THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

L. DUPLEIX, ED. & PROPRIETOR MRS. MARY E. BRYAN, CC-EDITOR.

PUBLISHED

Rates of Subscription: Per Year, in Advance, 88. Six Months, $4, Agents are allowed Twenty Per Cent on the Rates of Advertising. One Square First Insertion, $1 50. Each Subsequent Insertion, 75 ets.

abore rates.

NATCHITOCHES LA. FEBY. 6, 1867

Chaler, that the Coolies working on the rear of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart his plantation, are good laborers and decorat d with evergreens, immortelles and sober men. They are industrious and garlends of fresh flowers; and each of and full of energy, and perfectly sat- the sad concourse took away with them a the planter's solemn duty to plant of these two recently re-interred heroes and imitators. as much corn as practicable or ne- Gen. Sydney Johnson and Gov. Henry W. Mr. Thompson enumerates some eight of the Country as it will place them the base calamaies by which Envy sought leam's. again under the dependence of the to deprive Gov. Allen of the only reward Thea he homorously containes: West. Not one on FIFTY has made that he coveted, the only reward that was And the Capitol at Washington is along enough to plant this coming cropbesides the means of the Country are more than limited as credit and advances cannot be mentioned this year, and they will be blind enough to follow their ridiculous theory of to follow their ridiculous theory of hardships of war and limbs crippled in battle, designedly set up the negroes after the producing cotton and buying their hardships of war and limbs crippled in battle, designedly set up the negroes after the producing cotton and buying their hardships of war and limbs crippled in battle. corn?" We admit the corn to be was wearing out his life in efforts to serve great nationality. cheaper in New Orleans than it can our enfeebled cause,-to supply the domestic be sold for here—what is the conse- necessities of a suffering people, to meet mil- like a bubble" Mr Thompson 30 quence-if both cotton and corn itary exigencies, arouse latent energy, infuse crops are a failure this year, nothing but ruin will follow such a folly, diery, correct civil and military abuses, recombly that of a done. It seen all done. such a false policy.

of frat people's so peculiarly his.

efforts to restore the demestic prospey particular care of your gardens and discouragement. and orchards-plant trees-they will The greater part of the burden of all vast proportions, the demo wold be a won-

The "Shreveport News," so long nius. welcomed under the name of John Dickinson, was lately sold to Rev. A. L. Hay, whose reputation as a them promptly, with always a pleasant can Nation' expressed wh an impressement good writer and energetic Newspaper Agent is known throughout the and Job printing business.

tions at once, we are preparing one confidently looked forward or more articles on the nationality, customs, way of living, of the chinese &c, -which will be published people settled into sullen despondency, he Avenue, and trefore I caunot conscientious. of a general war.

We publish to-day the admirable tribute of respect and friendship paid by Hon. S. O. Scruggs, that sympothizing kindness, which was cards study in the public buildings in Senator of this Parish, to the lament ed memoir of Hon, Abney, of Bossier. These are neble words,

We are particularly indebted to Mess. Murphy & Harkins, Grand Ecore, for a file of papers from the St. Nicholas.

Thanks to Capt, and officers of steamer Navigator for favors.

already been received and parties employing them are amply satisfied.

The Commercial firm of Goldberg & Levy of their State. is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The interest in said firm will continue the busifelt that this last chapter of his life fould be a cort of compromise between the palness at Dupleix's Old Stand, and is the only be a short one, but he began it cutfully

Last Honors to a Great Man.

Sydney Johnson were removed from the vault in New-Orleans—enclosed in a new colfin—the old one having been broken and share.

The Old Guard? His manuaries as feed whom stands on the top of the tered by that vile robber of the Dead-the and vivacious, his style as sparkling and his dently to consider her one of the Texas, as the State which had best right to which we lost sight of him almost utterly, the great South holds in her keeping.

claim the ashes of a hero, whose memory in our blockaded, Trans-Mississippi condition. We doubt not however, that his phys-On the 27th of last month, took place in ical has changed as little as his mental as New-Orleans the funeral obsequies of that pect,-that he is as youthful in appearance. great and good man-Gen. Henry W. Allen. as smooth of brow, as clear of eye, and with He died in Mexico, far from friends and a smile as child-like in its unconsciousness lishing a series of critical papers upon its in a fervid address, paid a merited culogy days ago, violated the person of Mrs.

But through her fevered brain three meant three means three man three means three man three means three me home-from the country he so passionately and spontaniety, -as when we saw him young and imperfect literature. loved, whose soil had been dyed with his (first and last) in the little parlor of the dear blood, and whose name doubtless lingered old Atlanta Tront House-which, by the longest in his tading conscidusness. But he way, we had entered in considerable trepida-A Liberal Deduction made to Yearly does not sleep among the cartiand aloe blos-Advertisers. Cash, or a satisfactory draft new Orleans, required, by Advertisers lying business out of the State.

See an august personage, with green spectacles surmounting a nose intellectually billious, and so Eagle-bill-like in contour, as to be suggestive of those mertiang business out of the State. may there drop its quiet tears and, in a day birds, to which rumor whispered he was eminently addicted. What a delightful contrast mently addicted. What a delightful contrast his avenging sword, and kneeling, as if at the to the critic ogre of our young imagination altar of Freedom, swear to achieve that na-tional Independance which was the dead hero's dearest dream. The funeral proces-transport of the funeral processing sion was most solumn and imposing. The from eyes clear and pleasant as if they had coffin, draped in black velvet and covered never looked upon any but good and beautiwith garlands and bouquets of beautiful flowers, was borne upon the shoulders of his Vears full of changes have passed since then. of Dixie, schemes for a gradual gobbling thowers, was borne upon the shoulders of his vears full of changes have passed since then. honored friends and comrades. It was pre- and premature wrinkles are stamped erron cially of Fexas, which Mr. Bundy has alhonored friends and comrades. It was pre-and premature wrinkles are stamped upon change of revus, which are family has al-imposes upon ber children. His charac-resoled by the carriages containing the Clergy many brows, but in John R. Thompson's ready divided, like a pie, into four sites.

and followed by a procession of two miles in soul, was the Fountain of perpetual youth with grandiloquent appellations in place out of some granite hill, which by its length, among which were five handred la- which is called Genius-keeping forever green of the dd name, which he tells us has be- unprightness, its devotion and solidity dies on foot, (as a distinguished mark of res- the sweet, youthful sympathy with Nature, come the Synonym of 'penal colony" all mitive beauty and glory in its neighbor-

John R. Thompson in the Capitol.

And freshness of young flowers."

In the February number of the 'Old mouldy. Guard" is a very pleasant, and amusing pament of monthly wages and rations. And in those beautiful tembs, let us bury character, and not perhaps highly appreciable forever all those vile calumnies (calumnies by an audience that grins broadest approval ing is nearly at hand, It becomes by the fame and did wound the noble spirits Brownlow, Josh Billings, and their compects cessary. The high price in cotton Allea. Let us bury at memory of those ten building; as being all upon the gloss has induced many farmers to culti slanderous whispers of coward and traiter, worthy to be named with the Capitol fr vate only that staple, but such a step which wrung the sensitive heart of Johnson magnitude and magnificence, and adds that on their part, is the future rain of and goaded him to his death -all memory of all of these (with one exception) are many-people—a place in the hearts and confidence upon the apex of the dome her angust dage, mas." These slanders were secretly insinuated that with the glittering white marble of the among those who knew him not, while Gov. structure, makes her look so much like a young woman out of the Freedman Bu-Allen, with constitution shaltered by the reau," that is would seem as it thy had

Of the New Dome, which "can the city The impression made upon he ranger by Remember our advise—plant corn, in motion the complex civil military and so-cumbent weight of done. Or leads like plant provisions of all sorts—take a cial machinery, at a time of war, of blockade calling upon the unformed structure "to come out of that dome " Upon a base commensurate with its sourif attitude and which is ever the accompiniament of go- in the great Kotunda, for hich everything else has been sacrificed. The demands on his time, patience and In the great Rotunda M Thompson finds memory were innumerable, but he met one characteristic habit the "great Ameriword and smile (in addition to practical consolation) for the distressed widow. This is the tobacco chaing and quid squirt-In its valedictory, Mr. Dickinson, informs his former patrons that he remaining at the head of the Book limited and talents in the bimself-his purse, his time and talents the limited and talents of the Book limited and tal were for his country, and when active duries were over, his brain was busy re daily made on this spikest. It and the country and when active duries were over, his brain was busy re daily made on this spikest. It and formulated the country and when active duries were over, his brain was busy re daily made on this spikest. It will not be surprised to learn at any ment that the Country and when active duries were over, his brain was busy re daily made on this spikest. It ing every applicant, however humble, with dom from deement, but one may reasonathat distinguishing courtesy-or rather bly object the mandatory style of the pla-Washingt Use the Spittons." Observe, cers are increasing to such an extent, safest of landed property in the State) spitol and who had given utterance to a tion to the inevitable, and to industries pression of his political opinions. He says: Waving a discussion of the Presidential policy which this remark seemed clearly to invite, I ventured to ask some explanunder igned having purchased the Goldberg life with his wonted hopeful energy He me, which seemed in its background to person authorized to collect the debts and by editing, for his support, a pay called the Mexican Times. He mad its collect Morris, and perhaps some others umns the outlet for all the exufant viresented in company with several partial-nests right agin the painting, and the John R. Thompson—the elegant writer and General Washington in the blue cont. rattered ashes of their illustrious children. lecturer—the accomplished Editor and the few weeks ago, the remains of Albert best Critic the South has produced has the control of the tommyhawk (the artist had here A few weeks ago, the remains of Albert best Critic the South has produced—has re- worked in a goddess bearing the Roman fin-the old one having been broken and shat- - The "Old Guard." His manner is as fresh eddilist the old gentleman appeared evi-WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY. human jackail—Butler—and transported to wit as keen as in the unite bellum days, since utes at Large); the other female, a blow-tier which head how right to which we lost sight of him almost attoriv.

able writers in America. In his capacity as to communicate a copy of these resolutions to critic, be has no superior, since the death of the family of the deceased. Edgar Poe. He could not do the South, he loves so well, a better service than by pub-B.

The Loyal Thirty Ninth.

The Loyal Thirty-Ninth are busy with tion of power by the "imperialistic" Congress, exaltation of the negro, punishment of the "nurderous barbarians" as they was thrown man bis own resources and datteringly denominate us poor denizens became the architect of his own fortune. The R of Dixie, schemes for a gradual gobbling He was born for the grandest duties which Chinese Labors.

We are informed by Mr. Arthur

We are informed by Mr. Arthur

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession of the procession. The tomb was ings, that possess and impart

The content of the procession of the p

PLANT CORN.—The tine for plant—from Southern tongues) which sought to sulwould she have given over her manager of forts to hatch a line kiln, had she not been musings.

We yield with becoming humanity to cept tropical fruits. The water powers of the property of t would she have given over her landable of utter desolation over the thoughts "that enough corn last season—not even left for his long, unwearied exertions for the whitened sepadehre, for they have by lied in prodigious threes—and brought whitened sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious threes—and brought whitened sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious threes—and brought whitened sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious threes—and brought corn has the covered, the covered, the covered that he covered the covered three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious threes—and brought corn has the covered three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious threes—and brought corn has the covered three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious threes—and brought corn has the covered three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for the sepadehre, for they have by right valed in prodigious three sepadehre, for they have by right valed in pr

DRUNKEN LADIES.

In New York City, on New Year's Day the day when the fashionable world pays visits and trite compliments, and imbibes Egg Nog and Champagne-the Ladies of the hant ion were many of them drunk upon the streets-some, say the papers, staggeri g and caught by policemen, while grou s of young ladies-laughing loudly, tify mistakes, encourage enterprise, and keep ing lato the earth beneath the superint ca kling and screaming-hilariously tight like |-could be met on every street.

A pretty picture for that city of sancti- 1867, at 12 M. fication, where the Divines talk to the Almighty as if he was a first consin of theirs re-pay you amply for your troubles and besides the happiness will be again at your door.

this fell upon this one man. He worked drous object, indeed; but it wasts the old and suggest to him what he had better do Capitol of thirty years ago, by its hugeness, and the idea of dome is plominant until fresh, bouyant, inspiring enthusiasm the stranger enters the portraint stands with aries down here to civilize the white Southern heathens in benighted Rebeldom. We advise them to keep at home, if they can do any good there. We dont knew any dark corner in this region where the "c vilizing" process is more needed than among themselves.

The Eastern Question.

are daily made on this subject. In and Country, and to aid them in work-Greece and the whole power of Russia view of answering to all communica- ing out the independance, to which he tioz of tobacco chaing at any period short of combined, in which event the power of that "good time ching" when all is to be the su tan will shake to its center, if it be When the clouds that hung around our made right in thuorning, and every body may awaken western Europe to the nepolitical horizon, grew darker, and the is to live in a bwn stone house on Fifth cessity of averting it even at the expense The aurora of liberty propries structured into suffice despondency, he only redoubled his energy, and remained hopeful and zealous as before—still meet-been taken preserve our Temple of Free-gleans with burnished sabres.

Avenue, and metric redunds constantions again flashes a fitful light upon the minarets of Constantinople. Again Athens gleans with burnished sabres.

European Political Rumors.

We have to mention, without comment When it was all over, and his beloved the imperive mood. It is not do not spit on the probability of its truth or falsecountry was surrendered to her enemies on the ar," but "Use the Spittoons," ad- hood, a current report in Europe that this heroic spirit, which had remained dressed all the world, and commanding the coolness between France and Prussia this heroic spirit, which had remained dressed all the world, and commanding is on the increase. It is particularly bopeful to the last, felt the shock with every oner, whether he wishes or not with said that the king of Hanover, the elector terrible in ensity-He could not endure out refd to his personal habits in the use of Hesse, and the duke of Nassau-sovterrible intensity—He could not endure the thought of witnessing the enemy's friumphant occupation of his State, and with an impulse of prond bitterness he resolved to fly to some other country, in which to spend the short residue of a life be felt to be near its end. Giving up all steamer Navigator for favors.

Which to spend the short residue of a life be felt to be near its end. Giving up all the little fortune he possessed (which coners are increasing to such an extent, alto, of landed property in the State).

The demands for white labor-the little fortune he possessed (which coners are increasing to such an extent, alto, of landed property in the State). at our office, that it is our daty to he turned into his sad exile, leaving with it is malice about "Andy" - (It is the dead with the court, and that the king, a tol-Count Bismarck, notwithstanding all that appoint a special to attend to such the people of his country that beautiful ist of the Seven-ins for one of the "Dominant enable soldier but by no means a statespublished benediction—so full of the year party? to say "the President.") Mr. Thomphing of unutterable love and sorrow wisely counseling them to quiet resign of his political opinions. He says:

| The people of his country that beautiful isst of the Seven ins for one of the "Dominant erable soldier but by no means a states man, believes that his late successes were did very largely to his army and very largely to his army and very slightly to his able minister. The state of Count Bismarck's health is anxiously largely instanced in the Territories, was sent to the White House on the judgement for $105.00, and executes the of Count Bismarck's health is anxiously 12th inst., and the President can same, all parties being Americans, he has watched in Germany. His disease (a swelling of the veins of the head and neck), attacks him when he works at his In Mexico, he took up the burd of ation of the wonderous allegory above his labors, and may drive hem into temofficial duty, leaves him when he relaxes The Colorado and Nebraska bills he his labors, and may drive hom into temperature the his labors, and have the his labors the his labors. porary and even permanent retirement. Then his royal master would probably be made to feel his value.

MAXIMILIAN'S COINS.

February 6, 1867.

W30d

TOPlanters and Others.

LABORERS! LABORERS!

Laborers at the first side of the contract was night free years a doing on the res, that if they desire to procure for their relating of the first side that work and they are wings to that saking, rapid the errs, that if they desire to procure for their relating to early at this office and they can got Laborers at the shortest notice. Germans

The Max Collector Republic, were represented in company with several partially dressed young ladies and two or there asked to company with several partially dressed young ladies and two or there asked to some of the infernal gods.

The New York Numismatic society are making themselves merry about a silver dollar issued by Maximilian, empeor of delar issued by Maximilian, empeor of the search which is so drawn in the soft on exhibition in that the soft of the infernal gods.

The New York Numismatic society are making themselves merry about a silver in every about a silver in circulation in that the same of the freshed to the sum of five or three dollar issued by Maximilian, empeor of the leaven. The New York Numismatic society are making themselves merry about a silver in every dollar issued by Maximilian, empeor of the same than the sum of five or three dollar issued by Maximilian, empeor of the same than the solution in that the sour on the sour making themselves merry about a silver in the

Dr. Seruggs Address.

Mr. Egan offered a resolution in reference to the death of Mr. Abney, late senator from the district comprising the parishes of on his farm, about four miles from Bossier, Bienville, Claiborne and Wian, The resolution was as follows: WHEREAS, We have learned with profound regret the death of the Hon, A. A. Abney, Late a member of this body, from the district composed of the parishes of Bosster, Clai-one hundred dollars per bushel.

Resolved. That the secretary be instructed per cent to the revenue fund.

Resolved. That, as a mark of respect to the deceased, the Senate do now adjourn.

Dr Scruggs seconded the resolution and be supplied by the miserable Rebels, who I never knew a purer or bett r man, firmare fit for nothing but to be taxed.

are fit for nothing but to be taxed.

The declaring that in an the relations of the number of them took the prisoners of the prisoners of the prisoners of the prisoners of the number of them took the number of the me when I rejoiced, and to weep with me the discipline of adversity exacts, for the sternest self-sacrifices which misfortune might act as a guide and landmark of pri schemes that engage the wasortoose wasortoose wasortoose wasortoose wasortoose congregated, for the good of the nation—in the "City of magnificent"—— tions, and a stern grandeur or spira, or tered into, and were beautifully blended in his mental and physical constitution. His pure, unsulfied christian heart was eighty to ninety thousand bales.

vailed in prodigious threes-and brought Acacia around the tombs of their sainted ries, etc. Among intelligent classes ers over the graves of their dead legislators; but let us adopt the lines of the poet, as equally, if not more expressive of courage emigration from the North our feelings:

"Green be the turf above thee, Friend of our better days, None knew thee but to love thee, None named thee but to praise.

ing, From eyes unused to weep; And long where thou art lying Shall tears the cold turf steep."

The resolution was then unanimously o morrow, Wednesday, January 30th.

Radical Reports from Washington.

Under date of the 19th and 20th. the Cincinnati Gazette has the fold lowing special telegraphic communications from Washington :

to get at the correspondence which all hands, from editor to devil, two took place between the President and weeks to read the proof, and it Gov. Swann, just previous to the wasn't his good day for setting type, last election in Maryland, relative to either. sending troops to Baltimore to interfere in the Police Commissioners' difficulty. The Maryland Legislature refused yesterday to ask Gov. Swan for a copy of this correspondence.

Alleged Southern Offers of Compromise.—The Governor of South in the matter, we shall not enter into a Alexander H. Stephens will soon hold views opposed to those of "Close Obarrive, and that they are seeking to server" to express them. The communidefeat all disfranchising clauses in cation is published verbatim et literatim the reconstruction measures, by pro- In the Times of the 30th. No. 33, in an posing on the part of the South that Congress shall have power to establish a universal rule of suffrage for the South that the South on the Legislature, to abolish the Judicial Advertisements in the French language in this Parish, the Times anticipate an animated debate. How the country, and that the South on to deprice our friends of their just rights, agreeing to this, shall at once be is a question propounded to the Parties.

Mr. Seward's Foreign Policy.—
The resolution moved in the Senate

Mr. Seward's Foreign Policy.—
The resolution moved in the Senate

Mr. Seward's Foreign Policy.—
The resolution moved in the Senate

Mr. Seward's Foreign Policy.—
The resolution moved in the Senate

Mr. Seward's Foreign Policy.—
The resolution moved in the Senate

Mr. Seward's Foreign Policy.—
The polic the is particularly by Mr. Sumner, calling for the cortake of Nassau—sov.

The proprietor of the Times, by examining his Ledger, can see at a glance, that the image of Nassau—sov.

The proprietor of the Times, by examining his Ledger, can see at a glance, that the image of Nassau—sov. signed his post as Minister to Aus-people, to suit the times, locations, and claring his purpose regarding them. can keep till next week Tuesday.

In a certain Sabbath school the superintendent made a powerful appeal to the scholars to be active and The Tax Collector seizes property for North Carolina.

Charlotte, a rich vein of gold. At a depth of thirteen feet, he found a nugget weighing 30 pennyweights. She lies upon the dungeon floor,—
The ore is said to be worth about Swathed in her night black hair, borne, Bienville and Winn; therefore,

Resolved. That the members of the Senate has declared a dividend of 10 per cent, for six months, and carried 5 She dare not move her fettered feet

The Newbern Commercial, of the 12th, records the following fearful lynching affair:

A white man three negroes, a few to the memory of the late senator, who F. X. Miller of Green county, during Unshadowed by the pall of doomhad been his friend through life from its the absence of her husband. They Mr, President-In rising to second the were arrested, as already announced esolutions of the gentleman from Clai- in this paper, and committed to jail borne (Mr. Egan) I assure you, sir, that for trial, The feelings of the people The Loyal Thirty-Ninth are busy with their absurd bils and noisy discussions—their absurd bils and noisy discussions—consuming quantities of atmospheric oxygen and whiskey per diem, to say nothing gen and whiskey per diem, to say nothing gen and whiskey per diem, to say nothing of public money—though that can always declaring that in all the relations of life number of them took the prisoners number of them took the prisoners Gems burn the arms, unsullied snow

The Charlotte Democrat thinks that And watch for with a guilty glow; the North Carolina Supreme Court will decide stay laws to be unconsti-

The Raleigh Progress says that the demands on the merchants of To the strange power those eyes reveal-Wilmington for guanoand other im- The scorn and fenderness, who e seal ported fertilizers is so great, that the agents in Wadesboro' find it difficult She gave him all that woman canto supply the orders for that section.

A Raleigh correspondent of the She would have walked with him through eighty to ninety thousand bales. She They seem to be enjoying their little as St. Chrysostom beautifully calls eavy. Corn and tobacco crops fair; wheat, any amount of labor will be performed by them provided the contracts passed carried are out to the letter, and particularly that about the payment of monthly wages and rations.

So, the South honors her great Dead, in the per "The Capitol at Washington" contributed by John R. Thompson—with occasional flashes of his bright, pelished wit—a wit, and particularly that about the payment of monthly wages and rations.

So, the South honors her great Dead, in the game of pulling things to pieces, for they large the murdered and contracts and the living, breathing things to pieces, for they large the murdered and contracts and the living, breathing in the per "The Capitol at Washington" contributed per "The Capitol at Washing paintance, who set upon a lime rock and a piece of broken crockery until she was literary a least of hones and feathers mer literary a least of hones and least lea Stokes and Rockingham.

The soil is adapted to the growth of all sorts of grain and fruits, ex No; it is gone - it leaves her now of Bank's starvelings in the celebrated "Cotton Raid."

We yield with becoming sumanity to the fiat of the great I Am That I Am. Of tentimes in the dewy morn or at twilight's sacred, silent hour, will his friends repair mencing at Weldon, on the Roanoke This Congress is bound to batch someto that spot so beautifully called by an thing before it stops. All this fass is surely not for nothing. But then to be sure love. Mr. President the ancient Phoenilove. Mr. President Phoenilove. Mr. Pre the mountain of the fible, roared and tra. eight planted the thorny, but perennial from the North to erect mills, factodead-the ancient Remans strewed flow- a commendable effort is manifested. The awful Day-that comes-her last to allay sectional prejudice, and enbut of course, there are others who unwisely manifest a different spirit.

> Brick Pomerov has found it neces sary to put a stop to the Leavy "Tears were shed when thou wert dy- stories about fast compositors, and But still she hears the crowd's deep scoff; he does it in the following style:

fice the friction of whose movements over the type in his stick fuses them adopted, and the Senate adjourned to meet solid like stereotype plate. The on Swing the scared soul beyond the scape ly way to prevent this is to have his ase submerged in water, and the ra- | She starts-amid that sea like throng pidity of his motions keeps the water boiling and bubling so that eggs | He comes to gloat on ber dispair! have frequently been boiled in the space box. Pipes lead from the bot-Her focing fails—black grows the air! tom of his case to a boiler in the press room, and the steam generated by our fast compositor's motions The Next Movement.—It is proba-couns the power press. In one day the "set" so much type that it took Would she might be there ever more! ble that an effort will be made next he "set" so much type that it took

COMMUNICATION.

Below we publish the communication of "Close Observer," on the subject of Ju. dicial Advertisements. Being interested Carolina is here. It is said that discussion, and simply invite others who circumstances. This Parish contains about Bills Awaiting Signature.—The 1200 citizens, all can speak the English bill providing for the assembling of citizen in this Parish if he can read at the Fortieth Congress on the 4th of all; he reads the English, and therefore keep both till Thursday before de- to pay from $25, to $45, to the printer for two languages, and in most casses, pro-

A poor widow and orphans, oppen cession for five or six hundred dollars more or less! she has to pay $50, or $75, useful, and among other things he the sum of five or ten dollars, the prinbar, a nuisance to the officers of the court ington once posted on his dining-

"What does this mean?" asked and an unnecessary expense to the citi- room door the following notice : Laborers at the shortest notice. Germans the sword. The bray tender hopeful least one fellot the weight of the sword. The bray tender hopeful least one fellot the weight of the sword. The bray tender hopeful least one fellot the weight of the sword. The bray tender hopeful least one fellot the weight of the astonished superintendent.

It is notice and they can get the fingers that once fellot the weight of the sword. The bray tender hopeful least of our Parish, which accomplishes no good, and the evil ought to be remed ed find our Parish, as stated, in the petition alleredy signed by a Respectable and Instance I am with thirteen cars behind the condexy have most to do in ornamentating them.

It is native soil.

It is native soil.

It is native soil.

It is native soil the weight of the weight of the weight of the sword. The bray tender hopeful deasilver in circulation, for our coins have deasilver in circulation, for our coins have deasilver in circulation, for our coins have from our Parish, which accomplishes no good, and the evil ought to be remed ed from our Parish, which accomplishes no good, and the evil ought to be remed ed from our Parish, which accomplishes no good, and the evil ought to be remed ed from our Parish, as stated, in the petition allready signed by a Respectable and Instance I am with thirteen cars behind the condition of the evil ought to be remed ed from our Parish, which accomplishes no "Why," answered the boy, "you good, and the evil ought to be remed ed from our Parish, which accomplishes no "Why," answered the boy, "you good, and the evil ought to be remed ed from our Parish, which accomplishes no our Parish and the deality of the account of the acco

CLOSE OBSERVER.

POET'S CORNER.

For the Natchitoches "Times." The night before the Execution.

BY MARY E BRYAN.

She does not pray, she does not weep; Dispair is still, when it is deep And knows not mean or prayer.

To stamp in frenzy's might; She fears the clanking chain to hear, It rouses phantoms full of fear In the dead, silent sight.

So mute and motionless she lies, — A bright and glittering train. Within the gorgeons pleasure halls

She sweeps—a festal queen; White curves her proud neck-jewel bound Dark wreathes her tresses plume encrown--Stately, yet soft her mien.

-Now rusty fetters bide,
And he had clasped them kneeling low With the proud grace she learned to know She-she, another's bride His soft, dark eyes shine on her now-

Is the rare, changeful smile. Sarrendered him her soul-

—Eyes made but to beguile— She feels her own proud spirit kneel

She had done for him-what-Oh God! The haunting herror comessees the Dead-the murdered Dead How plain the spectre looms

Calm, sad but full of doom— She feels that it foretells the fate, That-past the rope and scaffold-wait B fore the yawning tomb. She can not bear it : she must scream

Though all the fields awake-With the cold sweat upon her brow And limbs that cramp and quake

But what is day to her !

Herror congeals her blood Wild shouts and curses fill her ears A sea of faces turns to bers And, what is this, that clasps, that stirs! The Tope! the rope! Oh God.

It tighten's, chekes !-- No. it is but A coil of clamny heir; She flings it like a serpent off. Still those dark ranks appear

We have a compositor in this of- A thousand cold, unpitying eyes Turn to her standing there, Intent to see the horrid repe Throttling to e finttering life and hope

> One face a henzy brings, Just God! She swings! she swings.

She falls upon the dangeon floor Nor wake for sun or moon.

But she will wake from that deep rest To hear the hammer's sound Upon her scaffold's lofty hight, And she will go, all cold and white And act the vision of to-night Before the gazing crowd.

> For the Natchitoches Times. BABY.

> > To Allie Burdett A

BY W. H. T.

Sweet dimpled chin, And lang ing eyes, Whose azure depths, Mock Summer skies. Thy joyou- smile, Like sunny beam, Or rippling wave, O'er placid stream.

The rosy hue, On velvet cheeks, Like crimson morn Thy health bespeaks, In every limb, Soft beauty mould's, Like spring time bud, Its form unfolds.

Ah! beauteous babe, Around thee clings, Pure fancy, bright As scraph's wings. Prayers, deep love, Around thee fold, From mother's heart. With strength untold.

No gloomy clouds. Above thee gather; No darkness tells, Life's stormy weather. All snow white may, From youth to ago, Thy record be, A stainless page.

A mother's love, Shields thee with care, From every breath Of chilling air. Twill gently guide, Thy footsteps light, Amid life's dark And starless night.

Oh! happy babe! Oh! mother young! We bless you now; With simple song, Above thy barks. May brilliant shine, Li'e's joyous hopes Down stream of time.

An old hotel keeper in Wasirhard to tell one from the other.'