Annual Reunion of the Army of Northern Virginia.

At the recent reunion in New Orleans of the survivors of the noble Army of Northern Virginia, residents of our own loved state of Louisiana, Mr. McNamee, chairman of the reunion committee, sang the following beautiful song of his own composition:

"LOUISIANA LOWLANDS." We'll sing to Louisiana, boys, where beauty breaks blue.

"LOUISIANA LOWLANDS." We'll sing to Louisiana, boys, where beauty breaks blue.

OUR SUGARTOWN LETTER.

TACTIC GIVES THE READERS OF THE ECHO HIS VIEWS ON THE BANKING SYSTEM OF THE COUNTRY.

In a recent issue of the Echo you advocate the scheme of establishing a bank at Lake Charles. This is well, and would add much to the business of that flourishing town.

to-day. If the Democratic party which in all probability will soon come into power can not give us a more equitable one they had better wait out to somebody that can. Yours, TACTIC.

GENERAL NEWS.

The first through train from New Orleans to San Francisco was run on the 30th of January.

Judge Zimri Hunt, a noted lawyer of Dallas, Texas, died on the 22d of January, of pneumonia.

Prominent burglar (that's what the Orange Tribune calls them) have been "doing" Orange, Texas.

Mrs. Wm. L. Yanow, widow of the great apostle of accession, died at Athens, Ga., on Saturday last.

Kellogg has voted with the Democrats in his life—when he voted to reduce the duty on bar iron.

The president of Guatemala, Gen. Barrios, tendered his resignation but the assembly refused to accept it by a vote of 20 to 10.

The pope has appointed Monsignor Norfrup bishop of Charleston, and Monsignor Richter bishop of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Marshall (Texas) Messenger has changed hands—Jennings & Bros. sold out to Price & Edmunds. The paper will be enlarged.

Ed. Garrett, a negro wife murderer, was jerked to kingdom come at Texarkana on the 26th ult.—He confessed his crime on the scaffold.

Dick Liddell, who pretends to know so much about Frank James, will be able to furnish bail and appear as a witness in the case against James at Kansas City.

Tennessee Polk's little daughter only amounts to $293,427.25, after all. We can understand what use he made of that big money but that extra 25 cents stamps us—cigars probably.

Don Cameron told Kellogg last Saturday that he would vote for any duty on sugar that he (Kellogg) desired. Cameron says he believes in protecting the Louisiana sugar plant-

Pat Roper and J. W. Flanagan, retail merchants who made an assignment, and failed to mention one of their creditors, were convicted of breach of trust, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary, at Memphis.

At Crawford, McLennan county, Texas, R. F. Baker and L. M. Hopkins, farmers, from Arkansas recently, quarreled and then fought with pistols—Hopkins was killed. Baker claims to have acted in self-defense.

Col. E. D. Baker, a popular army officer, died a few days ago at Fort Van Couver, Washington Territory. He was stationed for a long time as depot quartermaster at San Antonio, Texas, and afterwards at St. Louis.

The new governor of Illinois was a corporal in the Federal army during the war. The supply of generals and colonels must have run out in that state. First thing the people of the stinker state know they will have to fall back on "high pirates" to fill the offices with.

The Boston Globe recently had a fashionable ball written up in style, printed on perfumed paper in the form of an extra, and sold on the hall corners at 1 o'clock at night. The delivery clerks who sold the papers were dressed in full dress suits. The edition was soon exhausted.

A recent survey of the boundary between Texas and New Mexico, shows that many rich mines heretofore supposed to be in New Mexico really belong in Texas, and that lately some very rich mines have been discovered in Texas.

William Dickson, late foreman of the star-route jury, thought the grand jury had refused to take any notice of the case against him for tampering with the jury and gave a dining to a party of select friends. He was too lazy, however, for the jury found a true bill against him all the same.

The comptroller of Texas reports that the net revenue in the state treasury the 1st of January, after paying $125,000 interest, was $775,000. The net assessments this year are $1,375,327.50, being 114 per cent. over 1881, and 1881 was 12 per cent. over 1880. The state is progressing rapidly.

Fifty thousand dollars in gold belonging to the United States, mysteriously disappeared at Panama, not long since, and the government has offered a reward of $10,000 for its recovery. Tennessee Polk or some pious bank president from the United States must be "recreation" in that salubrious clime.

The fellow who swindled a Dallas, Texas, bank out of about $2000, has been captured in Cincinnati and proved to be an old hand at the business. A description of him was sent to the chief of police on a postal card. The Dallas bank officials only recognized the man. Officers started with him for Texas by way of New York. While in New York he got hold of some kind of a greenback with which he threatened the chief of police.
