Who was the Gentleman?

An exchange furnishes the following illustrations to this question: "Please, sir, do not push so."

It was in endeavoring to penetrate the dense crowd, that nearly filled the entrance and blocked up the doorway after one of our popular lectures, that this exclamation met my attention.

It proceeded from a little girl of not more than ten years, who, hemmed up by the wall on one side, and the crowd on the other, was vainly endeavoring to extricate herself.

The person addressed paid no attention to the entreaties of the little one, but pushed on towards the door.

"Look here, sir," exclaimed a man whose coarse apparel, sturdy frame and toil-embrowned hands contrasted strongly with the delicately gloved fingers, curling locks and expensive broadcloth of the former.

"Can't help that," gruffly replied the individual thus addressed; "I look to number one."

"You take care of number one, do you? Well, that's all fair; so do I," replied the honest countryman; and with these words he took the little girl in his arms, and placing his broad shoulders against the slight form of the other, he pushed him through the crowd, down the steps, landing him with rather more haste than dignity in the street below.

The young gentleman picked himself up, but rather intimidated by the stout fist of the stranger, and abashed by the laughter of the crowd, concluded it was "about time for him to go home."

In polite society, the former would be courted and admired, and the latter overlooked and despised, but "who was the gentleman?"

Here is the next one—equally appropriate: On a raw, blustering day, a few days since, a girl, with a small basket on her arm, entered one of our stores.

After making a few purchases she turned to leave. Two gentlemen stood up in the doorway, whose appearance indicated that they thought themselves "considerably" if not more; whose soft, sleek coats and delicate hands were apparently of the same quality as their brains.

As they made not the slightest movement as she approached, the young girl hesitated a moment, but seeing no other way, she politely requested them to stand aside. They lazily moved a few inches, allowing her barely room to pass; giving her, as she did so, a broad stare, that brought the color to her cheeks and the fire in her eye.

In stepping upon the icy pavement, her foot slipped, and in endeavoring to save herself, her basket fell and the wind scattered its contents in every direction.

At this the two gentlemen burst into a loud laugh, and seemed to consider it vastly amusing.

Arithmetical Paradox.

Two Arabians sat down to dinner; one had five loaves, the other three. A stranger passing by desired permission to eat with them, which they agreed to. The stranger dined, laid down eight pieces of money, and departed.

The cause came off before Ali, the magistrate, who gave the following judgment: "Let the owner of the five loaves have seven pieces of the money, and the owner of the three loaves one." Query—the justice of the sentences? Answer. Ali's sentence was just; for supposing each loaf divided into three equal parts, making twenty-four parts in all the eight loaves, and each person to eat an equal or one-third part of the whole: Therefore the stranger had seven parts of the person who contributed five loaves or fifteen parts, and only one of him who contributed three loaves, which makes nine parts.

Decidedly Cool.—The St. Louis Republican has the following: A young member of the bar of this city, not long since, while riding on horseback, lost, in the street, a pocket book containing $200, and several notes which had been left with him for collection.

He advertised his loss in the Republican of the next day, and offered a reward for the return of the money and notes. Day before yesterday, he received the following letter through the post office. The author disguised his handwriting by imitating printing:

Dear Sir—I was fortunate enough to be the finder of your wallet, and assure you that the "needful" it contained, was quite a god-send to me, as my pocket had been in some time since. Like my friend Micawber, I had long indulged in the hope that "something would turn up, and you can imagine my feelings when, as my eye lit on your wallet, I cried—"Eureka!"

You doubtless think I ought to disgorge—but I regard this as a true case of "fatum tetum et ligum," (as you lawyers call it), which being interpreted, means, I believe, that the finder, "ex officio" (isn't that the term,) acquires a property in it.

The papers not being convertible into cash, in their present shape, I send them to you for their proper endowment, with the remark that if you want them collected, all you have to do is to send them to me in proper order.

Yours affectionately, BUMBLE BEE. P. S. If I ever get a sufficiency of the "root of all evil" on hand, I shall feel under obligation to liquidate.

ZINC WHITE PAINT.—A substitute for White Lead.—This article possesses many advantages over the latter: It is not poisonous. Sleeping apartments recently painted may be occupied with impunity, and painters using this paint are not subject to the distressing maladies arising from the use of lead.

It is heavy and durable. Zinc, on inside work, becomes much harder than any other paint and is not easily soiled; is whiter than pure white lead, and, as it retains its whiteness and brilliancy unaffected by bilge water, coal, or sulphurous gases, it is unrivalled as a paint for ships and steamboats. For outside use, exposed to weather or water, Zinc Paints will retain their color and preserving qualities long after other paints are destroyed.

See here, Mr. Editor, I don't like that article on—the first bit.—It won't do. Its sentiments are wrong; they won't suit this community—they are nonsensical, and—

Don't interrupt me. I am astonished that you should entertain such views. They please the herd—but the intelligent, the—

Don't wish to interrupt, Mr. Snooks—but are you a subscriber for the No.—Not—not—not exactly—but I am in the habit of reading it.

PATENT MEDICINE

BROWN'S Essence of Jamaica Ginger, Prepared and Sold at FREDK BROWN'S Drug and Chemical Store, N. E. corner of Chestnut and Fifth Streets, Philadelphia.

THIS Essence is warranted to possess, in a concentrated form, all the valuable properties of Jamaica Ginger, and will be found on trial an excellent family medicine. It is particularly recommended as a tonic to persons recovering from fever or other diseases, a few drops imparting to the stomach a glow and vigor equal to without any of the debilitating effects which are usually to be followed by the use of liquor of any kind, and it is therefore especially serviceable to children and females. To the aged it will prove a great comfort; to the dyspeptic, and to those who are predisposed to gout or rheumatic affections, it gives great relief; and to the inebriate who desires to reform, but whose stomach is constantly craving the noxious liquor, it is invaluable, giving tone to the digestive organs and strength to resist temptation, and is consequently a great agent in the cause of temperance.

For a grown person, one tea-spoonful; for a child ten or twelve years old, half a tea-spoonful; and for a child from two to five years old, from fifteen to twenty drops—to be given in sugar and water. For sale in Franklin by DR. C. RABE.

To the Afflicted!! LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, JAUNDICE, CHRONIC OBSTRUCTION OF THE BILE, DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS, AND ALL THOSE ARISING FROM A DISORDERED LIVER OR STOMACH, such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Horrid and Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Debility of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Back, Chest, Side, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginations of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits, CAN BE EFFECTUALLY CURED BY DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, No. 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Their power over the above diseases is not exceeded, if equalled, by any other preparation in the United States, as the cures attained, in many cases after skillful physicians had failed. These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possessing great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and lesser glands, exercising the most searching powers in weakness and affections of the digestive organs, they are, withal, safe, certain and pleasant.

Read and be Convinced! The Philadelphia Saturday Gazette says of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters: "It is seldom that we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines to the confidence and patronage of our readers, and therefore when we recommend Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, we wish it to be distinctly understood that we are not speaking of the nostrums of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgotten, after they have done their guilty race of mischief, but of a medicine long established, universally prized, and which has met the hearty approval of the faculty itself." Scott's Weekly of the 25th August, says: "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most prominent members of the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effect they have upon weak systems."

MORE EVIDENCE. J. G. Moore, Esq., of the Daily News, in his issue of October 31st, says: "Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters.—We are trying this renowned medicine for a stubborn case of the bowels, and can with truth testify to its efficacy. We have taken the contents of two bottles, and we have derived more benefit from the experiment than we derived previously from years of allopathic treatment at the hands of our first physicians." Hon. C. D. Hineine, Mayor of the city of Camden, N. J., says: "Hoofland's German Bitters.—We have seen many flattering notices of this medicine, and the source from which they came induced us to make inquiry respecting its merits. From inquiry we were persuaded to use it, and must say we found it specific in its action upon diseases of the liver and digestive organs, and the powerful influence it exerts upon nervous prostration, is really surprising. It calms and strengthens the nerves, bringing them into a state of repose, making sleep refreshing. If this medicine was more generally used, we are satisfied there would be less sickness, as from the stomach, liver and nervous system, the great majority of real and imaginary diseases emanate. Have them in a healthy condition and you can bid defiance to epidemics generally. This extraordinary medicine we would advise our friends who are at all indisposed, to give a trial—it will recommend itself. It should, in fact, be in every family. No other medicine can produce such evidences of merit." For sale, wholesale and retail, at the German Medicine Store, No. 120 Arch street, one door below Sixth, Philadelphia, and by respectable dealers generally throughout the country. Also for sale in Franklin by Dr. Charles Rabé, in Pattersonville by Wm. Cissna, and in New Orleans by J. Wright & Co.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, INDIGESTION AND DESTRUCTION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD. Copy of a letter from Mr. John Lloyd, of Brunswick, near Harlech, Merionethshire. To Prof. Holloway: Sir—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period, I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, (Signed) JOHN LLOYD. June 6th, 1852.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY. Extract of a letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8, 1852. To Prof. Holloway: Sir—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skillfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks. (Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY. INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT, WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES. Extract of a letter from Mr. S. Gouven, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14, 1852. To Prof. Holloway: Dear Sir—I am requested by a lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, indigestion, loss of appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of those diseases with no other remedy. (Signed) S. GOWEN. These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints: Ague, Jaundice, Bilious complaints, Blisters on the skin, Bowel complaints, Colic, Constipation of bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, General affections, Worms of all kinds, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Liver complaints, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Retention of urine, Scrophulous or king's evil, Sore throats, Stone and gravel, Secondary symptoms, Tic Dolorous, Ulcers, Venereal affections, Weakness from whatever cause, &c.

CHERRY PECTORAL. For the rapid Cure of COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION. TO CURE A COLD, with Headache and Soreness of the Body, take the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, and wrap up warm, to sweat during the night. For a Cold and Cough, take it morning, noon, and evening, according to directions on the bottle, and the difficulty will soon be removed. None will long suffer from this trouble when they find it can be so readily cured. Persons afflicted with a seated cough, which breaks them of their rest at night, will find, by taking the Cherry Pectoral on going to bed, they may be sure of sound, unbroken sleep, and consequently refreshing rest. Great relief from suffering, and an ultimate cure, is afforded to thousands who are thus afflicted, by this invaluable remedy. From its agreeable effect in these cases, many find themselves unwilling to forego its use when the necessity for it has ceased. From two eminent physicians in FAYETTEVILLE, TENN. APRIL 16, 1851. Sir—We have given your Cherry Pectoral an extensive trial in our practice, and find it to surpass every other remedy we have for curing affections of the respiratory organs. DR. DIEMER & HAMPTON.

PATENT MEDICINE

To Singers and Public Speakers this remedy is invaluable, as by its action on the throat and lungs, when taken in small quantities, it removes all hoarseness in a few hours, and wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice. Asthma is generally much relieved, and often wholly cured by Cherry Pectoral. But there are some cases so obstinate as to yield entirely to no medicine. Cherry Pectoral will cure them, if they can be cured.

Bronchitis, or irritation of the throat and upper portion of the lungs, may be cured by taking Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses. The uncomfortable oppression is soon relieved. Rev. Dr. Lansing, of Brooklyn, New York, states:—"I have seen the Cherry Pectoral cure such cases of Asthma and Bronchitis as lead me to believe it can rarely fail to cure those diseases."

For Croup.—Give an emetic of antimony, to be followed by large and frequent doses of the Cherry Pectoral, until it subsides the disease. If taken in season, it will not fail to cure. Whooping Cough may be broken up (and soon cured) by the use of Cherry Pectoral. The Influenza is speedily removed by this remedy. Numerous instances have been noticed where whole families were protected from any serious consequences, while their neighbors, without the Cherry Pectoral, were suffering from the disease.

Dr. J. C. Ayer—Write to inform you of the truly remarkable effects of your Cherry Pectoral in this place, and in my own family. One of my daughters was completely cured in three days of a dreadful whooping cough, by taking it. Dr. Means, one of our very best physicians, freely states that he considers it the best remedy we have for pulmonary diseases, and that he has cured more cases of croup with it than any other medicine he ever administered. Our clergyman of the Baptist Church says that during the run of Influenza here this season, he has seen cures from your medicine he could scarcely have believed without seeing. Yours respectfully, J. B. SINCLAIR, D. Y. P. M.

From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College. PARKER CLEVELAND, M. D. I have found the Cherry Pectoral, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and coughs, and pulmonary diseases. Brunswick, Me., Feb. 5, 1847. Dr. Valentine Mott, the widely celebrated Professor of Surgery in the Medical College, New York City, says:—"It gives me pleasure to certify the value and efficacy of 'Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,' which I consider peculiarly adapted to cure diseases of the Throat and Lungs."

Cures of severe diseases upon the lungs have been effected by Cherry Pectoral in such extreme cases as warrant the belief that a remedy has at length been found that can be depended on to cure the coughs, colds and consumption which carry from our midst thousands every year. It is indeed a medicine to which the afflicted can look with confidence for relief, and they should not fail to avail themselves of it. Prepared and sold by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

Sold in Franklin by CHARLES RABE; in Pattersonville by Wm. CISSNA; in New Orleans by J. WRIGHT & Co., and by druggists and dealers in medicines everywhere. 39-3m.

Fifty Dollars Reward! RAN AWAY from my Plantation, on Red River, 18 miles above Alexandria, in the State of Louisiana, last spring a year ago, a mulatto or griff colored negro man, about 33 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches high, and weighs about 140 or 150 pounds. He talks slowly and walks in the same way, is quite a good-looking fellow, and has fine sound teeth. His name is AUSTIN, but I hear that he has changed it, and says he belongs to some doctor at Natchitoches. I have reason to believe he is cutting wood for some trifling person near the mouth of Black River, as he arrived there in company with another negro, in the flat they carried away from my ferry. If he went off on any steambot that is not destroyed, and can be held responsible for an act of damages, I will give $2,000 for proof to conviction in open court at Alexandria against any captain, master or commander so allowing or aiding him to make his escape from my boat from my service. I will give the above reward of $50 for said boy, if delivered in any slave State jail, so that I can get him. J. D. ALLEN. Cottle Post Office, Rapides, La.
