ish.

In our issue of the 27th of February we stated that Mr. H. D.
Vaughan had been to the city, secured a boat, and when he got back as far as Trenton, had "sold out from stem to stern," to Capt. Cryer. When making this statement we were entirely confident of its correctness, although we had not conversed with Mr. Vaughan at all upon the subject. As the following card will show, we were misinformed, and all we said about Mr.
Vaughan was wholly incorrect. We cheerfully publish the card, and in this connection will state to the friends of our esteemed townsman that we never intended to place him in the light of one who had been "bought off" the bayou. Our impression was that Mr. Vaughan had bought and sold a boat, on which he made big money, and our impression is yet that we would have done the same thing. Mr.
Vaughan was deceived by the men with whom he contracted. Read this card:

This is to certify that we did agree with H. D. Vaughan to let him run the Ollie B. up Bayou Bartholomew, but when we got to Trenton circumstances were such that we thought it best for us to go up Bayou DrBone. Therefore it was not his fault, but ours.

T. C. BUTLER,
Manager for owners.

Mr. M. Levy showed us last Tuesday the designs of two handsome brick buildings, which he will have erected on his lots North of the Court House. The one on the corner is to be 75 feet deep with a 35 feet front. On top of the storeroom will be a large hall 75x35, intended for a public town hall.
The other building will be erected on the lot lately occupied by "Sam's house." Both designs shown us by Mr. Levy display exquisite taste, and will be a decided ornament to our little city.

At the Court House Tuesday night the Bastrop Literary Society debated the profoundly interesting question, "Which exerts the greater influence over man, woman or money?" The subject was handled with marked ability. Mr. Leon Sugar, on the negative, made a zealous and a highly instructive speech, which "knocked the black out" of everything that could be produced by the affirmative. Mr.
Sugar is a very well-informed youth and we predict for him a brilliant and a successful career.

Read the protest of the Clara S., and see how near we came "getting our foot into it." If we told the truth, we are sorry for it; and if we were misinformed, we feel the same way. Indeed, we are wrapped up in a thick blanket of sorrow.
We told what was told us. It is in order now for the Clara S. to tell how that accident did happen. We stand severely corrected.

ATTENTION LADIES!—Read Miss

A CARD.

Editor Morehouse Clarion:
In your issue of March 5th there appeared an article concerning the last trip of the steamer "Clara S." bound from New Orleans to Lind Grove, in which you give a partial list of the passengers, also a mention of the accident that occurred to said steamer while coming up through Black River. You say that through "carelessness" she struck a tree, thus jeopardizing the lives of passengers and considerably damaging her cabin.

We beg leave to give you a full list of the passengers on board at time of accident:

A. M. Morris, Bray's Gin; J.
Henagan, Lind Grove; D. W.
Douglass, T. A. Brodnax; J. R.
Brodnax, Rev. J. M. McKee, Point Pleasant; R. H. Ward and lady, Ward's Landing; J. D. Howell and family, Pt. Pleasant; S. S.
Eham, Mrs. Ogden and family, Troy, Black River; Henry Eham, Red Bluff; Hope Whetstone, his landing.

We also desire to set you aright in your belief that the accident occurred through "carelessness," believing that you would not willfully place your paper in a position where it is liable to action.

Your reporter or informant, whoever he or they may be, stated what is an utter falsehood, when he informed you that the accident occurred through "carelessness," and we can prove so to your entire satisfaction. For enlightenment upon the subject you may apply to the undersigned or to such of the passengers as you may see fit.

We beg leave to make a suggestion that when you publish anything in your columns that has a tendency to injure a boat's good reputation, which she has justly earned, or that of the officers, be very careful that your information is correct.

Very Respectfully,
Wm. Wenzel, Master,
J. W. Harbough, Mate,
Mike Fisher & Tom Keeling, Pilots, Jas. Water & H. Abbe, Engineers, Licensed officers of Str. Clara S.

The Monroe Bar met in that city last Saturday and passed a set of resolutions deploring the death and eulogizing the life of our late highly esteemed fellow-citizen, Judge S.
G. Parsons. Such an act upon the part of the Monroe Bar is certainly a powerful reminder to the members of our Bar that they should not forget that an able member of the legal fraternity has been taken away forever.

The side-walks of this town are certainly in a condition that is calculated to extort cuss words from the strictest churchman. How can you walk our streets at night and refrain from using bad talk. We find it utterly out of the question in our own case.

Dr. TUTT'S Expectorant!

IN 25CTS. AND $1 BOTTLES.
Its properties are Demulcent, Nutritive Balsamic, Soothing and Healing.
Combining all these qualities, it is the most effective LUNG BALSAM ever offered to sufferers from pulmonary disease.

DR. J. F. HAYWOOD,
of New York, voluntarily indorses it.

—READ WHAT HE SAYS—
Dr. TUTT: New York, Sept. 19, 1877.
Dear Sir:—During this year I visited nine hundred cases of lung disease. In the lower wards of the city the cases were of a very severe type. I was there my attention was called to Tut's Expectorant, and I confess my surprise at its wonderful power.
During a practice of twenty years, I have never known a medicine to act so promptly and with such happy effects. It instantly subdued the most violent fits of coughing, and liberally cured the disease in a few days. I cheerfully indorse it as the best lung medicine I ever used.

A NEWSPAPER PUB. WRITES.
Office, Evening News, Augusta, Ga.
Dr. TUTT: Dear Sir—My little son, was attacked with pneumonia last winter, which left him with a violent cough, that lasted him weeks, and he for the cure of which I am indebted to your valuable Expectorant. I had tried most every thing recommended, but none did any good until I used your Expectorant, one bottle of which removed the cough entirely. With many thanks, I am yours truly, J. FRANCIS HAYWOOD, M. D.

Had terrible NIGHT SWEATS.
Memphis, Feb. 11, 1877.
Dr. TUTT: Sir—I have been suffering for nearly two years with a severe cough. When I commenced taking your Expectorant I was reduced to one hundred and sixteen pounds in weight. I had tried almost everything, had terrible night sweats. I have taken two bottles. The night sweats have left me, the cough has disappeared, and I have gained fifteen pounds in flesh. I recommend it to all my friends.
With great respect, OLIVER RICE.

IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.
Reader, have you caught a cold? Are you unable to raise the phlegm? Have you an irritation in the throat? A sense of oppression on the lungs, with short breath? Do you have a fit of coughing on lying down? A sharp pain now and then in the region of the heart, shoulders and back? If so, our Advice is take at once a dose of Tut's Expectorant; you will soon be able to raise the phlegm. In an hour repeat the Expectorant, place a hot iron to the feet, take two of Tut's Pills. You will soon fall into a pleasant sleep and wake up in the morning, cough gone, lungs working freely; easy breathing, and the bowels moving in a natural manner.
To prevent a return of these symptoms use the Expectorant several days.
