Plantation for Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale a Plantation situated on Bayou Vermillion, containing about 500 superficial arpents, nearly 200 of which are under a good state of cultivation. The plantation is well timbered, a portion of it with cypress, but the most of it with the best of sugar wood. There is an abundance of prairie land in the rear of it which can be purchased low. It is so situated that an extensive stock of cattle can be raised with much ease. The plantation has on it a good horse-power sugar mill, a furnace with 4 kettles, a sugar house in good condition, the negro cabins, out-buildings and fence are in excellent order. About 150 hds. of sugar will be made on the place this season. The dwelling-house is convenient and comfortable. Any person wishing to purchase a plantation suitable to work 25 or 30 hands, would do well to inquire in relation to this place before they purchase elsewhere. The subscriber is positive that few plantations in the country offer such inducements to purchasers as this does. An accurate description of premises and terms can be obtained by applying to D. Denneff at the office of the Planters' Banner. JOSEPH SLATER. Oct. 5, 1848.

REPLICATION OF

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals, BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical—Blackwood and the London Quarterly are Tory; the Edinburgh Review and Whig are Tory; the Westminster Review Radical. The North British Review is more of a religious character, having been originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, being conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order.

Consist of back volumes of the following valuable works, viz:

Bentley's Miscellany. The Metropolitan Magazine. The Dublin University Magazine. Blackwood's Magazine. The London, the Edinburgh, the Foreign Quarterly, and the Westminster Review.

Any one subscribing to Blackwood, or to one of the Reviews, at $3 a year, or to any two of the Periodicals at $5 will receive, gratis, one volume of any of the premiums above named.

A subscriber to any three of the Periodicals at $7 a year, or to the four Reviews at $8, will receive two premium volumes as above.

A subscriber to Blackwood and three Reviews, at $9 a year, or to the four Reviews and Blackwood, at $10, will receive three premium volumes.

Please be particular in naming the premiums desired and the works subscribed for. CLUBBING.

Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three—the fourth copy being gratis.

No premiums will be given where the above allowance is made to clubs, nor will premiums in any case be furnished, unless the subscription is paid in full to the publishers, with recourse to an agent.

EARLY COPIES.

A late arrangement with the British publishers of Blackwood's Magazine secures to us early sheets of that work, by which we shall be able to place the entire number in the hands of subscribers before any portion of it can be reprinted in any of the American Journals. For this and other advantages secured to our subscribers, we pay so large a consideration, that we may be compelled to raise the price of the Magazine. Therefore we repeat 'subscribe early while the price is low.'

Remittances and communications should be always addressed, post paid or franked to the publishers.
