NOTICE.

ALL persons indebted to the firm of Janin & Caspari, are hereby notified to come forward and settle by note or otherwise. Cotton will be received in settlement of notes and accounts, at the highest New Orleans market price.
JANIN & CASPARI.
Nov. 25 1865.
The above notice has been standing now several weeks, yet, persons don't come forward to settle. We ask only of those who are able to pay, to come forward and do so; those who are not able at present, to come and give us their notes, in order to close their accounts, or renew their old notes. We are not able to pay a collector to get notes for us. We will, therefore, notify all persons indebted to us, that if they don't come forward and settle within 30 days from this date, they will find their accounts or notes in the hands of our lawyers for collection, as we are bound to close our accounts.
