Hon. B. F. Junken, President Judge, and his Associates, Judge Koons and Weiser, presiding. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, but few of the jurors and witnesses were in attendance, hence the Court concluded not to call over the roll of jurors and constables, until the afternoon session of court. After transacting some miscellaneous business in the several courts, the court adjourned about 11:15 A. M. till 1:30 P. M.

On re-assembling, His Honor, Judge Junken, charged the Grand Jury, after which the roll of constables was called, and their several returns received under oath. James Knox, of Tuscarora township, was selected to attend the Grand Jury, and J. W. Berkeley, of Turbett, and Samuel Bell, of F. ruanagh, to act as tipstaves. Some miscellaneous business in the Orphans' Court was attended to, during which proceedings, on Mr. Alexander representing to the Court that he was concerned singly-handed on the third suit on the last, viz: George W. Gorton vs. Samuel Hoffman, for the defendant, and having experienced a severe fall a few days previously, seriously injuring his side and causing him great pain, he would be unable to try the case. The case was continued till next term at the costs of his client.

COMMON PLEAS.—The trial list was then called over to ascertain what was for trial. On calling State Bank vs. Neal McCoy, judgment by consent was entered in favor of plaintiff for $271.12. This case was one that was tried here three years ago. It grew out of a patent right transaction. About four years ago a patent right swindler visited this county with a patent hay fork, seeking, like Satan, "somebody to devour." Chance thredefiant in his way. The agent saw his failing, ministered to it, and when he had got Neal perfectly oblivious, sold him the right for $250, taking a promissory note for the same. The note was sold to the State Bank, and was protested when due. Neal refused to pay it. Suit was brought on it, tried, and verdict returned for defendant, the only defence to the note being drunkenness of the promisor. It was taken to the Supreme Court and reversed, that august tribunal laying it down as a fixed principle of law respecting, that drunkenness does not avoid responsibility. Hence the result in the case now.

In the case of John Thompson vs. David Smith, the plaintiff took a nonsuit. The case of Jonathan Burns vs. Elias Snyder, was continued by consent. In the case of Jesse Reed, Adm'r of Susan Graham vs. Samuel T. Dimm, by consent judgment was entered in favor of plaintiff for $9.60. In the case of Wm. Given, Assignee of C. J. Chamberlin, vs. Wilber F. Mohan, by consent judgment for plaintiff for $94.28. George M. Graham vs. Overseers of Poor of Turbett township. The history of this case is as follows: In January, 1872, Joseph Tousey, of Turbett township, was attacked by small pox. One of the overseers, John McLaughlin, employed Dr. G. to attend the case. He did so, paying Tousey some eight visits, being compelled at each visit to wash and change his clothes in an open stable, with the thermometer away from zero. He presented a bill for the same, of $150. The present overseers refused to pay it, deeming it exorbitant. He had already been paid $50. He sued for the balance. Some five doctors swore the bill was reasonable, and two swore it was exorbitant; five swore that small pox was highly dangerous, and two that it was not so much so as scarletina or measles. "When Doctors disagree who shall decide?" The jury did in favor of the majority, by rendering a verdict for plaintiff for $90.

John Wilson vs. Michael Barr. Action—Slender. This case ought never to have been brought into court. It was a disgrace to all parties concerned, and resulted disastrously to both the reputation and pocket of the poor plaintiff. We forbear giving any history of this case, as to do so would involve the publication of details most filthy and disgusting. Verdict for defendant. A motion for a new trial was made. B. F. Crouse vs. John McManigal, Replevin for a horse. B. F. Crouse owned a horse running in the stage line from Perryville to Concord. In January last he sold the line, reserving the horse. He took the horse to defendant's hotel, in Perryville. When he demanded the horse defendant refused to deliver him up unless plaintiff paid bills charged against him amounting to some $60. Plaintiff refused, alleging he did not owe that much. Defendant retained the horse and converted him to his own use. Piff. replevied, but deft. gave bond and kept property. On trial piff fully proved ownership. On trial piff fully proved ownership, when deft set up plea of "lien." The Court decided that under deft's plea of "property" generally, this plea could not be allowed. Piff then moved to amend his plea. Deft then alleged surprise, and the case went over to the next term at cost of piff.

John Shineloff vs. Eckick Campbell. Action in Assumpsit. The plaintiff's claim was founded on a book account, got up in his usual methodical manner. Deft pleaded payment. Captain Jack took the stand and swore to every item in his book like a hero, and then rested his case. Deft called Justice Wood-

Iron in the Blood.

PERUVIAN SYRUP. MAKES THE WEAK STRONG. The Peruvian Syrup, a Proved and Solvent of the Protocid of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, is easily digested and assimilated with the blood, and is the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the Blood, and cures of thousands of cases, simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and searching out morbid accumulations, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this medicine in curing Dyspepsia, Live Complain, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhea, Bolls, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Rheumatism, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, and accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Bring free from Alcohol, in any form, and energetic effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men, and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP written in the glass. Pamphlets Free.
